UG SOUVENIR 2020

Dear Golden Jubilee building,
As I take a maiden glance
Of this dome of education,
Or abode of knowledge
As echoed round the globe,
I see, engraved with elegance
on its red façade
Audaciously bold, the name
That would hold our fortune
for the forthcoming four and all the eons thereafter.
And when I pick a peek
Beyond the buildings,
Amidst the verdant verdure
I see you standing tall
For me to look up to thy valor.

Your colossal frame rising so high
For the sky too limits none,
None of your radiating grandeur.
And I hear you beckon from behind
Inciting me to dream big,
And fly high without fright
With those wings bold as thy beams,
Unshaken, undaunted
by even the worst winds.
And I stand at your threshold
Admiring every brick of bravery,
Held together beautifully
For me to take a glance again
And yet another
To drench my soul with thy inspiration

- A freshman, NIT Rourkela 2016

Beginning of the end...

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

In the 59 years history of this great center of learning, the National Institute of Technology Rourkela, we have witnessed umpteen transitions, advancing in technology and innovation, contributing masters in diverse arenas. At this moment, when yet another academic year is coming to an end, one more batch of alumni is moving out to the domain of industry, academia or public service. No matter where you go, I am sure you will carve a mark for yourselves and for your alma mater.

You have spent the best years of your life here at the National Institute of Technology Rourkela, building a home away from home, learning skills that will give you a means of earning a livelihood as well as bringing up unimagined possibilities of serving a million other humans. Today, I am honored to say, we are proud of your many achievements over the years, your various accomplishments in all curriculum and extra curriculum activities. Your brilliant achievements are indeed acknowledged and your sweet memories will forever remain in our hearts.

As you leave this Institution, expect that some challenges await you, which of course, I strongly believe going by your antecedents and the manner you have conducted yourselves over the years, you will surely overcome them. I am sure, whatever you do, you will carry the ethical standards and ideology of your alma mater. On behalf of the entire faculty and staff of NITR, it is my pleasure to wish each one of you a bright and highly productive future.

With best wishes to one and all.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Dear fellow graduands,

It is finally here! Now, you are probably in denial, clinging to your sepia-tinted soothing flashbacks of the your transition from freshmen to now an alumnus of the institute as it knocks on the door - your graduation. It is intensely emotional under any circumstance. It is an achievement that came after so many moments, growing up stronger and brighter each time you were consumed by self-doubt, and you deserve to wallow in pride for it. However, in your unique circumstances, you are graduating amid a world upended by a pandemic, robbed of those warm tight hugs and those difficult goodbyes. Hence, this is a gift, to you, from yourself - your own Souvenir, in celebration of all that you stand for - resilience, perseverance and optimism in the face of everything that comes in the way.

When you are flipping through this book, in some distant future in which you have prevailed and flourished, we hope it brings a smile to the corner of your lips. It might become a chuckle or a blush as you see those inside embarrassing nicknames, jokes and anecdotes, mentioned in the entries that you have painstakingly written for people that 'meant the world' for you at NIT Rourkela. We hope it reminds you of the classes you attended (or missed most probably) at 8:00 AM cursing the institute, or the unhealthy number of chai breaks in between for everything from latest campus gossip to brainstorming ideas for clubs and startups. Soaring new heights in your career, you will most certainly remember the passionate hours you spent over your extracurricular activities, for which you felt so profoundly despite no remuneration at all. Most of all, it might also bring a tear of joy, as you see all those faces of people whose wrinkled eyes would still twinkle at the vivid memories of the pranks you pulled, the silly tears you shed, the people you crushed upon, the blurry nights of celebration and 'GPLs' received as you became the 'Official Bada Loka' with your first job offers and prestigious admits in life. Quite uniquely, you all will also leave with the hilarious memories of struggles of online classes, presentations & viva (which a lot of people had considerable difficulty muting & unmuting)! We know that NIT Rourkela will always be your home, and all of you it's prodigal sons and daughters.

This precious book, is the result of the efforts of 5 coordinators, 27 editors, 6 content members, 7 photographers and 4 designers, along with about 700+ students of the batch of 2016-2020/21, who poured their heart in not only writing entries for their friends but also in sending pictures of NIT Rourkela's most unique memories which you can find in this book. Needless to say, this book has seen the light of day only because of the endless support of the Vice Presidents of the Literary and Cultural Society - Prof. Sambit Bakshi and Prof. Upendra Gundala, SAC President - Prof. Seemita Mohanty, the entire SAC fraternity and most of all, the honourable director Prof. Animesh Biswas.

Here's hoping the hardships & hardwork that went into making this book offline & 'online' is loved by you all.

Thank You NIT Rourkela and Batch of 2016-2020/21,
Warm Regards
Team UG Souvenir 2020.

PLANNING AND ARCHITECTURE

Growing up in the 90's there was this bunch of self-occupied kids who sat with themselves either stacking lego blocks to make towers at home or making sand castles at the beach. They were the ones whose models at the school science fair attracted the most crowd & their projects were first in the line of display at Art & Crafts Exhibition. From dictating the layout and terms of their bedroom to their parents, to transforming spaces & cities with their acquired acumen, some of these kids later came together at the Department of Planning & Architecture to make this world a better place.

CLASS OF 2020

NEHAL SINGH

115AR0027 #artist #extracurricular #booze #traveller

A gypsy soul, a charming personality and an artist at heart, Nehal Singh sure knows how to leave an impression. You'd probably know him as 'Drogba' and not Nehal. The name has stuck ever since first year as he would play football with anyone on the field while sporting his DROGBA jersey. The friendly and easy-going nature which started from the football field has only grown leaps and bounds just like his love for all things 'organic'. From ethnic to formal, he can rock any outfit in his signature curly-haired and round sunglasses look. From romanticizing literature in his own words (writing, poetry, singing and composing) to sketching and designing, he is an artist in the true sense. A pure hearted soul, his innocence and honesty flow out through his work. His idea of a quality time is to chill with his OG group of friends, soothed by good music through the 'highs' and 'lows' of life. Hailing from the city of Agra, this amicable guy is someone who enjoys the little pleasures of life and is tailor made to have 3am heart to heart conversations with. He has tried out everything you can possibly imagine doing at college. He has given hour-long monologues under the influence of "spirits", explaining why he has given up on the fairer kind. But he will waste no time in going back to his quest for true love once his hangover has subdued. A fast learner with his head full of dreams, he is one gem of a friend who does not only have a big heart but also knows what it takes to follow it. Wishing this "Banjara Bairaagi" an artistically successful life ahead.

HARITHA BHARATH

115AR0004 #chutki #Mathematikks #GMAT #artist #extracurricular

If ever you want to forget about everything that's going on in your life and be with someone who calms you down, Haritha Bharath is the person to go to. Better known as 'Lyada Batak', 'Harry', 'Bharat Maata' and 'Chutki', her characteristic habits and rituals are as adorable, weird and wide-ranging as her nicknames. She'll feed you chocolates and write you little motivating notes on days you don't feel like yourself. She'd even drink ORS for fun. And you can sign her up for tasting every sort of new non-vegetarian dish there is on the block. NIT Rourkela has seen this jovial and funny person evolve from a shy and reserved girl in her first year to attaining great leadership skills in the years that unfolded. Be it coming forward for the department as the USEC, or coming up with new ideas as the Design Co-ordinator at Monday Morning or representing the insti at NASA (India), she dedicates more than 100 percent of what is being demanded of her, adding her own creative touch along the way. However, it remains a mystery to this date how this real-life procrastinator, who has a tendency to sleep off just before the deadline, ends up topping the semester. Her greatest strength lies in being a confident but down-to-earth person at the same time, a sharp brain with a kind heart, if you will. It doesn't take a genius to guess that Haritha is a dog lover, given that her wallpaper and probably the last video call she had was with her dog, Tom. She is a child at heart who finds joy in the simplest of things and loves to capture the same in her lens. We hope life gives her beautiful surprises and adventures at every step she takes ahead in life.

SURDEEP MAHANTA

115AR0007 #GarbageCollector #movieSupplier #StinkyPits

Surdeep Mahanta is the epitome of patience and calmness. In these five years here at NITR, no one in the batch has ever seen him lose his calm or composure even in the toughest of situations, be it working overnight in the studio or impending deadlines, and that is saying something! It is due to this virtue of his, he is known amongst many to handle every situation smartly and cautiously. Better known as Aman, Surri or Soorma, this hardworking, dedicated and focused boy is no short of a nerd. No matter what the circumstances are, he will complete the given task to him with his full efficiency in time. Once this workaholic gets absorbed into his work, you can neither straighten his frown nor can you get him up on his feet while he is engrossed in his work. However, his basic nature tends to be more helping than competitive and that is what sets him apart. Our batch would nominate him for the ambassador of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, as every time any one of us littered the place in his presence he would stare right back at the person with a strange peculiar poker face which will make them reconsider their actions. Contrary to this, Surdeep spends the least amount of time on personal hygiene and self-grooming. All our sarcastic comments through the years have failed to change him in that regard. He is quite the womaniser with a sweet smile and chocolate boy personality which help him maintain a great equation with his love interest(s). 'Samosa and fish' are known to get a biased treatment from this foodie. And he has the weirdest selection of caller tunes. Jokes aside, Surdeep is an excellent listener and always has something insightful to add to the conversation.

AUROSUREE PANDA

115AR0011 #Aurochee #beautywithhbrain #artist

"Work till the flaws become fines" best defines this diligent perfectionist. Unarguably the erudite persona of the Architecture department, Auroshree Panda, is an epitome of perfection. Popularly known as 'Auro', this girl is someone who does justice to 'Beauty with Brains'. She's bold, honest and competitive with a pair of big beautiful eyelashes most girls would be envious of. From the freshmen year itself, this hard-working and dedicated girl has never failed to leave people astounded with her architectural masterpieces and calligraphy skills. And throughout these five years, Auro has been on a constant mission to find the logic behind each and everything. Her responsible virtue and work ethics bagged her the post of Treasurer for Society of Students of Planning and Architecture (SSPA) at NITR. She's not afraid of speaking up and keeping her point, and people trust her to finish whatever she has started. Well, the only thing she dislikes is being ordered to do things and the whole batch knows that because you can see it right on her face as she is someone who talks with a million facial expressions. She truly is a walking theatre and a delightful person to be with. She is a good listener and an even better dancer. But besides all that, she has a kind golden heart that is always ready to lend a helping hand to her near and dear ones. As warm as her heart, she always maintains a comfy bed at the luxurious corner of her room, which fascinates people to shun work and enjoy a sweet slumber. This shopaholic person enters the shop with a plan to buy a single item but often ends up buying almost half the shop. May this genius architect, foodie and cat-lover unlatch the gate to a bright future soon.

ASWINI KUMAR PUSTI

115AR0013 #Entrepreneur #LazyAF #Extracurricular

Aswini, better known as Pusti and AAKP (a name given to him by himself) is the secretly notorious and creative one. In general, he's a soft-spoken guy; so soft-spoken that you might actually have to lend an ear in a group conversation just to be able to listen to him. However, as they say, "Don't judge a book by its cover", this guy has shenanigans only his dear ones know of. Aswini is a down-to-earth, kind and yet somehow troubled soul you'll find on the campus. He's always willing to help you till your problems are sorted out, but in the process, would forget to set his own life straight. He takes pleasures in the simplest of things. With his recent affection and enthusiasm for cooking, he has stirred up some pretty delicious bowls of goodness with whatever is available to him in his room. And that sure includes some chicken, now that he is a full-time proud non-vegetarian. His timetable is as unpredictable and confused as the girls in his life. Aswini sure leaves no stone unturned when it comes to impressing a woman. And while you'll find most architecture students engrossed in the routine assignment-submission life, one will find Aswini staying up late night researching potential areas of start-up. He has entrepreneurship in his blood and is forever hungry for new ideas. He is a good listener and will have the best advice in the world for you if you ever need him. He is a diehard fan of the Bollywood industry, and there have been times when he was the only guy watching the Odia movie in the theatre! Jokes apart, this Entrepreneur-cum-Architect is a real gentleman and surely a friend worth cherishing for a lifetime. We wish he achieves everything he desires and deserves.

SANIVARAPU SRIHARSHA REDDY

115AR0015 #onepluskaCEO #amazon's best costumer #fitnessfreak #traveller

Harsha is the "chalta firta google of our batch". This Optimus Prime fanboy is a know-it-all when it comes to new tech, gadgets and fitness. Once his prof tried to pronounce his full name, Sanivarapu Sriharsha Reddy, and accidentally opened a portal to hell. Ever since, everyone calls him by his name 'Harsha'. His way to go about life is "No BS, precise and accurate", be it his FAST-paced 'regular' conversations, walk or presentation delivery. No wonder he's the first person to walk out of the examination hall, irrespective of the type of exam. To him, time-management and punctuality is key. Trading 'Egg rolls and coke at Hex' for green tea and protein shake, we have seen him transform from a fluffy 'golumolu' guy in his initial years at NITR to a surprisingly fitter and smarter version of himself towards the final year. His fitness journey so far is nothing short of an inspiration. His determination and discipline are unquestionable. He religiously follows his pre-planned schedule and gets frustrated if things don't go as per his plan. Temper has never been Harsha's best suit anyway, even our Architecture faculty knows it. This self-proclaimed gym trainer is also a Badminton enthusiast. Not only does he have a profound interest in travel, but also an eye for travel photography, which his Instagram is a proof of. You can talk to him about any movie or series and chances are he'd have watched that. He takes great pride in the short time series finishes. A proud Nagpurian and an ardent dog lover, he can be spotted feeding biscuits to the dogs near 'Chai ki tapri'. We hope he continues to stick to his healthy lifestyle as he takes yet another step forward to creating his best life.

ROHIT SONOWAL

115AR0018 #Partnerincrime #KhatiAxomiya #Kela #Sono

Hailing from the land of The Seven Sisters, Rohit Sonowal is 'The Big Daddy' of the Northeast Zone. His hefty built and sturdy calves sure compliment that title and would put even the gym freaks to shame. An evil genius behind an innocent face, he can get away with anything with his puppy eyes. A true 'Apple-person' and a techie, he knows everything there is to know about the latest gadgets and softwares. Contrary to his interest in everything latest, he does swear by some good Old (monk) classics. In the studio, he is the one who thinks 'International' and comes up with some of the most creative designs in the batch. Not only that, he can produce volumes of work in a surprisingly short amount of time. Renders, views and aesthetics in general are his areas of expertise and he is more than happy to help his juniors with their work. His juniors, who call him by the name 'Sonowal Bhai' will go on and on about how his caring attitude has bridged the Senior - Junior gap and how his fatherly presence makes them feel at home anytime they feel homesick. However, this guy is found more on the periphery of the campus than in the studio, and is always down for a party. Because a little 'organic' stuff never hurts anyone. With one of the largest network of friends at NITR, he sure is the best wingman anyone would ask for. It is not everyday one comes across a person as hardworking and devoted to his work as him. His determination and work ethic are truly commendable and despite a few setbacks he stays true to his final goal. The northeast family will not be the same without their 'kela'.

PRATEEK MALAKAR

115AR0020 #Pattu #ChotaDon #chailover #gyaanch*d

Prateek Malakar, more affectionately called as Pattu, Patwari and Pratz, is a jovial and amicable person from Khandwa, Madhya Pradesh. From one confused soul in his first year to a professionally determined and motivated designer and architect in his final year, Prateek sure has come a long way. This 'kalakar' has been challenging the orthogonal norm in the industry through his organic and parametric designs as his signature style which stems from Zaha Hadid. He is the one who thinks out of the box, quite literally. Not limited to his work alone, the curvilinear and flowy designs also extend to his hairstyle, which mind you, have changed multiple times over the past five years going from short and messy to man-buns and pony tails and everything in between. Don't let yourself be deceived by his slender stature for his Tony Stark attitude and a power packed punch of personality have proven 5'5" = 6'2". This 'chota packet' is a 'bada dhamaka' of enthusiasm, energy and creativity. A fashionista of the department, he puts an extra effort in his outfits, especially on jury days. He is a true chai-lover of the batch and is the reason why most of us ended up at the Chai ki Tapri in between classes 'together as a batch'. You can trust him with his sense of humor to lighten up any boring conversation. He loves to travel and has a way with birds. He can get them from wherever he is either by sketching them, talking to them, luring them to talk to him and the list goes on. As this bird-man takes his flight from NITR, we hope to see his constructed one-of-a-kind designs on the cover of Architectural Digest soon.

YASH KOTGIRWAR

114AR0032 #SabMohMayaHai #GMAT #gossipqueen #foodie

Yash Kotgirwar is one of those few gifted people who have struck a balance between being a first bencher during the week and a full-on party animal on weekends. He is an inspiration for all to be at the top of the class and likes to stay ahead of everyone- be it assignments, class notes or gossip. He's known to bring his A-game to the presentations, which makes him quite an apple of the eye among profs of the department. Fondly known as 'Koti', 'Koti bhai' and 'Koti baba' amongst friends and juniors, his love for food and high-on-music attitude makes him a complete package of constant entertainment. From being the ever-smiling problem-solver to a 'gyani' of an emotional support system in the life of his juniors, it's a no brainer that people turn to him when the chips are down. Owing to his caring and helpful nature, he is one of the most loved seniors among his 'bacchas'. This foodie can be spotted treating his friends and 'betas' in and around the campus every now and then. Some of his weird rituals and habits include thorough grooming sessions right from fruit lotions to face masks, dancing to a playlist ranging from Lewis Capaldi to Hardy Sandhu, and a love-hate relationship with sugar. Yash is the agglomeration of intelligence, humour, creative thinking and unconditional friendship. A perfect example of "when you fall, rise again stronger", he is determined, focused, and very consistent in what he does. Understanding yet melodramatic, hopelessly romantic yet practical, his trustworthy heart but a criminal mind makes him as unique as it gets. Now, as this talented to-be-architect, fashionista, prodigy dancer and Vaastu-Shastra savant starts another chapter in his life, we wish him nothing but the best of times ahead.

ABHISHEK KUMAR DAS

115AR0005 #LazyAF #Foodie #ExtraCurricular

Abhishek Kumar Das, all the way from Balasore is one of the funniest introverts you'll ever encounter. This positive-minded, short-heighted guy manages to keep a smile on everyone's face amidst the never-ending pressure of design submissions with his witty and quirky jokes. A great team leader and listener, his presence and infectious energy is enough to loosen up the tension amongst his group mates. His life runs on the simple principle that "you don't have to be perfect to inspire others; let them be inspired by how you deal with your imperfections". The one thing that anyone can vouch for Abhishek, is the true and direct nature of his thoughts and beliefs, which remain unaltered by what others may think. Running from one class to another, carrying a bag full of instruments, this budding architect is on a constant quest to improve himself and his determined career goals stem from the keen and avid learner he is. He has a gem of a heart and is always there for his friends and juniors alike. An approachable mentor among the juniors, his extended understanding and helpful nature is always appreciated and cherished. He might come off as distant at first but on the inside, he is one of the most humble, respectful and generous person you will come across. It does not take more than one heartfelt conversation with Abhishek for anyone to realise he is quite a benevolent person. Health issues notwithstanding, he has lived his life to the fullest and we hope he achieves the goals he has set for himself.

NIMMAGADDA BHAAVAN KOWNDINYA

115AR0010 #momsboy #kabaddichamp #CR #Extracurricular

Bhaavan or Bunny, is not just any human, he is an explosion of energy. Starting off NITR as "Mr. Fresher" of Architecture Department, impressing everyone with his never seen before dance steps, his fame has only grown over the years. From holding the post of Technical Secretary of a successful Innovision in first year to leading the Insti Kabaddi team to a win as the Team Captain during Inter-NIT Sports Meet, he has hustled his way to the top. His determination, grit and ambition can drive you to follow yours. Contrary to his power-packed punch of personality, Bhaavan is also someone who possesses virtues of patience, calmness and persuasion. He is quite the people person, because how else do you manage to be the Class Representative for five years straight, dodging calls between professors and batchmates, trying to get odd classes cancelled without fail. Managing academics and extra curriculars at the same time, he has developed a skill to sleep anywhere-anytime, standing up or sitting, to optimise his efficiency. His rose-gold heart truly knows how to value friendships, which he makes stay forever jovial with his goofy actions and witty sense of humour. It's difficult to be sad around him because he makes sure you laugh until your gut hurts. This Allu Arjun fanboy is quite the ladies' man, who has his admirers spread across the campus, like the prodigy himself, however you would never hear him say this out loud. His down-to-earth and helpful nature which he extends to his seniors and juniors alike, coupled with his occasional acts of kindness are sure to make you believe in humanity all over again. He deserves every best thing in the world and we will not be surprised if this MBA aspirant is soon featured in Forbes.

ARABIND PRADHAN

115AR0012 #Animelover #LazyAF #NanoScientist #gamer

ARABIND. The name itself bothers a lot of people as this boy writes it with an extra A in it. Likewise, he really is extra in everything he does. From sweating in winters to hibernating in his room for days to his hysterical facial expressions, yes! He has 'extra' written all over it. People call him by many names and the story behind every single one of them is as hilarious as his humour. Some of them include Phukuchand, Argando, C^3, Nano Scientist and Chandu. He can be regarded as the laziest person of the entire Architecture Department, which has turned him into a pioneer of doing the same task more innovatively in a lesser time and with easier methods. He's a living proof of Bill Gates' quote "I will choose a lazy person to do a difficult job. Because he'll find an easy way to do it". Straight out of Sainik school, you would expect him to be on his toes round the clock, however, he's found laid back 11 of 10 times. His physique of a commando speaks volumes however, is a disguise to the soft spoken, childlike even shy personality underneath. When it comes to handling jurors and professors during viva, his equanimity is unparalleled. His daily routine involves playing one round of 'Mobile Legends' in his famous doggy pose before going to the class, even if it means skipping the shower. He's one of the most down-to-earth, trustworthy and positive person. He's also a great storyteller with a confidence and poker face that makes it all the more difficult to decide if his narrated incident was based on a true story or just a figment of his imagination. Having aced the IGBC Accredited Professional Examination, we hope the future has nothing but the best for him.

SAUMYA RASTOGI

115AR0014 #DesignConceptPro #Artist #InstaFamous #WhiskyOverWine

A cover girl, a fashion blogger, an art curator, a history professor, of all the things Saumya Rastogi could've been, she chose to graduate as an Architect. If ever there was a right mix of wit, charm, and beauty, it would, for sure, be her. A strong-headed and quietly ambitious girl, she likes to keep her ideas to her gifted (yet overthinking) mind. She has a way with words and it's difficult to shut her up once she starts speaking. Quite literally the 'Concept mother' of the batch, her presentations exceed the time limit by a fair amount and yet, somehow the jury doesn't mind that. Rumor has it that this tall and sharp, messy-haired goddess really, despite her long legs is always late to the class, because "Better arrive late than ugly". Her attendance record at the "North Star" would be more consistent than that in any of her subjects at NITR. Saumya is one of the best people to have a 'real' conversation with, to the extent that one would want to stay in that conversation for as long as they possibly can. Better known as 'gods wild.child' in the Instagram community, she'll never miss out on an opportunity to show off her aesthetic profile. She can be intimidating at first, but underneath the sophisticated exterior is an ever-gullible good old Punjabi-song listener with a rose gold heart. This diligent perfectionist's attention to detail can stun you and you would often hear her say 'God lies in the details'. She is always ready for spontaneous adventures with will and guts wild enough to mount any insurmountable mountain. The queen of aesthetics and a fiercely strong and independent woman, Saumya is never one to shy away from a challenge or aim for the stars. Here's hoping that she achieves everything she dreams of, yet continues to be the same girl we all know and love.

SHUBHAM KUMAR SAHU

115AR0017 #ToxicHardworker #hamarachutiya #proxyking #heartbroken

A true example of humility and patience, Shubham is notably the humblest person one would meet. Adorned by numerous nick names like SuSu, ShoeBomb, Susuliya and Subu Sahu, he is treasured by all and is a friend for lifetime. Despite being lazy to attend classes, he'd go to any extent to help his friends, literally keeping his work on hold to help others. His kindness and hard work has brought him love from the entire department, juniors and profs alike. Being the coordinator of SRIJAN 3.0, an active member of SSPA club to achieving the badge of Junior Under Officer of N.C.C. Army wing, 'Sa-huji' managed to keep his CGPA afloat with just one-night studies. His three years at NCC are a proof of his perseverance and incomparable leadership qualities. On nights when most people would be out partying or sleeping away, you'll find Shubham working late night in the department trying to achieve perfection in each of his assignments. Some nights you can even find him sleeping in the department, living off his bag containing a toothbrush, soap and all other essentials. It is due to this hard-working nature and dedication to detailing, that he often falls short of time before submissions. Shubham can often surprise you with his tongue-in-cheek humour and artistic designs. His physique is clearly the most inaccurate depiction for the foodie he is. The 'jugaadu' of the batch, he will have information about anything you may need, starting from procurement of materials to the contact details of any person and is a well-known name even amongst the non-teaching staff of the department. His closest friends regard him as 'The Secret Keeper' and trust him blindly. With an undying passion for army, this budding architect is a friend every person would desire to possess.

ADEPU ROHITH

115AR0019 #munna #artist #booze #fitnessfreak

Rohith most famously known as roh and munna, is a workout freak. He is mostly famous for his artistic skills and is a gifted volleyball player, though he wasn't in the Insti volleyball team. An intelligent backbencher who seems a lazy guy at first, but it doesn't take long to figure out that he's a hardworking boy. This 'sleep-loving' boy is quite dedicated and forgets his sleep the night before assignments. He is the one who is very humble, adorable and a lot sarcastic. He strikes a perfect balance between chilling and finishing his assignments without any 'jugaad'. Rohith's life is garnished with simplicity. He is always leagues ahead in mitigating the complexity of life with his sorted strategies. He is definitely an epitomical player and strikes the deal with silence rather than words. This South-Indian cocktail of dedication and perseverance gives an instant high to his peers with his kinked laugh, intolerant sense of humour and annoying comebacks. The beauty of his character, the generosity of his lending shoulder and his eternal friendliness made him universally lovable with no human alive hating him. Rohith's friendship is an unforgettable memory, his character is an ideal example and he is undoubtedly an embodiment of a true friend. Honest with his work, he was architect even before he got a B.Arch. degree with his internship construction plans now under construction. Very good chef whose chicken curry and omelettes are eagerly awaited. He has won the SLR biryani competition as many times as it was conducted and is a rare feat pulled off only by him. The caring person is also the photographer behind many beautiful DPs. Here's wishing him a 'well-planned' future full of happiness.

KAMLESH KUMAR GAUTAM

115AR0021 #BihariAndProud #chailover #booze

Kamlesh who's often known by a myriad of nicknames such as Pahadi, Jangli, Mountain Dew and Score-6 is a very calm, clever and disciplined person who always follows his routine and time table. He's completely dedicated to his loved ones and always helps his friends. Kamlesh or we can say 'Mishra Ji' is a complete family person. When it comes to home, he forgets everything, no matter which class test or submission is still left, he vanishes. Even when the vacation is of two days or of weeks, he always finds an excuse to go home. In every group outing, he always says "Today, beer party from my side" but never really gives one. Kamlesh Kumar Gautam, the 'Pandit' from Bihar can be identified from far by his gait. Though not very outspoken, when he speaks, doesn't fail to entertain others. This guy turns into 'Kumbhakaran' at the stroke of the midnight hour and cannot remain awake after 12 even if there's an earthquake. This Bihari guy has the typical 'bihari' accent and a habit of exaggerating events to help lighten everyone's mood. On most occasions, he can be seen glued to his phone communicating with his loved ones. He doesn't let his difficulties surface in front of friends and always maintains his jolly nature. DHANANJAY NAIK

115AR0009 #kankattu #DJ #artist #happygolucky

Dhananjay Naik, or DJ, as he likes to be called, is the Barney Stinson of the class. This money minded person is always ready to cash in on any opportunity which presents itself and has an entrepreneurial skillset when it comes to that. He always has a bag full of new ideas when it comes to business and money-making and his goals change in a fraction of a second responding to the demand of the situation. However, his ultimate goal remains to have chest of drawers full of expensive watches and gold rings and a garage parked with the world's best selection of bikes. His motto is to live a life where money is not a differentiator anymore. He is competitive and stubborn in a way that helps him be more efficient in producing out of the box designs. DJ is the only localite of Rourkela who cannot suggest you places to visit in his own hometown when asked about. He is always there to help his friends out and study sessions with him right before the exam are memorable in many ways. And if he starts telling you a story, you better postpone your work for the next two hours because you are sure to be involved in his endeavors. He is intelligent, smart and when it comes to girls, a bit shy. Tired and sick of train journeys, he usually drops out of any planned trip and prefers long drives in his car or on his bike any day. With a creative mind and an ambitious outlook towards life, he has explored and gained expertise in many modelling and rendering softwares and we hope he succeeds in establishing himself through his talent of designing.

This tiny boy has an inspiring story of struggle and hard work before NITR happened to him. He is a classic example of an introvert with a helpful nature. He will do his best to help his friends. However, he is an introvert who speaks rarely, but once you are close to him you will be comfortable interacting with him. He can even beat the toppers through his perfection and knowledge in the itty-bitty practical aspects of chemical engineering. His lab mates attest to the fact that he is one of the best and entertaining lab partner you can ask for, who will bother you even for small discrepancies and ensure that the experiments are done thoroughly with utmost perfection. Sometimes he even does not hesitate to start the experiment afresh to ensure the correctness of the readings. His expertise in Ansys not only earned him but also his batch mates with good grades that earned him the tag of "Ansys Saviour". He believes in hard work and gives a cent percent to every work he does. Besides this, he loves to crack jokes and pull the legs of his close friends. Though he is secretive, he spills out his secrets in front of his close friends who often pull his leg. He always prefers to stay indoors and rarely prefers to party with his friends. We hope this tiny trustworthy introvert continues to stun others with his hard work and dedication in his professional career.

KUPPLI VENKATA ABHISHIKTH

116CH0092 #FitnessFreak #Stylist #Dancer

If you see a guy wearing knuckle shoes with high heels and tight see-through shirts, there is a high chance that it would be Abhishikth aka Kupullu aka Venky. He is a unique combination of unmatched sincerity and bizarre thought process in anything. He is called as the "Man of Words" as he holds a record of taking resolutions/responsibilities and accomplishing each of them with excellence and perfection. This die-heart Alu Arjun fan is a crazy dancer, an avid reader, and fitness freak who listens to movies rather than watching them (quite literally). In this cashless economy, he would be the only cashier who is not on any online payment apps known to mankind. A gourmet, who would order a dish entirely for himself, someone who would gulp down a 2 L soft-drink bottle alone. Famous line - "Venky doesn't share food". He is a photophile who loves clicking himself. He is a pure definition to the proverb "every pain gives a lesson and every lesson changes a person". Despite being an introvert, he would be a great friend once you get to know him. This extremely optimistic, weirdly cool lone wolf is undoubtedly snob from outside, sweet and caring from inside. Every single person who gains his trust can have him as "the one call away" person as he does not leave his loved ones in difficult times. This person did not change his first semester's crush in the whole four years and considers every other girl as his sister. This extremely punctual first bencher never fails to attend any classes. He is always homesick and does not hesitate to bunk a few classes to go home. We wish he wins people's hearts entertaining them in his way in his professional journey as well.

ZAKIYA ALI

116CH0094 #GSgirl #Shopaholic #Sleepyhead #GossipQueen #PartyAnimal

It is rare that being a Chemicool you bag one of the highest-paid software companies—"Goldman Sachs" along with being a sleepyhead. Zakiya aka Zaku, a perfect blend of determination and intellect has accomplished both. Sleeping is her eternal love for which she often skips her meals and classes. Although she is always on the verge of a grade-back, she manages it effortlessly to maintain her "Chemical Topper" tag. This lipstick-obsessed girl is the fashion icon of the chemical department and sets the bar high with an unmatched sense of fashion. Her friends attest to the fact that shopping is the best solution to all her problems. Shoes and accessories are her weaknesses. Binge-watching is one of her favourite pastimes and there is no such force on Earth(not even her sleep) that can stop her from completing the series on the same day itself. She has never failed to surprise everyone with her multitasking abilities be it a Monday Morning journalist, Senate student member or ICS coordinator. She is a great cook and foodie, an avid novel reader, and a multilingual series lover. You will rarely find her in the hostel because she is a party animal who loves partying with her friends. She has a unique quality of changing her tone to that of a little girl when she wants to convey something special. It is known to a very few people that she is a good singer and always has a perfect song for every situation. Besides this, she is an excited person willing for new experiences in her life. We wish that this cheerful soul continues to amaze everyone around, with her charming persona as enters her professional life.

SIDDHESH SHIRISH BORKAR

116CH0095 #BhanuBhai #Debator #BacardiLimon #GGMU #Lazy AF #Gyaanch*d

Siddhesh Borkar, A.K.A. SidB is a pseudo-Mumbaikar-pseudo-Goan who entered the campus gates as a slightly overweight, highly ambitious and sophisticated teen. He then grew into one of the best-spoken (read: the best debater) and well-known identities on campus. One with an impeccable taste in movies coupled with a dark sense of humour, say hello to the unrelenting and unwavering spirit of Siddhesh Borkar. This crazy football freak would refuse to eat without a spoon but agree to board a train on a general ticket. Siddhesh is the most successful debater this college has seen and yet he'd still be clueless about the most trivial of things. This guy would have more "Oh My God"" reactions, in exasperation, than anyone else, and yet perpetually delight you with his company. A perfect buddy for late-night conversations on topics ranging from sports to food, worldly (and other worldly) affairs and pop-culture, it's difficult to not be fond of him once acquainted. With a terrible track record of having meals at the mess, he would always be ready for that light snack at Hexagon or that hearty meal at Nottee. A die-hard Manchester United fan, and a hard core Game of Thrones evangelist with clinical addiction to Odomos, Siddhesh is also an avid lover of certain flavoured spirits (his poisons of choice)-always ready for another party. Also, try and talk to him while you still have his attention, for if he slides away from the crowd he would only be found with his phone in landscape mode immersed thoroughly in the world of Asphalt 9 (and Farmville, at times). As for Siddhesh, his friends mean everything to him; which is probably why he saves his quirkiest, craziest yet caring and lovable side just for them! Smart, hardworking and motivated, he is well-suited for his dream of making it to the Forbes list.

ROHIT DASH

116CH0096 #ChocolateBoy #cinematics #movielover #lumiere #Writer #In Love <3

Dash is probably for whom the phrase 'Gyan Chod' was invented. He relies on black coffee and tea to set his mood right and believes in the versatility of the 'sunflower' emoji to depict all his moods. Strolling around the campus with his ear-phones plugged-in, Rohit can catch anyone's attention with his gift of gab. A person who can be approached at all times by his besties, Rohit never fails to advise them, particularly citing from his infinite collection of references and analogies from books and pop culture. Rohit never hesitates to voice his opinion, be it related to Indian politics or student life at college. His photography skills coupled with his handsome looks make him an eye candy of the chemical department. Heart and Soul of cinematics, if you have seen 'Her', then you are his. Hosting a warm room during chilly winters, his company is extremely enjoyable. His smile is contagious while his fitness goals are fictitious. A movie buff like no other, he can turn you into stone if you disturb his movie watching sessions. At the same time, he can recommend to you such unique movies and songs that can turn your entire movie taste and playlist upside down. The biggest complements for him is when you watch a movie he suggested. His eyes lighten up on the mention of Tarantino and Scorsese. He would call his friends his 'hiraeth' considering his obsession with exotic and beautiful words. Rohit identifies people with their queers and adores them for it, making them love themselves a little more. He cannot dance to a single beat in parties but pair dances with life nevertheless. He is a friend indeed who can come up with a masterpiece story from out of thin air; if you haven't met this golden boy yet, do it already!

NAMAN JAIN

116CH0099 #Noni #Bala #DilseRitvic #PaneerButterMasala #Foodie #GMAT

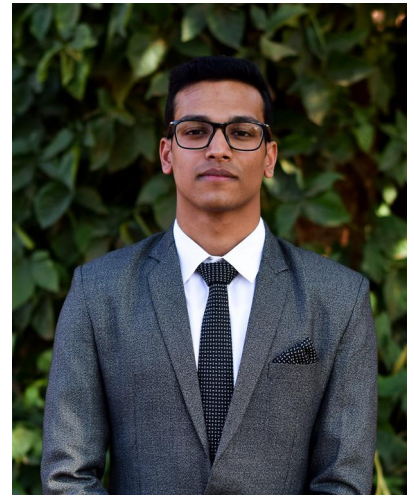

Maintaining an ideal balance between academics and extracurricular activities, Naman Jain enters the scene acting out the best take on "appearances can be deceptive". This guy is the living personification of 'Jhonny Bhaiya' (if you know, you know). With one of the smartest yet cool personalities, Naman, AKA "Noni", is the 'Sakhta Launda' of his group who hails from Kota, Rajasthan. This stud from the Chemical Engineering Department has matured over these 4 years honing the perfect combo of responsibility, reliability, punctuality and fun. Surprisingly, with such a dynamic aura, he is known to be a "Chupa Rustom" with his innocent smile but no so innocent backstory. This Rajasthani Casanova, wadded with "class" has a separate fan base amongst the girls and is often tagged as "Laundiyaabaaz" by his friends and close juniors. Despite being known as Ritvic club's most "Bhaukaali" senior with whom no junior dares to mess with, he loves to treat and help his juniors and leaves no chances to shower love upon them. He is always very conscious about his photos as he can be found retaking them several times. His perfect shave and top-notch dressing sense even in an emergency call at midnight are a few marks set by him at the club. Often found in one of the eating joints in Rourkela, he considers having mess food the biggest crime with Hideaway restaurant being his biggest addiction. A particular reason why he'll be remembered by his batchmates is for his proxies and his last-minute supply of xeroxed notes and study material before exams. Speaking of study material, this guy is known for not studying the whole semester and yet somehow scoring the highest marks! All in all, you would not be able to find a better example of an ideal engineer, a sarcastic memer and ultimately, a devoted friend.

JOHN JIMMY

116CH0100 #ChailsLove #ChaiOverWhisky #Player #SmartAss

John, A.K.A Jimmy, is one happy-go-lucky person everyone should have in their lives. Visionary is one word that describes him perfectly: one will always find his ideas as innovative, refreshing, and futuristic. He is your go-to guy to take to any restaurant and order the craziest food of the menu. John is that one guy whose name pops up first in your mind when you hear a creepy and inappropriate yet extremely funny joke. Gifted with a charm that makes people around him chortle and die of laughter, it is no surprise that the ladies find him to be quite attractive. He loves to think that he can prank people but don't worry he can't, although he'll come up with ridiculous ideas to try. It's like watching Sheldon do pranks just to shout 'Bazinga' at the end. He also thinks he can bowl but that's just another 'Bazinga'. An avid gamer, he has made a reputation for shouting out the most intense burns if you ever try to troll him on his games and his skills, although nobody doubts his aiming and reaction skills. A humble guy at heart, not many people know that he has a paper published in his name. Once you befriend him, he is always going to be there for you, in good times and bad, since his friends always rank high in his priority list. He's a born gentleman and you can clearly see it in his ways. Being a hard-core Chai-person you can find John chilling near the banyan tree for hours having Chai. Being that happy-go-lucky guy to the outside world, he is one who never lets life's hurdles slow him down and faces them with sheer diligence and passion, someone who is never afraid to embark on the road less travelled by because he believes one is defined by their passion and perseverance. It is only a matter of time before he achieves all that he wishes for.

VAMSI KRISHNA KARELLA

116CH0101 #Foodie #Sleepyhead #Friendly #Casanova

Vamsi aka Vam or 'Bamchi' fondly known as 'Lilly' from 'Dear Comrade', is a soft-spoken boy who hails from Andhra Pradesh. He is often called as 'Remo Mama' for his handsome looks and cute dimples that add an extra edge to his handsome features. He may seem innocent but keeps a track of even the itty-bitty gossips of the department. His shy nature often veils his Casanova features. He proudly flaunts his good metabolism rate when called "Foodie with no Fat" by saying- "Unlike you people, I have a good metabolism." He is nature lover who believes that Nature nourishes us and needs to have cared. He ensures each one around him realizes this and does not spill waste in the surroundings. Although he carries the looks of an innocent man, he is teased by his friends for his playboy nature with heightened affections for his crushes whose names begin with 'M' and 'R'. Chatting with his crushes is his favourite pastime and he can do anything on this earth to get this special time. He is the descendant of "Khumbkarna" in sleeping and often ends up missing his classes. No one can match his love for chocolates. He is addressed as "King of Jugaad" who arranges all the assignments, graphs, lab record books, notes at the eleventh hour hardly making it to the deadlines. Vamsi is well known for shouldering SAC responsibilities enviably in a cool and calm manner. A cloud of happiness, humour, and sarcasm accompanies him everywhere sprinkling joy on others. His placid nature is a friendship temptation that has gained him a huge lot of friends with a loving and caring nature. We wish he continues to amaze masses around him with his oneness as he steps in his professional life.

DEEPAK KUMAR

116CH0103 #Player #PolarisIsHome #EyeCandy #CC_tha_BC

What is Iron Man without his iron suit? Billionaire, playboy, philanthropist. Well, take the first and last things off and you get Deepak. Characteristically hypervocal, this quick-witted and objective minded guy has not only established his domain in debating, acting and writing but also, has aced his PR game from charming his way into the Director's favourites list to making acquaintance out of big-shot businessmen of Rourkela. There are many ways one can define Deepak, and the unfailing quality of not delivering over promised treats or leaving messages on delivered because he has about a thousand of it unread are some of the chief ones. Probably one of the whippiest whips on campus, debating with him means stories, jokes and a truckload of memories. The only constant Deepak has in life other than, of course, Manchester United, is a crazy drive of "winners don't make excuses" seen right from "The Monday Morning CC" who grilled the juniors to the one who guided them as Training Committee Secretary. With a boyish yet firm voice, he swears by his mantra "Aaj to pelna hai yaar" as a hard taskmaster. He owns a clock that loses 10 minutes to calibrate to his own time zone. Blessed with nonchalant charm and unflinching boldness, this guy loves aiming a 'step' higher than his contemporaries, be it his career choices, elixirs from the 'North Star' or his enviable dalliances. Post three rounds of BP with him you'll realize Rick Sanchez was right about people because of the jokes he would crack and sadly, all of them would get laughs. A master of all things non-core: particularly Finance and Business, in Deepak we already have a future leader and staunch administrator and as he bids adieu to his Hogwarts, we hope he continues to "live life with no regrets", relishing it every once in a while.

MUDAVATH ANIL KUMAR

116CH0104 #KhoKhoPlayer #Foodie #Dancer

Anil aka Matta the crazy handsome Telugu boy is a refined example of "Appearance can be deceiving". Do not get reigned by his calm silent appearance as he does things that probably no one can do and often puts people in dilemma about his Dove-like nature. However, if you are close to him you will soon realize that he is a very amiable human who is soft-hearted with a rosy soul. He climbs trees, goes into the bushes to collect fruits and does every other bizarre outdoor activity to entertain his friends. He is a great sportsperson who represented the institute Kho- Kho team at the Inter NIT tournament and eventually won it. Like every other true sportsman, he believes in teamwork. He is a self-driven person who never gives up easily. He has the details of every girl studying on the campus. He has some peculiar dance moves that he always does to entertain his friends. He can never imitate any dance move rather ends up creating a new move out of it. Please be aware before you check his phone gallery as it will be filled up with his confused monkey-faced selfies and the pictures of the notes he takes before all the exams. This occasional drunkard can be so stable even after taking many pegs but nothing can resist him from sleeping at least for 12 hours. He is so positive that even his pseudo enemies hate themselves. Mess people are worried about their profits when this foodie eats in mess. When someone asks him proxy, he does it by missing his attendance. He is the most loved senior because of simplicity, friendliness, and a sense of humour. We wish this roseate boy keeps mesmerizing people by his individuality as he steps in his professional life.

TULASI MEHER

116CH0107 #Cheerful #Cute #BeautyWithBrains #ChaiLove

Tulasi, a living testimony to the phrase "Appearances are Deceptive", goes by various nicknames. Tulasi is lovingly tiny and true to her height, she is quite a kid at heart. Her height and height of "Nautanki" are two things that often make for a butt of jokes amongst her friends. A quirky blend of grit, mischief and innocence, Chutki is often touted for a grade point that is remarkably double her height. Quietly hardworking and sincere in her work, Chutki is the saviour for half of her classmates with her notes, which she happily shares even at the eleventh hour. A calm mind to top off a small stature, she can take your breath away with her superb handling of any difficult situation convincing you that she is indeed a fierce girl at heart. Though lazy enough to miss her 8 am class every other day, she is always updated with every popular TV show available on DC. Her infectious smile and overflowing cuteness have a lasting impact on guys, no wonder she has won admirers wherever she has gone. An ardent Chai lover and multitasking expert, "Pikachu" will never say no to evening strolls if she gets substantial gossip in return. She is playful around the people she loves and, at times tries, and fails, to act "Gyan-chod". She is a nonstop chatterbox, a constant channel of amusement, and has the potential to catch you off guard more than once with her witty remarks and never-ending babylike tantrums. Her mood and food vary sinusoidally, each being at their peak during exams. Calm inside, bold outside - this charming Sagittarian is undoubtedly one of the heartthrobs of the institute.

TARASH M. MURMU

116CH0109 #Breezy #Hippie #Bold #Cinephile #ChatterBox

Tarash aka Tara or Bachi can be spotted even in the most crowded place due to her towering height. One of the most energetic and entertaining souls is often muddled as a boy even on Tinder for her name. An apologetically bold person who is equally confident in pyjamas and fashionable outfits has a signature sound of "Moew Meow" while entering. She is a wild free soul unbothered by societal constraints. She is one of those people who will never judge you and you will in a fancy-free zone when you hang out with her. Tara may look very complex to others but very simple to understand that only her close friends know. She always says "Hold on my friend, I am always there with you" that depicts the importance of friendship in her life. She not only values friendship a lot but also tries her best to fulfil her friendship goals. She is extremely supportive and the biggest cheerleader who will motivate you to dream big and achieve big things in life. A girl with a big heart and a bigger mind who is always ready to tell her interesting stories and will always tell you to take it to chill. She is a regular latecomer to her classes, exams or hostel entry. She is an adventurous soul who is ever ready for experimentation. She can dance as if she is drunk even when sober. Movies, Korean drama- series, and music keep her awake other than her love life. However, once she sleeps there is no waking up and hence we often call her "Bhains". She is a chatterbox who can talk for hours on any topic even if not provided. We wish this blissful soul keeps down pouring happiness on everyone around her as she treads towards her professional life.

JYOTIRMAYA NAG

116CH0110 #Jyoti #Naga #Foodie #Chai Lover #Singer

With an ever-lasting smile and donning a wide range of Bewakoof tees, Jyotirmaya AKA Jyoti/Nag is one of the coolest guys of the Chemical Engineering Department. Starting from Sambalpuri movies, moving on to Odia ones and then escalating himself to Bollywood and ultimately Hollywood series, he sure has binge watched more series than most of the engineers out there. A vintage photographer who is known to have clicked amazing shots of nature and his friends, Jyoti is also known to have never left the VS hall of residence owing to its excellent quality of food. A foodie by birth, Jyoti would always be found trying out new dishes in group outings thus making him the go-to guy when it comes to queries about dishes and restaurants. Talking about outings, he is well known among his friends for his love for travelling and arranging fairly affordable trips. From missing classes to missing exams owing to his love for sleep, he has made his four year BTech memories. With a deep passion for music, he hopes to compose his own music one day. But the trait which makes Jyoti stand out is probably his direct, honest and down to earth attitude. Always ready to help in need with his kind-hearted attitude, Jyoti is one of those friends everyone must have.

ARNAB NAYAK

116CH0111 #PUBG #Memes #Cuttackia #Cricket #Foodie #Photographer

If you've spotted a hulk-bodied guy resembling Inzamamul-Haq in the STSC ground, you've most likely seen Arnab Nayak. Probably the coolest and most carefree guy of the Chemical Department, Inzi (as he is known among his friends) is what you call the right blend of brains and brawn. Mostly found in the cricket ground, he is considered one of the best batsmen of the college, known to score sixes from STSC to the DBA hall gate. Similar to the skill in the game, his knowledge of the game too, goes unmatched. A die-hard of Sachin and Dhoni, he remembers almost every match played by them in the past 20 years with fine detail. A foodie by heart, he craves for Biryani more than anything. Curious about the taste of Biryani of any restaurant in Rourkela? Just stop by A-214 of DBA hall and you will get your review. A proud song expert, he's got songs for every kind of mood and will fix you right up with his playlist. Originally opting for medical, he often says he got engineering accidentally and wished he hadn't. Performing every task at the eleventh hour and saying "Hela aau, ebe hei jiba" is something he is known for. Despite all this, he is considered to be quite smart among his peers and can be seen teaching them, the subjects of his department, the night before the exams and they are forever indebted to him. But what makes him stand out is probably his jovial and chivalrous nature. Prioritizing friendship over anything, he can make you laugh with his memes and notorious jokes for hours. Smart, loyal and confident can perfectly sum this true Cuttackia.

NISHANTH C. B.

116CH0112 #Extra/Curricular #MusicLover #LedZeppelin #Lazy AF #Gyaanch*d

While Nishanth might seem like an introvert from afar, he is truly a magical and comforting person to be with once acquainted. This 6'2" coconut tree Mallu from Vizag is a boundless source of curiosity. This is best explained by his affinity to Quora and nerdy Youtube channels. Addicted to growing his general knowledge and endlessly looking into his phone whenever possible, for Nishanth, less, is more-particularly when it comes to interacting with people. His adaptability is his strength, as he can thrive in any part of the world with his people skills and amicable personality. Nishanth is a melting pot of cultures and tastes: well versed in four languages, probably moving on to a fifth one, and with a passion for pop cultures, especially music and films. His taste is quite remarkable and he particularly prefers classic rock like Guns n Roses and Led Zeppelin. He is not the biggest of foodies but loves exploring dishes from different cuisines-particularly when hanging out with friends. While he is quite magnanimous with his birthday bashes and always ready for an outing when the mess food is not to his liking, he is also one to never forget about pending treats from his buddies. His love for French fries is insane and unsurprisingly, dosa is his all-time favourite dish. Once a classy Monday Morning reporter, he has admirable work ethics and level of professionalism. Nishanth forgets everything else when he is busy doing his work. A binge-watcher of TV series of all genres, he is always very blunt, sarcastic and caring-all at the same time. You can have an endless conversation with him about Hollywood movies of the 90s and old-school rock and football teams of the 00s and many other topics. Just keep an eye out for him turning heads and making people offers they cannot refuse.

116CH0113 #LadiesMan #Chana #Lazy AF #Foodie #Flirty

The sweetest 'Bargarhia' with trendy hairstyles, Ritesh aka 'Chana' is the 'Chupa Rustom' of the Chemical Department, known for his innocence, helping nature and sincerity. An introvert from the outside, he may seem shy and is choosy in making friends but still manages to maintain a huge female fan base on the campus. Someone who does not like chatting, he prefers talking on the phone over it. A calm and composed boy, Ritesh believes in hard work and has thus managed to maintain a strong academic record and publish several research papers in these 4 years. Despite all this, he still manages to be up to date with all the latest movie releases and news in the world. "Chana" as he is known for his love for 'Chakna' at group parties, can make you laugh for hours on miscellaneous topics with his sarcastic wit. As goes the famous saying, "Never judge a book by its cover", his true personality is veiled by his innocent looks. Nevertheless, he is an egoless creature who is also a great listener. He is a great volleyball player who unfortunately failed to get inducted into the Institute team. A photoholic, he can think for hours for choosing a single caption before updating his profile picture on Facebook. His only weakness is, of course, sleep. It is rumoured that even 24 hours of sleep doesn't satisfy him. A religious follower of IPL and an even more devoted supporter of Mumbai Indians, you would never want to talk anything against the team with this lad. From being a shy first-year kid to being a super-friendly and approachable senior, he sure has turned quite a few heads in his four years at NITR.

From being the tallest guy in the department to being the hot topic of discussion in every female group, this "sanskari" looking guy has set a precedent in college. From being a topper in the first year to being involved as a Gen Sec in AICHE, he has done it all. This gourmand guy is very dear to the helpers in the mess as more often than not he is the last to finish eating. A Self-proclaimed expert, Siddharth is a narcissist guy who also happens to be a big overthinker. Ever since first year, he has had this misconception of being the most eligible bachelor in the town as is quite evident from his Instagram handle. He never shies away from expressing his thoughts on someone or something, albeit in a calming tone and almost always gets his way, thanks to his charm. While the words 'all girls are dumb' still remain his go-to phrase in every conversation, he stands the perfect example of a person with a dirty mind and a clear heart. Being fashionably late to class and sometimes choosing to skip them altogether, Siddharth has had a narrow escape from garadebacks throughout his BTech life. A champion procrastinator, he aptly justifies, "Engineering students can top the exam with a one-night preparation". Known for his good looks, as noted by even the professors in the department, he is the college crush of both males and females of the campus. Jokes apart, he is very generous, lively and has a sassy sense of humour. His insightful and prudent personality is what makes him stand out from the crowd. A constant source of guaranteed entertainment, she has perfected the art of mimicking, making it rather impossible to defeat her in 'Dumb Charades'. KAUSHIK SAMANTARAY

116CH0124 #CloveMix_is_Life #HighOnLife #LIFE_IS_HELL #NoExpectation

Kaushik AKA High Moods/Kau/Devdas of NITR can be called as one hell of a personality. Famous for his dialogue, "who cares?" when it comes to any problem in his life, we learn from him that the best way to face a problem in your life is to avoid it. There are four areas where it is impossible to beat his expertise: cars, mobiles phones, alcohol, and Anime. This chemical engineer knows more about these areas than his branch subjects. Music being his first love, there are probably few who can match his taste in international music. Music, he believes is the only "high" that he needs to escape the chaos of reality. He is an ambivert who has selective friends but has got the best gang ever i.e #AFewBadMen with whom he is always ready to party. Even if his joints dislocate, his lungs choke with cigarette smoke and his liver souse in liquor, at the end of the day nothing can char his fervent spirit. Blindly following opulent brands and staying updated with the latest gadgets, he wishes to live as well as die rich. All these things put aside, Kaushik is a true and caring friend who is always ready to catch you if you fall. Prioritizing friendship over anything else, he would be there whenever you need him and would relax you with his carefree attitude. With an eidetic memory and a seriously talented brain, Kaushik has transformed himself from a fat, chubby fresher to a final year handsome Chemical Heartthrob with his dream desired jawline. Apart from his unhealthy lifestyle and devil-may-care attitude, Kaushik is a true and caring friend who is always ready to catch you if you fall. He can tolerate all your sordid tantrums and can always lift up your sunken spirit. It's hard to find a friend with such a fantastic combination of qualities.

With one of the coolest personalities, he is known to be a graceful host to his friends, making his room the epicentre for parties, games and all the gossip. He is a joint-specialist for his friends apart from being a perfect companion. A keen aspirant of Management Studies, Dopa is one hell of an analytical guy who has managed to crack CAT as well. Loved by all and hated by none, he is sure to make it big in the near future.

SAURAV RANJAN SETHY

116CH0126 #Pelei Pua #Rikun #Lazy AF #In Love <3 #Gamer

One of the calmest yet funniest guys of the Chemical Department, Saurav AKA Pelei Pua AKA Rikun goes by the quote of Thomas Alva Edison, "a piece of paper cannot decide my future" and hence remains chilled out about his grades. One of the best mimics of the institute, he can engage with you for hours in a conversation, adding mimics along with it, thus making you lose track of time. When you think about his interests, the first thing that comes to anyone's mind is his love for the game of PUBG. Often found engrossed in his mobile, he boasts of his skills in the game, but only his friends know the real truth. Often found riding his scooter on the campus, many of his friends are forever indebted to him for lending his vehicle. But what makes him stand out is probably his ability to listen to his friends, comfort them and fixing their problems in times of need, for which his close ones are forever indebted to him. A perfect balance of craziness, care-freeness, and weirdness makes him an amazing companion to everyone. We wish him all the very best for all his future endeavours.

DHRUVA SINGH

116CH0127 #StinkyBoy #Shuttler #MoneyMan #GyanChod #Booze #Drunkard

Smashing his way through life, Dhruva Singh is one of the finest shuttlers on campus, do not be misled by his lanky unkempt appearance as he is quite a pro when it comes to his backhand smashes. While he has won multiple accords and led the institute team, his true love for the sport has been proved on innumerable occasions when he decides to go for group outings straight from the court in his trademark shorts. Dhruva can be best described as that guy who can effortlessly fit into any group and is often considered "acha company" for his omnipresence in groups and parties. A generous soul, he is that guy who never shies away from giving a treat, especially to juniors and despite his physique, boasts an unreal appetite. Contrary to common belief, Dhruva can obviously hold his alcohol, starting with "Mujhe chadhi nahi hai, lekin..." and then going on to narrate his crazy bizarre experiences, sober, of course. A Rajasthani guy with a big heart and an even bigger wardrobe, if you see him not wearing any brands, it would be safe to assume that the sun has risen from a different side. With an impeccable sense of fashion, he is quite often the go-to guy for some advice on the subject. Although he mostly keeps to himself, he is still highly popular among the ladies, sometimes due to his charisma and sometimes for his multiple digit account balance. Dhruva often has the hottest collection of gossips from around the college and you can always trust his memory to recollect and narrate each such tale. While he is always a great company for a good time, you might want to keep your deepest secrets away from him-for he is usually the first to spill the beans! One of the purest souls at heart, Dhruva is a success story waiting to be written in the not-too-distant future.

M. SUDHARSHAN

116CH0128 #AnimeKing #CSGO #ApexLegends #Foodie #Gamer #GMAT

Sudharshan, AKA anime god/ king, is one of the coolest guys in the Institute. Probably one of the very few guys who spend more time in their rooms than outside, it's no surprise that the three things he loves the most are: Gaming, Anime and Food. Although (and to everyone's knowledge) a noob at gaming, he would almost always refer to himself as being a "pro". If you think vegetarians don't eat as much, Sudarshan is the guy who will definitely change your mind, while on the other hand he can always be relied on to give good food suggestions. "Work smart" over "Work Hard" being his motto, he rarely puts any extra effort into academics but tends to always end up with good marks in his branch. A genuinely friendly guy at heart, he can be found explaining all the concepts a day (read: night) before exams to his buddies, which adds to the common notion that he would make a good professor. Calm on the outside, he can make you repent if you say anything insulting about the Tamilian Film industry or the CSK team. Also an excellent classical singer, the otherwise introvert Sudarshan has made a name for himself in the singing community through the years at cosmopolitan festivals. We wish that he achieves everything that he dreams of, whilst keeping his cool and humble attitude intact.

He has an unparalleled love and affection for his Malayali group that he often flaunts proudly. His juniors have given him the tag of "Boy with a Golden Heart" because of his benevolent and compassionate nature. This cool, calm and composed person has an ardent love for football and is tech-savvy. He is known as one of the coolest Vice-President of AICHe, where he handled all the matters with a perfect combination of leadership and friendship. This hodophile has a dream to go on a World Tour after his graduation and has already accomplished a few of his travel goals to Puri and Gangtok with his squad. He is a multilingual cinephile who has the list of all recent Hindi, English, Tamil and Malayalam movies. It is known to a very few people that, he is a fitness freak despite being blessed with a good physique. His well-maintained physique often makes it hard to believe that he is a hardcore foody with an unmatched love for all Indian cuisines particularly Biriyani (Malabari Biriyani). He is a strong believer of hard work and all the success in his career is a testimony to it. He sets the bar high in friendship by always being there with them during tough times. He often lectures his friends about life to motivate them to overcome difficulties. We wish this lovable soul continues in his stride of success by delighting everyone around him in his professional journey ahead.

JOEL JACOB THOMAS

116CH0130 #Artist #MrPrez #MalluWithASwagger #21Guns

Joel, the Mr-Steal-your-girl, is the guy you must have seen at the tea stall near Banyan tree sporting an umbrella almost his own size and an extra wide smile. If you remember the dead silence at fresher's 2016, during "21 Guns" solo you know him. Settan, as he is fondly called by his juniors, will make you fall in love with his sheepish nature, that is, if you aren't already flattered by his photography prowess. Apart from being an exceptional photographer, one whose works always are the highlight of any exhibition, Joel is also an impeccable leader as is evident from the way he has led Third Eye. Being a true allrounder, from dancing at night in front of a crowd in CVR, to singing his heart out in BBA on his freshers, he has done it all. Always ready to lend a helping hand, he is one of those people who manage to stand strong even when the going gets tough. Those close to him know him as a dear friend who'd do anything to make sure that you're never faced with a problem; You're lucky if your path ever crossed NITR's sweetheart Joel, because gems like him are one in a billion. Respected by colleagues, admired by juniors and adored by everyone, here's to everyone's favorite engineer to be and his very bright future!

She is fond of travelling and eating various delicacies but would never forget to compare it with that of her hometown, Balaghat and Indore. A foodie, Tanu would prefer cooking her own food to going to the mess, while not holding back her curses incase she ends up hating the food. She religiously follows the motto of living her life on her own terms. She is very challenging in life who would not give up easily but rather try to meet them head-on. Blessed with a smart mind and a carefree attitude, she is more fond of herself than anybody else. She is blessed with multiple talents evident from her maintaining a good academic record while being in Pantomime, Udaan and Aasra, Tulasi is amicable, supportive and yet she would never fail to tell you straight up in case you take a poor decision. MAHAK GOYAL

116CH0589	#Netaji	#AurBhai	#Panto

Mahak Goyal, more aptly known as "Netaji", is that guy who revelled in ultimate fame post chemical photoshoot. If you go to him with your problems and irrespective of him helping you out, he will most definitely calm you down with his, "arey thik hai, dekh lenge." He is one of the most loving and welcoming person in the institute, as acknowledged by both batchmates and juniors alike. An introvert by nature, not many people know that he is good at academics since he is often found doing all sorts of stuff. It comes as quite a surprise that he is a "bhai" to everyone since he is a calm, composed and fun loving guy. A proud member of Pantomime and the heartthrob of Aasra, he has seamlessly fit in at every place he has gone. A popular face around the campus, particularly to his juniors, he will do anything to help out his friends. Mahak is a jovial and happy-go-lucky guy, who will almost always make you laugh at his silly jokes. People's guy and an impeccable Hall secretary, its difficult to understand how he manages to make a place for himself in everyone's heart. AMAAN DASH

716CH1020 #GMAT #Professor #Gamer

Amaan Dash, AKA Professor, is one person who aptly describes "Appearances can be deceptive". Apart from his organic characteristics, physically he resembles a professor in outfits which clarifies his synonyms. A proper GMAT and everyone's go-to guy when asking for notes, Amaan is a deadly mix of intelligence, hardwork and precision. A shrewd believer in afternoon naps and its ability to enhance the efficiency of learning, Amaan has carved a name out for himself as the most reliable and cheerful guy of the department by always helping people understand the most difficult of concepts with ease. A big fan of Bollywood songs, he would listen to them as soon as they are released and make sure everyone around listens to it as well. One of the rare engineers to take bath every single day, Amaan is indeed a hygienic guy, apart from being obsessed with Munch and cold drinks. Since the first year, he has transitioned into a fan of Marvel movies and Sitcoms (especially Big Bang Theory), and he would quite often be found in his room watching these. Although he has lived most of his life in his room, people close to him value his friendship the most because if anything goes wrong, he is the first person to try and solve the issue. A composed thinker, Amaan is the perfect company for late-night chats, walks, gamings and everything fun. Never one to shy away from working hard, it's only a matter of time before he achieves all that he dreams of. Wishing this light-hearted soul and the aspiring professor all the luck & success in his future endeavors.

RAJAT DEHURY

716CH1021 #Frozone #Say_No_To_Biryani #Jugaadu

Rajat, whose name translates to "Silver", is indeed a silver stone of Chemical Dual degree. A fairly tall mysterious guy, he likes to maintain quite a low profile at all times. Although his silence could be misleading, he is very smart (and also skinny :P) as is depicted by him solving the Rubik's cube at a speed that can leave many in awe. Rajat is a man of focus and commitment, something not known to many people. His accuracy with aptitude is second to none and has often won him many admirers. Biryani and Rajat haven't gotten along in four years. There are various kinds of friends that you make in life, some that help you move and some that help you move a dead body; the latter category is where Rajat falls into. Probably the only guy who loves to wear a pink checked shirt, it's almost astonishing how he still manages to pull it off. In many ways, he resembles the character "Frozone" from the movie Mr Incredible. Rajat is a movie fanatic, and could often be found watching Hollywood, Bollywood or even South Indian movies or TV series at any random time of the day. He can also be found watching Youtube videos most of the times. During his time in college, he hasn't been caught or even spotted with a girl! Winning a debate or a Clash Royale battle with him would be a tough nut to crack. Known for getting the best bargains and deals, he has cracked his way to get the cheapest of all services be it Amazon Prime or Banggood. He is a true exemplification of "Wise souls speak loudly in silence". We wish him all the best for his future and hope all his ambitions are fulfilled.

But before entering his room brace yourself as you may get shocked with the sight of the disassembled laptops with hard disks, motherboards, USB ports scattered all over his room. His room resembles a warehouse of electronic stuffs with a bunch of cables running every corner. Blessed with a unique ability to hunt down any game from any site he has played almost every type of game is it mobile or PC ranging from KB's to GB's. He has everything from anime, TV series to ancient - modern games stored in his hard drive. Apart from electronic kinds of stuff, he has all types of Rubik cubes and can solve even the most difficult Rubik cube problems with a snap of his fingers. This boy is an early bird with a habit of 'Early to bed, early to rise'. He enjoys walking and basking in the early morning. He has record-breaking food habits although his looks give you a misleading notion about his food capacity. This smart noodle hair boy is also obsessed with room freshener, talc powder, and perfumes. We wish he continues his stride of excellence in the fields of tech, coding, and design as he moves ahead in his professional life.

ARJUN P.

716CH1023 #Gamer #Bro #Coder

Arjun, apart from being a "Bro" to everyone, is that one Mallu guy everybody thinks they know, but they don't. His "Yea bro" might sound very reassuring but it turns out to be just that at times, with no action proceeding from his side. Packing surprises and dropping them left and right, he stays adorable and nonchalant about them throughout. His innocent and aww-so-sweet-of-him smile tells one thing while he has an entirely different story woven in his mind even before that grin reaches his ears. A die-hard fan of movies, 'videos' and series, so much that even he can skip his exam time preparation to watch them, Arjun is also supremely talented at graphic designing. He stepped up when nobody else was ready to: being one of the handful designers in the very first edition of the NITR IMUNC. Every snide remark, every sarcastic jibe and the mocks did not stop him and his team from putting in their hearts, sweat and blood into the work, and subsequently led to him being handled the responsibility of being the vice president of Cognizen, which he handled with grace. Arjun has exceptional skills in Adobe softwares- Photoshop, Illustrator and Premier Pro, having developed it all on his own through YouTube videos. He serves as the one person to rely upon for all the coding assignments, his coding skills being at par with the best of software engineers out there. Arjun hasn't spent a single day not regretting being in Odisha (XD) and cursing the state for whatever goes wrong with him. From an English speaking introverted guy in the first year to a one who shouts Hindi and Odia curse words randomly, Arjun has changed a lot (XD). His distinct smile to a double meaning joke in Hindi reflects that he understands everything just that he pretends to show he doesn't!

Abhi Saha, often referred to as being the powerhouse of the class, holds an alluring personality. His name is mostly confused with the Hindi word, and people often ask at least twice to clarify. He is definitely a man of his words with a unique combination of intelligence and diligence. A calm person by nature, Abhi can be trusted to calm anyone down with his silly jokes, random philosophy and of course, the charming smile. While down-to-earth and jovial best describe his personality, he is always up for a party. Even his regular outfits are a matter of discussion among most of his friends and his frozen smile adds a special gesture to your personality. He is one of the very few genuinely good people who would help you out at any time of the day if need be. Abhi's dedication, when it comes to leading or getting work done, is unparalleled, as can be seen from his largely successful time as the Vice-President of AASRA. Barring Scarlet Johansson, very few girls have gotten his head turned, and yet, he would choose Chai even over her! Though he might come off as an introvert, only a few people have encountered his expressive attitude. Those close to him will tell you that he has a habit of pampering his close people with small, but cute surprises. Having a well-built body and a knack for smartphones, Abhi's Hindi speaking accent will initially make anyone ponder what he said, later it becomes a habit to listen to him. Abhi is one of the few genuine and honest guys, who make an effort to make sure that their decisions don't hurt anyone. It's his never say die attitude that sets him apart and makes us believe that his dreams and ambitions are sure to be realized in the future!

SANTANU KUMAR SAHOO

716CH1026 #ProxyKing #Chemical_Mundi #OdiaLoka

Santanu, is one of the most hilarious and amazing people you will meet in college. He is the type of person who nonchalantly makes any conversation fun. From over-the-top jokes to pulling legs of his friends in front of their crushes, this guy guarantees fun around. And if you think you could defeat him with your words then save yourself the trouble for there is no defeating him in arguments. Blessed with a permanent smiling face, this typical "Odia Loka" has his world rotating around PUBG and with time he has become quite the pro in it. Friendly by nature, his equation with some of the most "dangerous" professors, is often envious to others. Always one to call his friends by self-made nicknames (and mind you, he can be very creative with them), he has made sure that all of his close friends have one. Shantanu can always be relied upon by his friends and is ready to help them out in all scenarios, no matter what. Make sure to not introduce him to your parents, since there is quite a good chance that they will end up liking him more than you. With utmost dedication, and in the subjects which interests him, he never hesitates to ask his doubts in the class. He always shows great excitement in asking others about their relationships, at the same time never cares to share about his own. One of the calmest people around, he might come off as a little laid-back, but ultimately always manages to get work done within the deadline. Perennially jolly by nature, his sense of humour appears to be at its peak during class hours, often almost getting his friends in trouble. As smart a person as he is, we do not doubt that its only a matter of time that he reaches for the stars.

ARINDUM SAHU

716CH1027 #SmartAss #Rockstar #SilentKiller #Desi_Joey

A handsome tall and well-built boy, Arindum is probably the most helpful guy in the campus. He is quite popular and has many friends and he puts in an effort to spend time with each of them. He is childish at heart and likes teasing everyone; he can (or at least he thinks he can) make fun of any person on earth. He can irritate you to the core and at the same time soothe you out. He is loved by everyone, especially by girls of the college, quite often considered as the "Romeo" of the department. Generally found outside his room talking on the phone or roaming around campus, he is quite the extrovert. One of the laziest people in MSS, he gets off his bed only during nature or hunger calls. One of the last people to submit any assignment, he has invited trouble many a times for taking the deadline casually. Arindum has had a run-in with almost every professor in the department, be it for coming late to class or leaving labs without informing. A happy-go-lucky person, Arindum makes a genuine effort to make everyone around feel right at home, it is this that sets him apart and makes him likeable. Here's hoping that he achieves everything he aspires to!

YASH SHAH

716CH1028 #Topper #GMAT #Chatur #GujjuBhai #MrPerfect

Yash Shah is the jack of many trades and master of, well, quite a few of them. His transformation from a naive, shy and dorky, Guju Bhai in the first year to an upfront, fearless Guju Bhai is quite a story. His jolly nature and upfront attitude makes him likeable to all, more so with the opposite sex. A smart worker, it is no surprise to see him top the exams every semester without being your typical GMAT material. He is an avid birdwatcher and has had a few instances where he missed the Cupid's arrow by a small margin. Nevertheless, he has remained hopeful and mind you, he is one of the very few untainted by adulthood and has a very strong sense of empathy for anybody and everybody. More significantly, Yash has put his heart, blood and sweat into making Cognizen Club what it is today. If you ever want to know what courage looks like, have a look at the Cognizen story and NITR IMUN. The passion and drive behind it were significantly contributed to by the man himself. Always a beacon of positivity, 'Professor Yash' is always there to help out his juniors, be it through career counselling or through tips to score well. 'Shahji' seldom loses his calm and effectively soars through a hundred tasks a day with almost-envyous ease. He is a master when it comes to striking the perfect balance between academics and extra-curricular, all the while ensuring to give his best in whatever he does. Yash has his own firm set of political beliefs and wishes to one day have a political party of his own. Also a crazy car lover, Yash can recognise every professor's car in NIT while he hopes to one day have his own Mercedes. The perfectionist that he is, it would be no surprise to see that hope transcend into reality in the not too distant future.

She has a strong and mature core within, that helps her strike a balance in life and be a source of inspiration to her juniors. CR

CERAMIC ENGINEERING

Probably one of the coolest things a 90s kid could own was a lump of clay. The sheer ease with which it could be turned into any and every form was no less than magic, honing the creative side in them and inspiring them to imagine. Who can forget the clay piggy banks which stored a carefully collected share of their pocket money to buy that one over budget toy or the little pieces of tile used in Hopscotch. They kept these treasured pieces of their childhood within them only to grow up and come together to continue this fascination under the vast umbrella of the Ceramic Engineering Department.

RAHUL KUMAR

116CR0135 #Dealing #Bihari #Betting #IPL #Foodie #LazyAF #Booze #ProxyKing

Contrary to his name, not many people have heard of him, but those who have, speak volumes about him, mostly due to the fact that he himself has sung tales about his highly unbelievable (most likely false) feats numerous times, which is why he is known as "dealingbaaz" or simply "dealing" among his peers. Extremely admired by his seniors, Rahul is a friend you can call at 3 am to share your problems with and he would go to any extent to help you out. With a smart mind which he rarely uses, his last-minute exam preparations (if you know what I mean) are known to everyone. A perfect meme material, and someone who would never get exhausted of partying, he is a go-to-friend for his helpful and stress-free nature. Like his mouth (and belly) he has a big heart and is known as "provider" for basic "necessities". Interestingly, even being a localite, he still manages to be an integral part of every hostel story and is that element of enthralling energy you would never want to miss at a party. He's like a pimple just like the big one he has on his face" is how his close friends describe him. A chilled-out person, he is the personification of the line "Ohkay! Cool! Do whatever you want to do". You might wonder about his quest for visual cinematography, well, it comes from his frequent visits to his designated brainstorming place which is the washroom. Kiran has a style statement of his own; the classy black umbrella accompanies him wherever he goes. His nonchalant attitude is what makes him so popular among his juniors. Some juniors "adore" him enough to bring special food for him from their home. Being the president of cinematics, he has brought a fairly inactive and divided club under one umbrella, which in itself is a formidable task. From being unaware of where his passions lie, he has grown into an individual with varied ambitions having the courage to pursue them all. It is brave to come from the background which he does and then opt for an uncertain career when everyone around is holding fast to the placement they have bagged. The current placement he has bagged is only a bridge to his real ambitions, and it is only a matter of time before we see him become a household name as one of the most original filmmakers.

A. VISHNU VARDHAN

116CR0592 #Sarcasm #PUBG #Youtube #Foodie #ChaiLover #Gamer #LazyAF #GMAT

A simple, silent, and cool guy with a great sense of humor, you will usually find Vishnu glued to his phone or laptop binge-watching a TV series. As much as he loves his shows, he exhibits an equal amount of passion for online games like PUBG. He has grown with the uncanny ability to notice things accurately and memorizing them as quickly. Vishnu is a very reserved person with keen observation skills. A vital part of any team in group projects, the cooperation, hard work, and optimism that he brings to the table are commendable. Apart from being a hardcore gamer, he is also a YouTuber. This kind-hearted guy with a knack for sarcasm is an amazing friend to have. He is a very neat and disciplined person who is probably the first person to wake up in the morning in his corridor, or even in his hostel. He despises the mess food and can contentedly survive on chips and other junk food. Being an introvert who believes in speaking only when necessary, he has a limited but close network of friends. A strong and dedicated guy, his weakness lies in chicken biryani. He does everything with utmost focus and gives his all in making it a success. Here's wishing him a very bright future and lots of happiness.

MANSHA BAIRIGANJAN

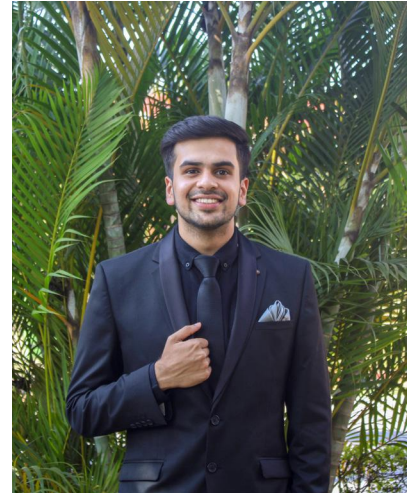

116CR0133 #Panda #Chulbul #Joker #Cutie #GMAT #Dancer #ChaiLover #Writer

Mansha, or 'Mikki' as her friends know her, is a personification of cuteness and talent. From being a flawless dancing queen with expressions you can not take your eyes off from to being a diligent and hard-working student and a national awardee, this girl can do it all. Having excellent leadership qualities, she has successfully headed Mavericks as the Coordinator and was also the Chief Coordinator of Jagruti, the social welfare club of NITR. Being the resourceful person that she is, one can always rely on her in getting any type of job done through any means be it academic or co-curricular. Because of the cute and pleasing personality that she exudes, it becomes difficult for her friends to refrain from pulling her cheeks. A comfortable person to be around, she is the epitome of sweetness and is known among many people in NITR, juniors, and seniors alike. She is probably the only one among the NITR junta who can be googled about. Having bagged several prizes in classical dance, modern dance, and modeling, the list of her accomplishments is proof that she puts her sweat, blood, and everything inside her in what she does. With a recipe of talent like this, she also has the garnishing of love. The heartthrob of the Institute, she is and will remain the 'Golden girl' of this institute. Wishing this ball of energy and cuteness all the success in the world.

TANAY KUMAR

116CR0136 #Motabhai #Guma_diya #BearHugBoi #Topperlog #Kaamchor #Dramebaaz

A perfect stature, impeccable speech, a rose gold heart, and the tendency to come up with naturally innovative adjectives to describe people in the most UP way possible is what makes up our truly videshi-desi Tanay. The king of all things either material or immaterial and the heartthrob of who knows how many, Tanay is simple, handsome with some bad-ass brains and passion. The perfect mix of Sugar and Spice, he will slip his sweet sword of jokes and slice your ego into pieces. From Ritvic practice, till 3 am, to hours solving math 4 sums, to the fiery Clarion speeches, to being someone who can always be relied upon-even on seven glasses down-Tanay has been the poster boy all-rounder whose future heights are only limited by his own imagination. This Manchester United fan is a sports fanatic and watches nearly every sport on the planet. A lot of the time you'll find him sitting among a group of people in Rengcol and laughing himself silly at some stupid joke he has cracked. Believed to be a homeless kid who takes shelter in different people's rooms, this "illahabad ka launda" is all hearts when it comes to relations, be it with juniors, batch mates, or seniors, everybody has had a moment when they have fallen in love with him. The English language may treat Tanay Kumar as a proper noun but for NITR, it has become a verb synonymous with food hunting. A powerhouse of energy, this multifaceted person is the life of every party. The only showman of NITR and the heart and soul of Ritvic, his role is unmatched and irreplaceable. If you're reading this after a few years- believe in yourself- you're always successful in getting to the end.

SRIJA MUKHOPADHYAY

116CR0140 #MissCongeniality #OverAchiever #VideshBound #PJQueen #Pawsome

Smart, fashionable, diligent, and yet so playfully innocent - that's Srija for you. She is best described as a personification of a little bottle of cheer, a charm bracelet, or just that doll from back home that you couldn't live without. She is the textbook 'beauty with brains', however, she hates being clicked and has a tendency of snatching away phones and deleting her pictures. You most probably would have seen her somewhere on campus rolling around laughing at some lame joke that she herself cracked. Generally seen in and around the library and tea stall, she spends more of her time taking naps and scrolling through Instagram than actually reading-no wonder she is the database for all gossips the campus has to offer. She resembles the 3 adorable dogs she owns in occupying corners of rooms and making weird noises. A terrific binge-watcher of series across any possible platform, her love for bingeing is complemented by her envious ability to fall asleep through anything. She may commit the world's biggest blunder but can melt you into a puddle with her version of puppy face, which may as well be called the 'Sriyay Face'! Srija is, without a trace of doubt, one of the most dependable and reliable people that one can ever come across. She has had her fair share (and then some more) of attention from not only the males but also the females of the campus. Behind the pretty face and cutesy charm is a quietly ambitious girl with a never-say-die attitude, who prefers working hard in silence. Already Columbia bound, the world has great things in store for our Srija in the future. In the end, there are only three things certain in life-death, taxes, and Srija winning hearts.

ADYASHA PATTNAIK

116CR0145 #Danturi #Sleepyhead #PuriUpma #ChaiKiTapri #PapaKiPari

With the most unique set of dentine Adyasha aka Addu aka Addss spreads across the merriest of smiles. 'Gundi' to strangers and 'an epitome of sweetness' to her loved ones is what makes her stand out among the crowd. The ICICI bank of Axiom- this has been one of her profound identities because of her praiseworthy managerial skills. Simplicity and maturity, this "Khanti Berhampuriah" justifies both these traits. Her patience level is completely out of anyone's reach. So are her gossips, which never seem to have a full stop. Her favourite spots are the backbench during lectures and 'chai tapri' near the banyan tree after lectures. If there is anything that surpasses her unwavering love for tea, it is her love for black outfits, accessories, puri upma, and chicken pakoda. For her, mid-day naps are the best thing in the world and better are the naps a day before exams. Despite that, she excels in the art of scoring high in exams. A calm and sophisticated girl whose silence is her best weapon, Adyasha is an ardent Avengers, Friends and GOT fan, and ironically, her watchlist also includes shows like Bigg Boss, Splitsvilla, and Love School that deal with arguments every other moment. One of the most chilled out girls of her branch, lectures, and Adyasha are antonyms which means that even though she is an integral part of her branch, she never lends an ear to the professors' rants. The multi-talented person that she is, she has the ability to transform any murky photograph to a worthy one with her on-point editing skills. This "papa ki pari" is the backbone of all her friends and she ensures through her pertinent efforts that her friends are never in any sort of problem. Wishing her all the success and happiness in the world.

Meet K Roja, "jahara munda re achi gajjaa". Hailing from the city of Berhampur, Roja is one of the best examples of the phrase "happy go lucky". It is plain sailing for Roja to win someone's heart with her charming and captivating talks. She will wave at you, smile and exchange pleasantries even on her way to class and no one has ever had to struggle to break the ice with her. A perfect blend of Telugu and Odia, this girl from the borders of Odisha is a 'Khanti Berhampuria'. The daughter that every other professor of Ceramic Department wants, whenever she gets into an argument with a teacher, it is hard to fathom who is the one shouting. Dancing to match to the level of her madness is beyond anyone's competence. Sometimes judgemental about the people around, she never goes overboard nor does she hold any kind of bias on that basis. She is an ardent Doraemon lover who craves for idli and can walk 100 kilometers barefoot for the same. The self-proclaimed drama queen that she is, "Actress" Roja never repeats her outfit and ensures that her friends look their beautiful best through her on-point dressing sense and makeup. She has had an iconic transformation wherein she only used to listen to Sai Baba bhajan on waking up and now her mornings begin with songs like "Mallika, chale jiba chillika/ Rangei Lunda". This bindi lover can survive on mess food by just eating "paani bhata" and has a strange love for the Bisleri water bottle. An altruistic, brilliant, and understanding girl who always tries to keep her loved ones as happy as possible, she is an excellent source of optimism, encouragement, and inspiration. Wishing this girl with a golden heart a bright future with lots of happiness.

One of the brightest personalities at NITR, Abhishek is the star of Ceramic dual degree batch of 2021 academically. With a combination of immense talent and good looks along with strong focus and determination, he can give anybody a run for their money when it comes to dedication. Apart from his inclination towards academics, he is fascinated by the idea of traveling to new places with friends and shows curiosity to learn about the cultures of different regions. This topper is well known for his early to bed early to rise policy. During exams when the whole hostel is in a frenzy with stress and tension, one can easily spot this guy going to sleep as early as 9pm. Recipient of the academic excellence award for all four years, more often than not he is engaged only in studies or academic-related work or reading research papers in his free time. With a dream of joining elite research institutes like DRDO, ISRO, CSIR-LABS, he leaves no stone unturned to work towards its fulfillment. In addition to that, Abhishek is very fond of playing games and watching new movies. Here's wishing him luck and hoping he is successful in realizing his dreams.

SHRANTIK KUMAR DEY

716CR2031 #Schemer #BlendedScotch #ProxyKing #Flirty #Heartbroken #ChaiLover #GMAT

Shrantik Dey aka "Inno mundi" is the most jugaadu person you will ever come across in NITR. If you are looking for this guy, you will probably find him in the dispensary arranging leaves. With the deceptive build of a teddy bear, he is like a shrewd, cunning fox with a plan for everything you throw at him, rightfully earning the "schemer" tag. From being the Secretary to Innovision 2019 Convenor Dean's Nominee, his influence and contacts in SAC leave people amazed at how smoothly and efficiently his talent and skills culminate into a beautiful result. After the major success of Inno'19, NITR is yet to see a more deserving Convenor. Infamous among his professors for his unnecessary arguments rather than his talents, this guy is an active political critic who enjoys debating whenever he gets a chance. Ask him about Indian independence history and he would leave you awestruck with the plethora of knowledge he has. Being a part of several teams, he leads them like Dhoni leads the Indian cricket team. This guy is full of information and is a huge gossip-monger. Networking with all the people in and around Rourkela, he plans to become the Education Minister to exempt children from studying. Shrantik is a true example of a party animal and you would never want to miss seeing him dance. Underneath this schemer lies a sweet, caring, and helpful person with a heart of gold. His love for his juniors and constant guidance to help them achieve great heights makes him nothing short of an elder brother to them. He is headstrong and determined and lives by the motto "nothing is impossible". Here's wishing he achieves all the success in the world.

PREETI SHARON KISPOTTA

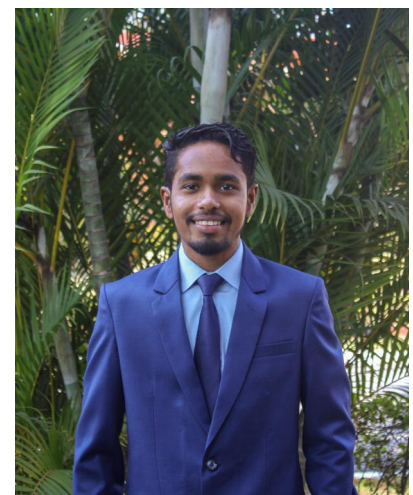

716CR2033 #Tomboy #PreetiSanon #Foodie #Artist #Gamer #LazyAF

Humble, kind, and pretty- these three words describe Preeti accurately. The search for a true companion ends with this girl. Always a go-to buddy in every situation, she lends her ears to every nonsense and never says a word about how it disgusted her, such is her friendship. A tomboy at heart, there is no match for her when she decides to dress up. Usually a quiet and reserved person, she becomes quite the chatterbox once she starts talking. Sometimes frustrated with academics, she manages to find ways to solve them on her own. What she enjoys the most in life is complete peace, free from any stress and anxiety, such as a cool rainy afternoon spent sleeping inside her blanket. Blessed with wonderful hidden talents many of which she would never let the world know, she is also a huge anime fan. Preeti has got the ability to mingle with any type of people and act accordingly, having a really flexible and unbiased personality. A great foodie with a varied taste for food, she is the perfect late-night munching and movie partner. Wishing this girl all the best for her future.

JITENDER KUMAR

716CR2034 #Bihari #Sportsperson #Heartbroken #Gyaanch*d #Foodie #Dancer #Artist #Writer

Contrary to what the nickname would probably suggest, the "Jittu" of our batch is a better athlete than an actor. People may underestimate him because of his skinny body, but this cricket buff is all about dedication and perseverance. This cheerful Bihari guy hardly happens to miss a class and yet he can be found at the doors of his classmates during semester examinations for notes. The Delhi Capital fanatic's motivation comes from Yuvraj Singh. Famous for his Hindi speaking skills, he is a champion runner and will never miss out on any opportunity to interact with the opposite sex. Jitender has many qualities- from being an intelligent and strong minded person to always standing up for what is right, you can spot him riding a bicycle to the class that is heavier than his 40kg self. Always appreciative of good food, with a good appetite, he is also an active sportsperson, having won quite a few medals in athletics. He wins hearts with his calm and composed nature and is known for his explicit sense of humor. For him, his friends are important and he never hesitates to make time for them. May his sweet and amiable nature grant him all the success he has ever dreamt of. Wishing him all the best for his future endeavors.

SANJOG PATRA

Sanjog aka "Mastrey" aka "Ana" is a Berhampuriya by birth and a Cuttackia by heart. A genuine, down to earth, and humble guy, he resembles a South Indian movie villain on losing his temper. With an unwavering love for puri upma he can eat it lifelong if given a choice. Sanjog is a cricket enthusiast with a special corner in his heart reserved for Hardik Pandya so much so that he cries when he gets out. A die hard KKR fan, he can be found cheering for his team during the IPL season even if he has an exam the next day. A secret Kabir Singh who loved his Preeti to the moon and back for the last six years, this guy is known for taking a lot of unnecessary tension and is often spotted dozing off during lectures. A passionate traveller who never says no to travel, he holds inside him a fascination for discovering new places. An innocent guy who still has the traits of a 5 year old, he is believed to indulge in heavy 'bakchodis' once he gets drunk. An interesting fact about this guy is that he is probably the only guy in NITR who got ragged by his friends but not at all by his seniors in his first year. Wishing this friendly and charming personality all the best for his future.

COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

What could excite 90s kids more than Recess, Computer lab! To go clickety-clack with a Ball-pointer mouse had its own thrills after all. From removing shoes outside the only AC lab in school to remembering the start-up routine, they learnt stuff before it was taught. As 'Windows 98' booted up, some of you played with the Turtle, while some of you would "hack" with the Command prompt. At home if you had a dial-up, you were lucky, and 'Yahoo' and 'Orkut' would be your social media. And if you don't recall any of these, remember the day you opened a CPU for the first time, and where you're now, a Computer Science Engineer.

CLASS OF 2020

ABHISHEK BHATTACHARJEE

115CS0011 #LazyAF #Coder #Fearless #Gyaanch*d #Bhatta_Bhai

Arguably the most generous and helpful guy of our batch, Abhishek is fondly known as Bhatta by his friends and universally known as Bhatta bhai. He is the humblest and most underrated guy in a rare breed of engineers who believe in knowledge beyond textbooks. Abhishek does what he loves and loves what he does. He never accepts any kind of inconvenience and is known to speak out in front of everyone without a single sign of fear. He has raised his voice again and again over the irregularities found in the department and wouldn't ever run away from meeting the most notorious of professors alone. He is a one-man army who can bring change by himself. An avid lover of e-sports, and particularly a god of FIFA, Abhishek is also an ardent follower of Linkin Park and has memorized all its songs by heart. What one may not know is that he is addicted to sleeping, and can sleep at length from 8 to 8 non-stop. He loves to keep a small company and loves to spend the little time he has to himself with them. He is extremely crazy about his beard and fitness and is a hard-core downloading freak. This talented, dignified person has miles to run and a bag of glories to add on his cap, and we wish him all the best for his future.

HITAISHI BARAI

116CS0164 #LazyAF #Coder #Gamer #Ganesh #Hackerman #MilkshakeBoy

Hitaishi is one of the smartest geeks to have set foot on campus. A very down to earth person by nature he is. He's the type of person who can maintain a handsome GPA by just studying a day before his exams. His excellence at self-study results in him to be usually found sitting at the backbenches and sleeping. His girlfriends are Counter-Strike and Battlefield, thus rendering his gaming skills impeccable and earning him the alias of "Stupid" in the cyberspace of NITR. Hitaishi is a Robotics master in true sense which is showcased by his pivotal roles in both Cyborg and Team Tiburon. His idiosyncrasies include competitiveness, honesty, benevolence and hard work in whether it is gaming, watching movies or work which are the three favourite things of his life. There is hardly ever a movie that he can say he has never watched. Every day, after class he can be found trying different milkshakes and chocolates at the Amul Parlour showcasing his love for sugar which is typical for a true, rotund bong. Hitaishi is a friend who always has your back, but will always be brutally honest to you like a true friend should. We all hope that this genius in making becomes a part of something amazing in the world.

ANIMESH DAS

116CS0176 #GMAT #Homesick #MM_CC_not_CE #Bong #Gamer

The metamorphosis of this 'Bengali Bhodro Chele' to the badass bong in these 4 years, Animesh Das's tale deserves the eternity of being recorded on celluloid as one of the finest NITR produced. Applying a scathing statistic check to even selection of team members for a game of fantasy cricket, it is no surprise that he was a gem for Monday Morning, the organization he enriched with a charming blend of his lyrical writing and fiercely precise facts/news of the institute. His way with words would surely make the soul of Shakespeare flood with pride. It was again no surprise (which he still denies accepting) that he was anointed the Chief Coordinator (not Chief Editor!) of MM. With a cut diamond's clarity in his words, mind and vision, he deftly multitasked to manage the media body, his ever-soaring academics, being on top of the leader board of PUBG and maintaining a neat mental record of the 2720 hours of binged watched TV and web series, all at the same instance like a human octa-core processor. Jetting off to Canada as a research intern in his pre-final year, he claims that this sojourn made a hugely strong and responsible man out of the introvert freshman who used to have a ticket to his hometown ready each weekend. Bringing oodles of mouthwatering delicacies from his hometown though, he exudes the old-world nectarine charm and humility of Old Calcutta, making him dear of all who know him. In near future, he is going to be a highly respected and righteous citizen and we wish this beautiful soul nothing but the best life has to offer.

AMAAN IQBAL

116CS0186 #GMAT #Extra/Curricular #Coder #ChaiLover #Writer #GSoC #TechHead

Amaan is the definition of an introvert. When around strangers he just manages to pull off a shy and nervous laugh but is otherwise profusely jovial, loving and helpful when among his friends. A regular worker in projects, he is probably the most hardworking in the entire campus. Having worked on a lot of fields, he can rightfully be called an 'academics all-rounder', with mastery in both developmental and competitive coding. He is a regular front-bencher and is very sincere and sharp on his knowledge over a vast range of topics in the world of technology. This geek is active in extracurricular activities too, with cricket and badminton being his favourite sports. With a streak of a budding entrepreneur having good decision-making skills, he has done more internships (the prestigious GSOC among them!), research papers and projects than class assignments, and found time to open a start-up too. A very truthful and obedient person who never copies in laboratory assignments, he comes from a rare breed of do-gooders who never used DC++. An expert in time management, he only found time to relax and enjoy a bit during his final days after placement. Besides having a sharp brain, Amaan is smart enough to question the rationality of things he observes around him. A person that you can count on, we wish this self-reliant, talented and ambitious coder all the best for his future.

C. LALNUNCHAMA

116CS0197 #GMAT #Singer #Flirty #GroovesthatKill #PowerHouseofCSE

C. Lalnunchama also popularly known by his friends as MN/Manuna. Flirting with pretty girls is his hobby and you can always spot him taking selfies with them and posting it on social media. This exquisite singer is who makes "Euphony Live" lively and is seen toying with your favourite songs that will make you fall in love with his voice. Not just singing, he is popular to sway large crowds through his groovy dance moves for Mavericks. Nothing can come between him and his love for Aloo (Potato) and Pork. He is an avid Marvel fan and gym junkie. His personality quite matches his name Lalnun"-Chama" a prince, too sensitive and emotional, always serious about diet to maintain his body. One of the most enthusiastic and jovial guys you will ever come across, he is full of energy, carrying a wide grin on his face 24*7 and always seen in sleeveless T-Shirts. He hardly ever pays attention in any class and is always seen doodling on his notebook or table. A hardcore PUBG lover, he goes to the extent of charging his phone in the reading room and playing when there is no power in hostels. He is known to be the joker among his friends and an amazing cook as well who loves vegetables even though he is a non-vegetarian. Despite his innumerable extracurriculars, he has never sacrificed his academics. Known to be a really good coder, his hard work and perseverance have landed him a dream job in Samsung. We hope he continues his passion and keeps entertaining people through his music and dance and wish him a bright future ahead.

PRASHANSA PANDA

116CS0209 #Lemme_See #GMAT #ParallelChatter #ChickenLover

Prashansa Panda, aka PP, is a cheerful girl whose combination of killer looks and considerate nature has left her with many fans. But this sakht laundiya has kept the gates of her heart shut and locked. She is the prankster for her group and an awful secret keeper. Her determined personality has helped in her journey- academics and weight loss. Her antics are a perfect replica of Jethalal's bizarre behaviour. An opportunist by nature, if life gives her lemons, she would make lemonades, then use the zest in a lemon cake and sell them both! A narcissist in the truest sense, she isn't bothered about anybody else's opinions and is a self-adoring individual. She is an ardent fan of Hindi daily soaps. Her friends fear when she begins narrating the stories because they know it won't end anytime soon! Someone who loves winning arguments, Prashansa gets a kick out of the chance to banter on philosophy however doesn't permit the other party to talk and put their viewpoint. The four years of college life has transformed this kid into an adult. Don't be surprised if you see her quietly sobbing while watching a rom-com. Punctuality is one of her strongest traits. Her ability to put her academics before anything else shows her responsible and focussed side. Being a responsible girl, she always makes sure to consider her family before taking any step. With her signature 'Lemme-see' mantra, this chicken-lover is always ready to help anyone who asks for assistance. Kind-hearted, gentle and understanding, Prashansa is a must in your best friend list.

ANANYA SAHOO

116CS0221 #GMAT #LazyAF #Coder #SizeZero #PartiesAndPadhai #NotesJugadu

Ananya Sahoo aka Miss Thinness can win over anyone's heart through her simplicity in everything she does or says. This hardworking GMAT girl has a brilliant academic career and was the branch opener in the placement season. She is very strict about punctuation and never misses even a comma. The Acko girl prefers to stay in her room, though this tradition has recently changed for certain branch mates. But don't mistake her for being a nerd she is always up for parties. Apart from that, she is a girl with intellect combined with compassion and extremely strong willpower to achieve anything she wants. She is the teacher to everyone. She speaks in Hindi with her parents even though she is Odia, a true competition to our chief minister. With the calmness of a hundred seas, this girl redefines innocence and stands by her virtues. From being the short-haired girl in the first semester to transforming herself into someone who can get all dolled up for mere lectures, she has shown how engineering brings about metamorphosis. She is a big rescue when it comes to exams and arranges notes from every nook and corner of the world for you. She loves Indian web series content and there exists no such series she hasn't ever binge-watched. A helpful and amiable young lady with whom you can share anything, she will hear you out with tranquillity and calmness and attempt to give practical solutions. She is a very good secret keeper and an expert in hiding out her emotions. We wish this charming personality a little weight and every success and happiness that her heart desires.

HARIN SANTOSH

116CS0231 #GMAT #Coder #Writer #Bakka #Chatterbox

The most diligent person in the department is Harin Santosh, aka Hoorin or Bakka. Doing justice to his name, Harin always has a smiling face with which he makes an instant connection with people. Having one conversation with this highly dramatic chatterbox or seeing him mimic someone will break anyone up into giggles. His childish nature shows the innocence of his heart. He can talk for hours about any topic under the sun. One of the brightest and sincerest of his batch, Harin is the type of student all professors would have in an ideal world. No matter how boring a lecture is, you will see Harin paying undivided attention while rapidly scribbling down notes in his notebook. The phrase 'Eka Santha Grahi', which means that he grasps anything that he learned or heard only once, suits him best. Despite his strong dedication to studies, one should not be deceived by his geeky and nerdy side, because he is a huge fan of Tamil and Telugu movies- especially the ones that feature Kajal Aggarwal in them! He has also been part of some clubs on campus and was made the President of SPAWN. Although he is a perfectionist, he has still been unable to perfect his Hindi speaking skills! Harin's helpful and caring nature has also made him an excellent mentor to his juniors. He always takes time out from his schedule, no matter how hectic, to mentor and tutor his fellow juniors. Harin's level of perseverance and hard work will help him triumph through every obstacle in his life.

SHRUTI PRAMOD

115CS0020 #LazyAF #Singer #Dancer #Foodie #Artist #DreamyEyes

Shruti is a girl with a heart of gold. She is kind to living-beings of all forms- dogs, cats, humans and well, goldfishes too! She went into depression when two of her pet goldfishes died (blame regular classes for that) but buried them with her most favourite bracelets. She now has a pet cat, whom she calls "Mao". She is full of life when it comes to the fun but extremely lazy to take care of her belongings. She can easily get lost if she has her headphones on, loving music no less than movies, which are both her two greatest pastimes. Apart from her amazing artistic skills, which can be inferred from her wall paintings, her talents include singing, dancing, making funny videos and most important of all, eating 2 huge packets of popcorn at a time. Shruti also loves travelling, reading novels, yoga, badminton, baking and cooking (we probably missed something, yes, being late to class, caring for social issues like animal welfare, environment and god knows what), and has recently turned vegan. Shruti swears by her love of wearing Indian traditional attire, especially a saree, and to top it off, she has an awesome earrings collection. A heart full of love, she has her mindset on doing good to others and can harm none. A girly-girl wearing her sensitive heart on her sleeves, Shruti is an epitome of selflessness, sweetness and humility. We wish her the best for her bright, colourful and happy future!

AJIT KUMAR BEHERA

116CS0165 #Web_developer_mundi #Foodie #Singer #Booze #ProxyKing #Guitarist

How do you contain so much class and candour in one is a question best answered by this man himself? Ajit, fondly known as AJ or Ajeeeeet, is a potful of talents, be it coding, cooking, guitar or cricket. With a sing-song voice that would evoke the most romantic of sentiments in people, Ajit's dexterity as a guitarist has bloomed since his first year. A stylish and an excellent poser for the camera, attending morning classes has become harder with time for him as partying the night before became easier. Still, all he needs are a few hours of studying to make sure he scores more than expectations. With a great tolerance for firewater and a foodie, Ajit would never say no to a party and has grown a nice tummy. He is someone who would even go to another city to watch a movie. From being an admirable coordinator at Microsoft Campus Club to managing all his projects and academics, Ajit has mastered time management skills. Few would forget the nights he spent creating the website of Treasherlocked and finally making it live on the internet. Despite being the humblest and most reserved person one can find, a few PUBG matches might change the way of things for this cool yet emotional gentleman. A great listener with unbiased views, Ajit is both fearless and down to earth, an Odia who is a clear aberration to the common negative stereotypes. With a ferocious passion for web development and a dynamic duo with Preetam, Ajit is hardworking and may have skipped many a class but never failed a single deadline given to him. A true companion who would support you through thick and thin, we wish this ever-helpful, calm, and super-talented human all the best for his future.

PABITRA DASH

116CS0177 #Dancer #Coder #Gyanch*d #Gamer #Balasorian #MrPureHeart

Pabitra Dash aka Pabitra Bhaina is a true introvert with a pure heart who can make you quickly fall in love with jhal mudhi with Balasorian tadka, but not any quicker than the time he takes to gorge upon the umpteen books in his room and phone (a tally of almost 200 so far). Even with this introverted and sophisticated personality, he would open up quickly once he became friends with you. A hard-working, simple and practical person who speaks his heart out openly, you can seal him in his room with just books, internet and food for days. Commonly known as PabiRandi in D-block MSS hall, this guy likes to live minimally in his own world, with whatever life throws at him. He has seen many ups and downs in life and has handled them both with amazing maturity. Mudhi, Mixture and Books remained his best friends through all of these. He has an amazing level of curiosity and knowledge about space and cricket and has won many quizzes by virtue of his expertise on the latter. You may occasionally spot him dancing in his own room to retro music. His love for his Dell knows no bounds. Though an undergrad in CS, Pabitra almost boasts of a minor in physics thanks to all the electives he has taken up. From watching movies in the night before an exam to working on his project later the same night, this guy can be more versatile than Bear Grylls. An avid coder who had been thrown out of the class many a time, he ended up in a dream company which he claims he will never leave no matter what. With the right mix of calm and ambitious, we wish this wonderful soul all the best for his endeavours!

MANEESH KUMAR JENA

116CS0187 #GMAT #ProxyKing #Coder

Decent, popular and intelligent- Three words that perfectly describe Maneesh Jena. He is also known as DJMJ, thanks to his weird taste in music from B-grade raps to some Bihari love songs and Arabic music whose lyrics he remembers by heart. Although he thinks of himself as a terrific singer, his friends do not seem to agree with the same! The bro of NITR, this guy has an extraordinary power of achieving anything at his will. From cracking GATE exams in 7 days to winning a hackathon and getting the highest package in the campus. This guy has done it all. This simpleton will keep wearing his 2-3 selected shirts despite having a closet full of branded shirts and jeans. He's known to be a 0/1 person- He does something only if he wants to. Also known to be a selective extrovert, he goes into his shell as soon as he comes across someone from the opposite gender. An ardent disciple of procrastination, if there was an award for the most proxies in 4 years of undergrad life, DJMJ is the definite winner. Be it exams or assignments; he can be found studying or copying stuff in the last minute. From being an innocent sadhu to a double-meaning slang master, he has had a very transforming journey in NITR. Always entertaining people with his poor jokes this guy is a perfect friend for chilling out. But when it comes to helping friends, he never hesitates. An Optimist who likes to enjoy every bit of life, Maneesh's smart-work and talent will help him achieve whatever he wants- Maybe even bringing one of his weird start-up ideas to life!

NISCHAY NIRAJIT MAHANTA

116CS0199 #Flirty #Coder #Gyaanch*d #InHousePsychiatrist #HackerBoi

Nischay's wide grin of pearly teeth on the campus is a joy to the eyes. He acts as a listening soul to all your woes and often comes up with an incredible solution to your problems ranging from coding to life. An actual gentleman who has been tested at different conditions but is always calm to stick to the basics of never giving up on people. He will help you no matter how busy/bad a mood he is in. A one hour talk with him is like a session with a psychiatrist for stress release. He never loses hope and always encourages his friends and is the first to congratulate on his friends' achievements. He is someone who gives random treats to his peers whenever he's in a good mood without any reason which is extremely rare in engineering colleges. Very helpful, cheerful, supportive and caring, Nischay is a must in your good books. He has many projects to complete which includes hacking Facebook someday. A bluff master, a hardcore Java lover he is an ever-smiling boy who never hesitates to help his friends and neighbours. He is a soft-hearted boy who has thousands of ideas running in his mind and can't tolerate if anyone tells anything against Java. Scoring 0/100 on the ego scale, he has always tried to keep his closer ones as delightful as possible. He enjoys watching movies, series and is a memer, coder, a special friend, a person who will stand by you for the rest of the life, support you and guide you. We hope his contagious cheerful personality keeps everyone around him happy and wish him the best of luck.

AYUSH ASHUTOSH

116CS0211 #LazyAF #Coder #Daddy #PhilosopherStoned

The 'Daddy' of NITR, Ayush is known for his effortless jugaad and has an astounding ability to speak "white lies". An ambivert with an ability to read people like a book. As his nick suggests he is well respected among his peers and friends as he is the best person to get advice from regarding any problems. A master Rubik's cube solver who can solve anything within minutes. But behind this kind guy lies a philosopher who comes out during certain 'fun' nights. Ayush is a conscientious person with an ample amount of discretion. He is a situation-driven guy who knows to capitalize at a given time with limited resources. He is a guy who hates idleness and keeps it at a distance, being involved and active has always been part of his daily life. Hypersomnia by day and owl by night, this guy won't even respond to an earthquake once he is asleep. He is a person, who can be serious about something and would still love to fleet time in merrymaking at the very same time. His keen interest in reading books, exploring things and intellectual thoughts has shaped him to be a Pantomath. His drinking capacity is still unknown and he is found more near night canteen or Binod bhai than in the mess. He is always helpful and cheerful. His hardworking nights will definitely play its role, and he will surely create a JARVIS of his own someday. We wish him all the best for his future.

KAMAL SAHOO

116CS0222 #LazyAF #Coder #Gamer #GitHubGeek #GameBoy

Kamal, also known as Kulu, is regarded as one of the best coders of NITR which was doubly confirmed with him getting placed in Microsoft. He's the ultimate saviour in labs. You don't know what's going on in the lab? Just open google, search "kulukamal GitHub" and you are good to go. Everything is systematically serialized in folders just ctrl-A ctrl-C and ctrl-V away. Analyzing and cross-analyzing things is his trait. Always tries to do something new and different. He knows how to maximize the profit in everything, a good business strategist. He has attended minimum classes yet never got any grade back as he manages to get proxies. At the starting of his Bachelor's, he was a first benchner who listened to the professor sincerely, which changed completely in the later years as he attended classes only for attendance. Calls all his friends as 'Gaba' and loves music. He spends many sleepless nights playing PUBG and CS-GO and is addicted to watching the live stream of them as well. You will never find any book or notes in his room and yet he manages to get above 9 in every semester. We hope he keeps achieving huge things in life and wish him all the very best for his future.

ARNAPURNA SATAPATHY

116CS0232 #LazyAF #Sportsperson #Coder #Bro #OCD

The silent diva of the department, Arnapura, was christened 'Bro' owing to her trademark walk and mannerisms. Her transition from the notorious kid during middle school to the extremely sincere and studious girl she turned into during higher classes has been an interesting one. Her down-to-earth attitude makes her more approachable and loved. She is also an excellent teacher. Arnapura believes in the motto that "Hard work beats talent if talent doesn't work hard". This badminton champion has won several accolades and medals for her skills with the racquet. Apart from obsessing over chocolate and coffee, Arnapura is also obsessed with cleanliness. She keeps her room not just clean but 'Monica' clean. Her innovative hairstyles have always managed to grab everyone's attention, and her package of PJs sends everyone into fits of laughter. Although she is a huge foodie, she also has a peculiar habit of dieting for no reason! Patience is one of her virtues- she can patiently listen to somebody's rant for an entire day, and in the end, give sound advice. And after all of it, she expects absolutely nothing in return. All poker players should be aware of the luck she possesses, though. From counting the number of chapters to study in the first year to counting the number of face cards she needs to win the game, her pre-exam scenes changed from those of a GMAT to a Khanti Juara. Her silent laughter, actions and expressions during playing cards are unique to her. Her dedication to every sphere of her life is truly appreciable. All in all, she is the most mature person in the group who gives the most righteous and appropriate advice. Here's to seeing a photo of a successful Arnapura in front of the Eiffel Tower in the future!

BODDULA SAHITHI

116CS0155 #karimnagaripilla #GMAT #Dancer #LazyAF

Nicknamed baby (cute, sweet and innocent like one), Kanna, Banda, Pappu (as she eats the only dal at her home daily which makes her look fat) and mama (friend), Sahithi breaks all the stereotypes of a regular girl—and is one of the most matured people you would ever meet. A caring, fun-loving and interesting friend with no drama, Sahithi is a serial buff who binge-watches more than anyone in NITR. Probably every proud engineer comes to class without a bath but the amount she spends on perfumes could probably pay someone's semester fee. She likes guys with a good beard! Notably, she is the one who starts to laugh last at all your non-veg jokes. She would study a lot a day before exams and still say "mama I don't know anything"! A part-time artist and a Chicken Tikka lover, Sahithi has a big list of crushes and loves gossiping. You would die laughing as you watch her run when she hears a dog barking from a mile away. Sahithi is a soul with strong independent views. This dimpled girl is very pure at heart, bit crazy and forever helpful. Wishing her all the success in the world, we hope she never stops spreading happiness and joy in this generation where relationships come with desperations and dramas.

This insomniac is one person that can always be counted on to be there for his friends when needed. Also called a food tanker by his friends because of his ability to consume any kind of food without wasting (even in the mess!). Here's to Anand writing his autobiography someday!

MANUKUMMAR RUDRESH

116CS0157 #Foodcomesfirst #Coder #KingofCritiquing #Talkative #GadgetGuru

Manukummar Rudresh is a great example of persistence. When he puts his heart to something, it is sure that he is going to achieve it and when he doesn't want to do something, he won't care about it either. That's the reason he has maintained the phenomenal record of coming late to every class since his freshman year but having said that, this Indian from Indonesia will always be found on the front benches of the class, talking to friends and copying notes from the board at the same time. He is a foodie and is always ready to give critical reviews about literally any dish, something as insignificant as a biscuit too. Apart from being a die-hard fan of comedy shows and movies he has the hunger to learn everything about newly arrived gadgets. His garrulous nature allows him to have a conversation with himself! (Because he'll ask a question and also answer it and not listen to the people talking to him). Manu is caring and sensible. But he NEVER compromises on his food- even if it means that he has to lose attendance in Turuk or Gattu sir's class. He is adventurous and is always ready to go on a long cycle ride or a restaurant. His photography skills are underrated because people give more praise to his amazing phone camera. He is a kind soul he makes sure to give you chocolate if you help him. Summing up his college life in NITR, Manu can be considered as a fighter as he has seen setbacks, worked hard to overcome it and has achieved success through his determination and perseverance. We hope this jolly soul all the happiness of the world and wish him the best of luck for his future.

SIDDHARTH BEHERA

116CS0168 #Booze #Heartbroken #Flirty #ProxyKing #Writer #Innovator #Innocent

Well-known as Bangya, and later as Siddhu, Nobita, Gify (all for no particular reason), Siddharth is the epitome of courtesy and humility. The only guy to get placed and settled at the same time, he is committed to perform VeriTask and become PraSid. He had decided to stop swearing, failed and is now looking at becoming a bestselling author anytime soon. He got into Codehub because of his content writing when his intention was something else. He is yet to eat a complete chicken roll by himself. Lately, he's into booze but comes exam time and he gets all serious. A GMAT who can teach even in front of an exam hall, one can rely on him for notes and assignments at any time of the year, not because he is attentive in class but because he has a sharing network in place. Good at texting in parallel, this socially active person never gets angry—kick, punch, poke or do what you may. Having found a motto in, "Bulati Hai magar jane ka nahin", he has started exploring the field of memes and relationship advice. Still, thanks to a huge female following, he manages to have a company at every weekend dinner. PUBG, F1 and WWE being his favourite sports and Facebook being his addiction, the victims of Sid's memes include friends and professors alike. His room is a small medicine store because of the short bursts of sickness he keeps inviting. He becomes "Courage the cowardly dog" in any haunted house. A subject of many pranks, he can easily be convinced and takes time to understand jokes. A supportive senior and a secret-keeper, he would be a mom at the time of your distress. We wish this smart and multi-faceted personality all the best for his future.

SASWAT DASH

116CS0179 #Booze #Singer #Artist #Heartbroken #GMAT #LazyAF #ProxyKing #KillerSmiles

Acts like a love guru even though he has never been in a relationship, courtesy his not-so-secret female fan-followers all over the world. Under the impression that his English accent is good, he is very bad at keeping secrets. He can either sleep or stay awake for two straight days. He sips professionally and would visit your room to drink water rather than fill his own bottles. This person can put out complicated stuff in a simple way and aspires to be a professor at a top foreign University. He already has the required looks with poor grooming and fashion sense, and a research paper in his name too. He is a legit karaoke singer and a talented artist and sometimes showcases his art on Instagram. A talented cocktail-maker, orange juice is his secret ingredient. A guy who loves to miss classes and always in search of a proxy, Saswat is often found in the room sleeping if not at the back post (his regular haunt at 10 pm). He is a food-lover who would snatch from your plate if not offered straight up. A big stalker, he is always hunting on dating sites. TARINEE PRASAD

116CS0224 #LazyAF #Booze #Gamer #MasterProcrastinator #BathBaaki

Tarinee is arguably the laziest person you will meet in the entire NITR campus. Popularly known as 'Gabba', he spends the majority of his time lying on the bed with a phone in his hand, watching YouTube or swiping through his Instagram feed. If last-minute exam preparation is an art, he is the Picasso of it, 6 hours are more than enough for him to clear any paper with ease. He is very serious about water conservation due to which he doesn't take a bath unless there is a function to go out to. He sleeps from 3 am to 3 pm on the weekends, and except for the days when there are classes at 8 am (which is not so often), this guy has never eaten breakfast. He's someone who's very obsessed with his hair and always manages to have a stylish yet not so gentle haircut, which also portrays his personality. CSGO is his forte and Mr Deadshot hopes to lead a team to the world championships in the future. He is the proxy master among his friends and manages to put multiple ones in a single class without getting caught. The extent of his selflessness is such that he once skipped a lab of his own so that he could help his friend attend one. If you wonder why RCB keeps losing matches in IPL, the reason is simple, Mr Gabba is an RCB fan and he's a Panauti. This jolly personality wears his heart in his sleeves and always laughs his heart out showing his incredibly white 32 teeth. This carefree bird is a rare breed of homo sapiens you will find, and we wish him the best of luck.

His lively and jovial attitude, in addition to his impartial and friendly nature, attracts a lot of people towards him. He understands the value of his friendships and relationships and puts full effort to maintain them. His famous saying, 'Shiva Is Number 1' shows his spirit and self-assurance. His stand-out quality is his ability to convince anyone with his words and sweet face- especially professors when he is late to class. On weekdays, you will find him attending classes sincerely and then juggling through his extracurriculars- Cricket, Swimming, Yoga. Come the weekend, and he will be found in the theatres watching Mahesh Babu's latest flick. And known among his friends as the 'kind foodie', he eats anything and everything edible without any fuss or criticism. This guy is also a cleanliness freak who bathes twice even in winters! SK has mastered the art of balancing enjoyment with discipline and academics. Although he was a part of several events and clubs over his years at college, he also ended up bagging a dream-job and an excellent grade point average too. His sincerity to commit to anything that he is involved in is a remarkable trait, and his ambitious nature and the clear vision he has of life will help him fulfil his dreams and goals undeterred. Here's to hoping that his dream of becoming a professor comes true in the future.

SRUTI SAMBHAVI

116CS0158 #Timpi #Penguin #Kanduri #Mama's_girl #Water_supplier

A perfect mix of sweetness and intelligence, Sruti aka Sruttss aka Tingiri has more edges to her than you can ever fathom in the time you spend with her. A mama's girl who wouldn't even change her DP without approval, you would wonder at the lengths she goes to make sure the last seen on her WhatsApp shows 6 am every morning. A major crush among boys, and a darling to her photo-addicted squad, she is the "5-star" of her batch. While being the ultimate saviour be it in placements or caption suggestions, she suffers recurring panic attacks when it comes to her own exams. Yet she is one of the calmest and most down-to-earth, with a perpetual smile pasted on her face. A multitasking pro-coder, she would mug up anything she finds difficult to understand. She can collect assignments from every corner of the world. Her terms as a President and a technical Head of a start-up stand testimony to her management skills. An elder sister for her club members, Sruti is as childish as all younger sisters are. This bubbly girl from Dhenkanal can make most introverts comfortable around her. A pathological foodie diagnosed with the chicken-is-life syndrome, Sruti is ready to compromise all her gym goals if asked to get into diet. One can often spot her at a tea stall gossiping and laughing raucously with her friends. Evolving from a bookworm to a party animal, she has remained a constant early-riser. If you ask her the reason for her name not being Shruti, she's having quite a story in store. A constant subject of trolling and the last moment jugaadu, if ever you happen to see a fluorescent elephant-printed umbrella carrying lass with unique spectacles by the roadside blissfully indulging in her own Nayan Sukh Prapti you know you have met Sruti. We wish this multi-talented, caring and super-sensitive diva all the best in her future pursuits.

RONAQ BEHURA

116CS0169 #Gym_GMAT #Tech_freak #Gyaanch*d #Gentleman

From being a studious guy in the first year to skipping classes in the later years, Ronaq Behura presents us with an amazing example of how the life of an Engineering Student evolves with time. A programming geek and an excellent coder who forgets his meals while blissfully writing the program of his life, he will be vividly remembered for coding in between classes during CodeChef contests in his third year. Over time, he developed excellent decision-making skills and maturity in prioritizing different things ranging from personal life to academics. He emerged as a persistent, confident and cheerful guy who swore to be the best in attaining all his goals in life. Ronaq is an intellectual GMAT who you would find studying anytime you visit his room. This consistent topper is also a fitness freak and loves going to the gym. Despite a very good fan following among the opposite gender across all departments, he loves French and dreams of making a French girlfriend (preferably elder than him) in his life. Nevertheless, his looks, flirty nature, sense of humour and intellectual traits continued to woo many hapless females till his last days on campus. This studious guy bagged the on-campus internship of Goldman Sachs and is also among the first guys to be placed in his batch, landing himself a dream job in Acko. Highly ambitious about his future and very precise about what he wants in his life, Ronaq plans to work for Microsoft or Google, move to the states and earn billions coding someday. And we wish him all the best in his pursuits.

Even with all the cash flow from his mini travel agency, this Kuwaiti DASA guy will think twice (read as ten times) before spending even a penny. You can always see him dedicate his time to the projects he has, even if they are the one that he hates the most, he would still run to the lab to work on the project as soon as the last exam is over. His love for movies is so much that he makes sure to watch about three to four films daily. Also, he ensures to update himself with the latest memes! From being an innocent, shy guy in the first year to become more badass, NIT has taught Subrat quite a lot. His famous quote - 'don't take me seriously' is an accurate depiction of how he goes about life as well. Never taking anything to his heart and always relaxed and easy-going, this guy is a great person to hang out with. And he is so gentle that he has never hurled abuses at anyone! A food addict who always eats in canteen rather than the mess. With his forever smiling face and gentle persona, Subrat is an absolute delight of a friend and considering the situation right now; the world can do with many more Subrats to spread smiles and cheer.

GADHADAR SHREEBHUSHAN

116CS0235 #LazyAF #ProxyKing #Foodie #KhantiCuttackia

The shy and silent 'Khanti Cuttackia' Gadhadhar Shreebhushan, aka Gadu, is the male fashionista of the department. A great dresser that he is, Shreebhushan is a huge help to his friends during the fest or shopping season due to his fashion sense. And don't even dare to touch his hair, it is inaccessible to the general public. From Dahibara to Chaulbara, his taste, humour, culture as well as friend circle is wide. You can easily sense his interest in all things' technology. While he trolls the mess food, he gets trolled for his vegetarian diet in return. He is a master procrastinator. If you need to prove that humans are descendants of sloths, Gadu would be a great example. He possesses the unique quality to sleep through Friday evening to Monday morning- without any external help! Using the laptop as a pillow was his amazing invention. A guy who is rarely seen losing his temper, he is one of a kind. He always carries his smile with him no matter the situation and is always there for his friends irrespective of what he is going through. He is a great listener and can stay chill and give some well-thought advices! Gadhadar's friends believe that his looks, positivity, enthusiasm and pure heart would make him an ideal partner. And with strong opinions and comments during every cricket match, he believes that he can replace all the umpires without breaking a sweat. He always takes criticism with cheer and humour. Hard work and determination have also led him to bag a great job. Gadhadar's 'work hard, sleep harder' personality will help him sail through the various stresses of life, and he will even make sure to look good doing it.

TAMMINEEDI HIMAPRIYA

116CS0159 #Heroine #singer #writer #blurry #Peddamanishi #Foodie #Gyaanch*d #ProxyKing

Known as the 'Pedhamanishi' of the group, you can count on this self-made philosopher to give you advice that you'd most likely never heard of and will probably never use. Her lame jokes (AUTOS) will make everyone burst out in laughter even if it is a class. Having never learnt to take any pressure of exams or otherwise, Himapriya is a happy person who would make everyone around her happier. Her crush list is infinite, particularly ones with a good hairstyle and a good height. And yet the true love in her life is sleeping. A friendly, broad-minded and 'posh' girl with helping nature, her unique eyebrows and million-dollar smile would make you fall for and seek her approval in anything you do. Behind an innocent face lies a not so innocent khiladi. A 'sleepaholic', her laziness knows no bounds. Procrastination could be her middle name but like all engineers, she'll definitely manage to get things done if she sets her mind to something. She is probably the only person in the world who will revise video lectures in 4x an hour before the exam. An avid movie and web-series watcher and a night owl, language is no bar for her watch list. Being a fangirl is probably her biggest hobby. There are two phases of Hima - before and after an internship. You can never win an argument with the latter. Besides, she is health-conscious. One of the most active DC users, being normal is not Hima's style. Never trust her for photography skills though. With the quality to think positively in the worst of situations, this independent, determined and practical girl can motivate those around her as well. We wish Himapriya the very best for her future pursuits.

DIPESH BHATTA

116CS0170 #bhattatonde #Foodie #Booze #Weed #Singer #InLove<3

The Mundi of Nepali zone, one can't imagine a single function without Dipesh. Nicknamed bhatta, baba, dips, this guy is the most diplomatic and charming guy on the campus. The Jaan of every group-event and straight forward AF, the phrase "Ghussa to naak pe rehta h" totally suits him. Crazy for momos and all-time sober, his love for greeneries and stray dogs is well known, as is his lack of caption ideas for Instagram. A presumably innocent friend with a charming smile who finally moved on from roaming around "CVR", Dipesh is still a true Romeo at heart. A Bike lover and a good bathroom singer, he is one of the most adventurous persons on the campus, always ready to go for evening rides (especially to Bondamunda). Few may remember that night trip to Pitamahala Dam at 2 AM without maps! A great cook with potential to win Master Chef Nepal, he is the authority in food service in every party. And man, doesn't he party hard? From dealing with the worst of situations to being uncontrollable at his worst, even his friends can't handle him after a tank full of shots. His violent avatar would make you wonder if it is the same person. Putting that into perspective, this fearless guy knows how to balance his social life, academics and numerous commitments, with Microsoft Campus Club being a big part of his early years in NITR. A loyal friend who is always ready to give time to his friends and his mandi, and a favourite among seniors and juniors alike, we wish this wonderful human all the best for a bright future.

SUNKARA NAGA DHANUNJAY

116CS0181 #Autodj #DJ #djstrike #GMAT #coder #InLove<3 #Flirty

One of the most hardworking GMATs in campus, and a decent but temperamental guy, Dhanunjay would strike you as a rare figure who is always in a hurry, especially as you notice his run-walking. His anxiety for exams and even for ordinary class tests stands out noticeably. From being a first bench Mr Perfect during the first year to having just started enjoying in his final year and falling in love, Dhanunjay has come up to be the Stark of SD Hall, famous for his autos. He is also one of the only PUBG addicted engineers to never miss even a single class of any subject in four years. An obedient and helpful student when it comes to sharing and then submitting assignments, his discipline and adherence towards deadlines would help him reach great heights in future. His beamer no-balls in cricket, weird jokes (also called autos), and determination to excel in PUBG makes him a memorable personality. Dhanunjay can vividly recollect memories from his freshman year, one of his famous quotes being 'When I came to this college, I started counting the number of trees'. And yet even after revising 4 times for exams, he would still say mama I will fail in this sem. A vegan and a fan of Allu Arjun and M.S.Dhoni, he is known for advocating the NewtonDj fourth law. He is famous for his narrative skills, witty replies and no one can match his speed. From being in the first year to improving by leaps and bounds thereafter, we wish that this continued streak of accomplishments continues rewarding this sincere student for ages to come.

LAKKARAJU SAI KIRAN

116CS0192 #LazyAF #Extra/Curricular #Dancer #MovieBuff #DrunkwithoutDaaru

Lakkaraju Sai Kiran, this is the first time you will be knowing his actual name because to everyone he is Lakka. This cool and calm person is who everyone seeks during their tough times. Regarded as the sarpanch of his group, owing to his huge knowledge about the outside world, he is known to solve everyone's problems through his mature advice. Lakka is a humble and down to earth fellow who has a habit of looking for good and positives in everything. His huge self-confidence and incredible knowledge in different fields paved the way for Samsung to recruit him. Lakka is a movie buff and doesn't distinguish language or genre while watching one and binge watches all kinds of TV series, due to which he rarely attends classes but when he does, he is scared to give proxies. He has a secret talent though, because not everyone has seen his smooth dance moves as he confines it to dim lights of DJ nights only. He makes sure his friends learn to dance along with him, through his perfect choreography skills. He loves talking with his friends and the best times are when he goes to their rooms at midnight and chats with them till sunrise. Though he is sober since birth he looks and behaves like a drunkard in front of his friends and loves listening to songs. He is fond of cricket and considers himself a great cricketer but his friends think otherwise. All in all, he is a charming, sweet and loving guy and is admired by all those around him. We hope he keeps advising people and continues to be successful and wish him a happy and healthy future.

BIBHASH MORANG

116CS0204 #Foodie #Booze #Sportsperson #Carnivore #DesiHulk

Bibhash, with metal biscuits for abs and huge arms that would put Popeye to shame, this low budget Indian hulk has a 'Bhai' persona that he borrows from his favourite on-screen icon, Salman Khan. On the internet, you won't find a picture where this man isn't flexing his muscles or mesmerizing you with a raised eyebrow. He is probably the only "Mising" (A Tribe of Assam) who doesn't eat non-veg. He is a true online shopaholic who ordered four different suits for his souvenir shoot, just to end up rejecting them all at the end. With dreams of becoming an entrepreneur someday, Bibhash has several money saving & management tricks up his sleeves & a knack for profit making. Don't be fooled by his sweet smile and kind gestures in public, he has the confidence to use every slang words ever invented and say "I'm the best" or "I can do it alone" during even the most testing times. Call him anything you want like bibhu, bib# Or babumoshay, it must begin with a "B". He believes in being strong in every situation and working hard. An integral part of both Chitraang and a former design coordinator of MCC, he sure knows how to leave a mark and make his presence felt. He is not just a gym freak, painter and a terrible dancer, he also has a special skill in last-minute work, be it assignments, projects or exams. Admired by his juniors, batchmates and seniors alike for his kind nature, we wish Bibhash a lovely future ahead.

SOHAM BHATTACHARYA

116CS0171 #Foodie #Coder #Gamer #Skin_and_Bones #GadgetFreak

This skinny guy gives off vibes of a typical geek and nerd. With the addition of those half-rimmed glasses, you get an Indian version of Edward Snowden, i.e. if Snowden was malnourished and had a gaming addiction. Apart from his lanky figure, the other thing that stands out about him is his American accent, especially when he speaks Bengali. Watch out for this laugh, though, for it will make you laugh too. Apart from being a lover of technology, Soham is also known to be an enthusiastic foodie, which comes as a shock when one considers the massively underweight figure. Popularly known as ThinkerXYZ, Soham is somewhat of a celebrity dealer among his peers for introducing and hooking them up with gaming. However, there's a side of him that is truly inspiring. He is one of those very few people who aren't afraid to fail. As a true lover of challenges, he is not scared to venture. He sees opportunities where others see obstacles. He will always be remembered in the Cyborg club for his role as an exceptional mentor and guide. With the looks of a geek, and the brain of a desi engineer we wish Soham is always ready to make his mark on the world.

ASHWIN GOIT

116CS0182 #LazyAF #Booze #Gamer #Prince_of_Janakpur #Confused_yet_Happy

Ashwin Goit aka Prince of Janakpur is a priceless celebrity of NITR. Most popularly known by his surname, Ashwin is the laziest and craziest person on the earth. One wouldn't find anyone more carefree than this dude, with a large range of aspirations for his career like boxing, dancing, UFC, singing, football, Navy and many more, and engineering isn't included in it. He has achieved a rare feat of getting placed in 2 companies on the same day. A fan of Cristiano Ronaldo who likes to imitate his goal celebration, Ashwin can act to entertain exceptionally well. He's got a knack of personifying himself as a clown, much to the delight of his friends. The way he dances can make anyone shake a leg with him, and his jokes can evoke laughter out of anyone. His never-ending sleep is well known, as is his love for series, anime, movies and the extra-loud speakers in his room. He is found frequently complaining about headaches and stomach aches and doesn't have control over his eating habits. For someone who played games all night before his Electronics exam and still being a DASA topper to flunking in almost every paper the next semester, this guy has made a full spectrum and has a weird habit of missing first lab and class of every semester. Having never been in a relationship himself, he is a LOVE GURU. Every winter he breaks his own record of not bathing. One shouldn't text while he is around, being a phone snatcher, he is. Always fighting with Maneesh for no reasons, he is a diehard fan of PUBG and a proud owner of a growing tummy. Sadness and Seriousness are the two worst enemies of Ashwin. A very amusing, entertaining and playful personality to have in every friend list, we wish this charmer all the best in life.

A day with this guy will give you numerable topics to laugh on. However, he is an introvert and often locks himself in his room when people come to visit. There are two places that no one has seen Alok go to--Fests and Bathrooms. He is popular for his dialogue: "Mere papa din me Ek Rupiya kamate hai"! Also Alok- "Mere papa ke pas bahut paisa hai". 116CS0205 #web_developer_mundi #insta_babe #travel_freak #vegan #Coder #ProxyKing

One of the most talented and lovable persons you'll find out there, Preetam Pyaare lives up to the meaning of his name. From being exceptionally innocent in the first year to being the notorious mischief-monger in his last, this thorough workaholic and perfectionist works through most nights sleeplessly. If not by friends, this busy man is surrounded by projects on web development or engrossed in his phone finding the best photo filters or gossiping with his not-so-secret cohort. Afflicted with a strange monkey-like syndrome, Preetam will surely hang by your neck in every picnic or road-trip you plan. A passionate traveller and explorer, one can always find a new trip album on his Facebook profile every month. He is one of those "bhukkads" who has rarely partaken any of the mess dinners courtesy of Zomato and all its partner restaurants in Rourkela, yet sadly, this teetotaler is called a cow for his extravagant vegetarian habits. Always high on life, this guy has been a centre of attraction of all khambawale parties. A big fan of Witcher, GOT, Breaking Bad and Mirzapur this troll-king has acquired a new taste of watching series. A huge fan of MSD and cricket, he hopes to meet the legend in future. The social media butterfly will capture and upload every memory and can make the most boring things photogenic with his editing skills. Being extremely professional, he was the karta-dharta behind making Innovision 2019 a great success. Extremely helpful and always cheerful, he never fails to spend time with friends. Apart from keeping connections with everyone, he is a great mentor as well. A humble person who is ready to stand by his friends in their difficulties, he has a precious trait of making to the first page of everyone's good books. We wish this gem of a person best of luck for his future endeavours.

PRABIN KUMAR RATH

116CS0217 #GMAT #InLove<3 #Coder #Midas #Pena #RobotRaja

Every group has that over-achiever, who even after achieving great laurels, would remark, "Chota Sa achievement hai bas", that's Prabin for you. Known by all as Pena, a perfect amalgamation of a brilliant coder, a perfect partner, and an amazing son. His passion for robotics and his achievements have made him illustrious all around the campus. He always cares for his closer ones and keeps them delighted. It is a piece of cake for him to win someone's heart with his charming talks. It is very precious to get a friend like this trustworthy fellow. He is a very straight forward and a soft-hearted boy who knows perfectly how to maintain a relationship. He never denies helping one who seeks and never feels bad trolling anyone exhaustively. A dedicated member of the Cyborg club, he has numerous feathers to his cap, from chess bots to intelligent ground vehicles, from health monitoring systems to robotic arms, you name it, and he's done it. This guy is the quintessential king Midas of the department, who has the capability to turn every project and domain into gold. His unparalleled dedication and calmness prove that there is nothing unsolvable in his life. He is responsible for transforming many innocent students into true engineers. After publishing three papers, getting three jobs and doing a foreign internship, he has a CV which most people dream of. "One who can be best described not by words, but his/her successes and achievements" is apt for him. He is an amiable person who never retreats to prove his responsibilities and obligations and there is no hesitation that he will keep on winning over every hindrance of life. We wish him a very successful future ahead.

If you are looking for someone who you can trust during your times of need, be it for help with coding or for reviving you in the last zone of PUBG, you are looking for Bonala Shivasai, aka SS. Known for his massive network of friends, SS has a myriad of interests- guitar playing, drawing and gaming especially on his treasured phone. Surprisingly, being part of so many activities has not helped him get rid of his slothful ways. His innocent looks and sweet smile hides the mischievous person underneath. He is a movieholic, and has definitively watched every movie ever directed. What he enjoys more is Anime, and hence is labelled a true "Otaku" by his friends. While the rest of the college is busy chasing marks, grades are a matter of the least concern for this cool and confident dude. His listening skills and ability to come up with a solution to every problem have made him the go-to person among his friends' circle. His greatest advices extend to choosing the perfect food items in a restaurant, being the foodie that he is. His swag and confidence sets him aside from the crowd, and his determination and dedication help to create his own standards. By the looks of it, Shivasai is going to choose the road less taken or pave a new one for himself!

VINIT KUMAR AGRAWAL

116CS0161 #ChaiLover #Foodie #Flirty #Gyaanch*d #Ramanujan #ScaryVoice

Vinit is a very lovely and lively guy, friendly, jolly, rarely selfish and definitely one of the highlighted folks in every class. He is always jumping around and cracking jokes. What is different about him is that he treats everyone equally and laughs at everything and every situation in life. Though not among the top ranks in Computer Science, he is the Ramanujan of the class with an instance of being the highest scorer in Maths 4 scoring 29 in midsems. With multiple talents up his sleeve, Vinit looks innocent but one shouldn't trust just by looks alone if it is this guy. Listening to lectures is a nightmare if you are sitting with him in the class. Although he is a laid-back person who makes fun with everyone, Vinit gets angry easily and is not easily persuaded. His voice is scary loud. After all, he is a pure "Rambhakt Haryanvi launda". Sweets and ice-cream seem to be his only weaknesses. Notably, he is also a meme-lord on Facebook and aims to impress a girl with his humour someday. A loyal person who is always ready to help, we wish this charming, self-made human all the best in his future pursuits.

ADHINARAYANA MOORTHY CHANUKYA

116CS0173 #Tamil_thambi #GoTrump #Foodie #Extra/Curricular #Gamer #Sportsperson

Chanukya, popularly known by Chan, PP and teddy bear among others, can sleep for a day without break. A talented Web and Android developer, Chanukya is also one of the best Google users ever known. Speaking in a mixture of Tamil and Telugu and knowing neither perfectly, one wouldn't even comprehend the words he speaks, which is also mixed with English half the time. Deeply into Hindi serials from his boyhood when he used to watch them with his mother and two sisters, Chanukya has made watching anime, TV and web series (in 2x) is his life. A foodie and a cook packed in one, the Biryani he makes is absolutely delicious (never eat what he orders though, he has the weirdest taste). Being the only guy with Jio in the first year, he brought happiness to six rooms simultaneously. Few people know about his love stories that didn't take the right turn. He is curious about gadgets and smartphones and a big fan of Samsung, with a strong knack for BRAND research before buying. He has the rare quality of waking 5 minutes before class, having breakfast and still attending every day, with his exam preparations starting just the night before. His laziness knows no bounds, having neither run a day in four years nor used his fitness band and a yoga mat for a day. He follows American timings—skips a day or two of sleep only to overcompensate it on the next and stay awake all night, and weekends render him invisible. A CSK fan, a prolific dancer and a newbie talent in photography and stock markets, he might well be a future Warren Buffet in making. Armed with a very terrific laugh, he can get across a whole auditorium without the help of mic. A humble, friendly and witty character, we wish Chanukya achieves all the best in his future pursuits.

NIKHIL GUPTA

116CS0183 #CODU #GMAT #Booze #Coder #Gyaanch*d #ProxyKing #Flirty

He is known as Codubali because he rules everything related to coding. Coming off as an extrovert, Nikhil is a gregarious and fun-loving human with a penchant for expensive gadgets like Google Home and Philips Smart lights. A cheerful guy, his friends are the immediate victims of his caustic jokes. His one-liners can lift your mood anytime. Proclaimed to be the sexiest man from his batch, he is always ready to help and is the best company on the last bench. Famous for his work ethics and binary decisions, Nikhil is someone with big dreams and high standards. A talented developer, the apogee of what this Nepali Gorkhali can create would amaze you. A tech-aficionado, he is always updated with the latest and had a YouTube channel for dispensing his tech-gyaan. Besides, he is a travel freak and high-speed bike rides are his escape. Known to possess special powers of flirting, Nikhil has seldom used it. A charismatic persona, he is steadily on route to be a CEO someday. You don't often run into people who have a genuine love for computers like Nikhil. This was why he was one of the best Tech Coordinators, MCC has ever seen. But make no mistake, Nikhil is someone who will work hard and party harder. If there is music, you'll definitely find this hunk on the dance floor. He will gladly indulge in every party and hedonism and spend 'quality time' with friends but keep his grades intact. Having tried quitting unsuccessfully, Nikhil has a pronounced weakness for elixirs and organic and can be occasionally spotted in the midst of intense PUBG matches. An unapologetically optimistic guy with a calm nature, his bargaining skills could put Indian aunties to shame. A determined, helpful and innocent soul with a big heart, we wish Nikhil best of luck for his future endeavours.

ANKIT KUMAR

116CS0194 #Booze #Weed #Flirty #Jugaadu #FitnessFreak

Ankit, known to his peers as Ankit Mehta or simply Mehta, is the best "Jugaadu" anyone has seen in their life for his unique ability to know all detours to get the work done. He is the most chilled out individual that you will come across. An expert in meddling with academic rules, he is so irregular to classes that his leaves exceed the total number of classes conducted. He is a carefree individual who enjoys his life to the fullest and is sober in fewer days a week. He is a very good listener as well as a vivid narrator, with stories as long as Monday, especially ones of his school days which make us nostalgic about our own. He has never failed to roast anyone in the most riposted ways but the poor guy at the same time is a victim to everyone's gibes which they throw at him, which he replies to with his signature smile. He has a number of friend circles, and efficiently manages to fit in each and every one perfectly. Be it being loyal to his seniors or bonding with his juniors, Mehta does it adroitly. This 'Goodboy' loves chicken wholeheartedly and can frequently be seen running towards Backpost or making a trip to the 'dhaba' or any road trip as a matter of fact. A hardcore PUBG lover, he is called 'BOT' by his fellow gamers because of his style of play. Having said that he is an assiduous athlete, he is always up for the task when it comes to sports, especially handball and football. This happy, charming and happening person by nature will never leave you alone when in need and is clearly a Peter Pan syndrome victim. We wish this party animal a lovely and successful life ahead.

RAMYA RANJAN NAIK

116CS0206 #Dancer #Writer #Gamer #SingleShayar #MammasBoy

Ramya is the perfect blend of modesty and simplicity. He is one of the most eligible singles in our department, a die-hard fan of Cristiano Ronaldo and Real Madrid. He is a MAMA'S BOY and popularly known by 'RAMYY'. He is very systematic in his life, from his academics to his mobile gallery to his laptop. He is a friend you can always rely upon. Only the ones close to him can know how emotional and mischievous he is. His room is known to host daily gatherings and private round table discussions (Khati) where he earned the tag of the leader of the "Adyantians" group. He becomes a lone-warrior by doing all his work inside his room without joining any clubs. Find a guy who hates him and a million dollars is yours. "Don't judge a book by its cover" is an apt maxim for him. Carrying an innocent face, he has his "just friends" all over the globe ranging from Russia to Germany. This guy is more popular among ladies than the boys. He gives the best relationship advice. Having a tough time with your relationship? Worry no more. FIFA is something which he's good at, and he would be up for a match anytime. One thing he loves more than FIFA and girls are taking stress to submit assignments on time. He brings out his romantic and emotional side through his writings and poetry which his peers' rate to be really amazing. We wish this loving, caring and dependable guy an adventurous future ahead.

SAHITHI RAVIPATI

116CS0218 #silveroaks #LazyAF #super_talented #GMAT

Sahithi Ravipati is a sweet, simple and serene girl with immense love for coding and debating. Although she has got an amazing American-English accent, the same cannot be said about her Hindi and Telugu-speaking skills. Sahithi is the busiest person in the department. Juggling between three clubs as well as her academics and doing justice to all of them, this girl has got extraordinary management skills. A curly-haired girl who is never satisfied with her hairstyle, she can rock a traditional and a western look equally. Whether she bagged a dream-job or lost out in a debate competition, Sahithi has learned the art of keeping her cool. While college life can be a roller-coaster of emotions for the majority of the students, Sahithi has managed to maintain her serenity and sanity through it all! Her friends swear that they have not seen her angry or weeping even once in the four years that they spent with her. She is also known to be the most sensible person in her group. The threshold of her patience is a mystery that is yet to be solved. She is super-confident and meticulous about every task she does. She never fails to amaze people with her sincerity and exuberance. She is known to be the best advisor in every situation. If she were stuck on an island with nothing else other than ice cream, she would live there happily ever after. Although she doesn't talk too much when she does, she can even end up convincing people that the sun rises in the west! Sahithi is the best example of the quote- 'Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication'. With her composure, sense and intellect, success seems to be in the bag for Sahithi.

ANSHUMAN SAMAL

116CS0228 #Foodie #LazyAF #GGMU #LiveLoveLaugh #PCCR

The harder you work the luckier you get- a line that briefly describes Anshuman Samal aka baby Anshu. This carefree, chubby and kind-hearted soul has achieved everything one can aim for in college. From being the first placed person of his batch at the coveted Microsoft to holding responsibilities as a CR and PC, yet spending hours watching movies and series, this man truly showcases the example of being effortlessly versatile. His contagiously positive attitude has been into action the day he said "Hello World" through his first cry. A huge fan of Manchester United, Anshuman claims to be the best goalkeeper and striker and hopes that they sign him someday. He loves food especially sweets and dieting is not for him! He's the Jack Sparrow of his group and always has a cool way to get out of any problem that comes in his path. A sleepyhead and mama's boy his stories of laziness and untidiness are world-famous. He is a true leader, even when it comes to being thrown out of class. He has made himself quite a known figure among juniors, seniors, and batchmates equally and when it comes to seeking advice he never refuses. He does a daily night tour to everyone's room to check on them and ensures everyone sleeps happily. Apart from his intellect, patience, and diligence, he has a great heart and loves his dear ones "No Matter What". There's no uncertainty that his eminent characteristics and radiant personality will help him conquer his dreams with flying colours. Crazy about FIFA and lazy about attending classes we wish this extremely normal yet extraordinary human being all the happiness in life.

UTTAM SINGH

116CS0238 #mathsmundi #uttawalauttam #Gyanchand #canada_lover #ChaiLover

Intelligent as a Ravenclaw, he is a knowledge dispenser for every branch at NITR, be it the teacher for the next semester or the expected question in the upcoming endsem you never studied for. An unofficial CR, this hyper-competitive student is the apple of the eye for every professor and has more acquaintances among TAs than his classmates. Being Alok Naath, Uttam can challenge you to bring more marks than him in your own subject. A big gossipmonger often hogging the limelight, Uttam has a reply for almost any argument, and you have to accede to him anyways. He cares deeply about his friends and juniors and would mentor even the night before exams. He works without giving a damn to what one thinks, found strength from rejections and is now placed in a Fortune-500. Infatuated with both Achaar (Pickle) and Sanskaar, he has all the required skills to be a perfect spouse and can take care as a mother. Known as Ati-Uttam or UC, he is a GMAT who has PMSing issues at the start of every semester and is characterized by his lacheela walk and incessant talks on marks (especially of his classmates). A ZOMATO partner, Parle-G dealer and biscuit-water lover, he pleases people with Ghar-ka-khana after every vacation. A great teacher in making and an expert in language, politics and relationships, he knows every interesting story in college. And sucks at giving parties. Uttam will talk about how he binged series in between exams but the very next moment convinces you that CG is important. His notebooks are a study material for many. He stands for zones, a proud Pratapgarhi with circumstantially Hyderabad habits who suffered from a two-month-long MITACS hangover. Being very serious as far as his career is concerned, Uttam dreams of getting an admit abroad soon. An advisor who knows to capitalize on limited resources and a fun-loving guy who loves his friends, we wish this topper all the best for his future.

KANDALA NAGA VENKATA AKHILA

116CS0162 #Elaka #akhi #50shades #Dancer #LazyAF #ProxyQueen #Booze #Weed

Arguably the most beautiful girl of the batch, Akhila is also known as Imam akhila or Bakka or Elaka; Elaka because her nose and mouth are similar to that. She always sits only by her best friend at every party as if they are on an exclusive date. If you see a pole then you may find Akhi behind it. Yes, she is freaking thin and her friends blame it on the fact that she never eats food properly, however much she claims otherwise. A pizza lover, she makes countless promises of treating her friends to party on every next month but the month sadly recedes further. Always jovial and never getting angry easily, Akhi is an open book to all her friends. She is a proud addict of serials and a binge-watcher of series. An amazing friend, a patient listener and a great company in one package, she is ever ready to help those in need, no matter the time of day or night. A very thin chashmish girl who hates to wear them because she then looks like a total nerd, Akhila is crazy about everything but serious about studies. Having landed a dream job, she looks forward to rocking Hyderabad with this craziness. Notwithstanding the fact that she never found coding worthwhile, she is extremely sincere when it comes to exams and starts studying hard a month ahead with plenty of revisions in the meantime. A sincere and hardworking student with a heart of gold, we wish Akhila all the best of health and prosperity for ages to come.

SHORYA PRATAP SINGH CHAUHAN

116CS0174 #Sacha_aashiq #Hala_Madrid #Polar_Bear #LazyAF #Writer #Gamer #Foodie

At first, he may come off as quiet cat aloof from his surroundings, he is actually a lazy but huggable Panda. Lovingly called Polu by his friends and "Something Pratap" by one Professor owing to his extremely long name, Shorya is the brother everyone needs but no one deserves. An engineer who lives by his food and dies by code-- this handsome foodie is sure to get to your nerves in the first encounter. His scribbly notebook with impressions going all the way to the last page and a hidden flair for programming shows how hard-working he is (he comes from the rare breed of note-taking last benchers at NITR). Anime, series, video-games, dating and Instagram, none of the sins could ever lead him astray once he has set up a goal. It seems he has found a "Poli" quite early in life, and their endless phone calls have been a source of every lovelorn soul's inspiration. Shorya is a die-hard Madrista and keenly follows all of European football. Usually found bunking classes just to eat out, he gets fits of mood swings and is quite obstinate once he sets his mind. While rarely getting out of his room, he is a sure companion in every outing you plan, albeit coming down with stomach aches the next day and regretting over his increasing waistline. A lesser-known prolific writer, a camera-shy but excellent lensman and a keen dog-lover, Shorya has set all the right priorities in life. We wish this sweet and humble personality all the best and hope his hard-working, selfless and positive attitude reaps him the best gifts of life in future.

GAJA HARIKA

116CS0184 #coder #GMAT #Artist #Dancer #Chailover #Flirty #Toppergirl

The most hardworking and persistent individual that you will ever meet, Harika is one of the most respected girls of NITR. A great dancer, her thoughts and lame jokes (AUTOS) will drive anyone crazy. Her ability to study will blow minds almost as much as the fact that her savings and money management skills could make anyone a millionaire. Giving up is not something in her dictionary unless it is cancelling every trip in the last moment. A brilliant dancer who can give any hero a run for their money, she is a complete Pawan Kalyan fan and knows him perhaps better than himself. A free spirit and akin to Mother Teresa in terms of her kindness, loyalty and way of speaking, making friends is something that is a piece of cake for her. Sometimes flirty, sometimes childish (only when surrounded by close friends), her motto goes by Birth, I will learn cuss words, death. She starts studying hard right from the first day of the semester. Her attentiveness in class, running notes with beautiful handwriting is truly one of a kind. Famously known as Aru, she cheers up everyone around her. Her famous dialogue goes by "Two fingers up". Being very mature for her age, she's an excellent listener and the go-to person in case of any issues. An extremely patient girl, you probably would never notice her lose her cool. A great keeper of secrets, thanks to her intriguing silence, she is also a lady don and a daemon. She has an authoritative voice that she uses to threaten people in her own funny way. Her ambitious nature and her determination to be self-dependent is what makes her special. With a profound optimism and true dedication, this girl has got a serious career and a fabulous life ahead.

KUNAL KUMAR

116CS0195 #Extra/Curricular #Gamer #Gyaanch*d #AhamBramhasmi #2amFriend

Kunal aka 'Pandey Ji' is undoubtedly one of the most charming guys of the Institute. Silent Pandey is a rare sight; except for the occasion of the presence of his crushes around. He holds an opinion on any subject you bring up ranging from mess food to international policies. One of the most industrious guys you'll find around, Pandey Ji will never disappoint you whenever you need his help. Kunal holds high aspirations in life and always tries to be his ruler. He is a self-aware and friendly guy filled with thoughts who dream of doing big things in life but wishes to keep them with him. He is quite an observant, and might even judge everyone around him for no reason. His coding skills are outstanding, beyond comparison, which earned him a dream job in his department. You can frequently find him saying "Kal se non-veg band", however the tomorrow never arrives. His everyday transformation occurs from desi Bihari songs to Bhajan in exam time. Although he would never accept that he's a GMAT, his gossips around with his friends all day and his night cramming are not known to many people. The so-called Godfather in his neighbourhood, this guy always gives the best advice and makes sure everyone around him is on the right path. Obsessed with Kurkure and Horlicks this 'nautankibaaz' is a fan of Mirzapur web series and always keeps chanting "AHAM BRAHMASHMI". The perfect 2 AM friend that one can ever wish for is a die-hard fan of 'gobhi ki sabzi'. Having simple pursuits and expectations from life, Kunal is a gem to be friends with. The lord of mimicry of our department, Chandan is also known as Derreck or Chandu and is famous for mimicking every single professor of our department. He started his college life as GMAT with the dream of getting admission in a good college in the US and settling there, but ended up being a social animal from his pre-final year and now just dreams about getting a government job and be happily settled with his family. Chandan is very good at heart and genuinely cares a lot about his friends. He supports the ones around him and sticks to them however big the hurdle is. A lover of herbs, Chandan is the one who everyone seeks in the department for putting proxy. Everyone enjoys his company, and he makes sure no one is left out during group parties. You may not find him in a class all the time but you will definitely find him walking towards the back post at 10 in the night. He loves to maintain his physique and will come across as shy and yet is a party freak. We wish him all the success and happiness in life.

GUDELLE SHASHIDHAR REDDY

Dedication and hard work are what define Shashidhar Reddy. Known fondly as Shashi by his friends, he is a genius in whatever he does and is regarded by his peers as a beautiful mind, one that is talked about in the news. Shashi is a man of potential and he gives absolutely everything in whatever he does including playing games like Pokémon Go. The dedication and hard work that he puts in playing games is mind-blowing and astonishing. He is a master manipulator who is very good at convincing people and making them believe in what he wants. His best trait is that he never gets angry and remains impartial all the time. A very optimistic person by nature Shashi strives to achieve success without sacrificing the fun side of life. He is well known for his one-day preparation before the exams and people still wonder how he does that. Name a movie or a series, he has already seen it. He is also an impeccably handsome gamer and coder. More than that, he is a true friend to all those around him. We wish this amazing human a bright future ahead.

DEBASISH SAMAL

116CS0229 #GMAT #Sportsperson #LazyAF #Joker #BallsLife

Debasish fondly called "Temon" or "Joon" is a cool, calm and intelligent person who is the most passionate basketball follower in CSE. Call him over a game of basketball, soccer, cricket or TT, he will be there given that he's not sleeping. He is an avid Lakers and Manchester City fan. He stays secretive and loves his family as no one does. He is highly witty and his jokes are not only difficult to understand but on a higher realm altogether. A social media animal, he will be the first to see any memes or some new maddening news and is always tagging his friends in various posts. He also has a flair of mimicking his friends and everyone enjoys that. He is the only guy in his group who could ride a motorcycle confidently and is a teacher to many. A genius at writing captions, this guy has a sarcastic reply in every conversation. He is always ready to help his friends and will entertain calls even at 3 am to help you out, that is of course if one dares to wake him up from his 'Snorlax' mode. He is always in a good mood except during times when his exams go haywire but that's rare because this talented personality is wonderful at what he does when it comes to academics. He switches to a focussed airplane mode and this is the reason for his successful grade point and him bagging a highly sought-after job. We wish him all the very best and hope he keeps on cruising his way through life.

VUPPALA SRIKANTH

116CS0239 #weedlover #GMAT #Gamer #ProxyKing #BluffMaster

Srikanth aka, "Srimaniganikanth", is a guy who is known for his simplicity, generosity and a guileless heart. Also called the Arjun Reddy of his gang, he is popular for his fists of fury. Best suited for the title 'A friend in need', he is always there when his friends need him and is known to put others before himself. This god-fearing student works very hard to succeed not just for himself but also because he wants to make his parents proud. Known as the 'bluff master', he is an undefeated champion in Bluff. He is also an excellent volleyball player. If you need someone to give you a proxy, you can count on Srikanth! And his chemistry with chemistry makes him excel in the subject every time! TikTok is one of his guilty pleasures. Anything that comes out of a hen makes his favourite food- be it a chicken or an egg. While he loves attending parties and never misses an opportunity to socialise, he is also a social media recluse! He is rarely found posting photos or videos of his life on Instagram or Facebook. Patas and Jabardasth are two shows on top of his binging list. Ironically, he is horrible at cracking jokes! This movie buff has self-belief and faith that pushes him ahead in life. His determination to succeed and vision of his future will surely make him and his loved ones very proud someday.

ANKIT ARYAN

116CS0163 #Flirty #Gyanch*d #Heartbroken #gareeb #StationLover #Chopu #gossip_king

Undoubtedly the most self-obsessed guy on this planet, Ankit Aryan is a real pain to handle. This pirated copy of Iron Man, 'Aryan Man', is a Bihari guy, with vampire canines that he is immensely proud of. He can suck the soul out of you with his absurd PJs and always claims to be devoid of any penny in his bank balance. Having had a number of girls to compliment her smile, he still never seems to be satisfied with his otherwise pseudo-single life. If you ever find flashlights booming in shady places of the campus, it would definitely be Ankit showcasing his jealousy for couples. Donning a number of titles such as Dad Ji, Aryan, MoonRider, or Chopu, this introvert-turned-extrovert person will always be spotted on a phone call from 'home'. His 'speaking the heart out' attitude brings him more problems than peace. He can talk endless nonsense, such as explaining principles of trigonometry while climbing up Golden Jubilee stairs. Getting clicked and watching his own picture for the 1000th time is one thing that pleases him indefinitely and irritates all others around. Aryan is a person of great talents, principles and mysteries, who wouldn't even hesitate to flirt with his friend's crush. Always ready to help in the worst of cases, he has earned a huge bunch of friends in these years. Dilly dallying over video calls the night before an exam is his primary hobby, followed by falling in love with every other girl. Though this guy doesn't touch alcohol but loves watching his friends getting high and doing nonsense. A mess inside out, this guy is still a call away. We wish this coder gets all that he desires, from his otherwise perfect life.

GUNASEKHAR DARAPANENI

116CS0175 #Foodie #LazyAF #Coder #Sportsperson #MrMuscles #Humble_and_Smart

Gunasekhar is a person with a lot of self-confidence and hard work, you would find few strivings so hard to become expert in what one is lagging in. Fewer can match his enthusiasm to learn. Popularly known as Guna, he is the ocean in helping his friends. He is fond of playing cricket (we call him veedu ball ni narikesthadu raa) and chess, winning several intra-hall competitions in the latter. However, he is actually a very strong and rustic guy best known as a Kho kho player in the institute. Extremely conscious of his sincerity and good habits, his famous saying goes "when our time comes, everything manifests themselves for us". Guna also happens to eat a lot of food and to complement it, keeps playing cricket unless it rains, in which case he unravels his skills at PUBG. A great fan of Tom Cruise, Guna will literally outdo himself when it comes to sleeping like a rock. With great skills at poker and a penchant for series and WWE, you would spot his well-lit room deep into the night. Besides this, he is a man of great determination and always pushes himself to the limits in trying to be the best version of himself. Having studied in government schools from LKG to Plus 2 he bagged the NITR with his sheer merit. He wouldn't even ask money from his parents and rather send any leftover from his expenses to his parents. We wish all his dreams may come true and he leads a prosperous life.

P. M. HARSHITH

116CS0185 #Foodie #Booze #LazyAF #Sportsperson #Gamer #VISHNUPRIYUDU #HarshaBhai

Harshith is one of the closest to being an aficionado of all. A Dil se Hyderabadi, biryani craving personality, this tall and handsome guy goes by names like BOSS, PM, VISHNUPRIYUDU, HARSHA BHAI (taken over from SARIYA BHAI) and is a Jack of many trades. Cricket, video games and following Instagram stars are things he can't resist. While being secretly one heck of an actor, he keeps some darker explicit secrets as well. But beyond all these, he is a friend who plays the role of a caring elder brother like no one. Harshith is lazy, but also the quickest guy in 5.5-inch - 6.7-inch things (especially PUBG, where he can only stop the game after a chicken dinner). Well-known for finishing the syllabus within a few hours with GMAT-like finesse, he exhibits exceptional clarity. Known for his pacey bouncers, Harshith is a great 'finisher' in every cricket team. A chilled guy and relaxed fellow who never goes to labs or classes, he has been hopelessly reliant on proxies across the entire span of four years. Albeit with a short-tempered nature, Harshith cools down quick. He sleeps quickly too, and can't stay awake after 12'o clock. Food being everything for this guy, he plans of starting a restaurant or a food chain in all the NITs someday. He commands control on his friends, ordering them and expecting them to follow it. However, being very sweet on the inside, he is loved by everyone. He has a high IQ but never uses it. Hoping that he does unearth his fullest potential in the near future, we wish Harshith all the best in fulfilling his pursuits.

NITIN LAKRA

116CS0196 #LazyAF #Coder #Gamer #MrLate #MemeLord #LuckyLad

Nitin Lakra A.K.A "Chota Packet Bada Dhamaaka" of Computer Science engineering is surely born to turn both tides and tables. The gravity with which he pulls people by the aura of his glowing knowledge earns him the title of 'nerd' who has a piece of practical knowledge about everything. This highly curious person ready to learn each and everything can also be called 'Suppressed Rancho' amongst the blindly headed crowd, who wants to turn to new directions and invent things. Mr Late pulls off his life at the extreme point of laziness, being genius and having luck on his side all the time. The best trait of his is his attitude of not caring about any situation and handling life with a smile. He has a unique level of sarcasm which not everyone is capable of getting at first and is the fastest to understand double meaning stuff. Secretly, a very romantic person with an excessively developed amygdala keeps the best and the wildest fantasies in his to-do list to be fulfilled. His love for romantic Russian songs and Kygo's Stranger Things elevates him. A big-big fan of 'F.R.I.E.N.D.S' and all the good series about life, love, and people and a Meme collection in his Gallery already grants him the position of 'God' in Meme Knowledge. This tech guy is always looking for new technologies, gadgets, and smartphones. The buoyancy property of his to go above all the pressures in deep dark waters of life is going to reach him summits unconquerable and we wish him all the best.

116CS0208 #Foodie #Dancer #Flirty #DeviMaa #Naagin

Ananya Padhi otherwise known as DeviMaa is a megastar of CSE. It's not possible for anyone to coordinate her degree of a social butterfly. 'Why listen when you can talk?' impeccably accommodates her. She does a lot of dieting and gymming but it is only limited to her fantasy. A very joyful girl, filled with all the craziness of the world, who addresses Chicken as her lifetime love. She has an extraordinary common sense and a decent comical inclination that can lift up your temperament at any time. Known for her extremely notorious nature, this witty soul can fool anyone around her. The major supplier of "in your bed" needs for the girls' hostel, her cricket knowledge is sure to put to shame any ardent cricket fan. Her trademark hairstyles and fairy dresses make her the narcissist she is. She loves clicking photos and dancing. The biggest fan "Justsul" and "Yuzvendra Chahal" could ever have, the only things she is obsessed with apart from herself are football and cricket players. Enriched with qualities that can't be spoken of she is a fit contestant for all shows on MTV. She has earned the name "snake" in her group of friends owing to her excellent cheating skills while playing cards. Her love for lying is seen by her skills of playing bluff. You can bore her with any issue, and she will hear it out without judging once. She is certain and values her own perspectives more than others. She is self-confident and independent in almost all situations. An avid meme lover, extremely cheerful and joyful, a talented dancer and a top-notch student, make her the most sizzling young lady to search for in NIT Rourkela. We wish her all the best for her future.

RITABRATA SAHA

116CS0220 #Foodie #LazyAF #Weed #Tatta #KingAmongChaos

Ritabrata Saha who also famously goes by "Tatta" is a Bengali by nature and a global citizen by heart. Starting out his first year as a typical bong GMAT guy scared of missing out on academics to ending up being the greatest baba in his later years, this guy has successfully managed to get through all the chaos and struggles in NITR. Despite having very low self-esteem and confidence, he managed to get placed in a great company which he still is surprised about. Often reserved with his voice, he has a childish and inane streak of curiosity and would get concerned in the most trifling of situations. A helpful and jolly person by nature and a very helpful person, he will always be there for you whenever in need. A foodie and quite often a victim of his own pranks, he could often be seen running all the way from hostel to attend classes at the other end of the campus, unless a generous friend offers his cycle once in a blue moon. But come a party and he is straight up and ready for it. His friends consider him an integral part of their life and say that life without him in NITR wouldn't have been as fun. We wish Ritabrata a happy future ahead.

BOLLAVARAM SAI SANDEEP

116CS0230 #m1sandy #chailover #extra/curricular #panda #MemeMaker

Popularly known as Panda or Sandy, Bollavaram Sai Sandeep is the perfect proportion of fun and craze. A charming and dynamic guy, Sai is soft-hearted and full of love (especially for the opposite gender!). His friends believe that he can replace water with tea for his existence. A nocturnal creature that he is, Panda is rarely spotted in the mess but is a regular customer to the Night-Canteen. While everyone usually has starting trouble, Panda, on the other hand, has finishing trouble! When starting a task, he gets extremely excited, but the initial excitement gives way to anxiety midway, and he loses interest in the task. While his unique talents include the ability to create satirical and funny memes instantly as well as create TikTok videos, they do not include his ability to lie. Sai is a good friend as well as a great listener. Someone who is always fun to be around and makes every conversation interesting, he can be trusted with any secret. This guy doesn't have a single angry bone in his body. On days that you don't see him in class (which is most of the time thanks to the innumerable proxies that he asks), he will be in his room binging over 'Rick and Morty', Mahathalli or Samantha's interviews. He takes pride in being from Kurnool. Sai's speciality lies in the fact that he relentlessly chases a myriad of dreams and goals while others limit themselves to only those that they think are reachable. Hoping that this hopeless romantic continues spreading love and laughter in others' lives and stumbles upon some in his own as well.

CHANDAN KUMAR TANDI

Chandan, aka Tandi Ji, is a sincere, hard-working and dedicated guy who is very underrated. Even in the worst situations, he is at ease and is constantly motivating himself and those around him to grow and better themselves. His ability to calmly complete an assignment in the last minute and submit it on time leaves his friends astounded. Those who manage to break down his wall of shyness meet a mischievous, fun and caring guy. His trendy fashion sense and outfits make him stand out in the crowd. A huge foodie that he is, if you are his friend, there's a high chance you will gain weight being with him. And he never denies giving company to someone going to a canteen or restaurant- irrespective of the time or situation. He is also probably the most homesick final year student on campus! You can find him home almost every other weekend. With his frequent transitions between home and NIT, he is suspected of possessing the time stone. Tandi Ji is a pure soul and a family man who loves his family and friends and never fails to help them out. This sakht launda has only allowed himself to melt for Emma Watson, his biggest crush. A die-hard fan of Conor McGregor, he never misses a single match. He is also an ardent supporter of Real Madrid. Methodical by nature, he is extremely meticulous about everything in his life- from something as crucial as academics to something as trivial as his mobile gallery and laptop. Writing poetry helps him exhibit his less-known romantic and emotional side. For friends, Chandan is the guy that always shows the right track. Wishing this simpleton all the luck to achieve the laundry list of dreams that he has for himself.

AKSHITA TEEGALAPALLY

116CS0241 #Artist #LazyAF #Sleepislove #HairGoals #LizardLoather

Akshita aka 'Runi' is known to be the real-life depiction of Rachel Greene from the TV show F.R.I.E.N.D.S. This die-hard One Direction fan has metamorphosed from being the carefree, irresponsible fresher to a more mature and organized senior. If there is one thing that hasn't changed about her, it is her childish nature. When Bill Gates said that the laziest person finds the quickest way to do something, he was not kidding- ask Runi to do something for you and you will know what he meant. As lazy as she is, so are her taste buds. Most of the times, she can't even distinguish between the taste of sugar and salt! Being the go-to person for fashion advice, if anyone needs help on picking out the right outfit to pair with the right heels and lipstick shade, they turn to Akshita for help. Her glossy, straight hair game puts the others' good hair days to shame. If you hear a loud shriek from your corridor, know that she has spotted her arch, terrifying rival- The Lizard. Her incredible artistic skills are known to many, but her biggest talent lies in her social-media stalking skills- she would give the CBIs and FBI's of the world a run for their money. And because of this skill, no conversation with her is ever dull because she always has some gossip to share. She also has an exceptional talent to make her handwriting look like print. Apart from that, she is probably the only human in the world who drinks coffee to fall asleep! This bubbly girl with a hint of sass has many unique talents to her name, but the one that stands out is her ability to crack her phones within a week of purchase! Here's to wishing for her bright (and lizard-free) future!

BIMLENDRA YADAV

116CS0243 #Gyaanchod #GMAT #Foodie #LonelyLoverboy #CricketKing

Bimlendra, aka 'Bimu' is a sweet, shy and lovelorn guy who has relentlessly been on a lookout for a romantic partner notwithstanding the fact that he has no guts to interact with people of the opposite gender. Bashful and reserved, his true self has been revealed to only a handful of people in college. And his friends have several instances about his inability to socialize in gatherings or parties. But, Bimu prides himself on his excellent cricketing skills. Known to be a true friend, Bimlendra has equal proportions of nonchalance and ambition. And if you need help with completing your lab or class assignments, you know who always has the solutions with him! The most studious guy who likes spending his time devoting it to studies is also a big chicken lover. But for the rest of the time, he only eats to live due to his picky and fussy eating habits which inhibit him from being easily satisfied by a dish. Apart from that, he is the perfect big brother to his juniors--from standing up for them against ragging to helping them whenever need be. With Steve Jobs as his role model and Google as his dream company, he is unafraid about having high aspirations. And he also works towards his dreams with sincerity and dedication. Rarely distracted from his path, he has his eyes firmly set on the goal and makes a great role model for his peers and juniors. We hope that this generous, humble and soft-hearted fellow reaches out for the stars and also finds true love on the way!

With her signature 'Listen na', one can see the signs when she is about to start an extremely long and endless monologue! Known to be the bachchi of her gang, she is childish by nature but can also be mature when needed. For her, sleep is the number one priority, and unlike the rest of the human race, her active hours are from 4 PM to 4 AM. Even after getting yelled at or being thrown out of class by different professors, you'll still find her coming late to every class and lab because she had to catch up on her much-needed sleep. She can't even see an entire movie at a stretch without taking naps in between! Someone with a self-proclaimed allergy to mess food, you'll often find her skipping meals or surviving on Egg burji. But give her a chocolate or chicken, and she is yours forever. Cherry is an enquiry inspector in terms of taking details of anything she is determined to know. And if you try to hide some information from this Lady Don, she will not leave until she has got her answers. This coding lover is known to pull an all-nighter before each semester exam and ends up acing them anyways. A determined person with a heart of gold, she always stands up for the person in need. Who doesn't lose weight after eating mess food? There are a few who gain; then there are those who turn into a fatso. Yes, a foodie who respects even most distasteful meals, Malkhan is a Rathaur by birth & reality. Battling odds, the journey of the struggling Kanpuriya from getting an education in village in UP to becoming star of NITR; from shy fresher to meticulous overachiever, is nothing short of a hit movie. You'd imagine him to be intense & bold, but reality is quite opposite. A short figure with minimal facial hair throwing PJs at every opportunity, if nothing goes according to his way, he'd say 'Abeyyy Saleyy' & move on. A proponent of 'Arey Yaar', he's one of the most reliable, responsible & humble guy. He chastises people with no tech knowledge with a one-liner 'Website aur Khet mein fark hota'. Going by 'Dibba', he sponsors tea to all females, much in contrast to his unwillingness to give a zillion pending treat. Behind his shy demeanour is an inspiration for robotics & AUV. He's the most sought-after web developer who conquered not only NITR but also Singapore & San Diego. Technical Coordinator at MM, Team Head at NU & Captain at Tiburon, there isn't a hint of pride in him. If smiles are contagious, his is an outbreak. An epidemic of laughter is predicted when his animated voice is heard. A distinct sideward poser with specs on his nose, he's visible from miles. A vegetarian & an excellent cook, his energetic baraati dance will inspire even the worst dancers. Even with admirable managerial skills, he loses his phone every month. Yet nothing dissuades him from stalking—he's a mutual friend to all girls. He's notorious for believing in 'room pe bulao'. A popular workshop speaker, he encourages all to work for open-source. He's immensely proud of his juniors' work. He believes in implementation & loves lab over theory. Wishing the hardworking, secretly romantic & motivated human all the best for future!

Selectively extroverted would best define this insanely childish and confused but convincingly mature person. He is an ocean of emotions. A proper Dravid bhakt and Pro-Kabaddi fan, he is somebody who can easily predict match outcomes, and has extensive knowledge of cricketing history, besides making sure to visit the stadium at least a couple of times a year. He is also a talented batsman. A true connoisseur of people and a gifted ability to handle any situation, he can readily make the most vulnerable of his friends feel comfortable. A guy with a cool mind and excellent suggestions on movies, Shuvam is a healthy gossip guy delivering PJs and amusing fantasies which only he understands best. Being a chill dude, he has a special hatred for the ones who study a lot. He is one who believes in making a career, but not at the cost of making memories. Though hailing from Bhubaneswar, this homesick foodie is a die-hard supporter of the Delhi Daredevils in every IPL. A very good friend who can always accompany you to the night canteen during every exam, this guy is most famously known for his Million-Dollar dimpled smile. He is a perfect example of how one can smile through all worries. Shuvam's unrestrained and enthusiastic nature and hapless confessions make him a delight to be around. A self-reliant and a dedicated guy with good judgement, he is a true gentleman. We wish Shuvam all the best for his future endeavours.

SWOSTIK ACHARYA

716CS2049 #GymLover #Foodie #Gamer #InLove #Bhai #MemeMaterial

Swostik Acharya, (aka Poustik, Selstik etc.) the self-proclaimed "Bhai" of NITR is a gym-junkie and a health freak who can shoulder any responsibility like the 'Bhai' he proclaims himself to be. Whether it's MITACS or receiving of academic excellence, this person displays how smoothly one can overcome any challenge. Having bagged an internship in one of the best companies, Swostik has already secured his career in the myriad of software giants and his positive vibes will surely keep his head high. An ardent Punjabi song lover you can often find him singing them with the wrong lyrics. Loving series, dying for football (and boiled eggs too), sleeping like a log, he is an absolute meme material. Bikes surely hold a soft spot in his heart, and this is seen in the love he has for his bullet. Give him a pair of shoes, and he is all yours. This CSE bhai never says no to chocolates and toffees and of course to FIFA, Carrom and Counterstrike. Normal for all, formal for some and totally abnormal for few, he has the ability to be a different guy based on who he's with. He understands the value of relationships and hence makes a very empathetic and supportive friend. Crowned as the most decent guy by his friends, it is unfortunate that he also has a pretty huge fanbase! He is also a home seeker who always wait for holidays to go home and meet his close ones. Swostik is always admired for his attitude towards life and his fun persona. He is a mature guy who rarely loses his cool even in tensed situations. Intelligent, jolly and sensible, Swostik has mastered the art of juggling multiple roles and personalities with ease and is undoubtedly going to end up being the funniest millionaire in the world.

MANASA PISIPATI

716CS2053 #nightingale #shreyagoshalofNITR #noodles #gossipqueen

You enter a classroom at 5 AM in the morning, you will see a fresh-looking Manasa sitting there with multi-coloured pens and a notebook, ready for the lecture. This multi-talented princess hails from Saudi Arabia and yet she is more Indian than any of us. Addicted to Hindi movies and daily soaps she knows every gossip of B-Town and never misses an episode of Big Boss. The Shreya Ghosal of HeartBeats and gossip queen of CVR is a bespectacled noodle hair Telugu girl who is popular in the college for her mellifluous renditions of various songs from Tyagaraja Kritis to Bollywood Unplugged tunes. Her lucrative expertise is, however, to turn Ariana Grande songs to swarams. Trained in Carnatic music, she has a haunting way of figuring out the name of the musical instrument just from their sounds. From freaking out for exams to cruising through them, this elite DASA student has come a long way. The inhouse hairstyles expert's Thangbali impression from Chennai Express and eerily accurate voice imitations might keep you up all night. She is a bubbling volcano full of joy and innocence who will spend hours outside her room encouraging her friends to drive away bats and moths that entered her room. Also known for her bicycling skills, all the people she's taken on the carrier seat have survived with all their limbs intact. She is a stickler for rules and a woman of principles and this trait has not only helped her conduct events of humongous scale during her time as coordinator of Heartbeats but has also produced some of the finest articles during her time as MM content writer. Her future plans include working less and earning more and there is no doubt Miss Perfectionist will exceed her own expectations in the future.

JYOTI PRAKASH SAHOO

716CS2055 #LazyAF #Booze #Sportsperson #SakhtSerialStalker #SRKisLove

Jyoti or Jeetu is the Chota Packet Bada Dhamaka of the department. A typical Balesoria Toka that he is, he loves sleeping, singing and playing badminton. He leads a near-perfect engineering life-Bunking classes, sleeping for 12 hours straight, drinking, hogging chicken and finally binge-watching movies and series. Jyoti is also a die-hard fan of SRK. To be a serial stalker, but to stay away from girls is his motto. The best thing about him is his carefree attitude and not stressing himself out about anything. He is pretty popular for the way he teases and trolls' friends. Lethargic as he may be, all his energy comes out in full throttle in the badminton court. This guy always chooses the shortest path to get a job done, and so is also called the 'scheme boy'. He is hugely inactive -be it on social media or in actual life. He also immensely loves shopping online and is seen buying clothes frequently. Jyoti has a unique style of dealing with problems. Although he has a great memory and can memorize almost anything at first glance, most of the time his laziness intervenes and he loses focus. But when gets serious with something does that dedicatedly. Let's hope that Jyoti can also scheme his way into fulfilling his dream - Working in a company which pays him for free.

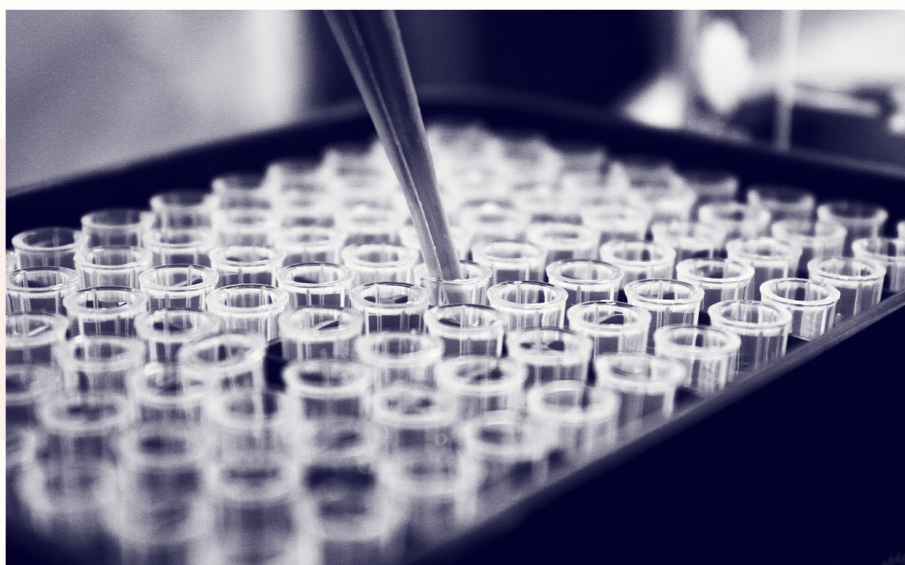

AASTHA VARMA

716CS2057 #Coder #GMAT #LazyAF #PassionAndPerfection #PolyGlot

Aastha Varma is a multi-talented woman of high morale and knows her priorities very well. Telugu, English, Odia and Hindi- She can speak a multitude of languages. With a passion for coding, she is probably the only person who uses the backbenches in class to solve coding challenges as opposed to scrolling through her phone meaninglessly. And when she isn't coding, she loves a good book. She's also an avid binge-watcher. It is hard to find shows that she hasn't watched. And her love for Arijit Singh, Taylor Swift and K-drama is incomparable. That being said, she's one of the laziest people. The most interesting part about Aastha is that she can be extremely excited to do the day's lab assignment, or she decides to skip a lab on the day of evaluation, all depending on her mood! She always does things only if her heart wants her to, unlike the rest of the people who are busy trying to push themselves into doing something even if they are not in the mood to. She also loves to do things her way even if it takes longer. Someone comfortable to stand out, Aastha never worries about grades or marks. And with her 'less is more' attitude, she doesn't like being fancy. Her friendly and welcoming nature makes her approachable. And she has a fantastic ability to see things from a new perspective and dimension. Her motivation to make a change in the world is a good reminder of the reason why we do what we do. This girl has a clear vision and enough talent and determination to bring it to life. Here's to wishing Aastha all the luck for her successful coding-filled future!

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

Dexter's Laboratory intrigued our baby chemists with his chemistry experiments with a dash of humour. There never was a kid who didn't try to emulate the toons in real life. If Physics was boring, Chemistry compensated it for the kids with its charm of quirky experiments. The sight of the red room where photos were developed from the dull camera reel and a man with a tray of liquid in his hands is what piqued the interest of our chemists from NITR's Chemistry department. They have gone a long way from curiosity knocking their heads to defining and discovering drugs for reliving mankind of the ailments.

KATIKALA ALEKHYA

416CY5002 #Artist #alliballi #oversensitive #comedyqueen #bestcook

Alekhya, or Alli Balli, is one of the most hyperactive people one would ever meet. Donning a face as well as the heart of a 12-year old, she is a beautiful person inside out. Funny, confused as well as irritating - cobbled together, define Alekhya. One needs a great deal of patience to tolerate her tantrums, though she'd always be there to help her friends out at one call, without hesitation. Stupid and cute as she is, she'd often leave things messy, but in turn, her innocence would catch your eye. The enormous amount of energy that she brings with her, is reflected in her dancing and mimicry, which serve as the best entertainment package during leisure. An over-emotional person herself, this cry baby would even get tears while watching sensitive movies. Alekhya is truly a god gifted friend and her quality of being friends with almost everyone is praiseworthy. She keeps her surrounding alive with her common ant-elephant jokes. Also known for her immense love for food, she is a member of Chef's Club (now the 'inactive' president). Afraid of ghosts or being alone, Alekhya is also a huge fan of Korean and Chinese drama. Expert in walking backwards or cooking the best sambhar, she is our comedy queen with a humble attitude. As beautiful as she is, she also holds the title of the best poser. Who uses chemistry in her day to day conversations, and whose vibrant reactions become the talk of the day, we wish her the best in her life!

NISARANI BISHOYI

416CY5004 #Dancer #InLove #Artist #Coder #Beaut #Chhua #catalyst

Nisa, or the 'Beauty Queen', is the Khanti Berhampuraya of the department, who always slays with her accent and contagious smile. Brilliant in academics, she is the notes provider for the whole class (specially OE) and turns out to be the saviour during exams. Also known as Chhua, Nisa's obsession with nail paints and nail art is quite evident from her colour coordinated outfits and nail colours. She has good imitation skills and her satirical one-liner can make you roll of laughter. This girl's simplicity in a 'salwar kurta' is mostly mistaken, and gives the impression of a shy and innocent individual. The Snow White of the 'Photo Patha' group, this Phulei has got some crazy dance skills too. A pro-Uno player, this die-hard Virat Kohli fan is a heartthrob for many and is famous for her appropriate relationship advice. The 'chatki' of the CY group is a loveable lass, and also a committed being, though her gym plans never even progressed for one day. Emotional yet mature, this mommy's 'Jhia' is known for her apt fashion sense, and takes the centre stage on any occasion. Always late to class, still swaying with her grades, Nisa is a perfect example of the saying 'hard work pays'. Talk to her and most of your questions will receive back 'Kichi Bhi!' Delicate as she is, whose skin swells up with a minute ant bite, she never ceases to impress her friends with the tasty snacks she gets from home. A treasure that shines so bright, that can't be concealed, she is the catalyst you need in the time of need. This 'mad about TV series' chick is a pure soul, and we wish her luck for her future endeavours.

MIRJA PRASAD HEMBRAM

416CY5006 #Foodie #Extra/Curricular #Sportsperson #Singer #Photographer #MirjuBhai

As is evident, Mirja Prasad Hembram is a name too long to pronounce at one go, hence his friends call him Mirja, while professors prefer Hembram. Dr Prasad is an active member of "Third Eye" and his mere purchase of a DSLR increased his popularity among his friends exponentially. A diehard fan of street photography, Mirja is a kind human, who also over-thinks petty matters in pursuit of not hurting anyone and ends up bearing pain himself. Good at listening and even better at giving advice, this sadri-song lover is also a huge fan of Delhi Capitals and never forgets to cheer for the team during IPL. Miju's patience level is praiseworthy and his transformation from a short-tempered guy to the calm individual is worth an applaud. Dare not challenge him or else "Bhai Jharkhand se katta le ayenge", as he says. Perhaps he has contributed 20-30% for the publicity of 'Gangs of Wasseyapur', as he is that crazy about this movie (literally). He won't spare a single chance to recite the dialogues again and again, his favourite being, 'Katayi zeher lag raha'. An extremely Instaholic person, obsessed with the number of profile visits to his account, preferably girls, never turns down a woman for a requested photoshoot. Apart from being an enthusiastic photographer, Mirja is a very jolly person, always trying to make his friends smile. He is a very passionate traveller who loves to explore new places and capture them. We wish him a bright future ahead and hope he continues to achieve success!

AMAN GUPTA

416CY5005 #Foodie #InLove #GMAT #BoggoBhai #LazyAF

Let me introduce "Aman Gupta" to you guys! Popularly known as 'Baga' or 'Bogo', he is not meant to be judged by his 'sadhu'-like looks. He cracks insanely dark humour and is truly a wicked character from inside. If you ever talk to him, the first thing you'll notice is how much respect he gives while talking, and also smiles a lot so that you can be comfortable. From not eating non-veg to sacrificing his sleep for the sake of exams, Aman can control almost everything, except his hair fall. If he talks about facts and figures, then even though he has a lot of knowledge, it's not necessary that he'd be right, because being a complete 'Pheku', he says things with such confidence that the bragging is not easy to decipher. A mental confidence booster, who will guide you about all the right and wrong, Aman is a perfect person to have as a friend. A pure GMAT during exams, beware of his sharp listening skills as you might not even notice him eavesdropping on your secret conversations. A great photographer, an outstanding illustrator and a hardworking individual, this multilingual Boggo Bhai has got a huge fanbase for his witty sense of humour. A Darjeeling Born-and-Bred individual, who never stops boasting about his hometown and culture, he is also an expert in stealing eggs and extra fish from the mess (lol). A person with zero attitudes, who is always ready to listen to your grievances, our boggo-man is a friend everyone should have. Though he often says, "Arey nahi re baba, yeh humse na hopayega", we know he's got potential to do the impossible. Waiting eagerly to see what his future has got for us!

SUBHRASMITA SAHU

416CY5010 #Artist #InLove #Extra/Curricular #Dancer #LazyAF #Subhra #Subu #chirpy

Subhrasmita, in short Subhra, or better yet Subu is a beautiful, sweet and adorable munchkin with close resemblance to a teddy bear. She's known for her transparency and bluntness, shows immense love but does not shy away to scold one of her friends. Despite all happenings around her, one would find her ever-cheerful with a smile as bright as the sun on her little chubby face. Having down to earth attitude and unconditional love for everyone, she is a bit of a perfectionist and tends to work with the sheer commitment towards any task she takes up, even if it compromises her speed. A bit choosy when it comes to foods, she would prefer eating out any time rather than having the same mundane mess food, and her childlike appearance fits perfectly when she whines. A lover of all the things sweet and magical, she could literally kill for a bar of chocolate. Loves to spend time alone and is a bit of a "couch potato" on weekends but that doesn't make her any less creative. She has a knack for art and crafts and also loves drawing, being an introvert, she has a hard time expressing care and love by words, so instead her love is reflected by the beautifully crafted handmade birthday cards. A Korean drama fanatic who can spend many nights watching her favourite shows and drooling over the band BTS, even if that means missing breakfast or even classes. We wish this sweet kid all the best for her future endeavours, especially her career as a PhD student.

PRAVASH KUMAR SETHI

416CY5011 #Foodie #ProxyKing #Flirty #Photographer #Bahubali #GymFreak #Model

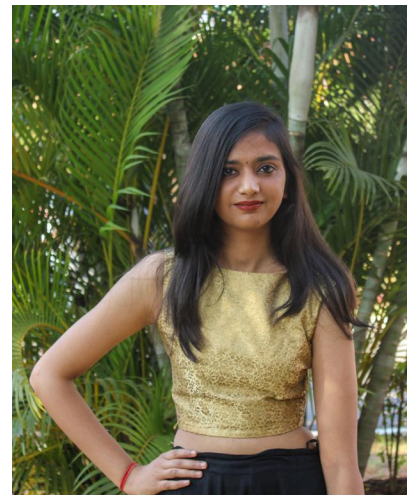

Pravash Sethi aka Bahubali is an easy-going and versatile individual, whose chiselled physique and high-profile fashion sense can give jitters to anyone. First-year and final year looks of Pravash, the President of La Resistance, are almost incomparable. An ideal student to most of his professors, Pravash likes to maintain a healthy academic record. A gym freak, he is undoubtedly jack of all trades - leader, fitness idol, photographer, fashionista and many more. In his 'always up-to-the-mark attire', it is almost impossible to guess how amazing a cook he is. This 'gabba', who is idolised for his fitness mantras (though a dump yard of food), can be found on Insta with the same caption 'back to work' at least six times a month. The unprecedented winner of any modelling challenge, he is overtly extrovert and owns a special talent of mesmerising people with his oratory skills. The 'Google' of the gang, who contains information (mostly wrong) about almost everything, also boasts of having many achievements that are very hard to digest. His short temper often gets him into trouble, though he has a firm belief that no one is more talented than him. This famous 'Nungura', the chocolate boy of the group, has girlfriends in almost every corner of the state. Switch on some Odia music and you can see the dancer in him too! Pravash, or 'Bhanjanagar Sasta Don', hailing from Berhampur, never fails to exhibit the characters of the 'pabans'. A friend, who wouldn't even hesitate in getting up at midnight to help you, this overachiever surely is a prized possession for his buddies. We wish this perfectionist a perfect future!

RADHIKA VARSHNEY

416CY5013 #GMAT #InLove #Chuhiya #Dosalover #jhalli #doll #Radz #RadheyMaa

Radhika, the 'messy yet sassy' lass, holds a record of nicknames - Radha, Chuhiya, Radhey Maa, Radha Rani, Radz, and so on. Simple as she is, her dedication towards her work has won her many accolades, be it Academic Excellence or a number of prestigious internships; though it'd be wrong to consider her a GMAT, as she never misses an opportunity to dawdle around jobless. As the saying goes, 'Appearances are Deceptive', there's no doubt that Radhika's innocent face is just a trap. Insane as a baby, mature as a lady, this brilliant observant is as selfless as a mom. If you hear terms like 'paglait', 'kaand machaya' etc in the background, there is a good chance of her being close. This lazy young woman is known to have helped a dozen people pass their exams, or even excel at them. Though she manages all her courses pretty well, organic chemistry particularly scares her the most. She can often be spotted in LA, donning a sleek pony, and carrying a pink coloured bottle, which quenches her friends' thirst more than her own. Contradictory to her physique, she is a complete Foodie and never lets a dosa offer go waste. Likewise, shopping is something she can do all day. Try to anger her, and the look she'd give you would be sufficient to silence you up! Her apt blend of love and care makes one's good days better, and bad days bearable. Beautiful inside out, this research enthusiast holds no grudges at all and often takes stress on her friends' behalf too. A good advisor, a treasured friend, our to-be-Dr Radhika is a silent killer, whose smile makes men go weak on their knees. This cheerful 'UP ki Jhalli' deserves only the best, and we wish she gets the same!

RAJANIKANTA RANA

416CY5053 #GMAT #dancer #Artist #Writer #RajaniBhai #Sadhana #Cook #Caring

An epitome of simplicity and goodness, Rajanikanta is a die-hard patriot, who can often be heard saying 'Mera Bharat Mahaan', and thereby refusing to do his PhD abroad. Being a devout and committed member of the famous 'C-Cube' club and a staunch devotee of Lord Jagannath, 'Rajani Bhai' always talks about God and the lofty philosophy. A very jolly person by nature, he speaks faster than a bullet train, which is barely understandable. His expertise in cooking Odia delicacies and sweets (can even cook for 20-30 people at once with ease), along with his knowledge of astrological predictions are truly unparalleled. One sentence to describe him completely would be "Purity is the Force". Rajani delights in reading spiritual scriptures like Bhagavad Gita and Srimad Bhagavatam, and also enjoys Srila Prabhupada's books in his leisure. He tries to make the best of every moment and spends quality time reading books, serving people or practising meditation. Academically brilliant and a hidden dancer, he's always up for any help and is a boon to juniors and seniors as well. Having a perfect routine, from waking up at 3:30 am to sleeping by 9:30 pm, Rajanikanta is a pure-hearted soul, whose straightforwardness makes him an inspiration for many. He often inspires people to take the path of 'Krishna Consciousness' and be happy eternally by leading a pure life. He is a man who preaches by actions and not just by words. We hope he continues to inspire people and lives a successful life ahead with eternal peace!

MANOJ KUMAR BEHERA

416CY5003 #Foodie #manu #mundhari #BBC #LungiLove #mahuli

Manoj or 'Manu Mundhari' is a cheerful and fun-loving guy with absolutely no haters and all bros. This 'Desi Sandha', who is famous for his 'Desi Rasoyi', is always ready to satisfy you with his extraordinary cooking skills. Innocent by heart and emotional by nature, he is quite studious too. Having a huge number of dark secrets that are yet to be revealed, 'Mahuli' is also a die-hard cricket fan. It is a moment of great fear when he arrives on anyone's GPL. A music lover, who can be seen listening to songs irrespective of their languages, Manu is also in sheer love with his lungi and can wear it all day. Manu has got some serious issues with street dogs and doesn't hesitate to hit them with stones as soon as he sees them. Over-sincere as he is, his punctuality makes him the first bencher of his department. This person, who hasn't ever raised his voice in front of anyone is undoubtedly the most down to earth person one would meet. Also, a Charlie Puth fan, he could spend his day watching movies and series. Hailing from the land of sea, Balasore, it is by default that he comes with a bag of mudi, chingudi, crab, achar, macha, etc after any vacation. Manoj, who has got insane love for chillies, is a true saviour of the group during any dilemma. Who cannot be defeated in doing titrations more accurately, this 'early to bed, early to rise' guy is one friend everyone should have. We wish him a successful lectureship future ahead!

PADMAJA KAR

416CY5007 #GMAT #writer #Foodie #Momma #Mittoo #LazyAF

Padmaja, or more commonly Paddu, is known for her kind heart and an unmatched level of madness. She is a diehard fan of Taylor Swift and enjoys reading Dan Brown novels. One could say that her command on the English language is a result of her avid reading habits. This love for reading is only seconded by her addiction to Hollywood shows, which she can binge-watch anytime. One of the challenges her friends usually face is her tendency to ruin her own birthday surprises. She possesses the qualities of an average topper, although some call her Lady Einstein, due to her somewhat shabby appearance and messiness, in addition to a sharp mind. She's known to have a very few friends but could give up the world for them in a heartbeat. Regarded as the "Super Caring Momma" of the "Photo Patha" group, Padmaja is a sweet and loving girl, with childlike innocence and the heart of a mother. She is the kind of girl that seems confused about her own life but gives rather good advice on matters relating to others'. Her phobia of makeup goes great along with her down to earth attitude. A stern believer of 'living in simplicity', she otherwise likes to dress up occasionally. She has got a soft corner for animals and birds (particularly parrots) and can be seen talking to them very often. We hope that her zest and zeal would take her to new heights and, and wish for her good fortune in all her future endeavours.

NAMRATHA SINGALURI

11EC0245 #Nammu #Songbird #Nerd #Foodista #LazyAF

Namratha aka Nammu perfectly fits into the tag "Loved by all, hated by none". A bundle of joy, this witty lass creates an aura of happiness and humour always around her. Her million-dollar smile is enough to make one fall for her and her sarcasm levels make her the Chandler Bing in her group of FRIENDS. Addicted to online shopping, this fashion fanatic claims of having nothing to wear despite possessing a closet laden with different kinds of outfits for every event in the institute. She is the go-to-person who is always ready to help the others in shopping for any festival or an event that's approaching. Nammu is weird and vivacious in her ways, starting from getting fake candid photos of her clicked to calling herself Daenerys Targaryen of GOT. Hailing from the city of Hyderabad, her love for Dosa makes her a regular customer of Dosa Plaza and food means non-vegetarian food to this foodie. One of those rare Gulte girls who are more inclined towards western outfits, Nammu papa (meaning girl in Telugu) loves to hang out and party with her close ones. Being someone who can be relied upon during tough times, her friends get awed by her good vibes and jocular nature. She is also a wonderful singer, which many might not know. A die-hard fan of GOT and Suits, she has a thing for English TV series. Namratha is a perfect blend of determination and precision at academics along with a little boldness and lots of wackiness elsewhere.

MIRZA ADIL AMMAR BAIG

11EC0249 #KnowledgeBank #Codingfanatic #GMAT #ChaiLover #PUBGleader

A Gulte but not so Gulte, Adil is best known as a perfectionist and an epitome of relentless diligence to all those who know him. He does every job with precision and perfection. This scholarly lad is very regular in attending classes with almost 100% attendance and listens to every professor assiduously during lectures even when they are boring. A pro PUBG player, he spends his leisure playing games most of the time with a special mention to PUBG. Very few people know that he is a foodie as well. Someone who believes in hard work, efforts and actions, Adil can mostly be found reading books in his room and barely steps out of his room. An intellectual who has always dreamt of making it big into one of the Ivy League universities for pursuing M.S., he is a living bank of knowledge and spreads it among his friends as well. His personal life is less unheard of and he prefers staying away from shitty discussions on topics other than studies, career and facts. Having interacted with very few girls, his friends think he hates girls. Not that he is a hard rock all the time, Adil can be genial and sarcastic many-a-time during formal serious discussions. A highly motivated guy who never gives up and inspires many with his headstrong approach towards every big opportunity that life throws at him, he has an impressive dressing sense and some class that adds to his dynamic persona. We earnestly hope that his GRE and TOEFL scores will get him into one of the Ivy League universities soon.

PAYAL DAS

11EC0254 #MissPopular #CoffeeBuff #FashionFreak #BeautyWithBrains #Foodie #CyborgGirl

A sprightly and fresh-faced cherubic girl having wave of the hand acquaintances across all batches, ages and professions at NITR, Payal is just impossible to ignore if you spot her. She is a staunch believer that one can never have enough of the good things, be it good food, great friends, a jaw-dropping touch of attires and accessories, a scholastic academic record evenly balanced with her co-curriculars. Rarely would you find innumerable friends vouching for a person as they do when claiming that she has not only been an indispensable friend at all times but gladly taken upon the role of a foster mother, sister or a confidante whenever a situation demanded. She remained busy tending to her commitments as a tech whiz for Monday Morning, Cyborg or tending to the welfare of the institute while spearheading the Institute Counseling Services for the most part, but her primary superpower and occupation remains to review the menus of restaurants with the meticulousness of Gordon Ramsay. In all of her hectic engagements, coffee has been her fuel, something about which she is somewhat a connoisseur by the way. In parallel, she has always ensured that not only her but even her friends are dressed to nines, with her burgeoning designer wardrobe. Not many know that she is a dexterous chess player as well. With sarcasm and straightforwardness being her armours against anyone who messes with her, if she lets her guard down, she is a delight to talk with each tiny morsel of gossip of the institute being in her kitty to let the conversation run for hours. Radiating positivity all over, she bagged an internship at BARC and subsequently bowled at placements. Adding numerous feathers to her cap already, this lady of talents has all the fortune waiting to be bestowed upon her adorable persona during her upcoming endeavours.

SHIVANGI GUPTA

11EC0258 #Odissihoofer #Foodie #LazyLass #InLove<3 #Bluffmaster #Bahut_Sweet

If you are looking for the tallest girl of 2020-21 batch then Shivangi Gupta is the answer. With tinges of sweetness and gullibility from inside and attitude of a 'Teekhi Mirchi' from outside, she knows how to steal the show with her blabbering nature and innumerable uncanny questions. A secret GMAT who has a beautiful handwriting and is very serious about academics, she cutely asks for the syllabus at the last moment and takes additional answer sheets during exams to panic her friends. She is an over-thinker who can ask you a multitude of all not-so-related questions but you will end up answering them and sharing a laugh or two because of her sweet face. Shivangi is a worrywart sometimes and chills when her dear ones pacify her. On one hand, she has grown into a beautiful soft-hearted woman and on the other hand, she is still a child at heart who has a bunch of caring people in her life who truly understand her and deal with her crazy actions. Starting from being a smooth coder to a trained Odissi dancer to a basketball player in the institute team, this lethargic lass has aced it all. A beauty with brains, comedy is her favourite genre. Moreover, she also sings secretly and makes amazing doodles in her leisure. This self-proclaimed black belt holder in Taekwondo has a dark sense of humour and is utterly romantic. Not to forget, Shivangi's weird and dreadful dreams with interesting stories accompanying them cannot be unheard of if you are in good terms with her. What makes her lovable is her naïve attitude and sentimental approach towards people. She is sure to tread a flowery path filled with success and prosperity!

HEMASAGAR MISHRA

116EC0262 #IdealStudent #Notes'Supplier #DevarakondaFan #HonestAF #BranchSaviour

Fondly known as Hemu Bhai, one of EC department's toppers and everybody's dearest Hemasagar is an epitome of diligence, sincerity, determination and high calibre to evolve academically with each day passing by. He is the saviour of the entire branch, whether it is sending the solutions to assignments, pictures of written records, providing the exam schedule first, posting the full-fledged syllabi of all subjects on WhatsApp groups or teaching his friends a night before the exam. Ask him any doubt, he will explain you better than a professor and as many times you want patiently. His cocktail recipes are a hit among his friends and he would have made a more successful career being a fancy bartender than an engineer. Having never compromised on his gourmet standards, Abhirup holds the record for going to mess for the least number of days. A real pro when it comes to sarcastically and subtly roasting people, and using their weaknesses against them. He is an easy-going person with an amicable and humorous nature. A football aficionado and an exemplary football player as well, he still lives in denial that Ronaldo has left Madrid and plays El Classico on FIFA18. ISDR lab is the only place in his department where he seems to be interested in learning and gets lost in the world of neural networks and complex algorithms. We wish this ML enthusiast a great future ahead!

SRAVYA SRIDHAR

Sravya Sridhar, a.k.a. Madame President is a charismatic, compassionate, hardworking, and energetic (also weird) personality. She's a loyal friend who references Family Guy an unhealthy number of times. Every semester she has a new go-to diet plan, from eating cranberry cereal to drinking amla juice, which she leaves after a week. Her comedy is a bit of an acquired taste and she has a knack of coming up with well-timed comebacks (most of the time). She is the one to contact for all evil insane pranks. A die-hard fan of Family Guy, Naruto and a secret fan of Kochikame, she is a member of the binge-watching cult. A true chai lover in every sense and one who cannot live without at least 6 cups of it a day, the only thing that she loves more is gossiping while sipping tea in LA lawns. Every party is incomplete without her boundless energy and her famous ice-cream and whiskey combo. Being a fashion stylist for others and a Singaporean food supplier, she has been a big help for her peers. Almost everything that she eats needs to have at least a bottle of ketchup. Her knowledge of memes can put anyone else's to shame. She would never admit it, but she is scared of almost every animal out there. But all these aside, she is an extremely versatile person, her anchoring and leadership skills being ample evidence of that. Under this layer of crazy madness lies a sweet, caring and sensible person. Even in the toughest days she can make anyone smile with her cute attempts in speaking Odia, her PJs and her strangely accurate Afro-American accent. We wish this kind soul all the very best for her future ahead.

Inti sravya a.k.a. Srabba, Captain, Scientist, Inti Bunty, Laddu, etc is the true underdog of the department, who silently gets her way through things. Her innocence and decency might surely deceive you of the aggressive and "I-take-no-bullshit" attitude on the level with Vayu Raghavan, which she possesses. From being someone extremely afraid of assignments that are near to no considerable importance to acing a lab exam without any preparation, she has transformed into a confident human being, learning different hacks over the four years. She is a true worshipper of her beliefs, wherein Virat Kohli is her God and cricket, the religion. Her ardent love for Rishabh Pant is quite controversial too. If you find Sravya standing somewhere, don't just go and talk to her, she might be posing for her 10,000th candid. She sleeps like a kumbhkaran and eats like one too. She is a not-so-bad painter and has a closet full of bad paintings, but she claims to be getting better each day. Her hard work and determination have landed her the dream job. She's the ISRO papa, having changed the abbreviation of ISRO as "Inti Sravya research organization". She might not pull an all-nighter for exams but can surely night out for binge-watching a series. She has the power to immediately brighten up one's day with her optimism. She's selfless, gorgeous and the best lab partner one could ever ask for. She's a great ludo, crossword and tic tac toe partner. She is such a wonderful woman with a warm heart, who won't ever hurt anyone and won't leave your side ever. She's a wonderful energy to be around and she's sure to be the best asset ISRO will ever have.

His purity in friendship has known no bounds amongst his close-knit circle as he has been there for them no matter what he went through in life. A professional procrastinator for whom CGPA is a myth and attending classes, an apocalypse, this guy has no idea whatsoever of anything being taught in his class. Shiva's love for Korean dramas and all other things that DC++ provides is unparalleled. There is literally no count of the number of Korean dramas he can binge-watch in a single night, the result of which is an exasperating farrago of phrases, metaphors, and similes, wielded by a modest soul too humble to put up appearances. His lanky figure is the proof of the fact that no matter how much he eats, he fails to gain weight. His credulous nature got him to pursue several girls in his first year and then face rejections from them routinely, getting him the position of a truly unsuccessful lover. But his fan following among the opposite gender outside the college is noteworthy. His friends claim that he has managed to have multiple girlfriends with the help of social media, i.e. Facebook, Instagram, and even Pubg. The walls of Shiva's hostel room are decorated with posters of super cool and fancy posters of bikes as he dreams to possess one someday in the future. However, his life in NITR has been through several crests and troughs but here's to a forever exponential rise in happiness and dream achieved for this gem of a fellow.

DHANUSH D. PAI

Dhanush D Pai, a.k.a. Dhanno, Degea, Danny or Dhaniya has a persona that perfectly justifies the lines 'Taareef karun kya uski, jisne tumhe banaya'. He is a gentleman with the purest heart, all the good qualities and also the creepiest smile. The orbital is no less than a mother for his fellow mates, taking care of all their needs and making sure everyone is happy and healthy, the best roommate one could ever ask for. Football is his passion, his girlfriend, his first true love, and the one that gives him a whole another identity. Dhanush started his journey at NITR as a fatso but the dedication that he had for losing weight and becoming fit has made him one of the finest goalkeepers the institute team has had. A true motivator, he always cheers his teammates, in success and defeat alike. Once he gets his head into something, he leaves no stone unturned to achieve his goal. Dhanush speaks less but when he does, it is worth listening to. When he speaks in his native dialect, you go back to the Stone Age. He identifies himself as the character Ross from FRIENDS, owing to some mishaps in his love interests. A true foodie at heart, he claims to be an excellent cook, which no one is a witness of. Irrespective of time, place and situation, he is always there to have your back and with whom you can pour your heart out without the fear of being judged. Being an introvert makes him a good listener. An ideal son, a caring brother, a trustworthy friend, Dhanno is the must-have person in everyone's life. His determination will take him places and we wish him the best for all his future endeavors.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

"Everyone's a prankster until the real prankster arrives," says a 90s kid to the current generation. Every kid's nightmare and every prankster's meal, the electric shock gum was destined to be famous. Do you know why Pikachu is everyone's favourite, apart from cuteness overload? Yes, electricity. Electricity fascinated every 90s kid. Remember the Lemon-Potato experiment which generated enough juice to light up a bulb & a kid's face? There was an Electrical Engineer in each of us. Only some legends took the risk of letting it to grow.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

CLASS OF 2020

MAREEDU KISHORE BABU

116EE0286 #FitnessFreak #Bingewatcher #GMAT #Singer #Gyaanch*d #Heartbroken #InLove<3

Kishore is a quiet, intelligent and hardworking guy who is often seen studying sincerely in classes. Too Studious, damn serious and uniquely reserved is Kishore, the guy who acts as the harbinger of the electrical roll list. Well, be it roll list or academics, he tops it both. He is strangely drawn towards science and engineering like a helpless firefly is towards the fire. This guy has drained all these four years of his life in the vast ocean of electrical knowledge. Apart from these sarcastic praises, deep inside Kishore is warm and nice and has an inherent desire to indulge in peculiar electrical adventures. But what is not well known is that he cares very deeply for his friends and is always there to help them, making their problem his own. This silent guy is also broody with mood swings to watch out for and at other times cannot get enough of messing with his friends. He is passionate about everything he does- be it studying or watching series. One of the few people who are done watching a new series the minute it is out. This fitness freak had a memorable transformation after one summer holiday and likes maintaining a regime since and makes it a point to go to the gym. You will always find this guy smiling but if need be, he can be extremely straightforward even if it doesn't sound good. This silent personality is very passionate and enthusiastic towards technology and gives his utmost effort for the work that interests him. He lives by the motto simple living and high thinking. We hope he has a life full of surprises, miracles and joyful moments.

Pragyan aka Kuni aka "chhoto pila" is a beautiful, charming little girl having a very cute childlike voice. But she can be very straight forward. Her mouth is sharper than scissors, the same as her nails and both can leave you with bleeding wounds. A little too reserved and shy, it is difficult to reach out to her in the beginning, but on getting to know her you'll realise she's a chota packet bada dhamaka. She is a very strong and confident girl and is able to think on her feet even in the worst conditions. Sometimes funny and sometimes a little stupid, her childishness and innocence can always melt your heart and is a sweet company to have. God has recklessly gifted this girl with beauty and elegance and that would be the first thing that would catch your eyes when you first meet her. She has zero haters and thousands of lovers in NITR. She is very photogenic and has always been a perfectionist when it comes to dressing and hair stylings, and is also a personal hairstylist for all her friends. However, she sometimes becomes too self-conscious and tries presenting herself perfectly. Her appetite is smaller than a bird. Her religious Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays lead to the cancellation of most of the dining out plans. This cheerful and fun-loving girl has laughter skills that can compete with the best. She is also very hardworking and ambitious, who diligently works towards anything she sets her eyes on. Her sincere and punctual attitude are her biggest strengths. We wish this pure soul all the very best for her future endeavours.

AMIT KUMAR

116EE0311 #Trolling_Mode #YoutubeSurfer #Chhotu #Kumbhakarna

Amit is probably the most sarcastic guy you can ever come across. He's the reason they say you should definitely have a Bihari friend in your group. Even though he is fondly known as Chhotu, you better not tease him about his height, unless you want to be roasted to a crisp by his savage words. He has a voice which everyone loves when he gets into the trolling mode unless they are the ones being attacked. Full of life and energy, Amit can take down anyone with his witty remarks and fast replies. He's a WWE and YouTube trends binge-watcher, and can sit for hours glued to his screen. He knows how to get the job done with the least of efforts, a true engineer indeed. Fully equipped with the knowledge of all EE hacks, Amit gives the boldest interviews and nails the job. He's an inspiration who'll definitely go places in the future. His love for sleeping is unparalleled. That is also the reason he is always chilled out. A movie buff, he scours DC++ for the latest Bollywood movies and watches them within days of release. The phrase "Chhotu packet, bada dhamaka" captures his essence perfectly. He is a vegetarian who hates partying and eating outside food; a simple home-cooked meal is what he loves. He can talk about politics all day using his enormous store of general knowledge. We wish him all the good fortune in life and may his dream of becoming an IAS officer come true.

Rajaram is a man of many names. GMAT Raja, Pecha, Rangila Raja are just some of the colourful examples. His passion for mathematics has made him famous since childhood. Rising above the curse of electrical, he never let the high current run through his terminals and ensured his sustainability in the cursed department. He is probably the only guy who has looked just the same since the first day of the college till now. He excels at throwing himself into depression and wailing about his condition day and night. His tension and distress for his grades is a never-ending story. He is a Khanti Berhampuriya and likes to eat 'puri-upma' three times a day. Years have passed by but his dialogues 'kichhi padhini re', 'CG asuni re' etc have not changed. From one of the simplest and studious individuals in his first year to the Secretary of Film and Music Society in the final year, this guy has come a long way and had enhanced his self-confidence to take part in other extra-curricular activities. Don't be fooled by his innocent looks which he uses as a cover to get into the good books of girls. Whatever he may be doing, he'll always have a playlist going on his phone or laptop. An OT specialist, he has cleared each and every OT that he has given till date. Although he may be a little clumsy, he is one of the best friends you can hope for in your college life. He is a great listener and support system. His never give up attitude will surely take him a long way and let him fulfil all his dreams.

SAMIKSHYA

Popularly known as Sam, this bomb personality can attract anyone by her charming wit and infectious smile. This electrical engineer is a passionate poet whose poems are as complicated as electrical circuits and her friends need to sit with dictionaries to understand them. At first encounter, Sam might seem bossy and rude. But it comes from her trait of being brutally straightforward and doesn't hesitate to point out your mistakes because she wants you to be the best version of yourself. On getting to know her better you will find that deep down she is that friend who is going to be a pillar of support no matter what and is an absolute sweetheart and can lighten anyone's mood with a mere smile. She will never admit it, but she definitely has OCD and is a cleanliness freak. This one is literally a ticking time bomb with moods that don't just swing; they bounce, recoil and rebound. She is an ardent dog lover and stalks dog pages the entire day but little known is the fact that she is scared of the tiniest puppy. Her life entirely revolves around food. No matter the situation, that always remains the first thing in her mind. She believes that every cute thing is supposed to end up in her belly. Her jokes are totally outlandish, you would require a special kind of talent to understand them. Surprisingly she has a very fond appetite for mess food and will never miss it. Her hobbies include eating and then complaining about getting fat. After knowing her for a long time one will appreciate her genuine and sincere behaviour. She is a badass with a good heart, soft but strong, unapologetic but honest. We wish this bubbly and fashionable lady all the luck for her future.

SWATI PRIYADARSHINI BEHERA

11EEE0297 #introvert #tomboy #Foodie #LazyAF #Coder #Booze #Weed #Singer #Gyaanch*d

A man trapped in a woman's body would be the best description for Swati Priyadarshini Behera. She is the coolest and laziest girl who would love to sleep all day and drown in Korean fanfiction, kpop and Manga. Being an extreme introvert, she likes to refrain from socialising often and spends all her time gazing at the phone screen. However, if she likes you, she can end up being your closest friend. You'll be lucky because she's a patient listener and keeps her opinions honest without any sugar-coating, making her an amazing person to go to for advice. Bearing the innocence of a child, this sweet girl hates being called by all the girly adjectives. She is exceptionally gifted and very talented; she got placed in her first-ever attempt. Her legendary stubbornness is beyond compare and none of her friends has been successful in persuading her into anything. Only once by a rare miracle, she wore a black dress which made all the boys weak in the knees, otherwise, you'll always find her in single dress code- jeans and shirt. This tomboy possesses a very cute voice and which is one of the reasons for her most famous phrase "it doesn't match with my attitude". She has come a long way from a lazy panda, who loves her mobile the most, to a hardworking girl. This fitness freak loves adventures and hates the idea of a monotonous still life. Hoping that you have a very exciting life and keep getting your supply of anime.

He is the only person to get most doubts during the class and always sits on the 2nd row of the 2nd column from the window side. He is just curious about everything while experimenting in the lab. He is more than happy to have at least one female member in his lab group. He can discuss things for hours until his doubt gets solved. He is a perfect GMAT and the first person I have seen who likes mess food no matter what. Overall, he is a very friendly person and always keeps smiling. Doesn't matter how bad your joke is, he will laugh for sure. He is an ambitious and determined person who wants to achieve something big in his life. He always motivates others to study more. He looks cute and is often called Buggala babu by his friends which means chubby cheeks guy. He is a knowledgeable person. He understands and thinks about it if anyone tells him something. He is not the guy who nods without thinking. I like his sincerity in attending classes. We always talk about our subject and language. Finally, he is a good friend with good knowledge. Hope he achieves great heights in his life.

She is a strong-headed woman who can achieve anything. Still whines about everything she has to do and is a proper combination of foodie and health consciousness, which keeps fighting within her to finally settle for chicken momos. Her blind love for chai makes her believe it can even heal cancer. She irons her bed during winter days and has some of the craziest saree hacks. She annoys her best friends by cracking the lamest jokes of the universe. But she is emotional, loving and understanding towards her friends and will lend you a shoulder whenever you want to cry. Narendra, known as PS in short, is a simple soul. He is a very clean and neat guy. Despite his thin appearance, he can easily surprise people with the amount that he eats. This hunger is not limited to his own plate, as he will eat others' snacks if they're not careful. Vegetarian people have to protect their sweets if he's around. His passion for watching movies is also well-known. He recommends his discoveries to his friends, no matter what the rating of the movie. He follows the news daily and keeps himself updated. As a result, he is very active in political discussions and debates among his friends. This explains the fact that he wanted to be a bureaucrat. Laziness is his best friend. He starts gathering his notes the very day before the exam itself. Yet, he has no problem grasping the entire subject in one night. He also loves giving motivational speeches to others, regardless of the fact that he can't motivate himself. His favourite app, StepSetGo, is another reason he sheds his laziness. He becomes the epitome of focus when he runs around trying to reach the safe zone. An empathetic soul, he can make friends easily and boasts of a large and varied friend circle. He is admired for his straightforward nature and simplicity.

He takes his attendance very seriously and has no more than one absent in any subject. Constantly found on the first bench, he excels in his studies because of his hard-working and sincere nature. Yet this academic excellence is just a small part of his personality. He is a movie buff and a diehard Marvel fan. He is famous for his Balayya Babu dialogues. Perhaps the only change in him is the sheer number of movies he has watched over the years. A hidden chef, he has an immense love for cooking. He is a mentally strong person with immense confidence in his work and talent. His best quality, which not many know about is that he is the best listener i.e., he gives you a lot of attention when you are talking about your problems or things that worry you, and tries to understand and support you. He believes in fate and doesn't worry much about things in the future. Resembling an ocean of calm, there aren't many things that manage to disturb his peace. He loves his old Motorola phone. Anurag. The first thing that comes to your mind when you hear this name is someone bawling overstudies and grades. He is one of the camouflaged GMATs of his department and never lets anyone know that he is studying behind their backs. If you need tension or chaos in your life there is no better person to go for than him. A self-proclaimed badminton enthusiast, he has hardly been seen playing any. His love for automobiles can be seen through his dedication towards the Road Runner club. He is one of the loudest persons on this campus, as his voice can be heard throughout the hostel. A true mama's boy, he can often be spotted roaming in the hostel and talking to his family for hours on end. His life revolves around his 'mandu' with whom he spends a lifetime on the phone explaining the minutest of details about every little thing. He's a foodie who's always ready to grab a bite but still believes he's got a size zero figure. He is one of the most loyal friends you can ever find in this campus cause however bad the situation may be, you can always count on him. He will always be beside you in your bad times and will never fail to cheer you up. A huge bike freak, he has always wanted to buy a sports bike of his own. ABINASH AGASTI

Abinash Agasti is fondly known as Jigglybutt Agasti due to his campus-wide beloved squishy tummy. His transformation from an introverted shy boy to an extroverted final year has surpassed the expectations of those acquainted with him and has come a very long way. And along the way this Judas-like person has turned each thing he has worked on into perfection: having excelled in academics, guiding the Astro club as its President and in clubs too in the recent months. This guy has extremely wide and intellectual tastes- Charles Bukowski's poetry, Nietzsche's philosophy, Jean Piaget's propositions in psychology, Anime and Manga, Al Pacino movies and Khaled Hosseini's books. His knowledge in such varied topics makes him a very interesting person to have in-depth conversations with. He likes being alone at times like sitting alone on the rooftop and stargazing for hours at a stretch and scaring the senses out of people around him. On knowing this electrical sanyasi from afar he might seem like a cold and silent geek but once you get to know him, you'll realise he has a fun-loving and helpful personality, which makes him popular among all juniors, batchmates and seniors alike. Always ready with life advice for his friends when they need it, but knows how far to encourage people and doesn't give false hopes. Usually, a very patient soul is quite impatient when it comes to food. Hoping that you make your mark against all odds, achieve everything that you dream of and get all the expensive food that your heart desires.

Bharadhwaj popularly known as Thoy, derived from a Telugu word thathayya which means an old man, one will agree there isn't a better name for this guy. He is lazy and smart at the same time. This guy with all his weirdness will always be there when you need him. He has an impeccable fashion sense that requires courage so extreme that one couldn't imitate even if they tried. He's more conscious of his looks than most girls around and loves shopping. Undoubtedly, he has more pairs of shoes than any girl in NIT. The first one to ask about everyone's SGPA after every semester results. He is the calculation expert while performing lab experiments and always gets the highest marks in labs. Being an ardent user of Snapchat, taking random selfies and pictures of people around him and putting it on his stories is one of his hobbies. He is an ardent fan of Manchester United and this obsession is sometimes frustrating when you find his mobile in his plate and his eyes glued to it while others are talking to him. He makes sure everyone around him is happy and safe. This guy has lots of patience and never complains about anything. He is kind-hearted and a lovely person who is often misunderstood, but when people get to know him, he is the coolest person one can ever find. He'll always be there for his friends and family, but if it's a dog then forget it, he'll literally run for his life. This amazing chef can cook chicken delicious enough to remind you of the food at home. He is a perfectionist in all his work and a perfect jugadu. We hope he always finds good food to eat and enough money to not have to be calculative!

ARCHANA GHARAI

This sweet little bundle of joy knows no bounds when it comes to helping out her buddies. Archie would do anything for the people she cares about. She's one of the nicest and warmest people in NITR. We just clicked right from the start. She sings like a bird and dances like a peacock. Her favourite TV show is TMKOC. When it comes to cleanliness, nobody can beat this beast. She has a weird obsession of washing her hands with soap at least 999 times a day (from before corona came into existence). She is a shopaholic. However sad she maybe, a little shopping puts a big smile on her face. She pours her heart and soul into the task at hand and does it perfectly. Cats and Dogs scare the hell out of her. Although she is from Balasore, she is a bong by food etiquettes, who will be willing to go on a murder spree for "Machi". She is the go-to person for borrowing clothes and jewellery as she has a huge and amazing collection of both. For a complete stranger, she may give an impression of being a shy and reserved person. But her friends know very well that handling this little creature is not everyone's piece of cake, as she might burst with anger whenever poked. This nibbi loves the reality show Big Boss but nothing can beat her love for a night of long beauty sleep. Whenever she is happy, her energy and excitement level matches that of a supernova explosion, which leaves the observers with awe. A perfect combo of beauty with brains, her smile is katilana. She is hardworking, dedicated and a true friend. We wish her all the very best for her future endeavours and hope all her dreams come to fruition.

DEBASHIS NAYAK

116EE0321 #GMAT #Foodie #InLove<3 #AnimeLover #WWE

Debashis, fondly known as Dabbu or Laddu, is a child at heart. One of the most innocent souls on the campus, his inability to understand 'non-veg' jokes is the cause of much humour to his friends. A die-hard maths lover, he can solve any problem with ease. His neat notes are a great source of help to many people. However, his room is on the opposite end of the neatness spectrum. He is the WWE champion of HB Hall. His friends often fall victim to this favourite pastime of his. An ardent fan of anime, he can binge watch tons of episodes with his laptop converted to a ChestTop. He loves rock music a lot, he doesn't have any idea about the lyrics but he keeps enjoying the bass and the beats. A great lover of sweets, he can even leave the main course to create space in his stomach to eat dessert. His transformation over the four years has been vast. From a person who rarely left his room, even to go to the night canteen or Jo'z, he now spends his entire days in the library. A perfect example of the change a girl can bring. He's a very caring and helpful guy, and would always try to help. His childish and ever-cheerful attitude will always make you happy.

POONAM PRIYADARSHINI PARIDA

116EE0329 #LazyAF #Artist #InLove<3 #MemeLord

Poonam, or Pooms/Poomie to her friends, is the perfect example of how college can transform a person to the fullest. Her transformation since the first year is twofold: first, from the girl next door to the pataka now and second, from the anxious nervous fresher to the super-chilled final year student. Her sweet exterior hides a devil's heart inside. She keeps a mountain of slangs in reserve which can explode at any time and anywhere. A wonderful artist, her speciality lies in acrylics. She is the reason why her friends can make anniversary and birthday cards for their boyfriends. Anything and everything she sees; her witty brain processes it into a meme template. Her friends are often on the receiving end of this special skill of hers, as she makes hilarious custom memes for the person and occasion. She has two fake IDs on Instagram, stalking and flirting with unaware girls. She is enthusiastic about trying new things but can be one of the clumsiest people around. Her room looks as if a tornado has been through it. The mother of overthinking, she believes herself to be the reason for anyone's unhappiness (not true though). Food makes her cry because she can't tolerate spices. She is a great admirer of literature and can often be found with her nose buried in a novel in class. At times, the extreme pressure of the electrical department causes an open circuit in her cerebrum and makes her roam alone around the campus, clicking pictures of flora and fauna. Although she can be afraid at times, she is one of the strongest women you can meet. With a soft heart and smarty brain, Poonam is a dear friend to everyone, who never fails to help when needed.

SIDHARTH ROUT

116EE0337 #ForeverLate #Dancer #Artist #StandUp

Don't recognize Sidharth? Then you probably know him by his stage name "Raeesbhai". And with that name, you'll associate about 100 good memories of laughter and good times. This all-rounder will be found either yapping in some corner or doing his signature dance moves with a swarm of girls around him. He has been a part of Synergy and Fusion and also opened a club for motivating other artists which shows his zeal and enthusiasm towards following his dreams. His praises will be heard all around but yet he somehow happens to keep a humble attitude and always holds the one who has been through it all with him, very close. Criticize him and he only comes back stronger. His passion for making his bad jokes turn good over time will make him reach wonders. This ardent SRK fan is also a big fan of the greens. He is someone who can always make you laugh and is a very fun person to hang out with. He is always down for a good party. You can always find him with a smile on his face and ready to make you laugh. A very caring senior, he is always ready to help in any situation. Apart from engineering, this guy has learnt everything that college has to offer. Make sure you take his autograph before you leave college because this guy is going to be super-famous one day.

SANDIPAN SEN

116EE0344 #Bengali #Sandy #EE_Trio #Writer #Foodie #LazyAF #Booze #Gamer #InLove<3

A Bong guy with an army background, Sandipan is a disciplined and well-mannered lad who keeps his room extremely clean. You can always see him sorting out party budgets and posing weirdly for random clicks. 'CPoD' loves Reddit and computer gaming. He introduced his squad to COD, taught them and was then dominated by them. But this calm gentleman always accepts defeat with a smile (the other option is winning, but ah well :p). Generally soft-spoken, this hairy badass loses his cool over magazine haters. He's a chicken and booze lover, a healthy boy with a slender tummy and the most handsome guy of section A! The chief ed is well respected for his literary skills and known for his intoxicated adventures. A charming gentleman, he knows a lot about various weird and random things and is a delight to converse with. He can convince anyone that one more drink won't do any harm, and the rest has usually been history. He belongs to the almost extinct species of people who prefer comfort over their looks. He refuses to acknowledge his height and somehow always manages to mess up his haircuts. He loves cats and dogs more than people and excels at public speaking (Language lab star :p). He's a firm believer that beauty lies in the booty and uses Instagram only for exotic super-models. Legend has it that if he wasn't an Electrical Engineering student, he would've been a belly dancer for the king of Timbuktu. He has the unique ability to win arguments with his quick wit well complemented by his sarcastic remarks. A person you can always count on for a smile, an inappropriate joke, a riveting story, a selfie-a-day, and a rescue from any intoxicated misadventure. Sandipan is your imperfectly perfect friend who never leaves you behind and we wish him the very best for an amazing journey ahead.

With an unwavering love for gossip, all things food and wine, classy jewellery, eye-popping vibrant clothes, and a nomadic traveller's spirit, she can leave a five-star gourmet meal for her rajma-chawal. She is also a talented photographer and a spitfire in the debating circle among other things. This health freak is always in search of sports to explore. She believes in never sharing her hoard of fairy lights, despite their uncanny resemblance to the lights used in institute fests. A life-saver to her friends in the EE department, she comes to their aid every time they are in need of a doubt-clearing or last-minute-tutorial session. Her antics and fondness for gossip has filled many boring lectures and indeed, turned them into memories. A gem of a person to confide in, she is literally therapy to her closest friends. A girl like no other, she wears her heart on her sleeve and is as straightforward as can be. She has managed to keep her heart clean and innocent even when the real world tries hard to blemish it. A genre unto herself, Rashmita is a friend to be cherished and kept close.

UNGATLA SAIKIRAN

116EE0307 #TechGeek #Foodie #Coder #Gamer #LazyAF #Dancer #Gyaanch*d

Ungatla aka Tech dude is one of the interesting personalities you will meet on the campus. A Foodie who tried almost all the restaurants in Rourkela. He was fascinated by mobile phones in the first year and spent the whole year on YouTube watching tech geek channels. He knows almost everything about the latest technology, gadgets. He is such a kind of person who pours petrol on a house which is burning. A supplier of badaam to his friends. He loves physics a lot and he learns it as a hobby. He relates every physical activity in our day-to-day life to physics and by applying all physics laws he draws conclusions. His personality reminds me of "Rancho" in 3 idiots. Fan of Virat Kohli and hater of Rohit Sharma. Movie buff, he has seen almost all English movies. He used to complete 20 Gb of data daily at the starting of Jio. He also reads a lot of novels, books (other than physics). Who never practices the problems during preparation and does that practice in the exam hall. A person who can tell the speed of a fan while it is rotating. A person who has more knowledge of Mahabharata. He is the one who prepares his semester exams from research papers, E-thesis which is why sometimes he gets fewer marks. He feels shy to talk to girls even though they come forward to talk to him. He is a member of voice club (just for food). He is the only person in the gultie batch of his year to dance in freshers. He wanted to join BARC or ISRO and apply his knowledge there. We wholeheartedly wish him to succeed in that as our nation requires such super-humans in our R&D.

MITALI NAYAK

116EE0322 #GMAT #Foodie #Mummy #Balasore

Mitali Nayak is a girl with a special "Balasorian" flair. Almost the entire EE department is indebted to her for her endless supply of notes in beautiful handwriting. Her sincerity and hardworking nature have ensured that she has crossed all hurdles of her terrifying department with flying colours. Over the four years, the major transition in her is the constant breaking and replacement of her body from teeth to ankle. Her immense love for carrots and kaju barfi stands out above anything else. Her savage replies, endless PJs and quirky Whatsapp statuses are sure to leave in splits. She is caring and very polite but equally feisty when angry. However, she cools down quickly as well. A certified professional over-thinker, her attention to detail and perfection is unbelievable. Obsessed with stationary, her jaw drops when she finds a single character out of place in her notebook. The mummy of her friend circle and expresses her love by scolding those close to her. She always carries medicine and has "ghar ke nuskhe" for every disease. Blessed with one of the kindest hearts, she mesmerizes people with her lovable smile. This drama queen is someone whose company you'll enjoy a lot.

SIDDHARTHA PARIDA

116EE0330 #GMAT #LazyAF #Gyaanch*d #Junglie

Infamous as Raju MMS among his friends. At any hour of the day, he can be found locked up in his room and watching Big Boss, Splitsvilla, or some other reality TV show. Hailing from Mayurbhanj, he has been nicknamed Junglie by his friends. However, the nickname is not completely baseless. Using his fair skin as an excuse, he puts off bathing for days on end. He is best known for his incorrect pronunciation of words, even in his mother tongue Odia. This ensures that he always has some new reason to be trolled. A hidden GMAT, he finishes his studies well in time but acts confused when asked about it. At times on entering his room, he has been caught closing his notes or books hastily. Yet he never fails to help out when it comes to clearing doubts or solving problems. He is a true friend who will always be there for you. We wish him a successful career ahead.

ALOK RANJAN SAHOO

Alok is rarely called by his name, but rather his nickname, Kathia. He is a 'Khanti Bhadrakia' who loves his family and friends. There's never a dull moment with him in class. Passing comments and cracking jokes are his forte. 'Nautankibaaz' and 'Pheku' are two words which aptly describe him. He's the go-to-go guy when it comes to seeking advice, although he has taken the phrase "Coaches don't play" a little too seriously. Even with all his theatrics, he's a wonderful human being. He'll support you through all the rough times. What makes Alok special is he never minces his words and says straight whatever in his heart. He's a born talent and does very well in exams with little effort. A big fan of MS Dhoni, he duly follows his motto of being a better version of himself than his past self. He is a big foodie and devours anything he sets his eyes on. His hygiene leaves a lot to be desired with his once a week bathing schedule. Kathia is an affable person who never shrugs away anyone and has the most welcoming attitude one could ever find in a person.

ANUGANDULA SRICHARAN

116EE0345 #GMAT #Extra/Curricular #Sportsperson #Devudu #Disciplined

The very fact that Sricharan is called Devudu, or God, by his friends, tell you a lot about this person. He leads a much-disciplined life and wakes up early in the morning to get his chores done, unlike the usual engineering student. He has Swami Vivekananda's quotes pasted in his room and likes to read inspiring books. He doesn't believe in overnight miracles and so, sets about his work from the very first day. Through sheer hard work and dedication, he has managed to pull up his CGPA from a 6-pointer in the first year, to an 8-pointer now. He likes to himself fit through various activities like swimming and jogging. A major point that sets him apart from almost every student on campus is his love for the mess food. He can hardly ever be seen complaining about it. He rarely eats out and has eaten at the night canteen a total of one time in all his four years. A very active member of Udaan, he played a major role in taking the club to its great heights as its technical head. He is an inspiration for many of his juniors. His simple nature, lack of ego, and straightforwardness make him an instant favourite. A counsellor to his friends, he always manages to give good suggestions and lift their spirits up. His innocence in understanding jokes means that it has to be explained to him always. Yet he never holds back from cracking bad PJs whenever he gets the opportunity. He dreams of being a bureaucrat someday, and with his hard work and persistence, he will surely become one.

SAMBARU ANJANEYULU

116EE0292 #Sambar #PUBG #SleepingGod #Foodie #LazyAF #Gamer #Flirty #ProxyKing

Sambaru Anjaneyulu, famously known as Sambar, is known throughout campus for two things. Sleeping and PUBG. He hardly ever goes to class because of these two. He spends twelve to fifteen hours of his day sleeping and most of the rest of it in playing PUBG. From missing every jogging session in the fresher year to skipping most of the classes just to sleep, he still escaped without a grade back. In the rare occasion that he reaches a class, he is a master of proxies, mostly because none of the professors has ever seen him anyway. He is the type of gym-goer who only goes for a week and then just cannot stop showing off and talking about his imaginary muscles and abs. He can be seen regularly in the night canteen because he is awake only during those hours and loves drinking milk. He is a diehard fan of Mahesh Babu and watches almost all Telugu movies which are uploaded on DC, but is extremely scared of horror movies. He is the laziest person his friends know but this guy does the most smart work before end semester exams. He is one of the sweetest guys you will meet just be sure to stay away from him when he is angry. We hope you have a successful future in which you get to sleep a lot!

PREETI PALLAVI CHAUDHURY

116EE0300 #Holy_Cow #GMAT #Foodie #LazyAF #Singer #Artist

Preeti, AKA Bottom 5, is the butt of all jokes of her group yet is the most adored. From not knowing how to use an ATM in the first year, she has come a long way and now is a confident girl with a lot of potentials and a huge career ahead of her. This clumsy and messy human being can never stand still in a queue. She requires hearing aids while on a phone call. One can always find her lying on her bed with her laptop binge watching each and every TV series, mostly FRIENDS. Although a talented photographer, she lacks the threshold energy to actually do the job. She personifies the statement "Food is BAE" but hates soft drinks. In the world of crop tops, she is still stuck with her 50-inch tops. Her specialisation includes early morning self-induced puking to kick start her day. Social interactions are not her cup of tea and she normally tends to avoid these. She's content with the people she knows and goes to great lengths to help them in times of need. The best trait of this dusky beauty is that she is never ashamed to be herself and gladly accepts the way she is. She has the potential of a teacher as she is the one who comes to the rescue on the night before the exams. She has questionable taste in music and will have the worst possible caller tunes you can imagine. She's fun and frolic and will without an effort make you forget about all things that are bothering you. But she's serious when the situation demands and has a fix for everything. Her soothing words and friendly advice can act as an elixir when in need. We wish her a happy future voyage.

SHUBHAM KISHOR

Shubham Kishor is fondly known as Haddi, Kishori, zero. The guy who was once an introvert has completely transformed himself. Never say no to parties. He is the bathroom singer of the group who is also a selfie queen, clicking a minimum of 100 pictures a day. Friendly, trustworthy, broke trying to pull himself up. He cares about his friends. One of his bad qualities is that he always lives in the past. He could easily be swayed with words. A lazy lab partner with a high level of electronics knowledge. His love for baba is way more than for any girl. Last bencher, who studies just before the exam yet scores decent marks. He is too obsessed with games like CS and calls himself a pro player. He is kind of an egoist and arrogant person but his attitude towards every friend and family is helpful and very kind. He is also known as the gradeback king and has at least one grade back in every semester. None of his roommates has satisfied him, which is why he changed his roommate every semester. He aims to become IAS. He's the one to share the most memorable hangover nights. To all the outings, in-game shenanigans, dancing like crazy, a tonne of memories to carry. More interested in Bengali girls. He's one of the persons that made college liveable for me. A truly great and humble person. We wish him all the luck for his future and hope that his dream of becoming an IAS officer comes true.

Pradeep is one of the most hard-working people you can come across. A perfectionist if there ever was one, his lab records are a testimony to the fact. Being his labmate is a double-edged sword as he will ensure everyone has the proper print outs, yet he will push you to perform the experiments to perfection. His compulsive attention and dedication towards cleanliness and order will surely leave you astonished. He even rearranges the cycles in the parking lot if they are not in order. He shuns shortcuts and tries to understand everything with clarity. Before the exams, he turns into a professional tutor for his friends. He is very passionate about photography and served as the Photography Coordinator for Monday Morning. However, this also means that he gets stuck with the duty of clicking everyone's pictures when they see his DSLR. He is a foodie, always hungry and eats almost everything he sees. His love for milk products and anything that is sweet will make you wonder. He is possibly the biggest criticizer of the mess food and it would take a miracle to see him eat there. It is said that he has a money plant in his house with leaves of Rs. 2000 notes. He is a very patient soul, yet can erupt like a volcano if pushed too far. His nickname, Deepu, is a cause of much anger to him and he only lets special people call him that. You can usually find him outside CVR, waiting for his special someone. An extremely talented badminton player, she has represented the institute in many tournaments and earned many laurels. She is quite popular and is well known among seniors and juniors alike. A devout Christian, she goes to church every week without fail. She is dedicated to her studies and can be found more often in the library reading room than in her room. Even after four years of college life, she still hasn't learnt the skill of giving the proxy. It takes her a long time to understand jokes and puns, earning her the comparison of a tube light. She is kind and compassionate at heart and never troubles anyone. She is fond of chocolates and ice-creams. If you have a competition with her, she will surely win the ice-cream challenge. Despite the struggles and hardships, she has had to face, she still manages to be optimistic and motivated. ASUTOSH PALANKI

116EE0293 #ViceCR #GMAT #ChaiLover #Flirty #Foodie #Heartbroken #LazyAF

The Vice CR of the Electrical department, Asutosh Palanki or Palanki is self-elected and works more than the actual CR but sadly gets no credit for it. He is one person who has the contact of nearly every girl in NIT and is an expert at mixing with them and also with the professors. He has a crush list that expands exponentially daily and is known for his futile attempts at flirting. He is very spontaneous and confident while taking decisions with or without much thinking and implements them immediately and reverts back from it even faster, which can be best explained by the famous Telugu proverb "Andhrulu Arambasurulu". He, however, has learnt to take success and failure in the same way. Palanki is a persevering and diligent guy who likes to maintain a disciplined and orderly life and is extremely punctual to the point that it gets irritating for his friends. Self-sufficient and eternally motivated, Palanki has an aura of positivity. This calm, composed and highly reliable person is a boon to be friends with. A true epitome of 'a friend in need is a friend indeed', he never hesitates to go out for a stroll to hear out his friends. His secret for remaining calm is listening to music. He is a good advisor about career plans but he himself remains confused about his career and somehow manages everything in the last moment. He's a vegetarian and loves going out to eat but luckily for his friends can only manage to eat half of what he orders. He has a diverse range of political interests and opinions and a passion for current affairs. His dream is to become an IAS officer. We hope his dream comes true and he has a disciplined and successful life.

VISHNU PRASAD DALAI

116EE0301 #ChhupaRustam #DC #BholeBhaiya #LazyAF #Coder #Gyaanch*d #GMAT #Foodie

Vishnu Prasad Dalai aka Bholenaath is fondly known as Bhole bhaiya. He is a simple, calm and clever person. Hailing from Rajasthan but a pure Odia guy with an innocent face, his true personality can actually be known from his close friends. A studious guy who likes to score good and always found with books in his room. During the exam time, he can quite often be found in the library clearing the doubt of girls. Vishnu is popularly known as the saviour of last moment exam preparation, and his room is always filled with people during this time. He helps many of the MSSians of his branch to get good grades. He is a person whose goal keeps on changing every year. Be it to get into PSUs and finally placed in EXL service and to plan for an abroad settlement. Even the relationship commitment of this guy is a roller coaster ride. He even opened an account on tinder in desperation, but unfortunately like any other endeavour in this department, he failed miserably. The only regret of Vishnu would be of not taking up computer science even though he had the scores for it. This guy is one of the most helpful and sincere students in the department. His life revolves around DC, studies and cribbing about getting fewer marks in the viva. He has tons of plans for start-ups starting from interesting service methods in restros to career counselling, Vishnu has got it all figured out. He's a chilled-out guy who likes to go on walks around the campus. His desire is to earn a lot of money and he often fantasizes about the future. He is bound to have a successful future ahead with his wit and intelligence, and we hope the same for him.

ABHINAV KOTHARI

116EE0309 #fattofit #EE_Trio #chickmagnet #Kothari #CODforlife #dollybaccha #alcoholgod

Often found in the middle of the day at the library, nose buried in the 'last episode before I start studying'. A shy boy from the mountains came here four years ago, and while he's seen countless jaw-dropping transformations in every aspect of his life, one thing will always remain the same: His lies about having abs. He will overthink with you till your heads hurt, and sometimes, his only motto is "Fuck it". From the mamma's boy in the first year with immaculate grade cards in school to the guy who has no idea what's there in the syllabus for the exam on the next day- engineering has shaped him into a man. He is a freak about multiple things: career, Call of Duty, Hindi articles, fashion, fitness, and Friday nights. His wanderlust has taken him all across the country, bargaining his way through any and every market he sees, and bugging his friends to click his infinite-th photo. A total ladies' man, he'll boast about the number of Tinder matches he gets, wherever he goes. He likes to be prepared for every situation at all times, i.e., you'll see him carrying his bag with everything from his laptop, to toothbrush and sunscreen, everywhere. An exceptionally talented Hindi writer, he can spin magic with his pen in minutes. This moodvert is known for his amazing Instagram captions, the number of phones he has drowned, his ability to be amazingly careless and love for alcohol. Emotional, caring, and the best of friends anyone can find. People could write a novel on him but it's great to know him personally than read his verse. Go, boy, excel in life and create history.

SATYAKAM SAHOO

116EE0340 #GMAT #Heartbroken #Gyaanch*d #Embedded

More popularly known as Satyakam Gupta, he is the centre of attraction of the well-known Sahoo Samiti. He is the kind of person who wouldn't hesitate before asking for chicken biryani in a pure vegetarian south Indian restaurant. He can be a mildly irritating creature at times, though he goes on to pull off some great deeds and fun. Friends think he is unique but good friends know he is awkwardly weird. He is a charming lad to hang out with but be on your own risk; his out of the world puns are bound to make you cry, and not from laughter. His fondness for the fairer sex is well known, and he never misses an opportunity to strike up a conversation with them. He is hardworking and intelligent with a brain that would put the Devil to shame. His dedication to his branch is commendable. He can spend hours on end in the lab working on his project, even the entire night at times. He will surely go far in his field.

Satya, popular as Sexy among his friends, is a man with a big heart. He is a person who has a select group of very close friends, but with them, he can be infinitely crazy. A die-hard cricket lover, this guy possesses an eidetic memory regarding the intricate details of almost all the matches India has played till date. He follows almost every meme page on Instagram but still has a bad sense of humour. However, shockingly, he has refined his jokes and now can roast pretty much anyone. He can often be found wandering the corridors of the department or waiting there. A GMAT, he is often seen in the library preparing for CAT. He hasn't got even an ounce of electrical in him but rather is a pro when it comes to Logic and Analogies. Gifted with a soothing voice, he can amuse you with beautiful songs or can irritate you with his ear-bleeding PJs. He is probably the only guy in NIT who bathes every day and carries a water bottle with him wherever he goes. This guy is known for his ability to handle any situation coolly, along with his trademark words, "Abe hei jiba be." He is a complete foodie who will never miss a chance to grab a bite, mutton curry, milk and sweets being his favourite. His room is a what-not store for his friends as you can find anything that's required. He is a patient listener and an even better advisor who has the best solutions to all problems. His patience makes him the perfect shopping partner. We wish this jovial personality all the best to overcome all the obstacles in his path and to never give up irrespective of the circumstances.

SHEROY BALSARA

Sheroy Balsara is a proud Parsi Mumbaikar and goes by the name Sheru among his friends. This handsome and stylish gentleman loves cars and aspires to become an automobile designer. He can be seen crying because of his ordeals in the Electrical department and is just desperate to complete the degree and move out of the college to pursue his real passion in designing, for which he has a real knack. This pujari has had an epic transformation in the four years at NITR with his laptop being quite a treasure trove of mantras. People admire his humble and compassionate nature, and his friendly vibe and a great sense of humour make him a pleasure to be around. Other than the Sunday lunch in the mess, he abhors mess food, and being a billionaire helps him keep up his fancy habits of eating out regularly. You will hardly ever see this guy eating in the mess and is the first person you should contact if you need a company to eat out. Dog is this guy's weakness and is known to have dated more dogs than girls. Mr Sheroy has been in 7 relationships with stray dogs eventually ending in a breakup due to dog bite. Favourite food - Parle G. Honestly this company should declare him as their brand ambassador for buying half of their produce. The next best thing in his list are not roses, he loves the scent of jasmine all around him. This guy can sleep anywhere and everywhere and is impossible to wake, ready to give Kumbhakarna a run for his money. He is the institute tennis team captain and spends more time on the tennis court than his room. Not many people know, but sings pretty well and never shies away from singing the lyrics wrong.

SUKUMAR DEHURI

116EE0302 #bhatusukuGMAT #Extra/Curricular #Sportsperson #Foodie #Gyaanch*d #ProxyKing

Sukummar Dehuri is famously known as BHATU for his rice-eating habits. He is the captain of the institute cricket team and still is single, unfortunately. Always gets the highest marks in record and viva during lab. He has a friendly personality with a complete sarcastic way of saying anything. He is the Chandler (the sarcasm king) of our class. He makes people believe in whatever he says. When it comes to cricket, the first name will come of Sukumar. From being the most underrated player to become the institute captain, it's been a hell lot of journey. Being in the electrical department and the institute cricket team captain, the amount of work he puts in is always fascinating and has inspired many cricket admirers around here in NITR. He is a GMAT in the true sense because he studies even after a long tiring 30 overs match also. He is a nightmare for bowlers when on the field. His lightning-quick stumpings and long towering sixes justify the craze for him. Another thing that characterizes him is his love for food, especially for Mixture and one can clearly see this on his physique. However, he cannot tolerate it if you tell him he has the biggest bulging stomach. When it comes to female friends the count is still zero. So shy in that respect that you cannot see one girl on his WhatsApp. Completely single, even a thousand miles away. He is simple, calm and always tries to put people's choice first. He can be a very good friend and can help you anytime if needed. Finally, wishing this fun-loving, hardworking boy all the best for his future.

ADITYA KUMAR

116EE0310 #blackie #UPSCwalalonda #jharkhandi #tinderboy #EE_Trio

Fondly known as Wakanda, Aditya is a day scholar who gets lost in night outs (pun intended). Extremely fond of traveling, he always takes the lead in planning trips and can go anywhere if he's with his gang. He is an offline Google, churning out doubtful and mostly wrong information on every topic with supreme confidence. As a result, his viva sessions are a delight to behold. He's someone who knows the real meaning of friendship and knows how to value it. A sucker for good times, he can party hard and is the most humorous guy in the group. He always wears weird outfits and his wardrobe comprises mostly of dark blue, grey and brown. His characteristic wink after cracking the worst jokes is the stuff of legends. For every occasional good joke, he manages to crack, he'll ensure there are ten horrible ones to cancel it out. He's the guy whom you can trust and rely on the most when you need help and is amazing at motivating people. He will make you laugh hard and make you feel full of life. He is a passionate gamer and loves playing Call of Duty unless he has decided to sulk for some reason or the other. This Casanova is intolerably flirty and hopelessly romantic. Extremely conscious of his looks, he spends a lot of time grooming himself. He is someone who cares a lot about his career and is confident about becoming an IAS/IES officer. A sci-fi movie lover and a space enthusiast. He is a permanent TikTok user, spending hours glued to it. He's a gem of a person who's bound to get all the happiness he deserves.

BRAJESH MISHRA

Brajesh Mishra is just like a star to whom everyone wants to reach. The entire electrical batch owes him a lot starting from notes to last day exam studies. The "topper loko" of the Electrical Engineering Department has a record of getting the academic excellence award every single year. He is an amazing person to hang out with and to discuss any random topic whether it's cricket or food. Surely a foodie, he loves going to different restaurants and trying their best non-vegetarian cuisines. He loves the classic salted popcorn more than anything in this world. He hates lentils and prefers Dahi chawal over daal chawal and is not a big lover of vegetarian food unless it's ghar ka khaana. One of his favourite hobbies is to hang out with his school friends and plans a road trip with them to amazing locations every vacation. He is very proper with everything whether it's his lifestyle or academics. He has done internships in each of his holidays and sometimes more than one in a single vacation. Girls are a very big fan of him and he has had some amazing incidents with them to tell his kids. He is an amazing guy who will stay with you in your ups and downs. But he will never admit that he is hurt, emotionally or physically during GPL. He loves cricket and rarely misses any match that India plays. He has a weakness for watches and shoes. He loves cars. He is good at art, writing, and singing. He plays Clash of Clans. He has a great sense of humour that lifts others up. He is helpful, lovable and a highly responsible person. He is charming inside and out. We wish him good luck for his bright future.

BISWATMA BIBHUDARSHI PAITAL

116EE0325 #Sportsperson #Flirty #Gyaanch*d #GymFreak

Known to everyone as BP, he is an extremely cheerful person with an infectious smile. His journey from dreams of becoming a doctor, to surviving the toughest department in NIT has been worth a tale. This person has had an unthinkable transformation from a chubby cute baby boy to a wannabe man by toiling hard to build muscles and controlling his appetite. He can generally be found in the central gym or on his way to/from the TIIR building. As unique as his name, he is an enthusiastic sportsperson and actively participates in organising fests. An inspiration for many, he has achieved many feats in college which would not be everyone's cup of tea. His helping and caring heart make him ideal for all the juniors and everyone's favourite "BP Bhai". When the occasion arises, he turns into a complete party animal and socialite. His friend circle is vast and spans over all the branches and batches. His exploits with the female species are also well known. However, his singlehood hasn't been broken yet. He is sure to have a very bright future and opportunities coming his way. We wish him good luck for future endeavours.

BODA RAMU

116EE0334 #LazyAF #Extra/Curricular #Flirty #Ramsoo #ProxyKing #NCC

Boda Ramu AKA "Matthu" is the butt of most jokes to his best friends. However, he mostly manages to remain cool in spite of it. He can be found talking to someone or the other on his phone at any time of the day. A lady's man, he has a large female following not just from our college, but other NCC camps as well. He has only watched a handful of movies in his lifetime. However, sitting down to watch a movie with him is torture as you'll probably hear him snoring within the first ten minutes. A perennially lazy person, you can catch him strolling into class no less than fifteen minutes after it has started. His friendly nature and straightforward attitude make him very popular. A clear indication of this is the fact that he became Sports Secretary by a huge margin. He always takes an initiative in talking to others, which makes him very admired. He is like a big brother to his juniors and they know they can always count on him for guidance and help. His ability to remember useless facts while forgetting important things is a cause of much laughter to his friends. The frustration caused by the EE department makes him forget anything he studies very quickly. He has tremendous bad luck when it comes to buying products online, as they mostly turn out to be defective. Despite being caught by professors on multiple occasions, he still persists in giving proxy for his friends. He has shouldered immense responsibilities for his family and overcomes many hurdles to reach where he is now. An IAS aspirant, he reads the newspaper diligently. He is sure to achieve his goals through his hard work one day.

ABHINNA SAHU

116EE0341 #GMAT #Foodie #Booze #Heartbroken #Babin #Teddy

A GMAT who is popularly known as "Saapa" in the whole class. Highly obsessed with grades and you can often seen worked up during vivas and lab tests. However, he managed to turn his disillusionment with EE to his favour by practising coding and bagging a software job. His uniqueness lies in preparing even the most dreaded EE subjects, full of numeri-cals, without using pen or paper. To call him a foodie would be an understatement. He can't survive without chicken, and if he could, would declare it as our national food. His golu-molu figure shouldn't be taken as a sign of him being innocent. He talks to many girls around the campus hoping that someone might fall for him. His teddy bear-like looks make him 'cute' in every girl's eyes, although it rarely goes beyond that. Extremely sensitive about his looks, he often worries about his snow-white skin. He is a very friendly and funny person. No one can ever get bored with his company for sure. He takes pleasure in teasing people but ends up being trolled himself repeatedly. He even likes to tease people physically. But if you need someone to cuddle in the hour of need you won't get a better person than him. And no matter whatever your mood be he would always be there to comfort you. An ardent anime lover, an avid foodie and an over-ambitious guy are just some of the qualities you can associate him with. Yet to figure out what he has to do with life but hopefully, he figures it out in a sober situation. We wish him a bright future ahead and hope he gets to live his dream.

JAGATI TARUN TEJA

116EE0348 #Maama #MSD #Daring #Sportsperson #Dancer #ProxyKing

A great lover of cricket, and a typical MSDian to the core, Tarun goes by many names in the institute, most popular of these being his surname JAGATI, or his nickname JAGGS. Tarun aka 'MAAMA' is an excellent cricket player and is known for his cover drives (not in cricket :p). He has a good sense of humour and is a prankster. But when it comes to taking challenges, he takes them seriously. He's a hot-headed, yet an emotionally mature person with a great sense of understanding and is always ready to help others. He loves "Prison Break" and has a good taste in music. He's fire and ice and is extremely reactive to any incident be it happy or sad. He has a daring and dashing persona, and he is best suited for managing a position where he's able to employ his impeccable leadership qualities to good use. He cares less about studies and talks so much that people never get bored with his stories and narrations. He aims to become an IAS officer and was highly irritated by the four years of engineering in the electrical department. He's a backbencher who tries to write class notes every semester, but that book never gets filled with more than a single page :p. For him, friends are everything. He enjoys being in a gang and always wants to be the leader. He's a very reputed senior among juniors and is one of the very few guys who are a strong critic of the female tantrums. He aspires to own a Ferrari and the world's costliest bike one day. He's a great dancer who is famous for his dance on the 'Mukkala Maukkabula' song. We wish Tarun a happy and successful life ahead.

116EE0349 #Talented #Dabbi #Foodie #LazyAF #InLove<3 #Sportsperson #Dancer #GMAT

Tarun aka TTT, popularly called Bhai, is famous for her discipline, doing the assignment in time and always helping. A perfectionist, free-spirited, moody, romantic, dreamer, Tarun is a unique combo. With a caring heart, helping hands and a forever empty stomach, she's everyone's go-to person in any situation. Known for her renowned culinary skills, surprise valentine gifts (girlfriends only) and Bollywood craze, she never hangs up the phone first. This one is always up for any sort of adventures but boy can you match her level of PJs! She is super energetic and once she makes up her mind to do something, she will give her heart and soul to complete it. Shopping with her would be the biggest adventure with special mentions on her extremely poor bargaining skills which have always put her in a lot of trouble. Constantly struggling with her hair, she somehow manages to look amazing in every event. Tarun knows how to keep any relationship flourishing and beautiful. She never leaves a chance to show their friends how much they mean to her. She is the type of person who will cry if she (accidentally) speaks something bad to you. Talented, but always always always down to earth. She is the perfectionist girl who wins everyone's heart with just her innocent smile. Tell her a joke and she won't laugh until you explain it to her, thus the name DABBI. Bhagwan isko simple jokes bhi samajh nai aate. The kindest confused girl who knows what to do and what not to do, but still ends up doing what not to do. Overall, she's a lovely girl with a really beautiful heart and of course a bit low common sense xD. May the road she's on take her places and she has a great life ahead.

He is a blessed emotional YourQuote writer having many followers who admire him and get inspired by his writings. MADHUSMITA BARIK

716EE3086 #GMAT #Foodie #Sincere #Dancer #Gyaanch*d #Coder #LazyAF

Madhu is one of the simplest and most charming girls who spread happiness wherever she goes. She is sarcastic, cute, sympathetic, understanding and caring. She is the kind of person who will stand by her friends when they are in need, come what may. This girl is a fan of old songs and keeps on humming them once in a while. At the same time, she is a Harry Potter fan as well. Nobody would have met a person as serious and hardworking as her, but that makes her fall ill quite often during exams, due to tension. One should never take advice from her regarding outfits if one doesn't want a disaster :p. A law-abiding girl, she makes sure that she follows a strict regime in doing things. However late she is for her class, she will never leave without her glass of milk and Bournvita. One cannot get over her simplicity and innocence easily. She is a proper GMAT, who studies every time and makes us realize that she is from the electrical department. Her signature dialogue is "AABE ALAJYAA KIRE, NON-SENSE KOUTHAI KARO". She's always excited for adventurous trips but bechaari bimaar pad jati hai horror movie dekhte hi. An ardent fan of fantasy-based animated movies, she is easily scared. She can be one of the most spoilsport people, but once she gets 'high' (in her own ways) she's quite a treat to watch. Her seemingly normal person is in no way normal whatsoever. This Potterhead forgot how to grow up. And she carried on the habits of a fourth-grader to her fourth year of engineering. She is a diligent student listening to all the rants of our professors, even the most boring ones, providing us with exam notes every time. And further to prove her sincerity, she never moves beyond the second bench of the classroom.

P. SANTOSH KUMAR PATRA

Santosh is the most kind-hearted, cool and generous person you can find on the campus. When the term GMAT comes, his name is the first in the list. Being the topper of the deadliest branch of NITR, he has proved his effectiveness and his desire for in-depth analysis of the core subject specially. This MITACS guy has more interest in foreign girls rather than Indian girls. He's a legend of the EE branch who is not only adored by his batchmates but all his juniors and seniors alike. This ever-curious guy never fails to get a 9 CGPA. He's a humble, trustworthy and sincere friend you can always count upon. He produces horrible sounds in his sleeping mode. He is the only guy who is always attentive in the class no matter how boring the lecture may be, sometimes he is the only person for whom the prof is teaching. He rarely studies the day before the examination and clears the doubts of other students. He is quite obsessed with food which makes him a very obese and lazy boy. He is very much interested in watching norp. An enthusiastic gamer, he often spends his free time exploring new FPS and Open-world games. A cricket lover who is the Ramesh Power of his group, he is someone who enjoys himself lying in bed all day. At first, he may strike you as a nice guy but once you get to know him, you would understand how amazing this person is. A genuine electrical engineer who is the topper of his batch and lifesaver of his branch mates just before exams, Santosh is honest, hardworking, and a true gem. A MITACS recipient, a good teacher, a great friend, and an even better person, we wish him all the luck for his future endeavours.

PREMANANDA SAHOO

Premananda aka Prema is the most innocent guy you will ever meet in your life. From learning open elective subjects through NPTEL lectures to studying a day before exams he has finally grown up to become a true engineer. He is also popular for making a sad face without any reason, hence earning the nickname 'Nirananda', by one his professor. He is easily one of the most innocent looking boys of the department, but once you get to know him, you will realize that he is a big bang in a small packet. He silently observes every detail, but being the introvert that he is, he prefers to discuss it later over WhatsApp. He is a great keeper of secrets and is extremely trustworthy and reliable. He makes sure that he helps his friends in every possible way. After every examination, he assumes that he is going to end up with single digits on his mark-sheet. He is a funny guy who is not serious at all and even if he is serious, he comes out as funny. Prema is famous for being the most stressed out and tensed guy in DBA. He can be seen stressing out about studies when he's in mess, TV room or bathroom. He's a great roommate and he wakes his roommate up every morning for 8 am classes. Dipankar Jena, aka DJ Bagha, urf Dipu is someone who takes life and labs very seriously, and can always be relied on to have a full bottle of water, or share in your exam anxiety. If you've seen him in class, he's bent overwriting every single word down in his printable notebook that helps a large portion of the batch of Electrical engineering pass the semester exams. The nickname Bagha is self-named and is inspired by the famous character Bagha from the popular Hindi series TMKOC. He takes his studies too seriously, naturally as a consequence of him being in the electrical dept. He has amazing painting skills and is an active member of the Akriti club. He has a beautiful collection of art and craft items that can be seen in his room. He is so calculative that he doesn't even leave a single rupee to anyone and if you owe him even a rupee he keeps on reminding you quite often :p. It is very difficult to tell whether he likes PUBG more or Deepika Padukone. He is an aggressive PUBG player, who screams a lot if someone even speaks a word near him while playing. Irrespective of the situation he is in you will always get to see a smile in his face. His WhatsApp statuses reflect his perennially heartbroken state of affairs, but sometimes, he likes to sing in labs, dedicating very romantic songs to TAs that he finds cute. He is a series freak and binge watches innumerable web series. He is a fast eater and doesn't like wasting food come what may. We wish Dipankar aka DJ Bagha all the best for a bright future ahead.

We have memories of sleeping during lectures even when we missed our attendance many times. He's a sweet, helpful and kind person, who doesn't get angry very often, loves video games, is good at coding (Monday Morning technical team), and tutoring. He's a little shy person who loves action anime like Naruto and Fairytail and his shoes (but steps on everybody else's). He's a good listener, who is ready to assist for any work and is capable of singlehandedly doing it as well. A very good teammate, Ekka helps others kind-heartedly without expecting anything. He is one of the rare breeds of hard-working engineers which is evident from his excellent academic record in spite of being in the EE department. He likes to watch desi series like Mirzapur, Sacred Games, and Agharan. He works very hard to interact with girls. When a girl talks to him, one can see that smile on his face. His favourite thing is to earn free money and he does that by making useless transactions on PhonePe, GPay, PayTM, etc. An argument lover and a self-believer who does not get carried away with other advice, he has got his own plans to execute. He always wants to change himself by different means and is very cooperative and friendly. He can be your partner in success and in crime. His facial expressions do not change, in whichever condition he may be. He is a serious introvert and always manages to reach unexpected heights in any field. His image was that of a "Sakhth launda" until the secrets from his Messenger were revealed in which he was found messaging 'Hi' to many first-year girls. He is the DOPA of MSS and he dedicates a substantial amount of his time to satiate his thirst for norp and hopes to act in one as well. He spends his time eating, sleeping, binge-watching and playing FIFA. He can keep on blabbering till eternity about the greatness of his branch (electrical), Lucknow and Uttar Pradesh. When it comes to studies, mathematics is a nightmare for him. Sharing a perfect resemblance with a panda, he fails to attend the first class because it is too difficult to wake up at 8 am no matter what. Very few people know that he loves to travel by train and is an excellent rider. He loves himself so much that he can be compared with the male version of Geet from the movie Jab We Met. Brutally honest and hopelessly straightforward, she is like a jury who authorizes and authenticates all our choices. Too much obsessed with pictures, she never forgets to get clicked every single time she dresses up. Eternally stuck with short hair and bangs, she carries herself beautifully. She is fiercely determined and makes sure that she gets everything she wants. She is the personification of true friendship and is the epitome of benevolence. A strong believer of the philosophy "I can't talk but stalk" who curses her heart out to and through the serious and the mundane stuff sighs. Even though sleeping is her favourite activity, she's a great multi-tasker and hard worker who serves every job right. When she speaks, she does so with boldness and purpose. She is focused, intelligent and motivated. She has an ambition of travelling around the world. She is an orophile. Whenever there is any conversation about a trip she will only talk about mountains and how she likes the mountains better than the seashores. This girl has an all-time BATTEESI wala smile. Mind you, her advice can also bring you in danger at times! Her excessive desire for chicken biryani cancels out her gym and exercise routines and the net result is again zero. This EE beauty might easily understand the circuits and flow of current but she is very slow in understanding the jokes cracked. Also, she has the best make up stock and you can find everything you need there. She used to be like a boy in her school days and her usual routine was to pick up fights with boys. She doesn't like raw onions in any food items, so special orders have to be given for her every time we go out. She normally believes that she is very cute and there is a line of boys after her :p. ELECTRONICS AND INSTRUMENTATION ENGINEERING

Grubbing through the messy drawers to find a string of suitable length & fetching paper cups is a memory most of us can relate to. The undeniable curiosity of making string telephones slowly matured into a passion for creating something neoteric in the minds of these talented individuals of the Department of Electronics and Instrumentation. Manoeuvring over a broken cassette using pencil as the main tool often led to confetti of the tape reels. Minds that were once so fascinated with simple wristwatches & consoles are now the genesis of the perplexing technologies for the forthcoming generations.

Fondly called Bagai by many, this handsome, curly-haired, EI's first roll number guy, who hails from Varanasi, might seem socially awkward at first but opens up like a mystery book on further exploring. This guy who is a blend of natives of Punjab, Haryana, UP, Bihar, always seems tensed from outside but is mostly chilled out and his poetic and incidental sarcasm nature makes him the perfect sociable person. Despite bagging top internships and placements, this insatiable nerd always seeks for more. Apart from Bhangra and binge-watching YouTube videos of all genres, this Punjabi guy has ever-changing hobbies ranging from basic Origami to adventurous skateboarding. This guy's fast and smart study talent is beyond the limits and helping nature is praiseworthy. Some claim he has a record of breaking lab equipment but is undoubtedly the one who does practical work seriously which in turn causes most people to rely on him for lab outputs and records. This man of eccentric tastes who identifies himself as 'Rajesh Koothrapalli' from his favourite show 'Big Bang Theory', is fond of eating anywhere except mess food and ever ready time to accompany friends in exploring new places. Many believe he's forcefully associated with only one club SPICMACAY, which is because of his incessant sharing of that club's updates on social media. Although excelling in all aspects of academics Bagai is extremely unlucky in his love life, and is tagged "forever single" as he is always looking for an ideal match. We wish this hopelessly romantic, academically frustrated yet emotionally strong-willed EI nerd loads of luck for his future endeavours.

This Lucknowi guddiya, however, stands in a league of her own. With a face as pretty as a picture and a precise combination of a dirty mind and a clean heart, this lady has left no stones unturned to make her presence felt on the campus. Lovingly addressed as "Somu" or "Chomu", this girl can share anything with you except for her red-sauce pasta. She looks innocent but deep down she has all the notorious qualities which make her a silent killer. Although she talks less, she actively participates in gossip sessions whenever she gets a chance. Everyone except boys from her batch finds her attractive and that is why saying "Bhaiya" and hearing "Didi" is a very rare event for her. Unlike other engineers, she is a perfect example of quoting the line "early to bed and early to rise". She has great time management skills and is very clear about her goals. Despite having such a sorted mind she fails to keep her room sorted. With published papers in fields of food technology, she has already made her mark in academics too. Her awful PJs are probably the only thing she couldn't improve in these years. Fun fact is that she hates the morning of Mondays, but was a part of the Monday Morning club. If you are her friend, she is the perfect place for storage of your secrets, but never go with the solutions provided by her, else you are in a mesh of problems. She is the most humble, practical and sensible girl in her department. With many bright years ahead of her, we wish this young lady achieves everything under the sun.

She is a girl with a keen interest in hip hop and can match or even beat the guys on-stage any day. She is often found with her gang, she enjoys the company of her friends the most. From a messed up 1st year to a carefree Final year, she managed it all with her patience and maturity. This systematic girl is a cleanliness freak and health-conscious. She spends half of her life in dilemmas, be it food or boys. She is quite eager to get into a relationship but can't find a man because of the long list of filters she has. Matrimonial sites seem to be the last resort for her to find a suitable guy. Also, she never understands her hunger bar and tends to always order food that is beyond her capacity to consume. For her, the hardest thing to do is to say a "no" to anyone which often makes her land up into trouble. AYU NAVEEN JAIN

116FP0388 #partyfreak #gentleambani #surmabhopali #badaadmi

Ayu Naveen Jain is considered as a "Party animal" who never says no to any plans whatever the situation may be but always forgets to give his party. He redefines the word "cool". A stylish and hardworking person known for his exuberance made him the treasurer of the AASRA Club as well as a mentor in the SCP. Do you want a helping hand? He will always be there to help you out in literally every situation. He is a gentleman when it comes to helping unacquainted girls but will be the exact opposite near his friend circle. Living in a swag, known by his charming and friendly nature makes him have a lot of friends. He is very chill and a good listener and always a goto person for his friends. He does everything that his juniors say like dancing, singing, etc but when it comes to food he follows a pure Jain lifestyle. Each time the semester starts, he just brags about going to the gym but never really gets there. He is the "Bada Aadmi", quite literally because of his size and his wallet's size. Ambani for his friends, Ayu aims to become that self-made successful person in life. He doesn't let anyone know that he is serious about the exams and studies, but the results say it all. This handsome hunk never fails to charm girls around him despite that bird's nest over his head. Lovingly addressed as "Surma Bhopali" by his close friends, he is a pure gemstone if you are one of his close friends. Stay the same, we hope for your bright and successful future.

KABITA LODHA

116FP0390 #Dancer #Flirty #Foodie #GMAT #Pantomath

Kabita aka Kavitee, the crush of many in the batch of 2016, is the Naina of YJHD. She wields a pure and virtuous soul that always finds optimism even in the darkest hour. She holds determination and dedication which is strong enough to allow herself to accomplish whatever her mind conceives. Unlike other engineering students, she is known for her super clean and well-arranged room. A confident topper of the department but surely not a GMAT. She can be found watching movies during exams. Having evolved from 'Ghar ki laadli' to an 'aalsi engineer', her childlike innocence and unstoppable chattering remained constant and this gets her pampered everywhere. She is the go-to teacher for all her batchmates and her calm nature makes her help everyone with last-minute preparations. With her strong concepts, she can even teach professors during the viva. Having a sweet tooth for five stars, she craves for crime, horror and thriller genres. This beauty with brain charms everyone with her soft voice and appealing personality owing to which she has a huge fan base ranging from juniors to seniors. She has excellent time management skills and simultaneously balances her extra-curricular and academics. A girl with the utmost patience and nifty dancing skills has made her an indispensable asset of the Synergy Dance Club. Being a Marwari, her flawless cooking skills can amaze you in every possible way, especially the "Gajar ka Halwa". Her often "Ghar Jaana" worries her seniors but then she compensates it by bringing "Ghar se Khaana". One of the best personalities of NITR, and we wish her to stay blessed.

MEGHA MAHESWARY

116FP0391 #Foodie #Dancer #In Love <3 #LazyAF #Stirrer

If you wished to meet a real-life "Geet" from "Jab we met", she would be nothing less than our very own Megha Maheswary. Megha, popularly known as "Meghu" or "Chudail" is childish as well as the "gundi girl" of her gang. Her contagious smile can make anyone fall for her. The chirpiest girl in the batch, Megha is a combined package of childish tantrums and "Dadi maa ka Gyaan". Extremely photogenic, this hyperactive kiddo enjoys every moment of her life and gets them snapped. Her love for taking pictures and capturing moments knows no bounds. She is a powerhouse of Euphoria, a person who can uplift the mood of a situation with just her smile, and cynical comments. Energetic as a dancer with killer expressions, responsible as a secretary, this pretty lass is a friend everyone would desire to possess. She is a perfect example of beauty with craziness whom you can blindly trust for making any exciting plans. The only time she gets irritated is when she has an empty stomach. So she needs small packets of happiness now and then in the form of food, movies, trips, and gossip sessions. She gets her diet from a very few selective food items, one being her very precious "paani puri", and yet she still manages to stay as beautiful that a person can get. Although she is pampered by everyone, her heart stays in the Mining Department. This pro-level cheater is the savior for everyone sitting around her during the annoying class tests. She knows how to get her work done by others, through subtle buttering. With her ever-green tantrums and crooked smile, she has got your heart in her palm.

UDIT MEHROTRA

116FP0392 #LazyAF #Flirty #Booze #In Love <3 #Altruistic

Udit has a huge fanbase from both genders alike. From the skulk skinny kid with monkey ears in the first year to the hot placement coordinator in his fourth year, he has come a long way. Behind every successfully placed FPlan, there is Udit(not a woman) and behind his success, there is a woman whom he holds dear and cherishes. He is filthy rich with supposed treasures in his navel and is the inspiration for greek gods when it comes to a perfectly toned body. He offers professional courses in card games which have earned him the tag name of "Juari". His lean physique hides the fact that he is a "foodie by soul". His professional demeanor, as well as his witty remarks, makes him the star of every gathering. He can fill life into the dead with his inspirational words. This man doesn't demand but commands respect wherever he goes. Never try to argue with him because it is nearly impossible to win against him. He can go beyond his limits to help you but he seriously hates betrayal. A heartbroken and a roondu ladka."Bahoot roya hai room me darwaze bandh kar kar ke". He is super crazy about cricket and is always ready to play cricket whenever he is invited to. He is a smart, energetic, enthusiastic, ever helpful, and charming person you will ever meet in NITR. We wish this man climbs the ladder to success and achieve tremendous heights in the upcoming days.

NALIN KUMAR MODI

116FP0393 #LazyAF #Weed #Booze #Gyaanchod #Entrepreneur

Books make a man wiser, but when a man makes you wiser, what would you call that man? You would call him a man of wisdom, a blind spot buster, an evangelist, or simply a mentor. Such is the character of this gentleman, Nalin Modi. He is a person of high thinking, a high degree extrovert, a fun-filled character, and a constant motivator who would always try to help you out irrespective of his capabilities. He is one of the few people who didn't consider placements over self-development and always thought of something much bigger and long-lasting which is evident from his saying, "Always consider progress over perfection". Lovingly addressed as Modiji by the FPlans, he is a very hardworking and dedicated guy who is highly fond of books and novels and can influence people to take out the best from them. This Marwari guy has an insane entrepreneurial attitude and likes encouraging juniors to opt for entrepreneurship and amusement at the same time. He will someday be a TEDx speaker and do something hugely different following his passions and getting out of the rat race of life. He is a guy who believes in having quality friends rather than having a huge friend circle. He has also been an active part of many NITR official events such as Innovision, NITR Utsav etc being held each year. Recently he has also planned to open a startup inside the campus and here are loads of good wishes from the NITR Family and we wish him success in his every footstep.

NUPUR MOHAPATRA

116FP0394 #LazyAF #In Love <3 #Writer #Flirty #Lab Encyclopedia

Sometimes coded as NN by her girl-friends, she is a brilliant wordsmith who is also well known for her consistent performance in academics throughout the journey of NITR that even made her a recipient of MITACS. Even though she's a chubby little night owl, her undying love for sleep persuades her to miss multiple meals a day (Dinner being the first meal); yet she does not miss a single class. This fun-loving, humorous person can sometimes make you laugh till your stomach hurts. She's a great foodie, ardent novel lover, and a dedicated series lover. She demands to be known as a "sexy item" of her group. All jokes apart, her patience and calmness never allow her to lose her mind under pressure. With such a charming personality, she's going to reach further heights in the future. This FP Queen with her wonderful cooking skills (chicken khichdi biryani being her special recipe) and perfect jugaad in her room makes the best host for gatherings that fills "life" into the hostel life. In a world that is lost in the screens of cell phones and feeds of social media, she is the one who values face cards in-game more than Facebook; and stories of childhood more than stories on Instagram. From being someone innocent enough not to understand any cuss words in the first year she has come a long way and is now known for sarcastic remarks and sense of humor. She can always be seen experimenting with unique colors of dresses and nail paints and slaying it each time. Having a calm and composed mindset, her friends look upon to seek life advice from her. Being a devotee of Lord Shiva, she distributes "Bholenath ka Prasad" on Shivratri every year. We wish her success and a colorful future.

TAPAS NAYAK

116FP0395 #Sportsperson #Foodie #Gamer #SayNoToProxy #HelpingHand

The voice of the person that roars on the NCC ground, the man who stands like a real army officer on the stage of NCC ground is none other than Senior Under Officer Tapas Nayak. Admiringly known as "Tapas Sir" among his juniors and batchmates, he is an embodiment of sincerity, punctuality and leadership qualities. He is an inspiration for his juniors and always encourages them to live a disciplined life. One can observe in his face that he's very serious (never even smiles) while being present on the ground. But outside the ground, he has a split personality, very humorous and affable. He is very soft and kind-hearted and helps others disregard of knowing much about them. He goes by the motto "Service be-fore Self". Despite his appearance, he also has exceptional designing skills for which he has also been felicitated by many people including the professors. As an anime lover he can also be termed as a "hikikomori" and is always on the constant lookout for new animes and suggestions, but never reads the mangas. Being an ardent fan of MMORPG games, one can find him glued to his mobile playing those games every time in a day. Even though he is loved and admired by many, he is still single for ages because of his predilection for Japanese Girls over Indian Girls and is also willing to move to Japan just for the sake of espousing a Japanese. He is a man of his words and never abstains from it. He is also as calm as a cow standing in the middle of a busy road, and handles every complex situation calmly without seeking much help from others. We wish him the best in the upcoming days.

SHINDE AAKASH PRAMOD

116FP0396 #Sportsperson #Booze #Heartbroken #Gyaanchod #LateComer

Referred to as "Captain Shinde" or simply "Shinde", he is well known for his remarkable skills in hockey. He has a definite goal to join the Indian Armed Forces. He is a chill and optimistic person who has a love for Urdu literature and qawwali. For his friends, he is 'Yaron ka yar'. He could go beyond any limits to help out his friends who are in need. He may not look cool and calm but he has that appealing aura to attract people who interact with him. Being a true Marathi, Aakash is proud of their history and is a great worshipper of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. You can speak your heart out in front of him and he will never spread or expose your secrets to anyone as he will barely listen to you. You are always guaranteed a fresh supply of dry fruits and grapes every time you visit his room. Being a CDS aspirant, he is the powerhouse of knowledge regarding History and Politics so if you require any info about them, he will be your best bet. He is barely on time in any situation but always early when it comes to submitting the answer sheets in the exam. We wish him all the best for his future and hope this remarkable person achieves new heights of success in his life.

PADMANAV SAHOO

116FP0397 #Foodie #Heartbroken #GMAT #Gyaanchod #SabMohMaayaHai

Commonly addressed by his close friends as "Padana", "Paddu" or "Paddy", he is a narcissist with a lot of enthusiasm and is profound about his life and career. Maintaining a decent CGPA, this guy is the powerhouse of core knowledge and knows more than anyone else in his department. Hailing from Khurdha, this guy makes every effort to increase his weight and maintain his self proclaimed "healthy muscular" body by consuming Protein Powders, Eggs, and Bananas but fails miserably. He best fits with the terms "Dal mix with protein", "Two eggs a day make him a muscular boy" and "Sastha Kabir Singh". He is a cricket lover as well as a voracious "PUBG" player well known for killing his teammates most of the time instead of the enemies. Just like Joey can't share his food, this gentleman can't share his banana even if it's the last thing he has to do. Who said true love doesn't exist, this guy has kept trying on the same girl for the past 3 years even if the girl left the institute at the end of 1st year, without getting bored he becomes emotional as well when this matter comes into play. Sometimes he keeps on spouting nonsensical platitudes in broken English and wrong pronunciations to improve his English but has hardly improved to date. Being a huge fan of Rahul Gandhi, he insists on making jokes but ends up cracking ultra sensible PJs with clueless arguments and considers his level of humor to be of a level that is too high for mere mortals like us to understand. A very serious panic-stricken person, he carries a mental burden compared with the entire NITR junta. Best wishes coming your way.

VISHAL NANDU WARUNGASE

116FP0398 #Sportsperson #Heartbroken #ZindegiNaMilegiDobara #PracticalMan

To those who have seen a dozen people frown, scowl, or turn their faces away, his smile is like the sun breaking through the clouds. Popularly known as "Vishalaya", he is a simple, open-minded and kind-hearted guy who helps anyone when they need it, be it an ordinary mess worker or a filthy rich individual. This guy has a completely different track record in his first 3 years to the final year, from being introvert hardly talking to any girl to development of characteristics to that of a Casanova, it's a long journey. Everyone knows about his quest for enlightenment. Everyone knows about his quest for enlightenment. Well, now he just wants to be a practical guy. Being a truly religious person, he is fond of auspicious incense sticks and ancient Hindu literature such as Mahabharat and Bhagavad Geeta and uses his exclusive knowledge to advise his friends about life and love even though he is single since ages. He rarely flirts with other girls as he is always bro-zoned by almost every girl he tries on. Apart from a religious pandit, he is a classical singer, a harmonium player, and a gifted hockey player as well and has been an active part of the Aasra Club and the Institute Hockey Team. This guy has a solution to every problem and barely gets serious about anything. His determination and dedication have made him bag a job with the highest package in the history of the department of Food Process Engineering. Though he is a Chindhi person, he never brought junior-senior slope into picture and hangouts carefree. The well-known proverb "A friend in need is a friend indeed" suits best to this gentleman. We wish him success in his every footstep.

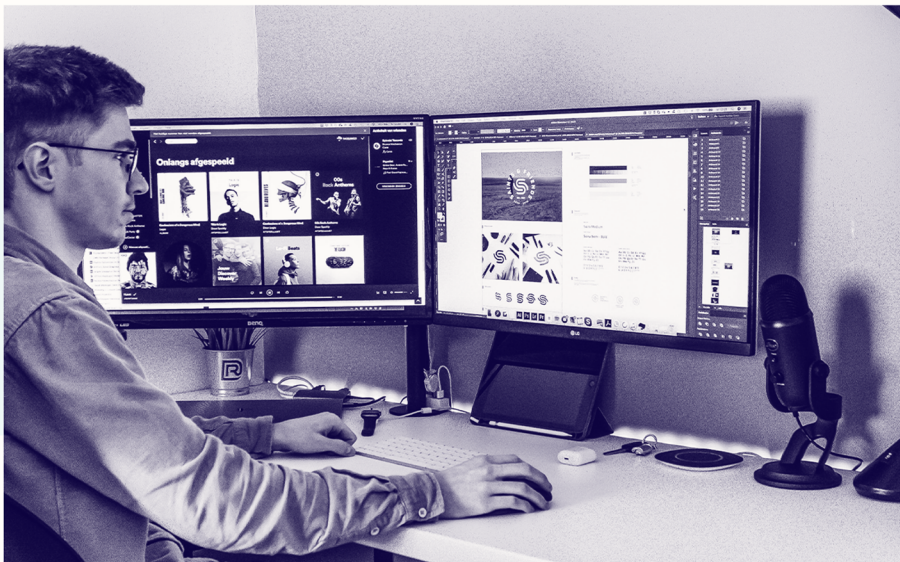

ARPIT YADAV

116FP0399 Extra-Curricular #Sportsperson #LazyAF #In Love <3 #CheggHero

This Kalyanpuri guy desperately wants people to recognize him as a Kanpuriya. "Hume to Kuch pata hi nahi tha, hum to bas yaha aa gaye" were his first words as he came into the world of NITR and four years since, these words have stuck with him like a shadow. The only two things this guy is sure of in his life are becoming a corrupt IAS and CHEGG individual, to which his utmost dedication can even make his girlfriend insecure. He even repaid his loan by solving chemistry problems on Chegg. He is like "Salt", his presence may not be felt by others but his absence leaves everything tasteless. You can see him roaming around the hostel in a green T-shirt and blue pants all the time. He is also an active part of the Aasra Club and engages in every activity that is organized in the club. If you share your secret with him, then be prepared for that secret to get revealed in the worst situation you can imagine. He is a person with the ability to lighten up any serious situation and being the epicenter of rumors, you can use him like Wikipedia to know about any hot news inside the campus. He is also the favorite student of every teacher in the department because he is never on time for the classes under any circumstances. He is the most dramatic and entertaining person you can ever find in the NITR Campus. We wish him the best in the days to come.

A hardcore addict of absolutely any watchable substance available on YouTube, she has the unique ability of devouring movies just before the exams and sleeping immediately after. In an age of late night parties and Netflix and Chill, she still believes in the nursery rhyme 'early to bed'...well, only to that extent. She uses "I want Pizza and Pastry" as fillers whenever she has any free time! When she is full in the belly, she resorts to the other soul filling activities like binge watching Indian Idol and window shopping in e-commerce websites and even yielding to the temptation of adding items she never intends to buy, to the cart. Her absence in the class can never escape anyone's notice as she has personified the water bottle for each and every of her classmate. In stark contrast to this, she has a massive fear of water which not even the pristine beaches of Goa could drive out of her. No wonder, he has not only presided upon DesignTab, but remained a design connoisseur 24/7 in demand by fests, Institute magazines & even startups, a true legend for design aspirants. When not catering to his professional commitments, he can be found devotedly guzzling movies or sobbing over Taylor Swift music. The word 'No' doesn't exist in his dictionary for absolutely anyone who comes asking for his help & he has been a messiah providing timetables, templates & assignments to his batchmates throughout his 4 years. He doesn't need intoxication whatsoever, to shed inhibitions & transform to a goofy groovy party lover. A genuinely empathetic & patient soul & an even closer 'bhai', he is really the perfect friend anyone can wish for.

MRINAL CHAUDHURY

116ID0404 #Grandma #MMCCMC #SmolFeetPenguin #MomoAddict #Meemaw #SerialKeyLoser

Mrinal being an unorthodox name for a female, is very well suited for this lady who is far from all possible ways you can call girlish. The name not being any less phenomenal than the personality herself, this little woman with inspiring work ethics to perfectly plan and execute any task is a living life-hack. This half time bong/odia & a full time creative exudes a motherly charm, while disciplining the indolence out of any 'kid' crossing her path. An eggitarian with a negligible appetite & panda like sleep, food videos, doggos & cattsos, candid photography & the color white are what she swears by. Fondly called Meemaw, her small feet carrying her slowly swinging from one side to another is a sight you would spot from a mile away. An obsessive neat freak & a grammar nazi, her constant need to have everything organized, labeled & made into a memo (however trivial it may be) gives her the aura of a new age Monica Geller. Often wearing unpaired socks/shoes, strangely mixing characters in stories accompanied by broken onomatopoeia, losing her belongings (serial key-loser) & turning up at the wrong classes at the wrong time, her share of quirks only add to her unique clumsiness. This industrious busy bee has been a gem in every 'organisation' she has been a part of, somehow fitting time for gossip always though. An impeccable leader coupled with a kind heart, Mrinal was a one-of-a-kind CC of MM, propelling MM-pheels with zealous ideas & vision throughout the better part of almost 3 years & more to come. A MITACS Intern & a soon to be Masters Student at one of the prestigious universities of the world, this overachiever is outspoken, no matter the situation & a master of insightful conversation which can be complete garbage or beautiful philosophies: there's no in-between with her. A great listener and ever-supportive, Mrinal makes sure to light up your day even when she has no idea what are you down about. Needless to say, here's to wishing that this ambitious girl and #PopularLoko achieves everything she dreams of.

SAFALYA KUMAR PARIDA

116ID0415 #Partypooper #SleepingBeauty #MuSexyToka #MessIsHome #Chickmagnet #Safu

A person best known for his larger than life antics and forever charming desolation of "single-hood", Safalya Parida is one godchild with the paintbrush when it comes to making ideas come alive. Exploring all shades of emotions and notions, this outstanding painter creates wonders with colours and brush. It seems design finds a unique voice in each of his creations, a quality making him the most eligible postholder in every organization he has been part of. Maybe his awful laziness will annoy you a bit, but his flawless task and brotherlike ways of flattering you will immediately melt down all anger. This guy is the living embodiment of Kumbhakarna and mornings simply do not exist in his clock. Unruffled with his barbaric fashion sense he diverts all his attention to his hair and jawline which he flaunts perpetually with not so subtle flips and caresses. For someone who loves flipping his hair more often than breathing, his proclamations of his own hotness quotient would put every fashionista into the deepest ignominy. Much to the astonishment of his peers and happiness of his parents, he ensures he never misses any meal in the mess, swearing by it's health quotient. Not without his share of quirks, he is known by his inner circle for taking a bath with the water cooler water. With a chewing gum in his mouth and keen observational skills you can hit a conversation with him on any imaginable topic. Finally a true and helpful friend, who always stands beside you during your good and tough times.

SOURISH MISHRA

116ID0410 #Toki #Schemer #420 #CR #MasterOfHerbs #ANALYTIC_mind #Wanderlust #Poser

Say hello to the master of all trades so unconventional, you doubt this man to be from a planet that is neither mars nor Venus. Sourish Mishra, masquerading by the name 'Toki' courtesy to a flexible body and all his intricate feminine attributes. With expressions so wild and a talking style so addictive, Sourish can leave you believing the sun sets in East and a world war erupted in your colony, and you still will leave mesmerized with the conversation. He belongs to the small long lost group of engineers who sleeps early and wakes up early. No wonder he deserves the award for the best conniving Class Representative his department could have. With a very peculiar way of saying "Helooooo" he can shock anyone with the amount of cuss in every statement that comes out of his mouth. With a strict policy of no mess food, the guy finds it very difficult to eat half of what he brings and is often indecisive about ordering when eating out and will be genuinely missed by several night canteens for unfailingly getting parcels almost every night. Adding to his portfolio of skills is his mastery in painfully constipated and closed eyed fake candids. He may forget breathing but never forgets asking for hotspot, as he gleefully browses through unique travel itineraries and delectable recipes, in blissful ignorance of the Professor's ramblings. Swearing by the superior quality of a Personal Computer personally borrowed from Charles Babbage, he maintains his antique phone, his display picture and his FIFA '14 with a collector's gusto. In addition to the mastery he has achieved over FIFA, he is an avid sitcom watcher and a dedicated PUBG player. Leaving a sweet spot in the heart of anyone who knows him, he is sure to spread his wings far and wide.

ASWIN KUMAR RAJU

116ID0417 #BlackLivesMatter #neverstopdancing #jugaadoo #notsosmartalec #wow #IKnowHer

Born in Rourkela & brought up in SAC, this super lean boy is a self-proclaimed 'fake Gulti' and a walking Apple store. From 'I wanna do it all' to 'I can sleep anywhere, anytime, anyway', several peculiar eccentricities that define this master of Jiu-Jitsu sleeping. A super jolly person who must be on your speed dial, he is always only as far as a call or at an arm's length (especially if you live in CVR or SAC). He breaks into a dance to practically any kind of music known with his mastery multiple dance forms & the tabla. No wonder, he has given his sweat & probably even blood for the best interests of Synergy as a member as well as it's Chief Coordinator. His Google Calendar sometimes would wish it was more powerful to keep up with his innumerable appointments, but he miraculously keeps track of all & never misses greeting or meeting someone, whether you are his next door neighbour or a friend in a city far away. For someone who still can't figure out that 'Waiting' & 'Wetting' for someone, are two different things (courtesy his bad yet signature texting style), one wonders where his confidence to reply to every content posted on social media stems from. A perfect cinephile (read addict), he will tell you the colour of the protagonist's shoes when all you asked was the movie name. No matter which aswin you know, one is consistent - the all smiles & mature confidante. He won't sympathise, but empathise & genuinely wish well, but as soon as he is done giving a pro-tip/ big-brother sermon, you can go back to making racist jokes on him, he won't mind. The lighthearted, a little dim but hell funny, he is an absolute favourite of everyone from his juniors to peers & even random strangers. He might have become an industrious designer but the degree he has genuinely earned from the college life is of 'jugaad' and planning parties. A last minute perfectionist & a truly unforgettable friend, he will continue to liven up spirits & lives wherever he goes.

SOMESH SAHOO

116ID0418 #Foodie #MotaBhai #KhantiCuttackia #DahibaraAloodumisBae #DTMundi #GoGreen

Somesh affectionately called as 'Mota Bhai' among his friends, belongs to the rarest of rare toppers, deviating from the characteristic traits of his species by not giving a damn about any form of topper certificate. Carrying a huge rainbow umbrella and a cute smile on his face, he is blend of cautious & fun-loving traits, in just the right amounts. Foodie is an understatement; everyone loves to eat but he loves to decipher the food. He judges the food on every quantifiable measure. Usually of the calmest demeanour, he must not be messed with by saying anything unbecoming about the love of his life - 'The mighty Dahibara Aloodum'. A near-professional cook & a great connoisseur of spirits and herbs, he is the man to go to for an ultimate gourmet & eclectic experience. He has a never-ending hunger for memes. Somesh is an amazing party planner and an ever-present figure in the hostel, be it becoming the first aid kit among his friends or his endless shenanigans with the day canteen vendor, the DesignTab Secretary is always full of life and energy. If you see a poster on campus or an amazing looking graphics work in RM Hall during fests, be assured he had something to do with it. Possessing the ability to survive by only eating 'Dahibara-Aloodum', you dare jibe about Cuttack in front of him. Nevertheless, his value is highlighted even more as the branch topper emerges as the messiah the night before the exams. He remains calm in any situation but can't work long without his collection of "motivations". A walking lost and found deposit box, he also has enough supplies in-store to easily survive a pandemic (he foresaw it!). He can take different avatars like "God Mode" and "Nature/Organic Mode". Never having any specific demands, he is always happy to go with what everyone wants. When it comes to friendship, a guy like him is rare to find as he swears by "I'll be there for you..." even in the times when you feel the supposed bests leaving your side. A heart pure as a gem, we wish a person like him gets all he wants for all he gives to the world!

The butt of jokes among his friends and classmates, Debapriya Prusty is popularly known as 'Gai', 'Nepali Kutta' and 'Mote'. He's a person who likes to make the "Mahol"/ Feel for anything and everything he does. Often elated when it's raining, has got the tag of Mendhank/Frog as he pesters others to go out with him. An organic lover since 3rd Year, he has instances of going to the exams high. He adds an artistic feel wherever he goes with his crazy ideas be it painting the hostel rooms, decorating with rice lights or setting up the sound system. Often late to the class or absent altogether from classes, he is the favorite target of almost all the professors and a comic relief for his branchmates with all the bewildering excuses he can come up with. His love for repairing lighters is well known to many and there are instances when people from other hostels come to repair theirs and that was he he got the tag of 'ITI'. According to friends, he would definitely have been a nine-pointer had he used the same 'dimaag' that he used while he played cards or carrom, in both of which he was a pro. Debapriya Prusty was dubbed the Online Test king in his final year when he almost cleared as many as 20 OTs before getting placed. He has the reputation of getting GPL even if isn't his. Here's wishing him a great life ahead where he continues to amaze his friends with his satirical demeanour.

MANOHAR

116ID0402 #Bhaiya #Bigheart #Jugaadu #Artist #Chef #Clovemix

Manohar, fondly known as "Bhaiya", has no reasons to worry for not having a surname. "Tera bhai Sambhal Lega", is the phrase that defines him in the best possible way. A true jugaadu, be it anything from assignments to exams, arranging fests and possessing mad convincing skills he can even persuade the toppers to bunk classes. Hailing from the steel-city Jamshedpur, the city which gets its name from Jamshedji Tata, this man too dreams of being an entrepreneur for the nation also. He is the complete man (the Raymonds guy) who can cook, dance, sing and do anything under the sun and thus is sometimes referred to as the 'Perfect Husband' material (but 'bhaiya' tag never leaves him). He is a keen stalker and can be called the Lord Varys of NITR. His Masala Maggi at 3AM is the hunger saviour of many at MSS, with him widely regarded as the best host. His room which is an emotion in itself is the adda of many fascinating stories. Aptly said, A-311 of MSS will always be a hub of great minds and can ever be seen flooding with people so much so that it reminds one of the Sunday lunch scenes at the mess. As is the popular notion, he is a walking database of every gossip and person in the campus, and his close friends are yet to discover the number of girlfriends he has. He can be seen toiling day and night at SAC for two things: Inno and MUN. He's proud of his juniors and is loved by all his friends for his caring 'bhai' waala attitude. Deep voiced with some serious acting chops, this unique guy leaves a mark on anyone he comes across and is sure to be a favourite everywhere he goes.

ASHU PATEL

116ID0416 #SilentWarrior #Bumbhole #Aag_ki_Laptein #Garvi

Ashu Patel, the lean, tall guy with coloured hair often bunks his class, as his prime motive in life is to sleep. His love for sleep is pure and is clearly evident in the number of absents he has at the end of the semester. He has the ability to sleep in however small a break he gets. Generally, he is a peace loving person but when he is in the zone the party gets longer. He is a trustworthy friend, secret-keeper and a true soul who will always be ready to lend his helping hand. He is one of the most popular people in the college. Hailing from the Grand state of Gujarat, he finds his own unique ways to adjust in this eastern state. "Gupchup" is the ultimate fuel that runs his body and through his blood. His dedication for academics is as good as his dedication to go to gym which unfortunately tends to zero. His love for anime and PUBG is insane. He can literally keep on playing PUBG for hours without demanding for food and water and sometimes pull all-nighters just to play. Once you get to know this guy, who is in fact a taunt-master in disguise, you cannot escape the teasing and taunts. This backbencher has an in-depth knowledge in topics like the current politics in India, business and sports. Being a diehard fan of Christiano, Ashu can create ruckus if you speak against him or against the club he is playing for. Ranjeet Kumar, alias "DON", named so partly because it is self-proclaimed 'Destroyer of Nations' and rest due to his diplomatic inner-politician persona, is a cheerful and promising being. Known widely for his fest management skills as a convener in Nitruksav, he is a supportive and reliable friend for his fellow mates. Though he comes up with disruptive theories at times and barely attends classes, this back-bencher still manages to pass all his semesters with a decent CG. He is one of those dire lovers, who despite having had several rejections, would go to the extent of sending webmails after getting blocked, and still stay sprightly with his overnight joint projects. A proud Bihari, a teaching enthusiast, and an R-15 lover, our "Neta" believes in maintaining strong connections with all those he meets. He is a foodie who loves eating unconventional kinds of stuff, while he also follows the saying "Save Water, Save Life" by preferring neat to save water. A calm person and a great leader, Ranjeet's presence of mind and dynamic nature is praiseworthy. Bring on the college elections and he would be easily spotted planning his team's victory. In Ted Mosby's voice, 'Ranjeet' is a sweet grizzly bear with a soft heart who would always be willing to help out his friends in need. A popular guy, whose presence in one's life will make it full of memories, Ranjeet has a strong will to succeed, and we hope he continues to have a bright life ahead.

SOURAV BAITHARU

416MA5028 #Singer #baitharu #Dancer #Foodie #despu #romu #bodybuilder

With a foundation of strong values, it is no wonder that Sourav is one of the most down-to-earth individuals one could meet. A kind-hearted Toka, popularly known for giving nicknames to all his friends, he is a man with hidden talents. Though he wouldn't ever cease to lighten up his friends' moods with his sarcastic jokes, this guy is undoubtedly too humble to handle. Try to get him drunk to come out of his decent dialect, and you'd still lose! His only high is watching 'Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah', along with several other flop movies. A soulful singer himself, particularly romantic, Baitharu can often be found listening to Sambalpuri songs in his leisure hour, or otherwise playing Sonu Nigam's compositions, whom he idolizes. Give him anything except chicken or eggs, and he wouldn't even consider it food. His benevolent nature is reflected through his club contributions in 'Aasra', which has further evolved him into a more committed and responsible being. This gem of a person is not only a regular at classes (particularly, always before time) but also a fitness enthusiast as can be seen in the gym on a regular basis. With a zeal to be independent since the first year, Sourav prefers to earn for himself through online earning sites and is a patient learner. Someone who could laugh away his problems, and enjoy the present with peace, Baitharu is indeed a person to learn from. Though he's frequently told "jo baithta hai wahi baittharu", but we know that his flight to his dreams is soon gonna reach its destination.

NIRMAL BARICK

416MA5030 #GMAT #Sportsperson #topper #nirmu #innocent #dhonifan #MSDian

A procession could go right past him and still have no effect on him, quite literally, this focused individual is Nirmal Barick, also known as Nirmu or Nirmal Chetry. Even though he is one of the most placid and shy people of the Institute, his grades do the talking on his behalf. A rare personality being one of his many virtues, Nirmal also has a sharp mind that could swallow all books at one go and has thus earned him Academic Excellence for all consecutive years. A dedicated and sincere individual as he is, his nervousness is at its peak when he is confronted by a girl (or even a Professor), and the blush on his face is worth watching. Apart from his unwarranted stage fear, he is an extremely passionate learner and works his best to achieve anything he desires. This introvert is known close to the rare few, he is, just like many of us, a huge Dhoni fan (and thus, CSK). A fun-loving guy, this topper has intelligence beyond measure. We hope he achieves all he aspires and is well recognized for the brains and drive to do better than he has.

SONU KUMAR

416MA5031 #GMAT #Coder #Gyanch*d #sonupaaji #god #mathlover #teachall #hardworking

A true Mathematics lover, blended with simple living styles and high-level thinking, Sonu is this summed up unique personality. An emotional and dogged boy of the department, and having the profound potential to crack anything present in this transient world, he is a sincere and dedicated person, and a stern believer of 'power of hard work'. Solving extraordinary questions or practicing coding problems is his daily bread which gives him immense satisfaction. His hostel room usually fills in for a doubt counter, particularly during exam seasons. More than 'a friend in need', Sonu would explicitly be there for anyone who is focussed on his/her goals. Just like celebrities have their fanbase, Sonu Paaji has his own student fanbase, and his past and current students worship him like a god. This GMAT has an unusual habit of speaking so loudly, that you could often get into trouble (particularly while cheating in exams). A pure vegetarian, who also discards all fast foods and oily stuff to stay healthy, this Bihari guy is one person who would always stick to his commitments. Though his caliber is mostly praised, Sonu is definitely not a morning person, which has earned him quite a few 'stay outside' punishments from his Professors. His goals, contradictory to many others, do not pause at earning money. He has a strong will to help the needy, owing to his own experiences in a rural lifestyle. His aplomb is extraordinary and you could often hear him saying, "Mujhe bas kitab aur internet de dijiye, kisi bhi topic ko khod denge". Consistency and hard work are paths to success, and blimey, Sonu is already on it!

HEMANT MISHRA

416MA5032 #Gyanch*d #LazyAF #Foodie #photographer #pandit #shayar #artist #mishraji

Known as 'Pandit', solely due to his extraordinary ability to lure people into doing the weirdest of stuffs and then casually laughing it off, Hemant, the photographer, is an enthusiastic individual, always keen on learning new things. Often spotted with a camera around his neck, even during exam times, Mishra is a guy who loves to take risks and overcome them. A master meddler (pun intended), he can usually be seen participating in the most nonsensical arguments with the quote "Tum bhi sahi ho or tum bhi sahi ho, par ab meri suno". A trustworthy person, slightly moody, and a bluffing expert, Hemant is an unusual kind of foodie who just needs a packet full of flour, rice, and cereals for his one-time meal. He is also part of the Institute Hockey Team, where he always uses his stick to hit his own feet rather than the ball. Despite of not being a very socio-friendly being, this Shayari and Ghazal lover is such a chatterbox that once you're his friend, he would speak continuously (without thinking) for hours and even give vague opinions about Profs and fellow mates (to them on the face too). Immensely dedicated to his physique, he is a regular sportsperson and ruins others' nights by playing hockey in the room at midnight. Sincere as he is, the fact of where he gets his never-ending doubts from is still unknown. Though this Third Eye member is usually mistaken for everyone's personal photographer, Mishra is a sensitive and sensible guy, whose poetic aura makes him a pleasant company to hang out with. A committed person, who has the courage of following his passion no matter what the odds are, Hemant has a zeal to fulfill his dreams, which we believe he's going to accomplish very soon.

PRITHVIRAJ DAS MOHAPATRA

The real-life Barney Stinson, who loves to suit up and abides by the bro code, PD is our very own famous Puri Nana. It won't come as a surprise if he hires monks, just to sing "Broooo" in the background while he's taking the oath of the bros. This 'Daitapati' or Richie Rich, is that Richie who's not only rich with respect to bank balance but also by heart. There are two things that this guy can never control, his hunger and his hormones. Even in his 80s, he can be pictured with a chick beside him. Quite the lady charmer, his exploits have been Legen-dary. Lately a gym freak, 'Pidu' can accommodate people of all wavelengths. Owing to his past Insta handle @foodie_pd, he really lives up to the name and is on a constant lookout for people to accompany him to backpost (not just for food). The pre-assigned DJ of all parties, this party animal will get you on your feet dancing on his crazy Bollywood playlist. He never lets a single vacation go waste and being a travel junkie, who books flight tickets during class as soon as the thought arises, he has got a diverse list of the places he's travelled to, North-East being his favourite. A big fan of 'Big-Bong Theory', PD is a wannabe standup comedian who pounces at every opportunity to deliver his compiled set of old jokes and witty one liners. The founding member of the Red Eye Society, he is also one sad Arsenal fan. A mathematician by accident, brazen brat by choice, our short-tempered PD is a handsome individual, who would get all he sets his eyes upon. Warning : PD is that one person your parents warned you to stay away from!

KHAMPA SINGH NARZARY

416MA5034 #romeo #khampu #BodyBuilder #PorkLover #JaiAaiAxom #TravelFreak

Well, the Romeo of The Sutiya's, Khampa is a well-known face among the other gender for his chiseled physique and a soft smile. His smile is a sheer resemblance of Laughing Buddha with abs and biceps! Apparently too shy by nature, he often looks down while talking to his juniors too. Often mistaken by many for a Korean mobster (owing to his Shaolin mustache), this gym freak can workout with any heavy object that he can find, like lifting gas cylinders. The local superstar of Bodoland, who would entertain his gang with his familiar SRK pose, Khampu is a man with a calm demeanor. As a budding mathematician, he never forgets to split the bills right to the 3rd decimal places after any GTPS. Khampa's love for movies and 'Taarak Mehta' is so dire, that he could watch the shows even on 144p. Other than the gym, he is particularly known for three things - his cooking skills (one would die for his pork fry), the cleanliness of his room (which is no less than a hotel), and his celebrity girlfriend. Khampa, who idolizes Virat Kohli for fitness and dressing style, is also a momo-lover. Not through clubs, he has his own way of socializing with people that have earned him many friends. A travel enthusiast, as can be seen on his Insta profile, he has visited almost every bit of the seven sisters, and "Joi Aai Axom" is truly embodied in his soul. A fun-loving person in general, some slight performance shift in academics are sufficient to bring the stressed Khampa out of him. A regular at classes, who can also speak several languages, he is undoubtedly one of the most envious beings at NITR. We wish him the best for years to come!

BINI RANI SOREN

416MA5038 #Foodie #Chailover #dancer #binbin #bunny #K-Pop #KoreanStar #BTSfandom

Bini, or the 'chhota packet bada dhamaka' is the tiny introvert 'Sonyeo', who is loved by all - seniors, juniors and batch-mates. She is mostly found inside her hostel room, well, better inside, or she'll slay with her fashion statements. Literally, she is one of the rare few who can look good even on their Aadhar card. A die hard fan of Korean drama and Chinese food, Binbin is a crazy K-Pop star. If someone says "All Korean actors look the same", she would be ready to kill you. The kawaii girl, Bini is a strong woman, who knows how to keep her composure and strength intact, and fights for what she believes in. Mostly called Bunny, she is extremely hardworking and responsible, which is a consequence of her activities at "Aasra", where also, her choreography skills for all club events have been no secret. She can speak for hours and hours about her interests, without anyone getting bored, and listen to you with the same patience. If she is upset or sad, get her chicken and her energy would be back in seconds! Being a localite, her job is by default presumed to bring all the homemade delicacies, which she does with utmost passion. This BTS fangirl, who never misses any updates, is also a brand ambassador of the best handwriting in class. Academically, she has been a sound saviour of the department with her beautifully-written and colourful class notes. From being the short tempered lass to the calm listener, Bini truly is an epitome of strong will. A great mentor for her juniors, Bini can find positivity in the weirdest of things. Ambitious as she is, we know she'll fulfil her dreams soon, and yes, someone please drop her to Korea!

SWADHA

416MA5027 #dancer #Gyanch*d #multitalented #socialiser #SaddaHaq #Sweda #fashionista

You must be living under a rock if you haven't heard this name ever in college. Swadha, the distinctive loquacious little birdie is always ahead of the curve in every task she takes upon and never seems to disappoint. Be it in busting moves at Synergy, working tirelessly as the General Secretary of her hall, writing some amazing content, or rehearsing drills at NCC, Swadha has done it all, while having enough time yet to ace her academics and more so spend quality time with her friends (though she always seems to be busy). "Sadda Haq" is our Bada Loka, as she can forget her MacBook in train. A Potterhead and quite a silent GMAT at heart, this omnipresent chatterbox holds high profile socialising skills, and can easily make friends out of anyone. This pseudo photographer of Synergy, Sweda, always plans to pull an all-nighter before exams but fails in such trials, as sleep comes first even at the most critical of hours. Always one to leave the exam hall within an hour and pen down a fresh timetable every day in class, this 'Beauty with Brains' can 'walk the walk and talk the talk' as seen from her becoming a well deserved PlaceComm Secretary on the back of working her heart out for the better part of a testing semester. She operates on a short fuse and those who have witnessed her wrath say that it's not a sight to behold. Swadha has quite an aesthetic dressing sense and slays in her on-point outfits for every occasion. A person of ironies, she is quite the party girl, one who also prefers to sit quietly listening to Lata songs. Don't get her started on mythologies or you might just regret it! A KitKat lover, Swadha has definitely been able to write a highlight to the books of NITR and is all set to make each day of her last year count. (P.S. Never let her smile fool you, she's a girl of incredible courage and feat.)

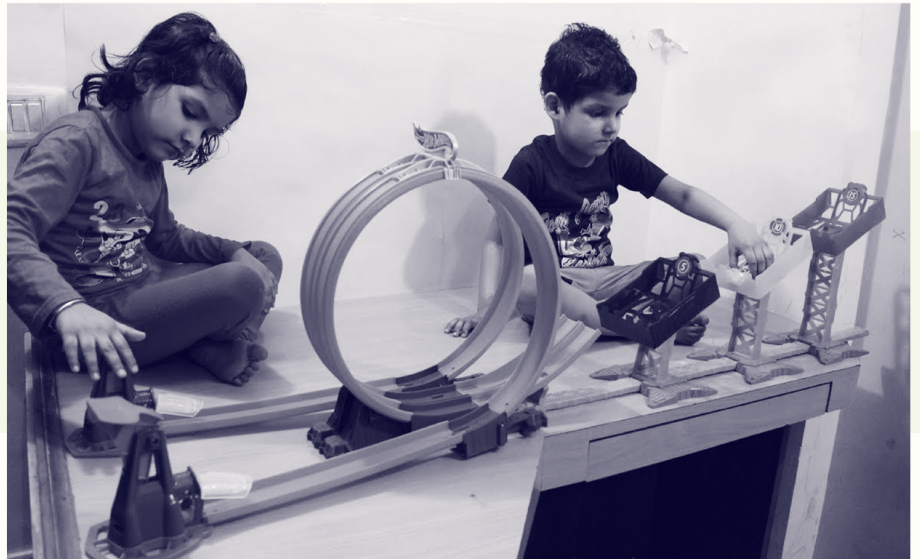

ATUL KUMAR BANSAL

416MA5029 #CricketLover #ChaiLover #Gyanch*d #apan #dramebaz #bansal #single #aurat

Sir AKB, the pseudo - Sakht Launda of the department, would judge you from the beginning of your conversation and plan his own ways to deal with you exclusively. Bansal, also known as 'Apan' for his recurrent usage of this word, is an intellectual being, often mistaken for the innocent one. Dwelling from the land of Scindias, it is quite likely of him to live life king size. Someone who'd make you laugh with his weird poses and nasty sense of humor, Atul is a complete entertainment package. Would you find a guy always ready to take a GPL? Would you ever find a friend who would give a treat on your behalf for your birthday? Or would you find a topper among the regular backbenchers? That's Atul Bansal for you! Having binge-watched almost all series, he's one person who has used DC to its best. Atul aka 'RnD' from Chambal, is particularly known to have had throat surgery, medicines of which are supplied to him from backpost. A Marwadi who loves chicken, Bansal is also a cricket fan, all stats of which are stored in his memory. Drama lies in his veins, which is why he has been an active member of Pantomime. A personal ATM for many, and the pre-exam tutor for some, Atul is an all-in-one guy, who aims for perfection and puts all his efforts to achieve so which makes him a well deserved Placement Coordinator. It wouldn't come as a surprise if Atul assured you of doing a task for you, and the task never happened. This consistently single soul would either stay quiet for hours, else wouldn't stop talking. We wish him luck so that his real identity stays unrevealed!

This GOD of Cinematics needs no introduction. When you need to get a poster or a t-shirt designed or a movie edited, Abishek Samuel Philip is the person you turn to. Making his passion his profession this creative associate at BYJU's eats like a horse but somehow maintains his physique. He's the real-life Chandler Bing from F.R.I.E.N.D.S. and the only one to have a fan club in CVR. This talented young lad clicks really good photos but is too humble to take credit for his own work. This charming personality is just a good looking introvert to people he is not close to but within his circles, MojoJojo is all smiles, jokes, trolls, and awesomeness. Abishek Philip Fan Club (APFC) of which the CVR chapter is his favorite is a group of several Telugu girls and one particular Bombay Beauty. This Draco of the CSGO community is a nightmare to whoever comes in his way. This pro of video-editing is gifted with all the patience that a photographer guy with a lot of chick friends would need but will never give up on any argument about cameras, lenses, and mobile phones. CSGO and PUBG are his food and water. This ISI certified gentleman never gets angry and is a good listener with no grudges. He speaks so seldom that if and when he criticizes your work or praises it, its value increases or falls several folds. Behind his innocent face is the soul of an artist with serious "hunger" management issues. This harmless Mechie is reputed for making anything out of an idea. Despite his simultaneously sharp and dim wit, he has amassed quite some admirers. We wish this creative genius takes over the world and remodels it as 'The God' sees fit, to be the Da Vinci to his own unique masterpiece.

JAGANNATH SAHOO

Jagannath Sahoo, Largely popular as Jaga Bhai, is well known as the Chief Coordinator of NSS. Also called Baban, he is a latent experienced flirty person owing to his sweet innocent face. He is a voracious reader which in return allows him for being placed in Hero Motorcorp and GAIL. Though childish like a 10-year-old, he is a good human at heart with wonderful situation handling skills. A 9 pointer but not a GMAT, he is quite concerned about his weight. Be it an assignment or presentation, just provide him some data and then sit back and relax, the task will be completed before you know because he loves taking responsibilities. Some people have a special skill of trolling and no one can do it better than Jaga Bhai. "Simplicity at its best" is what would come to your mind at the very instant you meet him. He might be "Kanjoo no. 1" but he will understand your feelings and support you in every stage of life. The only good transition for this NSS Mundi from the first year to the final year is that - a mech guy has finally got a life partner. A horrible dancer as he is, he can kill anyone with his dancing ability. His persistence, optimism, wit, and calm composure are his definitive traits. A foodie by heart, he loves to have chicken butter masala, and chai and his friends adore him the most for his helpful nature. He is a superfast human calculator and speaker which he once proved by telling "whatever written" in one of the labs. This last moment savior for friends during exams is a shy and down to earth guy and the best possible mentor one could ask for. When it comes to posing for photos there is no match to those unique and retarded expressions he comes up with.

PINNINTI SURYA TEJA

116ME0501 #Pinniti #RGV #GMAT #Foodie #Heartbroken #Booze

Surya, Famous with the names Pinninti and RGV in his gultie circle especially because he is a diehard fan of this great director. He spends his life the way no one can think of and still enjoys it, likes the tweets of RGV which no one can understand, and makes such points in a conversation which no one can fathom. While all other members work hard for TRR our RGV always spends less time in the workshop with his smart and sting ideas. He has transformed from a guy who is impulsive and easily carried away by emotions in 1st year to being calm and thoughtful about everything in the final year and that could be the best one changes by being a part of the Mechanical Department at NIT Rourkela. He is extremely intelligent and that makes him think a lot even when doing normal stuff. And that is what makes him better at taking decisions - he puts in a lot of thought. He talks gently to people and is all ears when discussions about career arise and provides several valuable insights at the same time. His confusion is a constant source of entertainment for many because of the quirkiness associated with it. For several reasons, his smile is one of his biggest assets and even in difficult situations he manages to laugh and maintain cool. He is pleasantly introverted and does not speak until he is asked or he feels it is the right time to speak. In speaking, he is a straight forward and a bit too innocent sometimes which adds to his introversion. His quietness and thoughtfulness in dealing with people as well as situations will make him a responsible team player wherever he goes. Wishing you the best of luck for all your future endeavors!

Gourav Gandhi Toppo, is really a Gandhi as he was born on 2nd October. But this Gandhi doesn't really live up to his Gourav(pride). He has all the traits of a typical Mechanical Guy - Hot, Single, and Independent. He is the slowest sportive person in NIT Rourkela. He is also a national champion of the hockey tournament. During his third year, he became popular because of the special sacrifice he had to make for his love for the game - his teeth. A carefree and friendly personality who doesn't get angry very often, Toppo is a good companion and an even better team player. He is a noob in PUBG but can be found sleeping with PUBG GamePlays on full sound. He is a genuine and lovable person and is kind-hearted as well. A flirty guy with whom all secrets seem safe. He is understanding by nature and extremely kind at heart because when he listens to anyone's pain, he gets emotional. However carefree he may seem, he always gives his best when he tries something. He is the sly one who understands every dank matter and laughs to himself while still acting innocent. He has tried getting into the ocean of love but his constant efforts failed after several attempts. But other than this he surely is a talented person and takes his career very seriously. A very friendly person who shares literally each and every detail of his day with all his friends and his personality is as clear as a crystal. Sourav Priyadarshan - the good looking and smart Mechie, with his obsession for gaming has managed to maintain a series of 8s in his grade card, scored an internship at TRL Krosaki, and bagged a PPO too. He sometimes goes by his game nick Ishanashiro/Ishan Mishra but is more popular as the usual Priyadarshan/i. A person blessed with a good natural physique, he is confident, studious, and outspoken. Sometimes he gets angry and loses control over his words but otherwise, he is a good person who always takes stand for his friends. This helpful guy is a big anime fan and has inspired many friends to watch anime. This Mech guy is a jolly person until he loses his temper and turns into a fireball. Teachers always make a mess of his name during attendance by calling him Sourav Priyadarshini. Sourav can always be spotted laughing, cracking jokes, and teasing others. He is one of the last persons to reach the Mess and mornings simply don't exist for him. He speaks Odia so fast that it seems like he swallowed half the words before they came out. He still regrets doing his summer internship in TRL, because of the presence of a particular person during those tragic 2 months. Sourav is a self-proclaimed master chef and prides himself on making the best chicken Hyderabad. He may or may not be present during your good times, but will always have your back during the bad ones. He is one of the most energetic and cheerful people you will come across in the campus. This HIMYM fan, who might have already found his 'The One' is also seen playing volleyball, futsal, and cricket in Hall competitions. Maybe someday this anime lover will get to experience the stardom and Youthhooper's life he has always wanted. We wish him all the best for that.

BIKRAM KUMAR SAHU

116ME0491 #GMAT #Singer #foodie #Lazy #Extra/curricular #artist #GAIL_Guy #heartbroken

Bikram aka Gendu is the very thin, simple, and sweet flag bearer of the Sambalpuri people at NITR. A well saying "voice can paint what eyes can't see" suits our Biku Bhai. He is popularly known for his singing, sincerity, and getting rejected by "One who should not be named". He is one of the most sincere people, be it academics, team ASME or any extracurricular activities - he manages them all graciously. In same context, Biku jaan is the most wanted guy of mechanical department - among girls because he is the most romantic guy and among guys because his presence in the practical groups gives positive energy and enthusiasm to the group members and you can literally hear a hooting from this group members during the group division. One would admire the patience he has and is still not over a particular girl. Though a family guy, he is very hard-working and it clearly reflects in his placement records - initial rejections, consistent improvement, and three back to back placements, GAIL being one of them. This open-hearted friendly manager of BLUESTREAK 6.0 has done fantastic jobs as a leader and that along with everything else that he makes him loved by all friends and juniors. A perfectionist, his passion makes him do every work assigned to him perfectly. He is very sensitive in handling situations especially because of his volatile patience. He is a sweet companion who is always full of excitement. You won't find a lot of friends like him who would call you even one hour before the exams to make sure you're clear of a particular doubt you had asked in the group. ASME 2016-2020, MECH class of 2020 and many other groups would have been incomplete for many of us without this dedicated singer and his consciously sweet English with a Sambalpuri accent.

IPSITA TRIPATHY

116ME0503 #Extra/Curricular #Dancer #Writer #Snail #PakkiJuari

Ipsita Tripathy, a bubbly character with a sprinkle of cuteness and beauty. People often make a mistake of reading Ipsita as a childish girl who is dominating all the time but being friendly and giving a brisk smile even to strangers to having a constant bunch of people who she prefers to call her 'paltan', this sweet girl is going places carrying her charisma. A talented poet who can narrate quotation or poetry on any situation which makes her unique from the rest. A personality with a mixture of tradition and modernism with a soft and kind heart she is a bold public speaker and a crowd puller through her speech reflects the leadership in her personality. Ipsita who is also known as the "snail" does live to her name when it comes to eating and distributing cards. Her melodious voice is god's gift to her as well as to those who listen to her buk buk daily. She has come a long way from being the innocent girl to the first one to understand the kinkiest memes. Challenge her and she will go out of her way to prove just how much of a fan she is of the hit '90s sitcom, F.R.I.E.N.D.S. If gambling (poker game) is a profound art, she is the artist, pakki juari hai. She tends to develop crushes very easily on cricketers, Kohli being on top of her list. A nature lover who finds happiness in tiny packages in life to create, capture, and cherish everything life offers. Hardly saying no to treats and eat-outs, she quite ironically is the one who hasn't even gained an ounce in her college days. Beyond all these guts and qualities, she believes, in this life being mechie is her best chance to serve the world. Hope in the days to come she grows like the thoughts she pens down, bright and successful.

A man who lives in his realm, he has the weirdest body clock out of anyone in NITR, which seems to change often and in unpredictable ways. Allen's most distinguishing feature is his gaming skills. He plays anything and everything, and is capable of carrying himself and his squad through the toughest of lobbies. Usually holed up in his room, which is also his comfort zone, he can be found in virtual gunfights more than the real world. He has no quit in him, unless when insulted to the max. Being the generous geek that he is, his room is the hangout spot from which his friends get to witness all of this. He is also the technical advisor of the Malayali family and is also a member of ASME. This computer nerd is often the go-to guy for advice on phones and computers. Never have his talents proved short of any opportunity presented to him, be it as an artist, a drummer, a dancer, or being a sportsman being some of the explicit talents he has. He is a great orator and a not-so-bad dancer. Perhaps his height and his good looks are what made him the sensation that he is among the ladies of NITR. You will often find a girl or two stealing glances at the strapping hunk under the Banyan tree or on his way to classes. He has also received many confessions and Valentine's Day Cards from girls inside the campus as well as from his home, school, and online. This fanfare, although surprisingly endless, is not entirely unnecessary for someone like him. He is also a great drummer and a national basketball player. Being a hard-working guy, he finally got placed in MARUTI SUZUKI. Member of "Team road runner" in brakes division, Uday can 'Putta' brake to the smoothly running world with his habit of inculcating destruction. He is relatable to the character of 'Deadpool' in this regard. He might be the only person to watch movies using the options, "skip" and "fast-forward". This silent GMAT never underestimates any person around him. Owing to his unmatched craze and love towards the game of PUBG his friends have somehow derived PUB_G from his name. He is popular for his techniques of solving practical bottlenecks. Sometimes he is silent as in a trance and sometimes he shows ultimate energy in his actions. He can be quite unpredictable sometimes but usually, he is silent and innocent. He is consistently one of the toppers in class but never shows any signs of attitude. With immense changes from the first year to fourth, our destruction kid has an unbelievable dedication towards his work. He is a chess player who moves his army with a lightning speed which no one can even notice. He watches old lost Tollywood movies once a day for no reason. We Hope he easily destroys any hardship that comes on his way and evolves victorious every time.

NIHAR RANJAN SAHU

116ME0493 #GMAT #Writer #Foodie #InLove<3 #Dancer #Artist #NAAGUU #Bhaina

Nihar Ranjan Sahu is a "Khanti Berhampurिया" in every possible and interesting way. He is like the brother you always wanted but never had. No hungry person goes to his room and returns hungry. He always has stalks of foodstuff that he brings from home - the ultimate snacks Gods that Berhampur people naturally are. This guy has regular subscriptions of interesting movies. Though belonging to the Single Department of Mechanical Engineers, this guy was the first one in his group to get committed. Stories go around that the famous and dangerous cyclone that hit Odisha during the summer of 2019 was named 'FANI' inspired by his name. One of the best and most helpful guy one could meet at NIT Rourkela. His friends have always been his first priority. Sometimes the sea looks calm from the shore but hides unfathomable depth under the surface. That is exactly how Nihar is - calm from outside but hiding the depths of his sincerity, dedication, and loyalty towards his friends and people who matter to him in the masks of his quietness. He never hurts anyone's feelings and never gets angry with anyone. Among strangers, he is a silent person but in the middle of his people, he pours down his smiles and stories in absolute totality. Having a hater in the entire four years is something highly unlikely and next to impossible for him. He is a big fan of Indian Cricket and Indian Politics. He is a source of all sorts of updates on these topics. A loyal guy who can leave everything else for just one call. He is always ready to help people whenever there is a need and in that matter, he never says no to anyone. Wishing him all the best for his bright future.

GUTHIKONDA VAMSHI KRISHNA

116ME0504 #Guthi #Pottodu #ChaiLover #Sportsperson #Singer #Foodie #gamer #dancer

Vamshi (aka Guthi, lover boy) is best known for his batting style in cricket. No matter what the situation is, he keeps himself and others cool. He never entertains fights. He thinks he is a 6-foot guy but in reality, he is a 5-foot guy. He is a foodie who eats only biryani in every party and never finishes that even. His cover drives are the worst on and off the field. He is often known as savam for his active posture and body language. "Cute boy" coz he is small and most of the branch mates call him so. A huge fan of cricket and gives more importance to playing cricket than anything else. One among the various other Vamshi(s) of NITR, Vamshi Krishna is better known as 'Best Opener' in the field of cricket. Vamshi is a humble soul. He is an avid sports lover. One can always see him near the field or near CVR for mysterious reasons. Famous with the name 'pottodu' for his great height is a perfect offside batsman in cricket. Seems very innocent with his innocent face and introvert nature but our pottodu is a deeply hidden gultie gangster. Even after getting caught red-handed, he tries to cover it up such that even someone who doesn't know him can easily tell that he is lying. He always tries to flirt. A person from Karimnagar who uses his own unique vocab that the others can't even understand. A perfect combination of nervousness and chill attitude in equal proportions. "Little Vamshi" is loved by everyone for his naivety. He takes all the shit life throws at him and beats it with a single smile. His helping nature will outplay everyone on the campus. We wish him happiness and success.

SAROJ KUMAR BARIK

116ME0427 #Foodie #Cricketer<3 #Sportsperson #SilentKiller #InLove<3 #CuteGuy

Saroj aka Sarooja is famous for his name CG (Cute Guy). A vintage movie and music lover has an innocent look but has the dirtiest mind. A serious cricket lover who supports the cricketing genius. This can be easily depicted by the fact that he is a die-hard fan of MS Dhoni. He never ignores playing cricket on weekends. This selfie addicted silent stalker has the fantasy to go to SCB medical college for mysterious reasons. 'Do not think too much and love the thing you do' is his thing. As a player of 'Team MCG', he can bat in any position as it doesn't take more than six balls to get him out. Watching every Bollywood movie and being updated in the latest songs released are some of his hobbies. He has got a special ability to be short-tempered suddenly and making a smiley face just after that. He has a good hairstyle, or at least he thinks he has. His determination and passion to play cricket, ideology, behavior, slight short-temperateness, terrible singing, and flirting makes him different from others. A desperate foodie has a different craving for Pani puri and samosa (of course towards its chilly chutney) and his feelings about food in just one sentence-"It's not hot enough unless I'm dripping sweat as I eat it". One who loves to laugh at his jokes before others understand it and enjoy this eternally. Saroj is the selfie star and male of his group and gives different entertaining poses that are self-invented and bothers others to take his photographs. Hoping for a bright future, we wish he gets to meet his star MSD and climbs his ladder of success.

BIRANCHI DAS

116ME0437 #Binchi #MODEL #LazyAF #DilokaShooter #Extra/Curricular #Filmy #Flirty

Biranchi Das A.k.a Binchi for many has a special inclination towards laziness, branded products, fashion, and sleeping. From funky long hairstyle to setting dressing up in uniqueness this man has ceased the show always. His famous haircut of rupees 1700, is quite famous among the mechanical people. If you need to comb your hair in the class? Don't worry he will have a styling kit but never ask for notes. Bhai Amara Khaata chadiki sabu nianti, a true example of a fashion freak but a person with huge shyness as well. Biranchi Das with the most secretive guy from whom you can take advice related to love life although he is a self-proclaimed single guy. An ultra chill guy has some special sense of humor which lightens the mood anytime any day. One of the mature minds has a special saying "I can convince easily and I can be convinced easily". Carrying the motto "jese tese pass hojaenge", he has been indulged in rigorous online shopping since day 1 at NIT. One of the smartest and the dirtiest mind has one of the beautiful hearts and a job at the Aditya Birla group. An active member of TRR also inactively participates in pantomime. He is probably the only person in NIT who has taken profit of dispensary provision from his heart's content. From a cheerful guy and doing horrible pranks on normal days to suddenly becoming a serious learner on the night before the exam, his B.tech career got summarized. A true legend who can easily turn down the table "ek hi paal mein Wakt Badal diye jazbaat badal diye, soch badal diye". A diehard fan of Odia actor Babushan and commonly known as Babushan of NITR who knows a little bit of dance as well. He is a true friend and a wonderful senior and we wish him the best for his future.

ADITYA KASHYAP

116ME0449 #AK49 #Sportsperson #LazyAF #Flirty

The dictionary falls short of words when one makes an attempt to fathom his personality. Aditya Kashyap aka 'AK-49' is a deadly combination of flamboyant persona and intelligence. Apart from being devilishly handsome, he sings, plays basketball, football, badminton, cricket, you name it. He is also a gifted guitarist and eloquent speaker. Aditya is the definition of a modern-day renaissance man. He has a whimsical sense of humor. He is one of the coolest GMATs you will ever come across in NITR with no visible traces of stress on his face. A fitness junkie and health fanatic in himself, he also urges his friends to take good care of their health. You would never see Aditya worrying about a class test or an interview, he dismisses it by saying, "abey yaar, kuch nahi hoga." A hard-core Arsenal fan or Gunner, he never misses their match. Like any other NITian, Aditya is not fond of mess food. Brown bread and peanut butter, his staple food, helped him satiate his hunger pangs throughout his engineering journey. He has held various positions of responsibility in technical clubs like SAE (team Black Mamba Racing) and ASME where he has always been looked up to for his solid organizational and managerial skills. He has also been an integral part of Institute Counselling Services. He has this thing of getting selected on day 1 of anything, be it internships or campus placements. From interning at Bajaj Auto to getting placed in big firms like ExxonMobil, this guy has set the standards too high for his peers. We wish he keeps succeeding in his every footstep and achieves everything that he sets his sight to.

ADITYA NARAYAN MALLA

116ME0459 #MallaBhai #GMAT #Chai_Lover_Pro_Max #ChickenBanjara #Heartbroken

Aditya Narayan Malla, mostly going by the name "Malla bhai" (also known as mechanical god and bada loka of NITR campus) is one of those gifted souls, who wins everybody's heart for his supportive, kind deeds and loving nature towards everybody. He is the person having the cutest and the most adorable smile that can drag anyone towards forgetting all the pain and heartbreaks. He doesn't like using mobile like everyone else of his generation and loves talking face to face. Malla bhai is simply a very caring and helping friend, who always has your back, no matter what the situation is. This great cook and amazing photographer's love for chicken is so deep and profound that he can hardly go a day without eating scrumptious chicken dishes. He is the most hardworking guy whose journey from ambition to success is nothing less than a dream come true. Along with his flourishing career, he has the coolest ability to make you laugh every time he speaks with his famous dialogue "tama kathabarta kichi thikthak nahin au" (being a fan of natia comedy). As the captain of the Team ZON, Malla bhai led from the front. Whether it's the manufacturing of the solar vehicle or running up and down for clearing bills in SAC, this guy left no stone unturned to run his vehicle in the tournament. No doubt this guy has set standards so high for his peers that juniors idealize him. His frank, familiar, helpful, and pleasing behavior wins him popularity and makes him a favorite, wherever he goes. Source of notes and assignments for his branch, this guy has spoiled the habit of the entire branch. His humble nature and charming smile have won him a special spot in everyone's heart. Well, here's wishing the young man a lot more success his way.

RISHABH PAL

116ME0469 #Scheme #69 #BaalKalakar #Rivu #Ludu_King #socksandsandal #freestyler

Rule no 1. He is not Rishabh. He is Rivu with a 'V'. Mr. Perfect works with full dedication and to perfection be it football, photography, or guitar. This dashing footballer and pro photographer is one of the most friendly seniors one could ask for at NITR. Review Rivu, as goes his creative instagram handle may as well be the cliché all-rounder lead of a Karan Johar movie if NITR was the backdrop. Most often found trotting hurriedly shuttling between SAC Music Room for Heartbeats, LA for Monday Morning, CVR and DTS for football, he is the man of the hour every hour for all his 'commitments'! He is a staunch believer of numerology, ensuring he has the number '69' ruling all sectors of his life. This man of few words is tough as steel (manufactured in TATA) when facing the guts of life. However, those who will miss him the most reside not in the halls but on the streets of the campus. The Pied Piper of NITR street dogs, he has devoted his entire college life towards a doctorate in street dogs' behaviors. An overtly sincere soul with the most savage of replies for every situation, his hard outer shell encloses the softest of spirits. He is multi-talented, humble, calm, affectionate, amiable and compassionate in person & also a valiant, agile, sound, sturdy & strong gift to the football world. Claimed to be calling himself 'buddha', this chilled out, neatly dressed fellow with hair combed like that of a kid can give you shivers through his serious look. With no addictions up his sleeves (NOT EVEN TEA), this cleanest guy in NITR is the daddy figure in all his circles. Though the best in everything, this humble soul gives a sense of home amidst the chaos of college life. All the power to him to be the asset that he is!

SANAPATHI GOWTHAM RAJ

116ME0481 #Cricketer #Booze #Gyanch*d #LazyAF #Artist #Maggie #Dhawan_Devotee

A face with gleaming smile, wearing low-rise pants having a broken display Mi phone, always rhapsodizing about Prabhas, Sikhar Dhawan, and SRH- all these idiosyncrasies clubbed together with a spice of humor give rise to the amazing Sanapathi Gowtham Raj. Hailing from Parvathipuram, Raj - the cricket captain and TRR member, has an alter true-self when inebriated. He gazes at random players playing cricket as one would drool over favorite food. The pacer, no-ball specialist, GPL captain, and Debater, Gowtham is one of the pro cricketers of NITR and almost lives in STSC. He is a pacer from whom you can expect both frequent no-balls and penultimate wicket maidens. Moreover, he is a clarion and TRR member with good academic records and hence a perfect all-rounder. This Chai lover drinks chai after eating biryani! Placed at Aditya Birla and HPCL, he wore a friend's placement shirt as a lucky charm and got placed in that. While every engineering student must have had mid-night craving for Maggie, Gowtham is distinctive in this regard and any of his closed ones know what "Maggie" means to him, food or something else, he undoubtedly loves Maggie. He helps juniors like someone from his flesh and blood. Even if a mountain crumbles upon one's head, he chants 'Lyt-raa!!' and has his tranquillity maintained in all topsy-turvy. Caring in his own way, he has unique speaking skills or speed to be more appropriate. The 'Raj' in his name suggests the spokesperson and leader he is in every gang. A true mechie, he is far away from romance and aims at hitting the (perfect one) directly. He is a talkative, confident, and friendly go-to person, be it academics or about friends, he advises, guides and comforts you the best. Respecting everyone's perspective, he never back-talks about anyone. We hope life treats him the way he treats people.

ADITYA SUBHASIS SAMAL

116ME0494 #BadaBhai #LazyAF #Gamer #Foodie #flirty #InLove<3 #HeartBroken

Aditya Subhasis Samal. This person with two names is a source of entertainment even as he introduces himself. The name itself has the weightage like his personality with a charming smile, a classy look, and a flirty nature. A character having different flavors full of love, emotions, kindness, and helpfulness. This handsome hunk of the department of mechanical engineering can be seen responding on the call of 'ADI CHHODU' and 'COCKADITYA'. Being moody by nature, no wonder he proves out to be the end moment plan destroyer of the group. His secretly emotional nature often drives him to very low which can't be ignored by his people who know that he can easily be moved by emotions and how sometimes nothing can drive him back from doing shit. A true foodie from waking up at 4 am to eat Puri upma at Rourkela station to sleeping at 3 am after taking Allu parathe at HB night canteen. A serious stalker, he can be found mutual in every girl's account (it doesn't matter whether it contains the blue tick or not). He is well known for his swinging moods or you could say mood roller coasters and for his 'Delhi Wali Girlfriend'. His saying 'Abe chal pakhi darshana kari', none of Bluestreak members will ever forget. A helpful and fun-loving senior who mixes with juniors as an awesome friend. A true gentleman with a pleasant touch of chhichorapan which makes him a person with a silver heart that is gold plated. A true engineer in every aspect as he only takes a bath once a week. This extremely alsi guy with all his love for sleep, though mostly late for classes can well manage his love for cricket and chicken and still has a way with girls. We wish him all success and happiness.

ELURI KASHISH VEDA

116ME0505 #GRE #GermanKid #ChaiLover #Flirty #ProxyKing #Foodie #Sportsperson #Gamer

Kashish Veda AKA Veda is one of the most hyperactive people you can come across in NITR. He is relatable to the character played by Allu Arjun in the movie 'Julayi'. He perfectly balances his humor, mischief, and intelligence and has a pleasant way of explaining anything when his labmates face difficulty. Leg pulling seems his favorite hobby especially when the lab group has only one person who can't understand his mother tongue. He has been a part of a multitude of activities ranging from being in the NCC navy to working in Team Roadrunner. This anime fan who loves to play football is a big fan of spoilers and is quite used to getting proposals. "Believe it or not", one of the guys who completes all the anime episode in a streak in the dark of the night. The food critic of the batch, the night watchman, and the gaming partner. The power naps he takes are longer than the whole time he sleeps in the night. The hard work and the planning for his future are inspiring. So worried to attain 8.5 CGPA from the beginning. So desperate to step in abroad. There's no surprise to this fact that this talented researcher with his photographic memory is already getting his works published and is one of the most eligible Mechies to appear GRE or to have a German-based Masters Degree. Remember 'Virus' from "3 Idiots"? Well, Veda is an advanced version of that because unlike Virus, he uses his brain in two tasks at a time! And that too studying and watching movies! As of now he is single and could remain for quite a while until an equally energetic person enters his life. We wish this Telugu talent achieves all the heights he dreams of and well deserves.

ANKIT BEHERA

116ME0428 #Federer #Ankrypt #Sportsperson #F1lover #Gyanch*d

Mandy Hale once said "So you're a little weird? Work it! A little different? Own it! Better to be a nerd than one of the herd!" and it fits well on Ankit aka Roger Behera. While his geeky compatriots call him "Ankrypt", his affection for sports is known to everyone. He lives and breathes F1 and aims to own a company "Behera tyres", producing tyres for F1 races (just joking). His chaotic lifestyle can be fathomed by his room arrangement which is at sixes and sevens and the record of not bathing for a maximum number of days (45 days to be precise) in his batch. A proven multitasker, juggling academics with two heavyweight technical clubs, Ankit has represented Team Roadrunner and Team Tiburon on numerous occasions and won both national and international competitions for his college. He is sometimes found listening to V6 engine sound compilations, rather than English contemporary songs. Towards the fag end of his stay at NITR, he mysteriously rekindled his love for sports and a 'bit' of practice-led him to represent our college in Inter-NIT Tennis competitions. With his jubilant nature, this guy takes jokes directed on him very lightly (pun intended) and has lots of mood swings exhibiting different emotions from him within a fraction of second. At one moment you can find him playing peacefully in his phone/laptop, and in the very next moment, you can find him screaming and throwing his gadgets all over the room. But undoubtedly, his habit of becoming a maestro in everything he takes interest in will take him places. We wish him good luck, to be able to hit an unreturnable serve in whichever field he pursues in the future. Hoping to see him achieve greater heights.

VISHAL SINGH DAUNERIA

116ME0438 #Dauni #Foodie #AllRounder #Sportsperson #Daamdaar #ProxyKing

The only boy in the campus who can be found dancing in front of CVR is none other than Vishal Singh Dauneria. His cheerful heart and ever-energetic mood make people around him feel delightful and happy. Vishal is the 'chhota pataka bada dhamaka' of his department and weighs only '45 kg'. He is one of the best bowlers of the institute cricket team. Vishal, also known as udan khatola, hawa hawai and many nicknames analogs to wind and light-weightiness. This guy is so cheerful that he can lift anyone's mood in minutes with logic and reasoning. From skipping classes after classes to secure a government job, he is successful everywhere. Dauni has a very different essence of Agra that makes him even more helpful at needs, gullible, reliable, and cartoon. He helps the whole branch every time before the exam by sharing the notes of each subject. He is also the 'jugad king', all you need to do is ask. Vishal is an expert in giving the proxy. Being a mechanical guy, he was fortunate enough to find his lady luck in the Life Science department, by the end of the first year itself. He is a huge fan of anime series. He can watch them all day all night without being tired. This is why no one can mimic the anime characters as perfectly as he does. In contrast to his leanness, he is a crazy foodaholic who always carve for sweets of any form. The person who would pass the phone if the other person on the line talks in English is a clown by nature but by sheer hard work and persistence has earned a great package. Fully dedicated to his family he understands his responsibilities and duty towards it. May he have a very bright future with lots of his dreams getting fulfilled soon.

V. SURYA KIRAN

116ME0450 #SuryaBhaiFoodie #ChaiLover #InLove<3

Aka "Surya Bhai" could end in burning flames or paradise, as he is so unpredictable and can do anything at any moment. He can stay up all night to play video games and doze off in all labs and classes. Talking to him is the best part, he can be a film critic and suddenly switch to a philosopher. He can always come up with lame punch lines that can test your patience and you end up in a feeling to punch him right on his face after hearing them. He is not a pessimist nor an optimist, he is a realistic person who believes in numbers and facts. A great badminton and chess player and a big cricket fan, he is more into sports than people believe he is. His contribution to TRR is noteworthy. Being a member of the steering team, his flamboyant and infallible designs has helped his team garner much deserved praise from his peers. He can be referred to as the God of comebacks because he has a punchline for every comment. One can never get bored with him beside because he gives us a lot of reasons to laugh and is also not disappointed with less talkative people because he happily does the talking. He is a perfect example to say your grades don't matter, though he is not a topper he is a talented and a skillful engineer who is a man of steel and got a job opportunity from TATA Steel, a dream company for many people. One who wakes up at 1 am every night just to grab good signal strength for his gaming and finds the classrooms as the perfect place for his sleep. He is an inspiration to all and a person to always remember by. We wish him the best in the days to come.

SUJIT KUMAR MALLIK

116ME0460 #PJ_King #Chhota_Haathi #GMAT #ChaiLover #Heartbroken

There aren't a lot of people in this world who pride themselves on a dope sense of humor. Well, Sujit Kumar Mallik aka "Chhota Haathi", is the king of PJs. When you feel glum and numb, this ultravella has this ability to make it even worse with his poorly constructed puns and he even takes pride in saying that he cracked jokes even with HR of companies, shows his relationship towards his "funny" jokes. Yet he is the most focused and steadfast character one can ever come across. Through his academic career, he has aged like fine wine and has aced all the challenges that came in his way. Be it grinding late nights at the workshop for BMR or waking up early to wrap up assignments. He has executed all his duties with perfection, showing his prowess in managerial skills. The flagbearer of MUN, he worked his socks off during his stint as vice president of the Cognizen club. Bagging internship at Schneider and getting placed at Caterpillar are just the outcomes of his unprecedented perseverance. If you find a guy running around on the campus after class hours as if he were to participate in some marathon, then you probably have seen Sujit. Like some of his other friends, he has also transformed himself into a fitness junk following a strict diet and regular workouts. This sugar-coated humble Odia guy aspires to pursue MBA from a prestigious institute and probably end up as the CEO of "SUJIT Jokes Pvt. Ltd." A person with a silver heart that is gold plated is ever ready to help. We wish this comedian of the Royal Mechies best wishes and hope he reaches new heights every day.

DEEPAK KUMAR PANDA

116ME0471 #Mallu #Pandu #Chubby #LazyAF #Artist #Foodie #Gamer

Deepak Kumar Panda aka Mallu is not a Malayali to be very clear; christened so because of his chubby face. With a decent and innocent look, he is suspected to hide many untold stories. Deepak is always ready with a diet plan. He says he will start practicing once the clock strikes "tomorrow". Well, we all know that it never does. He is one of the few guys at NIT Rourkela who have made complete use of the medical fees paid to the institute with significant interest by frequently visiting the dispensary. This talented and studious Mechie can score better than anyone you name through one-night preparation in the exams. But still, some of his friends accuse him of being a 'Chatur' - studying all day and disturbing his folks all night (which his innocent face won't let you believe). If you google the list of the laziest creatures on the face of the earth, you will find his name at the top of it. He is believed to be so lazy that if the water cooler nearest to his room is not working, he will not even drink water! It's the same quality that makes him ready to bunk classes all the time. For some unknown reason, he searches whatever content he seeks on YouTube rather than looking for them in DC++. With his great knowledge about Mechanical Engineering, Deepak is the OT master during placements. Kind at heart and crazy in making memories, this chubby face has got the Chandler effect because of which he cannot smile for pictures. On the whole, Mr. Panda, like any other Panda has food as the first love of his life. If he opens up a little bit more, he is going to conquer the world of his dreams. We wish him all the best for that!

MOHAMMED RAMEEZ

116ME0482 #LazyAF #Extra/Curricular #Gamer #HeartBroken #Flirty #Booze #Gangsta #Don

Mohammed Rameez, the man, the myth, the legend is the don of the Mechanical department who needs no introduction. With his dark shades and gangsta looks, people are literally scared of talking to him but he is one of the sweetest people to have walked on the roads of NITR once you know him. This MechLad is always ready with extra free advice. Suitable to play a handsome villain, he experiments with his hair and beard and believes that he's the campus trendsetter. He has proven on several occasions that you don't need drugs to get high. This adorable kid who cannot ignore the details of the least important things, can never hurt anyone nor say no to the needy. He is the laziest person, who can spend days watching Turkish series and crying for every emotional scene. Often misunderstood to be serious, he has an exceptional sense of humor. He is always there for his friends and family like a support pillar. An active member of ASME, this shy, introverted guy takes time to open up but turns out to be the coolest person you have around. He is Mr. Steal_your_girl who underestimates his own potential despite all his capabilities. At NITR, he has donned many avatars and had many phases, from being the resident fat guy to being everyone's Rameez Ikka. This huge good looking Teddy Bear is a devout Apple user, a man of culture, and extremely meme conscious in his mother tongue. This perfect Mechie specimen has a knack for doing the right things at the right time. Mostly called as Breez, this fat bundle of joy can irritate you till you want to kill him. This singer can make you hate any song by singing it once. Sleeping all day, he doesn't even get up from bed for picking his order.

@le_mago_de_chef is a model, cook, boxer, traveler, a footballer with a calm, jolly, yolo, and lovely persona that you would love to have in your life. A Barca and Messi fan, this handsome chap is a human magnet and has tons of friends. He is sweet with a heart that is a gold mine. Always supportive about his friends especially in times of distress, he loves to share a good amount of time with them and upon meeting complains about how you have forgotten him and carries out his emotional blackmail. He is often found overdressed for certain occasions as he is a part of a fashion club. Fondly called THAPUSS this man has crossed the limits of being behiyya. Okay, he looks cute and you are allowed to think he is adorable at first, but once you get to know this asshole, you realize how deceptive appearance can be. He loves to be in limelight every now and then for which his foremost prerogative is adventure in life. He has done certain small sweet nuisances to get on the spot. The song Tera zikr and that particular line "mulaqaut yee adhuri rahi muqamal karunga ye Wada raha" has a deep incident that only he and his friends know the story about. Though a Brahmin, he loves cooking and eating mutton. This embodiment of extravaganza is a gym enthusiast and has n number of belts (you will run out of colors if I start counting) in karate and boxing. Be it dropping him at the railway station by cycle or writing love notes before semester exams or having the entire group dressed up in suits, this yaaron ka yaar has made his friends do everything out of the box for him. His overall personality will always make him stand out among crowds. We wish him all the success he deserves.

KARANAM VENKATESH

Venkatesh, fondly called "Venky" is an all-rounder with a great sense of humor and an even greater of style. Talented would be an understatement to describe him. Be it in studies or his hobbies he always tries to push his limits. Be it lab experiments and calculations or any of his hobbies, he is always at his best. There's a Childish and enjoyable shade behind his steel body and serious face that only a few people in his close circle are aware of. This seriously talented bloke is one of the most loved personalities in his department and as well as in the Mavericks. His transition from "The silent Saint in the room" during his intermediate days to "The Fanny Magnet" now has been no less than one hell of a surprise. Rarely do you find someone like him who spends bucks lavishly on his friends the way he does. To help his friends or anyone in need, he can go real far. Apart from his love for cricket, he has a special place for his beautiful handwriting. This Andhra lad who has honored the position of the Vice-president of Mavericks captures most of the hooting on his name from major part of the crowd each time he swirls on a song on any of the NITR stages or anywhere else. With a fit of anger that can scare anyone, a caring nature cased and hidden within, a perfectly maintained sense of style and his light foot, the character he portrays is that of a male protagonist of any South Indian movie. When things of the next level are to be executed, he is the one with a do-or-die attitude and that is what will make him come up with flying colors in the future. We wish our in-house Stylish Star gets all the love, happiness, success, and stardom he deserves.

JAYANT KUMAR BEHERA

116ME0429 #GMAT #SakthLaunda #LazyAF #Gyaanch*d #TATAguy

Jayant, popularly known as "Jayi/Joy", is one of the cleverest creatures Living inside NIT. Often called as real mechie by friends, he can even beat an accountant when it comes to the case of money laundering. He has a special quality of spoiling every group discussion by adding his complete twaddle suggestions. He might look serious all the time but in reality, he has a soft heart and is often shy around others. He has the capability to convince anyone so easily, which us the reason behind almost every professor in mechanical branch knows him well. He claims to have the lowest CG in his group but at the same time, he has bagged the highest package Job, after which his lame lifestyle became a famed lifestyle. He is very fond of Ollywood, Tollywood and Bollywood movies. Be Aware! He is a complete Cuttackia who can make you fool anytime anywhere on whatever the subject is. With boldness, Jayant has handled both NSS and NCC in his tenure in NIT successfully. He has ended his tenure at NCC(Naval Wing) as Senior Cadet Captain(SCC) rank having served for three years. Wishing him all the good fortune for his life.

A Biology freak who got admission to a technical institute and that too in the mechanical branch, this guy regrets every day in the college. Yet getting placed in L&T was a piece of cake for him. Always preferring to take LS open elective, he will pour you up with unnecessary biology factoids and trivia. Chandan indeed is "the thing which explodes but must not be named" (Harry Potter reference) because his entropy just suddenly boosts up with one response. With a bit more naught than his twin, Nilambar bhaina is a foodie and a non-veg lover ready to go eating out anytime he is asked. His first-year illness was a struggle he battled and overcame to evolve with a high soaring CGPA consistently maintained thereafter. This gamer boy is fond of Bollywood movies and Odia songs. Life for him is Eat, watch funny YouTube videos, study, and Repeat. As a person, he is decent and likes to go restaurant hunting. He is completely undistinguishable from his twin brother because of their amazingly identical looks, hairstyle, beard, spectacles, and sometimes even clothes. He keeps himself locked in his room and the key to getting him out lies in a dinner or movie plan. This vibrant and energetic CEO of “Patra Productions” is a huge Himesh Reshammiya fan. Always found with a smile, he is a lovely friend to have. This man of one-liners can make you laugh anytime anywhere. He along with his twin brother has managed to play pranks on many and loves to eat anything new coming to Amul Parlour. It would not be incorrect to say Amul Parlour and DBA day canteen survives on his and his brother's money. He has an amazing hand in photoshop and loves making movie posters with himself as the poster boy and keeps the movie titles as weird as possible some of which are “Badla”, “Zeher” and whatnot. Being identical twins, Nilambar and his brother have confused an entire universe over their identity but for himself, he is crystal clear for what he wants in life.

Which all things start coming to our mind when we hear the word “Army Brat”? Strict, Punctual, disciplined. But for this Hyderabad girl, all these assumptions go for a toss. Being a perfect procrastinator, Bijaya Sethi always has a packed up to-do list for tomorrow which obviously gets postponed again. The innocent girl with double braided hairstyle and plazos, taking early morning baths changed real quick after the fresher year and owing to her transformation, BAJA to LEO, she got numbers of fan followers in every aspect. Bijaya might come out as a “jhalli” girl at first but she becomes compassionate to anyone beside her and will leave no stone unturned to help her peers in need. This forever cheerful girl can gleefully take the blame of spoiling her girlfriends in all aspects, be it with love, care, food, or liquids. This Bro of all mechanical guys who keeps telling them “chill kar” has set her limit to compete with them too and hence this tiny girl made it into a big company named after a tiny creature like her(caterpillar). This “mast bandi” who keeps saying “kaise to hai ye” or “mujhe gussa arha hai” once in every five minutes got many compliments from her branch mates' mothers for the souvenir pics which made her blush. You can get all the information from her about anything which makes her Gossip queen. You might hear her complaining a lot about everything but deep down she's just venting out her frustrations. You'll get to hear a lot of Tippy Bijaya stories, just need to bring out the word and the 3 hrs of lab will fly by. A genuinely sweet person to count on. We hope that this girl achieves everything that her tiny little eyes can dream of in the coming future.

Bikinna Vikas, the very own chaduvu bidda of the mechies. This ISRO scientist is as talented as he is quite. An anime reviewer you can count on, the gaming partner for many, the assignment savior for the entire department are some of the few roles he plays. His hard work and dedication towards studies and towards the acquisition of technical knowledge paid off in the form of one of the most prestigious placements as a scientist at the Indian Space Research Organisation. From the desolations of first year to the determinations of final year, Vikas has shown the different versions of his shy character and ideal behavior. Sources say, dipped in the sugar syrup of friendship, he turned into a sweeter person as well. Despite the ISRO placement, this hotshot mechie still wants to take certain classes – Yes! Anger Management classes, if you know him well you know he needs it. Besides being staunch, he is very particular about his routine – he belongs to that rare species in engineering (especially mechanical engineering) that never takes breakfast without bathing or never sleeps without studying the class teachings of the day! Though a little mild, he is a person of good character. He is an “Otaku”. Always reads manga's and watches anime's. Despite a dream placement like ISRO, he is quite obsessed with maintaining his 9 point CG. With his level of idealness, sincerity, dedication, and especially the respect which he treats people who are senior to him, reaching new heights frequently and making dream-come-true achievements will always be Vikas's cup of tea. We wish this overachiever throughout four years of college life remains this successful every time he steps into the campus as a proud alumnus.

A tall jantu, riding his bicycle, carrying a side black satchel and poker face, that's how you spot Manish Kumar Singh a.k.a VerTeX / Global Elite of esports. Hailing from the landlocked country of Nepal, this stud excels in numerous fields. From music to building cars, he has left no stone unturned to pursue his passion. This heartbeat of HeartBeats is well known for his modesty, ambition, humor, and mood swings. Counter-Strike Global Offensive is a major part of life for this charming and dashing gaming freak who has international records in this field. He is a pro-gamer, a petrol head, guitarist, singer and if you don't know, taekwondo black belt first dan. If he is not playing guitar at SAC, maybe he is getting his hands greasy working for The Black Mamba or spreading smiles for Rotaract. If Stoicism was a religion, Manish would be it's high priest as Calm and Cool are his best friends. Despite being worked to his death on a regular basis, he loves nothing more than vacations or a marathon of gaming sessions from dusk to dawn. His placement story was a first-day first show blockbuster. Often annoyed at 'momo' being called 'momos', this Nepal-ka-pride has for sure been every girl's crush at some point in NITR though his heartbeats sing the name of only one. Don't be intimidated by his straight face when you see him around the campus because Mr. Bajaj is in reality the most caring and gentle person to have around. With vibes that are a natural relaxant, he is like a skittle packet - full of different flavors and personas, all packed into this bigger packet of vibrancy. His gentlemanly behavior and always willing to help out attitude has earned him a special place in everyone's heart. May he shine brighter than the North Star!

Kamal aka Kamala is a very good story writer and is extremely fond of movies. The words from his mouth are next to that of Shakespeare's. Despite having vast knowledge, he keeps himself simple and calm. Kamal never quarrels with others even when he is underestimated. Famously christened Kamlesh amongst his circles, this hidden dancer of The Royal Mechs always gives a tough competition to all the professional dancers when it comes to a friendly dance battle. He always stays excited and full of energy and makes people around him forget the length of time. He can't take it when he loses any chess match to anyone and keeps playing till he beats his opponent like anything. He has the most memorable interview experiences at NITR and talks to almost every HR who visits for placements. He is pretty confused most of the time. He is called a "HERO" because of the way he dresses. Every semester he changes his preference like and starts learning a new subject, which then makes him more knowledgeable than he already is. Dude is pretty talented but every time he tries to explain something, he himself gets confused. Kamal aka Kamli is a sweet silent guy who is a favorite of his Telugu friends. He is always helpful and just one text away from any lab record or assignment that anyone needs. Known as "gulte" by his near and dear, he got the name from his surname which resembles gulte(so the name). He is the one who comes to back us in our tough times. Swaraj Behera, having nickname ATOM and called as ITEM by his friends, sometimes seems to forget what his actual name is. He is known as the schemer of DBA hall and by using his tactics he became the maintenance secretary of the hall by standing against all odds. He does not have any complaint about the quality of the mess food of DBA but Quantity is a problem for him. He is a great example of an innocent and softhearted person. If you are in the mess and you want to recognize him, then you can look for the guy who is repeating the meal 2/3 times and finishing the plate all the time; no wonder you can see how big foodie he is. His love for food matches his love for money; even he doesn't waste a single penny in any worthless thing(as well as many useful things). He is such an entertainer that you will be proud of yourself for being in the friend group as him. From late-night gossips to hard-fought badminton matches, one can easily see his childish nature and freaking behavior. He is the finance minister of his group. Paytm phone pe apps owner should stay away from him. He is a dear friend and will do anything to help his close ones. His transformation from the First year to Final year started from desperately searching and asking his friends to find him a MANDU to having a great MANDU and giving relationship advice to his friends. This guy prefers Telugu movies over Bollywood and can go to great extents for Girlfriend. Swaraj is such a sweetheart anyone will be grateful to have. Wishing this pure soul a great future ahead.

Vishal aka "Gho-se" is a very friendly person who stands on your every odd. The very special quality that makes him different from others is that he never believes in anyone, not even Google. A complete foody who is always ready to give you company at any food stall anytime. Vishal is a dedicated person academically and puts all his efforts into the smallest of tasks. He is an underachiever comparing to his efforts still he remains humble and embraces the little thing he has achieved. A beautiful heart always seeks attention in the group he stays in. Don't be confused with 'Ghose', he has stayed in as many districts in Odisha which often makes him forget his permanent address. Playing video games (mostly FIFA), watching movies, and sleeping are his favorite things to do. It may be the room of MV or DBA nobody dares to enter it, IYKWIM but once you get to know him, he is even weirder. He is probably the only person in NIT who does not have a crush, or is it?. He has a special talent and interest in cricket, which has led to him bowling from any hands (both lefty and righty) because it doesn't matter to him. It directly goes to the keeper. To date, nobody has succeeded in convincing him at anything. But, indeed he is a child from inside and has a soft heart. He is someone who can eat all day and anything. This guy has an in-depth knowledge of the variety of food available in Rourkela and can be a good local guide. We wish this dedicated person a bright future and success in his every footstep.

Although she is quite naïve and innocent, she has a very high IQ, she can concentrate 50 times longer than an average person, and has a killer resume that would make anyone feel at awe. Towards the beginning, she was the personification of an ideal student who finished all assignments on the same day itself but little did we know that she would do so many adventurous stuff towards the end of her college life which are best left unsaid. Her favorite pastime is taking a chai break amid intense studying at the library with a certain 'Mathematics' partner and is most annoyed by her girlfriends forcefully trying to dress her up like a Barbie. Famously known as 'Chikulu' in the mechie group, she is often heard at the Chai Tapri where they hang out after every class. As a part of BAJA team, she is disciplined to her work on clubs too. She is well known for her time management whether it is academics, her club activities or her friends and family. Having the voice of a nightingale when it comes to singing, she is also a very comical dancer. Academic Excellence awardee, 9-pointer, MITACS fellow, Baja postholder, Aditya-Birla, IOCL, and the list of her achievements go on but none of that compares to the love and admiration she has won over in the hearts of her friends. If all human beings were like Ansumita, the world would be a better place. Best wishes coming her way.

Soorya is one of the biggest and tallest Clarion thendi you'll come across. He cracks the best dark jokes and it never gets old. There might hardly be anyone as good as him in editing stories at NITR. Someone that has a true way with words, he played a key role in bringing up Etcetra as the Editor-in-Chief. With a passion for the defense services, once he starts talking, you'll find it hard to get him to stop. Somehow, despite being a little too tall for the normal population, he gives the best hugs. He's your go-to person, be it to rant or to hear the craziest adventure stories of meeting new people or falling of the cycle. Being an amazing writer and will make you fall in love with the words he uses and the flow in which he writes. Even though he is a "Myran" he has skills like none other, all you have to do is put on some rap music and before it gets over he is done writing! You don't fight with people like Soorya cause if you do, then he will attack you so badly with his indigestible words and just bursts off killing the guys within a second. Really good in making up stories which the others actually believe even though not one word that he says is true. After the first five minutes with Soorya, you'll either hate him or can't get enough of him. With an extremely low bar for bullshit, this soul is borderline psychopathic when he lays down the truth bombs. Often misunderstood as an asshole, he's the soft-hearted, warm, caring friend who will probably be the only one around when all hell breaks loose. We wish this savage sweet-heart all the best in the days to come.

DEEPAK KUMAR MAURYA

716ME4131 | #Patriot #GMAT #ChaiLover #Gyaanch*d

Deepak Kumar Maurya is nicknamed Guruji among his friends. He has a very high intellect regarding Indian culture, heritage, and our civilization, along with a penchant for teaching. This hot blooded Bharat enthusiast has an eye for all things traditional and is unapologetically sharp with his thoughts. His hobbies, according to his friends are reading and amassing knowledge about the subject he is passionate about. A reliable friend, Deepak is often the 'Rakshak' (Saviour, in Hindi as he prefers it over Angrezi) for his batchmates, always down to teach people and clear their doubts. His ability to learn and willingness to teach has allowed him to clutch up for his friends, helping them out for learning, cramming, or whatever it is that they're aiming for. He has a very unique take on knowledge, never equating it with Exam Scores or CGPA. But he seems to have his own under control. Possibly an aspiring politician or a Historian who accidentally ended up in NITR, anyone who's saved his number on WhatsApp knows about his boundless knowledge on history. His daily updates on our culture and heritage is a guiding light to his contacts and do not overshadow his unapologetic nature and opinions. Despite being a harsh critic of the historic injustices committed by many towards Bharat, he does not let his opinions interfere with his life. He is also a hard worker and a hustler to boot, never forgetting his responsibilities. Between academics and his amateur teaching career, he has a lot going for him. We wish him all the best for his future.

METALLURGICAL AND MATERIALS ENGINEERING

The squeaky sound when oval magnets tossed in air collided was no less than music to their ears when they were young. There was also the craze of the metallic nibs of fountain pens and then pens with metallic body. As children, they could identify coins immediately just by weight, even international ones sometimes! We all know at least some friends who wore metal wrist snap bands, hiding them if it was banned at school. Here's rejoicing the remarkable transformation of gritty inquiring youngsters to hardworking observant undergrads of the Department of Metallurgical and Materials Engineering.

ABHINAV ANAND

115MM0478 #nawadakahero #coolmeta #anandhianand #Pubgian #Gymnastics #Photography

Abhinav Anand is probably an accurate depiction of the modern definition of a stud. With the swag of a celebrity, our hero from Bihar with his charming persona can win over you, even before you are aware of it. Being a member of Monday Morning and the Cinematics club, it is not uncommon to find him with a DSLR, capturing moments that would last a lifetime. Unsurprisingly, he is a person in demand during fests and events alike with his camera in hand. His photography interests have led him to the world of motion graphics and cinematics. One of the few YouTubers of the college with his videos even crossing 3 lakh views in his channel 'Star Group Production', Anand is also a fitness freak with his regular workouts in the gym. Being the gem of a friend that he is, he hardly ever says no to his friends in need. He is an ideal person to talk to in your distressed times courtesy of his chilled-out attitude towards life in general. Although he might not have a solution for all your problems, his words will definitely help you gain some positivity towards the problem at hand. Adventures and Abhinav would go together like milk and water alongside the foodie inside him. This results in excellent restaurant and travel hotspot suggestions for anyone taking advice on one from him. Alongside everything, we hope this pure-hearted fellow will continue to spread smiles all around him as he moves ahead in his life and career.

JOY BECK

If you ever come across a guy with red headphones who is not paying attention to the crowd at all, you might have just come across Joy Beck. Popularly known as Joey, the Ex-President of Chitraang, his love for colours has failed to come out in the form of his clothes. Pragmatically living at SAC during events, painting graphittie, he is often found snoring away in morning lectures. The forever friend-zoned guy of every friend circle, this laid back guy has never found success with his romantic escapades, one main reason being his rusted and broken robotic dance. He will awkwardly add his peers and juniors to WhatsApp groups that he proclaims to be the Godfather of, but once he makes you his own, there's no getting out of it. You are his tribe and you have a new home. Whatever time, situation, or location may be, Joy magically turns into the joy you need in life. He makes sure that he is always there for you when the rain starts to pour; just like any basic F.R.I.E.N.D.S fan. You can always count on him to tag along to Nottee for a plate of white sauce pasta or to SLR for Biryani Wednesdays but remember, Joey-doesnt-share-his-food. He is the first one in mind when you are out for the most unprecedented and unpredictable plans. He never chickens out from new experiences and adventures, his wanderlust gets you addicted. A typical gourmet, who has an interest in only the most intricate cuisines but only makes coffee. Joy has already set his eyes on preparing for CAT and we wish to see Joey in one of his dream B-schools and hope his thirst for adventure never dies.

BANOTH BHAVANI

Bhavani a.k.a. Maggi is someone who would appear to be the traditional Telugu girl! at first glance. She is very friendly and approachable with a huge friend circle. With a crazy sense of humor, she is known to dish out her famous, 'jabardasth auto jokes'. One can certainly never get bored in her company. Generally found in the library with her earphones plugged in, she can never pass up on an opportunity to eat and her love for Biryani is immense. She spends almost 20 hours a day either sleeping or checking her phone every other second. An ardent fan of Bahubali star, Prabhas, she never wastes her spare time and indulges in Big Boss every season. She is a movie freak and regardless of how obscure or how terrible a film is; if there is a film she will watch it. Try not to be tricked by her innocence and fall into her traps since this drama queen can fool anybody with her acting skills. She has this propensity for uncovering the worst of the worst pictures and make her friends watch them. A livewire in DJ nights she cannot stop herself from grooving to the beats of the melodies but she ends up killing the lyrics when she tries to sing them. With aspirations of accomplishing something incredible for her native place, we hope she works hard towards her goals and achieves them.

ABHISHEK KUMAR JHA

116MM0526 #JhaJi #Philosophical #GMAT #UPSC #Chailover

Abhishek Jha a.k.a. Jha Ji as most of his mates are known to call him, is a very down to earth individual who gets along easily with anyone he meets. He can be nicknamed as the treat-seeker among his friends because he asks for treats at the drop of a hat for every possible reason. But once you decide to treat him, this sweet-toothed boy goes all blushy and awkward with disbelief. His extremely planned lifestyle aptly suits his goal-focused nature. Always ready to help anyone with anything, Jha Ji will take up your call at any time of the day while hopping on his bicycle if need be. He always has had a keen interest in metallurgy. To accompany that is his reserved first bench seat and his clear fundamentals on the subject which has kept him in in the good books of almost all the faculty members teaching him. His knowledge on a vast array of topics makes him good company to talk to almost every time. Contrary to that, unfortunately, he almost always seems to be ignorant about television or any digital media entertainment. He has the innate quality of taking up criticism and improving upon it which no doubt has had a big role in him being much more mature beyond his years. His philosophical side is always ready with monk-like advice for his friends in need. The dedication we have seen in him for his work, as well as life beyond work will hopefully help him fulfil his ambitions with flying colours.

KANDURI SURYA SREERAMA MRUNAL

116MM0532 #Mr.Perfect #MilkBoy #Andagadu #SilentKiller #Mr. Cool

Standing at 6 feet tall, this handsome man has a steady grin stuck to his face. Kanduri Surya Sreerama Mrunal, a man of few words (unlike his name) is a die-hard fan of Rebel Star Prabhas and he emulates him perfectly with his height and charming looks. Mrunal is a bit reserved and interacts with only a few people but if you are in his good books he can be the best audience to your issues and help you through various challenges. A genuine embodiment of tranquillity, Mrunal aka Andagadu (meaning a handsome man in Telugu) never loses his temper and remains composed, whatever the circumstance might be. Lazy AF, he would rather sleep or watch movies than socialize but is seen visiting the gym once a month. Apparently, he is a lady-killer who always dominates group pictures with his looks and girls being girls, queue to get pictures with him. He is the unrevealed crush of many girls, but it is quite unfortunate that their disappointment is probably permanent, at least for now. He loves listening to retro songs, has an incredible playlist, and is a master when it comes to dumb charades. Through the four years we have seen him change from modest and less chatty to gradually opening up and associating with individuals. We wish him luck for what the future holds and hope he becomes the best in what he does.

UDITANSHU PADHI

116MM0537 #cutepanda #organiclove #Meta_Pipers #khaideba #happygolucky #designer

Uditanshu or as he is commonly known by just his surname: Padhi is one of the most popular guys of NITR thanks mostly to his designing skills. No fest, no induction, no event in the last 3 years in NITR has been complete without posters, brochures, 3-D models, animations from this guy. From holding positions in D361 and DesignTab to being the GSec of his hall, this cute, fluffy panda has taken up responsibilities as if it were second nature to him. This happy-go-lucky chap with his evergreen smile is a true gentleman at his soul. A pure entertainer in his friend circles, his sudden one-liners often stay famous in those groups. A true fan of herbal care, this trained swimmer is always ready for a party despite having fixated upon gymming for a fitter and leaner body. Often taken up as a lazy guy; and rightly so, Uditanshu, however, tunes up his performance when the time demands it; raking in numerous hours tirelessly. With an exquisite taste in music and art, his works get prominence during his clubs exhibition: Iridescence, where one can truly feel his love and passion for his work. A down to earth individual, he would always lend an ear to your thoughts and opinions, while pitching in his suggestions at the end if necessary. Not the biggest fan of his own branch, this guy ruled out campus placements as his career option to move on for the civil services examination as to his next step ahead in life.

DIBYA RANJAN SAHOO

116MM0541 #Dibba #Cuttackia #GMAT #singer #Examstress

Dibya Ranjan Sahoo a.k.a Dibba hailing from the city of Cuttack is a true Cuttackia in every sense. Stressed at one moment and relaxed the next, this pogonophiles pendulum-like mood has an unusually high-frequency rate. He loves singing and gets his notes right especially in hall competitions where he has bagged quite a lot of prizes. With a high priority to his studies, Dibya generally is quite serious regarding his studies which gets reflected in his grade sheet as well. He usually completes his syllabus well before the exam dates and is kind enough to share his knowledge like a Messiah with the needy mass right before the exams. However good his preparation might have been, Dibya is generally found calling his classmates in a tensed mood asking doubts to which he almost always has the right answers. With the golden heart that he has, he always makes sure to build a bond to daily workers who often go unnoticed for most of us: the mess servers, the security, the cleaning staff etc. With a clear boundary in his mind between work and relaxation, hard work and persistence are second nature to Dibya, not to forget his always-there-for-you attitude which has helped him keep his loved ones close to him however far they might be. He has always tried to motivate people when the time is rough, giving them surplus amounts of confidence and making them believe in themselves which has made him a favourite amongst his peers and juniors alike.

JAGANNATH SENAPATI

116MM0546 #cricketer #vice_captain #cricket_analysis #jaga #witty

The cricketer of Meta, Jagannath, the second of his namesake in the department, is one of the most down to earth individuals you may find. Jaga, as he is fondly called by everyone, is more probable to be found in STSC than in his hostel. This present vice-captain of the institute cricket team had had to work hard to get into the team in the initial years. But once he was in, he cashed in to become one of the better batsmen of the team. With a sharp cricketing mind and on-point analysis of cricketing scenarios, Jaga is always found wound up in cricketing affairs. With an ability to crack you up with his witty humour and sudden punchlines, Jaga is an absolute entertainer along with being a true apostle of peace and humility. His tasks are usually completed well before time making him a subject of jealousy among his friends who usually still waiting for the eleventh hour to arrive. He is oozing of confidence and that can be verified when someone actually hears him singing the wrong lyrics to a song without any sense of hesitation. Usually very cautious regarding his health, unfortunately, Jaga needs a visit to the dispensary at least every once a while. With an English accent and a desi tadka to it, we hope his life ahead keeps him as a crowd favourite as he is now among us.

ROHIT MEENA

115MM0497 #backpost #ChaiLover #LazyAF #Foodie

Appearances are deceptive they say and Rohit is a perfect example of that. This Rajasthani chhora may fool you with his innocent looks, but he can charm you right away with his humor and dressing style. He is complemented to have a very dark sense of humor, which often hits hard, but he is someone who one can depend upon, in times of need. If you are close to him, he can be the perfect 2 AM friend who would listen to your problems, respect your opinions and come out with the smartest solutions. Always been the maa ka laaddla, he pampers his friends by getting savory snacks and sweets made with lots of love by his mother. However, parties are not his thing, being in his room watching anything he can lay his eyes on in DC, with a blunt for the company is how he celebrates life. He adores his bike and warmly calls it dulhaniya. Rohit has a special attachment with backpost which can be best expressed as, Meenaji ko chai ki Talab thi aur class bunk karne ka Tashan. Rohit faces every problem head-on with a never give up attitude and overcomes anything that lies in his path with hard work. With his indomitable spirit and charm, we sure know that Rohit will reach insurmountable heights within no time.

ABHISHEK BEHERA

116MM0515 #Bapu #AB_baby #GMAT #BotKiller #Meta_Pipers #RCB #darpok #Topper

Every branch has a typical topper who worries a lot before exams but notches up the highest grades in the semester results. It is Abhishek aka AB aka Bapu for Meta. A quintessential introvert, who minds his own business is a fun person to have around. A GMAT who will eat you up with his questions and either motivate you to study harder or demotivate you by the sheer depth of his questions. A nervous wreck by nature, he is so perplexed that his spirit animal might be a padhaku. He is a movie buff who would be unable to sleep after watching horror flicks because of the dreams that would follow. He has had a very short yet remarkable PUBG career where he has held the title of the supreme bot-killer for the squad. He has certain unseeable aspects to him like the wardrobe malfunctions he suffers from with those dreaded low-waist pants. AB likes cricket and is an RCB fan who has stuck to the team despite its downfalls and is triggered whenever someone badmouths the team. It is his ultimate goal in life to strike out the worst PJs, but on a serious note, he is someone who will always come through despite all his paranoia and work his way towards excellence which is evident in his academic records and an internship at the prestigious BARC. In these 4 years, he has changed, from being homesick to seldom going home, from worrying a lot about academics to finally joining Fractal, from worrying a lot to starting to chill, he has transformed.

NIHARIKA DALBEHERA

116MM0521 #Nihu #Chatterbox #gullu #nibbi #gmat #ChickenIsLife #KDrama

A Pandors Box, who has endless tales to tell, Niharika a.k.a. Nihu is perhaps a child trapped inside the body of an adult. She can start a conversation on any little thing and go on and on. This happy kid is a ball of energy, with a smile as large as the width of her face is one of the sweetest people you will ever come across. She is one of those people who will laugh at their jokes even though they are not even remotely funny. A GMAT of the highest order, she would get chills if she does not revise her daily notes. However, chilling a night before the exam after the 10th revision, to buying lip shades and talking about her number of crushes are her highly prioritized hobbies. Her detailed notes turn into The Holy Bible just before the exams for her peers. If she loves you, then she will throw away the name your parents had given you, change your name to Gullu, and will protect you through thick and thin. When this potter-head is not busy reading research papers, doodling and writing are her favourite pastimes. Solitary evening walks with her headphones on are a thing for her. She is someone who will hog desserts every day saying it is her cheat day. With an unmatched dedication for her work, she is so hardworking that she can put an ant to shame, and that is why she has pulled through every ordeal despite the odds. Having planned her career, she dreams of being a researcher and wander in cosmopolitan cities, eating chicken and shopping. We hope during her journey she gets out of the Singleton town and into the couple city soon.

YUDIKA KANDULANA

116MM0527 #nerd #cutest_smile #dolczzzi #GMAT

The name Yudika invokes perseverance and righteousness and there cant be a better name for this caring, patient and innocent soul. Just like her name, she stands out from the rest of the crowd. There are only a few people in college who havent tried to change themselves and this little angel is one of them. Quiet, shy, innocent and introvert are what you would attribute to her. However, hidden beneath that is a bubbly and cheerful girl known only to her friends. Her energetic hellos and waves when you meet her around the campus can certainly make anyones day brighter. Driven by the motto: study, drama, sleep and repeat, Yudika is very sincere in the matter of her studies. Having missed only three classes in the entire four years (Yes, entire!), this girl is a nerd as well. Regular revision of her daily notes keeps her well updated with the subjects. Her grade card rightfully mirrors her hard work, sincerity and diligence. Gifted with the art of sketching, she is greatly exploited by her friends for helping them draw lab diagrams. Her dance steps come to the forefront when there is a DJ on the floor. Even in a crowd, she is quite easy to be found courtesy her pink dressing sense. Gunni, as she is famously called, is, however, a homesick kid who runs off to her home every other weekend. Her forgiving nature, the effort she puts into friendship, her patience, her sing-song voice, the nicknames she gives to everyone are only a few of her admirable qualities. With a very strong conscience and character, this young lady who likes to be called Dolszii with a zzz will never deviate from the path of righteousness.

BANDARU KRISHNA MURTHY

116MM0533 #Flute #GMAT #UNO #BARC #Firstbencher

There is a quintessential first bencher in every class. For our department, he is Krishnamurthy. Almost everyone calls him by his second name, with his first name having prominence only sometimes during attendance in the class. A sincere and diligent student right from the times we have been seeing him, Krishna, as he generally prefers to be called, has never left any stone unturned to improve himself. Assignments, lab reports, exam preparation; Krishna is sure to be ahead of you in everything mentioned along with maintaining a near 100% attendance. It's not a surprise to find him among the high rankers not only of the department but also among the GATE scorers. But it's not all geeky for him as well. He is usually found in the gym early in the morning which probably gives him his usual spring in his step that is felt throughout the day. With an inclination towards music, he is also an amateur flutist. Although given his usual dedication to his work, we assume he shall have mastered it sooner than we can imagine. A true believer of simple living and high thinking, this shy individual has opened up his social gates quite late in his college career. With a cheerful smile, his calm and composed demeanour is very likeable instantly. This is a bonus for him along with his natural skills during presentations which more often than not results in a very satisfying result for him along with a pleasing show for the audience. With discipline as his shield and diligence as his sword, this knight appears to be ready to shine, hopefully as a scientist in BARC as he aspires to be.

ANWESHA PANDA

116MM0538 #GMAT #artist #SingaporeIntern #Topper #Sweettooth #Chocolove

From the city of Angul, Anwesha Panda is the perfect example of beauty with brains. This NALCO girl with her wide array of talents has always kept her academics at the top. From bagging the coveted women of mettle internship by TATA Steel and research internship at Singapore to maintaining a high CG throughout her career, she has always justified her love for her branch; probably deriving from her roots as well. A systematic approach to life with excellent time management skills are qualities analogous to her which are exemplified when copies of her neat, tidy and meticulous notes save most students during exams. Often thought of as a lady difficult to approach, once an acquaintance, her coolness rubs off on you. An excellent artist as often visible in her practical record books, her skills and creativity are always on full display in exhibitions hosted by her club, Chitraang. With an incessant love for desserts, her true love lies with chocolates and ice-cream, which according to her is a hobby. A die-hard fan of Shah Rukh Khan with an adoration for budding actors, this curly-haired girl has a great fashion sense which complements her amazing persona. Always gracefully carrying herself with elegance and confidence, the Miss Freshers of our branch has a tom-boyish attitude on the inside which is evident only to a select few. Wishing this ambitious bird, the very best out there in her life!

A self-proclaimed Mundi, Prakash is looked upon with utmost respect by his peers (by adding a prefix before his name). He has this fetish to take pictures of others and make a meme out of it, but it always plays out the other way round where he ends up being the clown. An enthusiast of the highest degree, he pursues everything to the utmost, be it technology, grooming, or fitness. He has this hobby of online shopping and tactfully fools Flipkart and Amazon that sees him visit Amul frequently. He has an array of skincare, haircare, and fitness essentials hoarded in his room. Found in front of the mirror adjusting his trim, he likes to stay groomed and his room is no less than a beauty parlour that caters to others at the time of need. For someone who sits in class and plays mobile games during lectures, he makes up for it by organizing notes through his network. He has pioneered the Publicity Team that has helped Innovision reach the wider audience and spammed until Innovision was imprinted in your minds. The Inno-Mundi has misused his team by trying to impress girls but has failed miserably. The Cultural & Entertainment Secretary of DBA is truly an entertainment package that doesn't back out from playing the silliest of pranks. From Farewells to Freshers Prakash is always at the centre stage, bearing the qualities of a manager, he has quite a reputation among his friends for organizing impromptu parties. Prakash's exceptional management skills and his interest in the branch have ended up getting him a core job and there's no looking back for him now.

The subtle art of dozing anywhere, Vishal a.k.a. Chotu has mastered it with such precision that he sleeps under the nose of the prof. on the first bench. The Tyrion Lannister of Meta department is blessed with the ability to flirt and wherever and whenever given the chance, this ladies man, will ditch any of his male friends to meet a girl. Not only by his looks, but he also charms people away with his words as well and that is how he has garnered a long list of female friends. NITR has changed him from a GMAT in the first year to the one that arrives a good 10 minutes into the class. This man needs no alcohol to go berserk on the dance floor and his moves on Chikni Chameli are quite the show. This multi-talented being is a true Sharmaji ka Ladka in the sense that he has managed everything, he has put his hands on. Possessing excellent communication skills and adept at convincing people, the PC proved his managerial and leadership skills efficaciously during his stint in the Placemnet Committee. Vishal has taken his fitness to a whole new level where he had started developing slightly feminine features in his initial days, and that's why he spends warming up the entire time. Sensible, sensitive, slightly sissy but with a striking personality, Vishal is the go-to-person for any gossip, hangout, or even lifesaving advice on career or relationships. Having sound technical knowledge in Metallurgy and Materials Engineering he aims to succeed in his core discipline and considering his passion and grit, we have no doubt he will.

BODDEDA SRAVANI

116MM0510 #Cutie, #savs, #Chotu #numismatist

The girl wearing a perpetual smile, Sravani is a girl with a beautiful heart and a pure soul. A true friend who would lend an ear to everyone, she is a graveyard of secrets for her friends. Although she hails from Vizag, her wide circle of Odia friends has made the language understandable for her. She has a very good fashion sense which complements her love for candid pictures where she tires out the camera battery before a good picture is accepted by her. This numismatist has a great collection of coins (even antique) which definitely adds charm to her room alongside the numerous self-made paintings that add décor to the empty walls. Those beautiful artworks proudly flaunt her significant growth with a brush in her hand over her college time. Nicknamed Savs, Chotu to name a few, Sravani is also a big foodie who also cooks mouthwatering dishes which has made hostel life bearable for many of her friends. Even with the sweet tooth that she has, she never forgets about her fitness. She is a regular face in the gym while not neglecting her yoga too. Indian history and mythology are two of her favourite topics to read about, especially in the class where she meticulously times her start and end of a topic with the period timings. Her choice of songs is unsurprisingly soulful classical melodies amidst the general trend of modern remakes in everyone's music playlist. Known to her close circle of friends, this minion is a very hardworking and determined individual concerning her goals going on her merry way towards her dreams without faltering even during unfavourable circumstances which might deter even the toughest ones out there.

BIMAL KUMAR BEHERA

116MM0516 #LazyAF #HostelChef #BoloJubanKehsari #SleepyForever #dranzer

In every branch, there is one guy who will always end up being thrown out of the class by the professor. And Bimal has always been that guy but without any fault of his at all. Despite how attentive he may be, how sincerely he might be trying to jot down the notes, his forever sleepy eyes will end up giving him away. A Rourkelite who is always seen on his Pulsar on weekends is also a gaming junkie, goes by the game-name dranzer and he has tried every kind of game out there. He has a very active lifestyle with a slightly unfit body that has led him to fracture his leg twice while playing badminton but his love for the sport has always brought him back to the court. One may miss to notice him due to his subdued demeanour or due to his lackadaisical nature to keep lying in his room, but once you get to know him, he will be the perfect Sonu to your Titu. Rumour has it that he falls in love with every other girl he sees, and has the kaccha chitta of every couple in NITR. Bimal has been waiting for the one since long but hasn't realized that he needs to get one first, to reach the one. A musicophile who is a walking playlist of classic romantics can give even YouTube a run for its money. Bimal is a hostel chef who can conceive savoury dishes out of the humblest of equipment in his room. You can never go hungry or bored in his company.

PRABHUDANANDA DAS

116MM0522 #bob #GMAT #MrPerfect #Meta_Pipers #ShakhtLaunda

Prabhudananda or simply Prabhu is probably the calmest and coolest person in the department. With an intelligence level probably matched by only a select few, Prabhu aces exams pulling all-nighters just before the exam date and yet finding ample time to teach his friends a thing or two during which he displays his unique teaching and learning skills. With minimal preparations, but supported by his fantastic learning abilities and clear fundamentals, he has been able to maintain a high CG throughout his college life. A very humble personality, Bob, as known in his close circle of friends is a perfect example of Talk less and work more. His mature mind helps him deal with pressure and tense situations in a very efficient manner while at the same time handling responsibilities far beyond his age. Almost appearing emotionally distant on the outside, he, however, is very close to his friends. Valuing his friendship over anything else, he is always up for a game of cards, monopoly, carrom or badminton even at the oddest of times. Prabhu is always there for his friends even at the toughest of times standing by them at the very least as a support system. His love for Bigg Boss is evident when you catch him watching the show even the night before an exam for which the students would be toiling hard behind their books. Being a localite, it is unsurprising to find him missing during the weekends. With everything being said, it is a well-known fact that this genius is not easy to be competed with and with a seemingly large untapped potential hidden within him, we hope he brings out the best in him to soar onto untouched heights.

BAIBHAV KARAN

116MM0528 #greatest_laugh #GMAT #Moviefreak #Flirty #Foodie #Meta_Pipers #EuropeIntern

Baibhav Karan is probably most distinguished by his laughter that can bring a smile upon your lips even blocks away. With a bold and confident outlook, Baibhav never shies away from speaking out his mind. Rarely able to control his laughter, his cheerful vibes would most certainly sparkle itself onto you. This Mamas boy has always given attention to his studies which have been fruitful to him. Maintaining himself amongst the toppers of his branch, Baibhav is well known amongst his faculty members owing to his knowledge of the subject as well his outward personality: a fact which he utilises well for his hostel mates. He has bagged internships at coveted institutes both in India and in Europe which he, as he says, were utilised for fulfilling his travelling goals. His favourite recreation would definitely have to be movies. There would hardly be any that he wouldn't have seen. Starting his hostel days as a pure vegetarian, presently he would be adjudged as a total opposite. The party lover that he is, there is always a yes from him for any plans on the weekend night. Unlike most of his hostel mates, Baibhav has a clean, tidy and maintained room which speaks volumes of his personality. From bathing as early as 5 AM even during winters to washing clothes more frequently than even the Dhobiwala comes, Baibhav takes his cleanliness and well-being with utmost sincerity. The reliable and trustworthy friend that he is, along with his positive surplus energy which always comes as a bonus would definitely have a big influence in the way his career shapes up.

ALOK RANJAN NAIK

116MM0534 #Sambalpuri_Dada #Man_Of_frustration #Shy_guy #Badminton_guy #Vedanta_man

This Sambalpuri Dada is a straightforward person, with a simplistic nature who treats everyone with the utmost regard and that is visible from, his way of speaking. He had always been serious about his career and that shows in work he puts into his academics. Being fitness-conscious, he works on his body to stay fit and follows a strict diet. His kind of sincerity is rare among the masses. Having a bit of temper, he gets frustrated over small things easily, and he gets rid of it on the badminton court hitting smashes one after the other. When not studying or completing assignments he likes to chill playing table tennis. A genuine mama's boy, he never lets an opportunity go by to visit home (almost every weekend). A bit shy with the opposite gender, but friendly with everyone he knows, he can shock you with his extreme frankness that is directed at your betterment only. Sincere, hard-working and obedient are some qualities that describe him the best. We wish this ambitious lad a future full of glory and success.

PRIYAM PATTNAIK

116MM0539 #Fitnessfreak #bikelove #Meta_Pipers #photography #gamer

Priyam Pattnaik is the gym freak of the department, who even with his multitude of talents remains subtly anonymous, probably due to people assuming him to be an introvert thanks to his habit of not speaking much. He religiously goes to the gym to maintain his body which has borne fruitful results for the current gym captain with him bringing in laurels for the institute in powerlifting in different competitions held across India. A true lover of computer games, there would be hardly any that he hasn't played on his personally configured laptop. This adventure lover is always up for any getaway, preferably on bikes, as they immediately follow gyms in his love list. An avid photographer as well, his skills with his DSLR has made him quite popular especially during fests and events. With most of his attention devoted only to the food in most parties, he is often on the wrong side of some resentment from his friends. He generally takes things quite literally and figuratively, ignoring the pun intended in it and thereby adding to the resentment mentioned above. With a reversed sleep cycle during exams, this lad is able to ace his exams only with a night's preparation which speaks volumes of his ability to learn. Although generally found to be expressionless, he is generally found to be confessed upon in online social media as a crush of girls. His expressionless face often leads his peers to think him to be emotionless as well. However, as confirmed by his close friends, he is quite the opposite. Wishing him fitness freak the very best for his future and we hope his gym antics remain as a motivation to his colleagues and friends.

SOUMYARANJAN SAHU

116MM0544 #Chaman #Gyanchod #Gamer #HindiGenius

The Chaman of the Meta department, Soumya may look like a shy person and introverted at first glance. His Hindi speaking skills will force you to question your understanding of the language. This Odia Toka is known for his mischief and deals in slangs instead of actions. An extreme cricket devotee, he could argue on anything cricket-related and go on for several hours. He believes that the worth of a person is not decided by how he scores but on how they can handle real-world situations. Soumya is a very humble who never boasts of his achievements and continues progressing towards his objectives. He fantasizes about being a business big shot and earns loads of money. He has a certain love for Mathematics and that shows in his excellent solving abilities, and he is one of those engineers, for whom night outs actually work. Addicted to games, he is the Pro-est of the Pros in COD and Clash of Clans. We hope he succeeds in his life and achieves his entrepreneurial goals.

His happy smile and cheerful demeanour rub off on people and even his mere presence can make people happy. Living a life sans intoxicants, yet he had gotten addicted --- to Amrutanjan, so beware before suggesting any product to him. Having watched a plethora of movies and series, his suggestions more often than not, end up being an interesting watch. George R. R. Martin, Dan Brown; you name it, this bibliophile has consumed every book he has been fascinated by. Owing to his oratory skills, he is a master storyteller and you can never have a dull moment with him around. Inside this cheerful guy lives an astute person who is mature far beyond his age, and provides a portal for his close ones to uncover their most profound emotions. KUNAPULI SUSMITHA

116MM0511 #sushu #ChaduvuBidda #Bookworm #Studios #Pre-Planner #sassy

Sushmita a.k.a Sushu is one of the most studious students in the department. Photocopies of this bookworm's neat and meticulous notes are present with almost everyone during exams as a saving grace. Usually found in the library, this fast learner doesn't hold back when teaching her friends just before their precious exams. However, any group study session with her would require you to have a good stronghold of the fundamentals of the subject, else she would remain streets ahead of you. Her oratory skills are on full display doing ample justice to her regular membership in the club 'Hourglass' while her technical knowledge helps her club Udaan. A movie buff with weekends generally spent watching movies tirelessly for hours, Korean dramas still hold a special place in her heart. However, she is not to be disturbed while watching series or movies likewise unless one wants to face her rare displays of anger. Her unique dress sense with her skinny appearance is well complimented by her Rapunzel-like long hair. This strong and stubborn lady is a workaholic as often suggested by her peers as she often takes the long road, if necessary to achieve her dreams. Efficiently managing her emotions, cravings and feelings, she never lets anything hinder her march towards her goal. However, even during her busy and workaholic work schedule, she never forgets to find time for her friends. She has a mature head on her shoulders which is well beyond her years; usually confirmed after her counselling, motivational sessions.

JAGANNATH BEHERA

116MM0517 #Jagan #Foodie #InLove<3

Hailing from the land of "Mudhi Mansa", Baripada, Jagannath a.k.a. Jagan is a foodie himself and has never turned down any requests from his friends for treats without any reason whatsoever. Everyone needs a Jagan in their lives. He is often late to the class and his ability to soak in the Professors rant is phenomenal. He has this habit of laughing at the most serious situations, that have often put him in unfavourable state of affairs but most importantly, that has also helped him face the toughest of ordeals. He is very shy when you meet him the first time but turns out to be a packet of mischief that will explode once he gets comfortable. He likes to try out the different games on Facebook and is very active on social media and his captions are a treat to read. He often used to say that if he did not get placed anywhere, he would become a tutor, earn money and enjoy but that was not to be, he has bagged a core job in the TS-BSL. He has never complicated life and that is what inspires us. He has always been working hard, whatever the field may be and results speak for that. We hope he spreads this same positivity to wherever he is headed next.

ANKITH GUMPULA

116MM0524 #Bunny #Oonkith #cricketstats #Kohlifan

Ankith Gumpula is unquestionably known for his love of cricket above everything else. Bunny, as he is nicknamed, is a cricketing encyclopaedia of the games stats and facts. This ardent Kohli fan who would defend his idol at all costs isn't just a cricketing nerd. Rather his skills are also on display on the ground as he is regularly seen in the cricket grounds practising hard to hone his skills and convert them into fruitful results in the matches he plays in. Ankith is a secretive person who hardly confides in anyone. Apart from the case of any cricketing reason, he is generally a late riser; typical of most engineers, courtesy late sleeping habits. Hailing from South India, he treasures his family a lot but even though his mother tongue is Telugu, he is surprisingly not very free with it. With a bit of lack of patience, he is sometimes interpreted as a short-tempered guy. But on the contrary, his affable nature supplemented by an understanding and generous heart makes him a true gentleman who always stands by his friends when the time requires him to be. With his excellent managerial skills, he has held the post of treasurer of the club Hourglass with pride and taken them to new heights. Not being restricted to his club only, Ankith has held crucial managerial posts in various fests of NITR fulfilling his duties efficiently and successfully. With his ambition set for higher studies, we wish him great luck for his future; with a little hope that his cricketing genius would one day be out for the world to see as perhaps the next Harsha Bhogle? Maybe, who knows?

VIKAS KUMAR MAURYA

116MM0529 #GMAT#ChaiLove #Singer #Flirty #Sober

Humility, simplicity, punctuality, and diligence are the traits that define Vikas the best. Hailing from the holy city of India, Varanasi, Vikas greets everyone with a genuine smile. A GMAT to the T, who is always on time to hoard the first bench, unfazed by even the most boring of the lectures, he expends most of his energy into reading course-specific books and has devoted himself to the branch of Metallurgical and Materials Engineering. Optimistic by nature, he has never let any opportunity pass by. Whenever there any time left on his hand, he transcends into a cinephile who can binge on Hollywood flicks for quite a long time. Unknown to many, he is quite a singer himself, humming tunes in his room. Sober to the bone he has never even dared to smoke or drink, this person rarely roams around but celebrates every festival with the enthusiasm of a child, especially Holi. He is the go-to person for all his friends in times of need due to his selfless and supportive nature. Never trying to boast about himself, he is a firm believer in "Simple Living and High Thinking". With everything going in his favor we hope, he succeeds in all fronts of life.

GONDU NAVEEN

116MM0535 #NagoBhai #CyborgMundi #InLove #backpost #Meta_Pipers #Organic #suttaforlife

Gondy Naveen aka Nago Bhai is a diamond sparkling in the dark depths of an iron ore mine, who is mostly found flirting with an Arduino here and an algorithm there, is one bird different from the flock. The official Mundi of Cyborg the President is a robotics genius with a plethora of knowledge in web development, electronics, Machine learning, and whatnot. His commitment to Cyborg is nothing short of exemplary. His association with the library for learning newer concepts is what cannot easily be fathomed, and perhaps it is the proximity to the Architecture department, that sends the sparks across his neurons. Naveen has been part of technical teams in the college events owing to his, his analytic skills and he has a certain Midas touch that works whenever he is in a pinch. His projects are his babies, which most often than not end up as learning material for his club members. Gondy Bhaiya as he is affectionately addressed by his juniors is very poor at scolding and ends up laughing himself while addressing his juniors and most often than not ends up throwing parties to them. His hate for milk and its products is genuine and his love for pizzas but hate for cheese is very weird. His generous nature and his linguistic abilities and more so his creative slangs have helped him bond with a multitude of people throughout the institute. A regular pilgrim of backpost and sidepost, Naveen is a magician who can concoct ardent spirits just out of water and few other addenda and he is at his mental best emulating Mahadev day in day out. This rasagolla of a person, with a heart as large as a terabyte of memory chip, can awe anyone and climb the ladders of success with his prodigal intellect.

PRUDHVIRAJ POLA

116MM0540 #Pola #Daddy #HOD_of_Meta_Department #BBB #Polika #Foodie

It is sad for someone with a grand name of PRUDHVIRAJ to be called Pola, not only by his peers but by professors as well and it seems everyone has forgotten his first name. Pola, Polika, Daddy, Pola Olaa, and the HOD of the Meta department are a few of his nicknames. He may look like this big serious and grumpy person but his round face and the enormous smile is something that can lighten anyone's mood and if you know him well you must have heard the hysterical laugh he is well-known for. Inside this cuddly bear of a person, lives a child that is bitten by the detective bug and who is always on a cloak-and-dagger mission to get to know about his best buddies. Daddy with his curious questions, will get to know the secrets anyhow. Having the memory of a robot, he remembers everything, no matter how old the event may be. He is always the first one to make plans but ends up dropping them eventually due to two of his friends. This BBB can go on eating almost 6 times a day and exercise has never found a place in his busy routine of food and study. This bookworm is in the good books of most Profs and fears missing classes but is a saviour during exams. Pola can be described as a big innocent guy with a bit of mischief and a pinch of sarcasm. We wish our caring and loving friend success in his future endeavours.

LAVUDYA SAI KIRAN

116MM0545 #Maggi #Lazy #NoHaircut #Bike_Dada

Every class has that last bencher who you look at during exams and ask yourself, Am I in the right room. Lavudya Sai Kiran would most definitely be that guy. In other words, his presence in the class (especially with a copy) is a rarity, even with a prominent disregard for time-management. The first and foremost thing that his close ones notice about him is his love for his bike or his Dada, which is well known in his circle of friends. With an unending appetite for travel, he has seen most of Rourkela utilising his holidays or bunked classes to the optimum. Sai Kiran, is a very popular face amongst his juniors and as often mentioned by his friends he probably has more acquaintances with security guards of NIT than the guards have among themselves! Seeing his unkempt, unruly hair that can go on an uncut spree for months, probably due to sheer laziness which probably spills onto his other activities as well, it is hard to imagine the tidiness that is maintained in his room throughout the year. Almost tending to an OCD, room maintenance is one of his utmost priorities which he never fails to live up to. His shy nature compliments his kind and gentle nature. A trustworthy guy, he is the ever-present fellow in the time of need of a friend. With a special knack for daydreaming, Maggiã, as he is sometimes called owing to his curly locks, is a true connoisseur of Sakht Launda, with him sometimes even limiting his co-passengers on his bike to boys only. We hope he confidently marches ahead towards his dreams and lives life to the fullest.

SARELLA MOHAN VIKAS

116MM0549 #politician #backpost #actor #frog_lover #sleeping_king #Foodie #LazyAF

Mohan is a man of many shades and each shade of his sly nature comes out depending upon the situation. This handsome hunk is a bit introverted in real life yet he flirts pretty well on social media. His tendency keeps him from talking about his issues that may prompt abrupt explosions of frustration occasionally but he is cheerful most often. He is known for his notorious way of hitting his friendsears, which is often irritating. A Puli (tiger) in front of his juniors, he is a Piliã (cat) in front of others. He might falter in arriving on time to class to grab the last bench but he never faults with the timing for backpost. A good volleyball player, he has a vast playlist of songs that he keeps on listening to and loves Hollywood flicks. He loves posing and photoshoots so he sweet-talks his friends to go for them on trips across Rourkela on weekends. Even though he is a horrible dancer his dance on Otilias songs is remarkably entertaining. Having a special spot for Bullets in his heart, he dreams to have one, at some point. An easy-going, soft-hearted, generous, and well-mannered person, he is a friend you would want to have in your good and bad times. One of the coolest and craziest people you would come across and an awesome company.

PRATIK MOHANTY

116MM0513 #Zandu #treatseeker #nibba #nibbi #nigga #chaislife #GMAT

Pratik Mohanty or as he is famously known amongst his friends and in his department as Zandu is one of the most dedicated and hardworking students of his department with very prolific fundamentals of his departmental subjects which were reflected in his GATE results. He works diligently to get his work done in the most efficient way possible; often unknown to his friends and peers. His presidential position in ASME is well justified by his technical superiority, sound leadership qualities and prominent management skills; for all which he is well respected among his peers and especially juniors. Nibbas and Nibbis are what his friends are famously called by him with nigga being slipped into the dialogues at regular intervals amidst his jokes which many a time sadly don't receive a response. Often seen asking around for treats for the most absurd of reasons, it would be a dream if you could get one off him. Usually found sermonising others on about the goodness of being single, ironically his actions have also been described as a contradiction to his sermons. Our strictly vegetarian friend is a foodie and a chai lover by heart who would prefer a cup of chai over a cappuccino any day. Alongside everything, he always has been a doting son, prioritising his parents and family over everything else. Often misjudged in his first impression, Pratik is a caring and kind soul with an appealing personality who understands situations in a very mature way and handles them in the ablest way possible.

RITWIK BEHERA

116MM0518 #RichieRich #Brandedguy #leave #Meta_Pipers #newsem_newphone

The Class Representative (CR) of the class Ritwik Behera, however, is the guy found more often in his room rather than in his department. His rare visits to the class are fuelled by leaves approved by people who surprisingly do not remember his face even after such frequent visits. He is a big-time foodie who loves chicken so much that he might get jealous if someone eats more than him. This mama's boy is a lover of chocolates as well and brings in a bag full of some of the exotic ones to share among his friends. With an overfull wardrobe that is shared by all his friends, Ritwik's gadgets stay updated throughout the year. With a phone a year policy, Ritwik is difficult to be matched in his up-to-date gadget world part of which is influenced by the justification of his title given by his friends: Richie Rich. His hostel room is always found to be over-occupied with people playing numerous types of card games and as they call it: The Gamezone. This optimistic chap who speaks so fast that he often ends up eating up his own words is the go-to person when someone actually needs something. Always being there through thick and thin for his peers, Ritwik never lets anyone feel his absence when the times get tough. His confidence and integrity have always helped him lead the way as the class representative which shall definitely lead him onwards and onwards.

PRITHVI MOHANTY

116MM0530 #Homesick #Insta #Carlove #EuropeIntern

Probably the most homesick guy of the Meta department, Prithvi Mohanty is a guy who on most weekends and holidays is most certainly to be found at his hometown, Bhubaneswar. His Counter-Strike addiction has hampered his sleep schedule turning his clock upside down. Known to be a very spontaneous person, most of his decisions come at the last minute making it a dash for him to the finish line. With a chilled-out attitude and the tag of being a playboy, Prithvi has a tight and yet large circle of friends, outside of which he rarely ventures into. KATHULA PADMA NAYANI

116MM0536	#latecomer #slowmotiongirl #clealinessfreak #noyoni #lazy #maathaa

Padma Nayani is quite simply famous for being the coolest late comer to the class. The nonchalance with which she would enter the class and take up her seat is a thing to behold not only for the students but more so for the prof. Maathaa, as she is commonly addressed by her peers, is a beauty freak with an ever-absent mind. Seemingly unworried about the world revolving around her, she goes by her work at her own pace. It wont be a far stretch to call her the connoisseur of the saying slow and steady wins the race. Being calm in any situation, even if the world falls apart (I am probably not even exaggerating) is a trait which probably comes way too naturally for her. All this comes along with an obsession for cleanliness in her. Appearing quiet and gentle on the forefront, at times her temper, which is a rarity, is enough to crush you. Probably as a hobby, Nayani, or even Noyoni for some, is a good cook as well with her dishes remaining a crowd favourite among her friends. At times of distress, she is the one you need to go to, for she would console you calmly with a patience level of that of a Zen master. With knowledge on such a wide array of topics, she is a person with whom long conversations would seemingly be tireless. This beautiful long-haired, photo obsessed girl is full of positivity and charm which definitely would rub off on you. In a world where everyone is rushing around to get their last-minute jobs done, Nayani unabashedly goes against the tide, getting things done in her own merry way.

Very proactive when it comes to impromptu plans and one must not be fooled by his innocent looks because he is a master manipulator who can sway anyone to go along with his plans. Beer is his life and he has a very hard time surviving without it for long. A horrible dancer as he is, he can kill anyone with his dancing prowess. His love for Shahid Kapoor is unparalleled, as seen from his constant Facebook DP. With a sense of humour on a completely different level, be wary, as he has mastered the art of cracking PJs nonchalantly. A football fanatic, whose obsession for Messi is such that, he will only score goals with Messi while defeating you in FIFA. When not partying or gymming he is most certainly, busy in solving problems on Hacker rank. Despite his easy-going attitude, he has struck a perfect balance between coding and Metallurgy. A natural conversationalist with a childish persona he can be a very fun person to have around. We hope he scales all heights of success with his perseverance and he never runs out of beer.

AYUSH SINHA

The last roll number of the Meta department belongs to this friendly guy with a heart-warming smile on his lips most of the time which might increase your serotonin levels multi-fold. Usually found with his headphones on, even teachers get curious over his attachment with the wired headsets. His unprecedented love for music is evident in every performance of his band HeartBeats where his violin speaks volumes of his skills in the art. It won't be wrong to say the SAC music room as his primary home rather than his hostel. With his share of moody blues mostly due to his overthinking capabilities, situations are often over magnified in his imagination. His love for anime and fictional series is always proclaimed loud on his t-shirts, slip-in quotes and most probably his famous yellow umbrella. A proud NCC cadet, a uniformed Ayush is always found to be at the forefront during the national days at parades and the flag hoisting. Ayush has always been a constant support for his juniors which has led him to be one of the ablest and most understanding mentors at ICS. A true metallurgist by heart and as often proclaimed by him: a rare Indian metallurgist by choice, Ayush is well into a career path in the treads of his branch fundamentals.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY

The unexpected spin of Kumble and swing of McGrath which bowled even the best of batsmen were admired and tried by many. And it all boiled down to spinning techniques which we grew up to study in Physics. The pens knocking out of the desks during a pen fight, pocket lasers to shine the light on a distant building were some intriguing phenomena observed back then. Those science exhibitions with working models of solar systems fuelled their curiosity. Here's celebrating the intuitive and curious folks who turned to be the pragmatic and hardworking physicists of the Department of Physics and Astronomy.

CLASS OF 2021

SOUMYA PRAKASH BEHERA

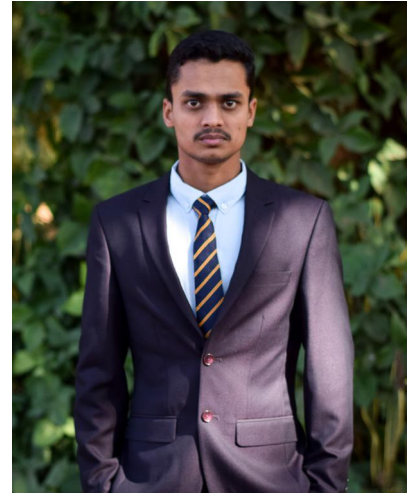

416PH5041 #Gaba #GMAT #Bookworm #sleep

Fondly called "Gaba" and "Dala", this guy is undoubtedly someone who you'd want to be friends with for a lifetime. The ever-smiling person with love for mathematics and the universe is in a constant search for gaining knowledge wherever and whenever possible. He is that friend who will help you in the last moment before your exams to make you absolutely well prepared. His explanation and mode of teaching to his friends are sublime and way easier to understand than going through 50 slides in a presentation. With his strategical approaches like roadmaps, checklists and planning, success isn't difficult. If you ever feel in need of motivation, his words of gyaan will undoubtedly lift you up. A pure research fellow with a corner in his heart for PUBG, he is a calm and composed guy who also is a pro at Rubik's cube, juggling and sudoku. He's aptly described as Rancho from 3 Idiots (the Bollywood movie). Some people don't get a night's sleep and then there is Soumya who loves sleeping so much that once due to oversleeping, he had to be admitted to hospital (he missed entire day's food and hence was low on glucose :p). If you ever want to hang out with him plan in advance as he can vanish the moment you search for him. On other occasions, he is found in one of the three places - his room, the library and the classroom. He's the guy who can get more precise reading than the professor in the lab and force his batchmates to take experiments seriously. We wish this GMAT the best for his career.

PRITAM KUMAR BISHEE

416PH5043 #THEGREATBISHEE #PUBG #saktLaunda

Pritam's name has been replaced with "THE GREAT BISHEE" because of his helpful behaviour towards others. With a skilful personality, he loves to work hard and push the limits. If you ever need help, he's there for you. He aspires to be a businessman who firmly stands by his words- "I am born to rule the world" and calls himself a 'Lion aka Sher'. With his mind-blowing driving skill, it is a wonder how he escapes accidents. Even with such a fierce personality, he trembles in front of a camera, in an attempt to have a fake smile for the camera, he ends up making a horrible face. Always comes ahead without any hesitation to help out his friends in the night before exams to make everyone understand the concepts. His preference for taking a study break in a 5 minutes power-nap is the secret of his grades. He is an alarm for the roommates to wake them up so that they are not late to the class. PUBG is his part-time hobby, and he is a master in that who leads his squad to victory. We wish this fierce sher of physics department all the adventures in life.

ABEL MATHEW

416PH5047 #DesignrKnight #Knowall #Overachiever #Leader #CodeDesign #MMTC #SACGod

Hiding behind a lean iconic frame, dimpled smiles, and an ever so calm look, all one needs to hand him with is a long umbrella and this versatile Keralite would rock the look of a perfect gentleman. Embarking the freshman year with a fine-nine on the grade sheet, it didn't take much for this Physics maestro to rise as the Jack of all trades amongst the NITR populace. Acing his contribution in DSC and OpenCode, this technical Co-ordinator of Monday Morning kept improvising the technicalities in all tasks headed by him. Having magnificently taken on his shoulders the management of Innovision and Roots, there's hardly any event of the institute where Abel and management don't go hand in hand. No wonder how Mr. Know-all managed every single day hustling to and fro amidst club meetings and SAC, retiring in his room only for a quick nap. Never setting aback while asking brutally honest questions to anyone irrespective of one's rank or seniority, Abel hosts some unparalleled bunch of facts only to leave one utterly bewildered. Bearing an ever-cool temperament all round the clock, his iconic line, 'ho jayega' spells some magic of reassurance to every other friend around. Despite masquerading his childlike innocence with the look of a professor, Mr. Mathew never conceals his sweet tooth for chocolates and cakes. Having a good taste of food, books and places, all this travel enthusiast needs to explore the world is just the packing of his stuff. Honing very fine skills at coding, graphic design, web and app development, this ambitious spirit successfully bagged the highly acclaimed Goldman Sachs internship in the pre-final year, securing his professional career ahead. Always firm by the line, 'Abel is very able', and aiming higher milestones, this genius will definitely keep inspiring people to ideate and create new goals.

If you want to get a profound understanding of the vast cultural diversity of India, a chit-chat with Ankita is all you need. Hailing from the state of West Bengal and having resided in various states of India, she is a perfect Bengali girl with super-brain with experiences of a lifetime. As the only girl of the branch, she is very special to everyone. Her curiosity to learn everything ever known to humanity (be it music, dance, art, studies; even biology, chemistry and what not!! No wonder in her shifting area of interest every few months) ends with she being even more confused after trying them all out. She is the saviour of the batchmates who maintains colourful notes by attending all classes. All the energy to participate in the lectures comes from her frequent run to grab a tea. She believes that medicine and physics together can transform the world and is striving to pursue a career in biophysics. There doesn't go a day when she doesn't fall from the cycle or bang her head or have some accident. Along with the beautiful notes of her, she also is the sweet distributor for the branch, with different kind of sweets she brings to class every other day. She is the makeup artist of the corridor, and everyone relies on her because of her level of perfection. She has put footsteps in Bharatnatyam and proved to be a great potential dancer. An aspiring bio-physicist, a fashionista and a wonderful host to all friends, she surely is the saviour of the friends. Wishing all the best for her bright future.

RINKESH KUMAR

416PH5046 #Rinkiya #Sadhguru #SaveTrees #SaveRivers #Poet

Rinkesh Kumar aka Rinkiya (naam toh suna hi hogal!) is one of the gems of Department of Physics and Astronomy. The guy with a big heart, calmness is a man of solid principles. With such profound principles, he is one of the most responsible people you'll find. A studious guy with astonishingly clear concepts of the subjects, it is challenging to find someone as traditional and moral as this person. A die-hard fan of Sadhguru, he follows Sadhguru's ideology. As a faithful follower and health-conscious, he does yoga and pranayama daily. But that is not the end of the story, there's an adventure to his life as well, which begins with daily browser history deletion to cursing Manoj Tiwary to the point that he lost the Delhi elections (the highest level of curse word he used is "chuttiya"). One of most cherished memories of all department folks is the day when he brings a chit of paper (not for examinations, as he is the go-to guy before tests to understand doubts) with a beautifully written Hindi poem for all of us. His ability to make you comprehend the entire exam syllabus in one hour and poetry make him the star of the department.

SAINANDAN MOHANTY

416PH5048 #PartyAllNight #Jugaadu #5AMClub #SAC #DesignCodeFintech

Rash hardcore driving, dahibada aficionado and the peculiar mix of laziness and spirit. Of-course we are talking about the land of Balijatra and its unique brethren. If you have a fear of dying in a bike accident, do not sit on the backseat when this guy is driving. But if you have to live your life, take a deep breath, make yourself comfortable and prepare for some abuses because it's going to be a bumpy and adventurous ride ahead. From being an unknown and lost guy in freshman year to being the convenor of eastern India's largest festival Innovision to bagging a prestigious internship at IIMB, Sainandan Mohanty is a real example of what hard work could lead you to. Popularly known as 'Sai', 'Nandan' or 'Mohanty', a proud cuttackia, this soft-spoken, gentle person enters into party mode only on Friday night(read as all Friday nights) and tells his tales the next day. He can escape the toughest of situations with his bunny teeth, that damned smile and of course, his jugaad. His scooty is more popular than himself with half the NITR junta have used it at some point in time or other. This koala bear can make you smile irrespective of what you're going through. No matter what the situation is, this guy would always stand by your side and will make your day with his humorous and intellectual talks. With his constant strive for zenith, this early riser is also someone you'd find smoking up and chilling out with exotic beverages every second day. How he balances all of this still remains a mystery to most. From freelancing in his sophomore year to being an avid stock market analyst, this physics student has touched almost every subject.

SUGANDHRAJ PATEL

416PH5049 #Suggu #ScootyWala #CR

From representing the class as the Class Representative to working hard to impress the professors, he has played a pivotal role in getting classes cancelled and helping batchmates getting extended vacations. He is famous for his dialogue- "Samjh aa rahi na!". He the scooty-guy who can be seen riding the scooty across Rourkela and believes if that anyone except him rides his scooty, it will destroy it. From having a high-performance desktop in his Homi Bhabha Hall of Residence room to being a LabView expert, this guy is known for his experiment analysis skills among all professors. We wish this Class Representative all the best for his future endeavours and leadership.

With his secret formula, he is able to keep his absents just at the brim of grade-backs. As a sincere devout of Lord Hanuman, he leads a pious life with a prayer time for an hour at mornings and evenings every day. He spends more time on cricbuzz app than anything else. From being a meme lover to TikTok hater, he lives life by his own rules, which also includes sitting only on the left side of mess to cast off bad omen. This tall macho guy hits the gym daily and is one of the finest all-rounders in cricket at NITR. If you haven't seen this personality during your four years at NIT Rourkela, you surely missed a lot. Timir Baran Behera with his million-dollar smile is the coolest guy, has all the SIS security guards in his friend circle. From back post to chai shop to MSS Rooftop, he's always ready to chill and have fun. With a broad fan base among the juniors and women, he is aptly described as "Coca-Cola Pepsi, Timir sir is always Sexy". The secret of this talent is still a mystery that many are in search for. From bunking class to leading the group for trips to having out of the world excuses for all being late to class, he is a jugaadu with charm whom even the professors cannot deny. Having represented the institute for Kho Kho, he is hugely acclaimed for his sportsmanship. There are very few of us who could make a living in NITR, and then there's Timir who has his own coaching institute that he set up and runs alongside his studies. We wish this influential teacher and prankster more fun and success in life.

ADITYA DASH

416PH5044 | #ChaturHiran #HallSecretary #Volley #Badminton #Topper #IITIndore

Aditya Dash, the youngest boy (read as boi) of the Class of 2021 Physics department is a Chupa Rustom who is the Amit Shah of Homi Bhabha Hall. From being a cunning politician to a sports champion, there's hardly a stone he left unturned. From smashing opponents in volley and badminton to being the branch topper, he is an all-rounder. It is rumoured that he becomes a black-hole during exam time, if you cross his event horizon, you might forget everything that you have studied for the examination. This researcher has presented his papers in international conferences and wants to explore the whole realm of physics. The budding researcher found his love (not just for physics but also a girl) at IIT Indore and then has been pursuing it fervently. If you ever demand a party from him, he'll take the easy way out and bring to his Hall's Hall-Day and get free coupons for all branch mates. He's the person who can change your surrounding with just his presence who always amazes with his talent to handle all worries, anxieties, hardships like a piece of cake. With an unmatched public relations skill, there isn't a person whom he cannot inspire.

PABITRA SAHU

An enthusiastic boy with a keen interest in Quantum Physics, he enjoys swimming in the ocean of the Quantum realm. A GMAT who finishes at least three revisions of the entire examination syllabus and sleeps when others are burning the midnight oil for a test. He is aptly described as "the one and only spiritual physicist in NIT Rourkela" who is famous for teaching physics among the juniors. He can make you believe in God through Physics and Physics is his nature and his life. The Topper of Physics Branch who diligently studies Bhagavad Gita. Being a soft-hearted person, he knows how to handle situations very patiently. With a lean and thin figure riding a tall bicycle, it seems as if he is flying. His day begins at 4AM with very well planned day and regularly chants HARE KRISHNA mantra to keep his mind and soul clean and sorted. With a charming smile and beautiful art of playing Mrdanga, he is an inspiration for all members of VOICE. We wish this follower of The Supreme all the best for the future.

This Navodayan can frequently be seen gazing into the night sky and loves to click images of the night sky with his mobile-tripod system. A cricket enthusiast and classical songs lover, he is a fan of Kishore Kumar and Lata Mangeshkar. With extensive knowledge on black-holes, singularities and other cosmic topics, he can garner interest for astrophysics in any soul. SUBHASHREE SAHOO
716EE1085

"The goal isn't to live forever, rather it is to create something that will."

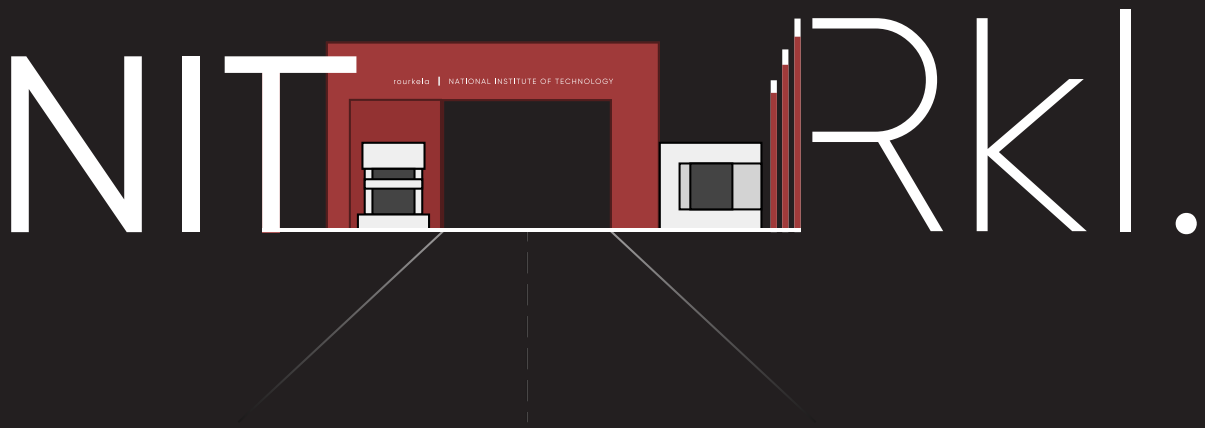

Laughter, love and life: adorning these virtues at every moment, Subhashree sailed through her journey and touched many lives. With a dotting personality, her support to her peers offered her a never-pleasing personality. An epitome of strength, courage and enthusiasm, she proved that life should be lived rather than just existing. She could be seen embracing risks, and yet emerging stronger each time. A vivacious persona, she had spread her unfaltering wings not only in academics, but also in co-curriculars. She vividly expressed herself through art and craft, and left a benchmark for others. An amalgamation of amusing company and a witty sense of humour, she managed to make time for her loved ones even though her work had kept her overtly busy. One of her most adoring traits was the ability to listen to others. She was always there for everyone. Now that she is not amongst us, her perennial smile shall remain forever embedded in our hearts. Her doleful departure left her closed ones and the NITR Junta in a shock! She left for the heavenly abode on 12th December 2019. The Souvenir deeply mourns the loss of such an exemplary persona. May her soul rest in peace!

*My beloved graduating batch,
From where I stand today
I envisage a drowning realm,
Of more dead hopes and darker days.
But you my dear,
Are still seeking the silver lining
Veiled underneath a menacing world.
And when every soul's crying rescue,
Yearning respite of the pandemic,
Your roar of courage resonates beyond
Silencing the naïve dismay and distress.
Oh! Behold thy brace,
For more appraisals floating your way,
Acknowledging what you learnt
All the way I discerned you grow.
Delving more into life than lectures,
Your lessons now soaring across the oceans,
To sail over all sorrow
Holdfast and headstrong.
And for all batches to come,
I will stand firm,
Singing thy success with honor,
For you are now my inspiration
My graduating maestro.*
